IS IT HANCHETTE?

THE MISSING MAN SAID TO HAVE BEEN SEEN.

Robert Farrell Claims to Have Seen Him at Tehama—His Letter About the Affair—Still His Story Is Doubtful.

H. Jay Hanchette has been seen in California during the past week, according to Robert Farrell, who wrote the following letter which was received at the chamber of commerce yesterday:

"CHICO, Cal., Sept. 9, 1891. 'MY DEAR WIGGINS: You will be as much surprised as I was, when I tell you that I met H. J. Hanchette this morning. I got on the train this morning at Tehama to come here, and the first man I got my eyes on was Hanchette. Now, you will think I am mistaken, but I am not. I know the man too well; worked with him too long.

"I went up to him, slapped him on the shoulder and called him by name. All he would say was that I was mistaken; but I know that I am not. In looks he has not changed a bit. His beard is just the same, but his clothes are not so good as they were. He is now wearing one of the suits he used to wear in Los Angeles. His actions are the same, but his voice is changed, and is very much harsher.

"To one party here he gave his name as H. J. Mitchell. At the postoffice this evening he inquired for letters as John Blackman. To me he gave the name of Hamilton. The only thing he would admit was that he had a wife and child. He said he had never heard of the city of Los Angeles. He said he was going to the new mines, Pine Nut, in Nevada.

"Now there is no use. I cannot be mistaken. This is Hanchette; not his double, nor his ghost, because ghosts don't smoke cigarettes.

"I leave here Friday for Greenville in Plumas county. I am traveling for the Co-operative Cigar company of San Francisco; and in about three weeks will be in Pine Nut. My health is about as usual, but I am considerably shaken up over meeting Hanchette.

"I am certain there is no mistake in this. If you care to answer this direct at Susanville, Lassen county. Also send me two or three Los Angeles papers. Have not seen one since I left. Had a letter from home yesterday. Hope this will find you well.

"I remain, yours truly, 'ROBERT FARRELL.'"

As will be seen by his letter Farrell is positive that the man he saw on the train was Hanchette. He knew the missing man very well, having been employed on the HERALD while Hanchette was city editor.

His letter created considerable excitement among those who were made aware of the information contained in it, but after careful consideration, the officers and a number of members of the chamber of commerce are led to believe that the man whom Farrell took for Hanchette was the person encountered by Mrs. Hanchette and others in San Francisco, and who has come to be known as "Hanchette's double."

It is argued that Farrell must have had some doubts about the man he saw being Hanchette, or he would not have taken the slow process of informing his friends in this city.

A strange feature of the story is that the man gave three names. It would seem that a person endeavoring to hide from his friends, if that was the purpose of the man, would not cause suspicion to be directed to him by giving three different names.

Hanchette's friends here are hoping that the story is true and that the missing man is really alive. A dispatch was sent to officers at Chico giving the facts contained in the letter and requesting a search. No reply had been received when this was written.

THE RAILROADS.

Proposed Extension of the Terminal to Santa Ana.

A meeting of citizens was held at Westminster on Wednesday evening to consider the proposition of securing the right of way for the Terminal company to build a railroad from Long Beach to Westminster, Garden Grove, Anaheim and Santa Ana. A. Rimpau, Frank Ey, Dr. Hunt, Pelegrin and Lewis, of Anaheim, Dr. Head, General Pierce, S. D. McKelvey and W. A. Beckett, of Garden Grove, and D. M. Baker, Dr. Burgess, George Mosbaugh, C. M. Beard, Jacob Ross and James McFadden, of Santa Ana, and Frank Ey, of Anaheim; W. A. Beckett and General H. A. Pierce, of Garden Grove, and J. A. McFadden and A. B. Bonham, of Westminster.

A. B. Bonham stated that the Terminal company stood ready to build the proposed railroad, and he thought it was best for the citizens to secure the right of way, and then they would have something definite to offer the company.

A committee was appointed to confer with the Terminal company and ascertain what they proposed, and what they desired the people to do, as follows: A. Rimpau and Frank Ey, of Anaheim; W. A. Beckett and General H. A. Pierce, of Garden Grove, and J. A. McFadden and A. B. Bonham, of Westminster.

NOTES. The Southern California railroad company made $50,000 out of the G. & A. R. encampment at Coronado. The grading on the Peninsular railroad, says the San Diego papers, has been completed from San Quintin almost to Colnett and the work is progressing as rapidly as possible. Track-laying has commenced and will be pushed forward as the material arrives. The company has sufficient rails on hand to lay eighteen miles of track and will purchase the balance of the material from American manufacturers.

The Southern Pacific is hard pushed to find freight cars for the big business in east-bound freight it is doing. President Campbell, of the Santa Monica Wharf and Railroad company, was in the city yesterday. He said work on his line would commence in a short time.

Our Family Physician Recommends Cuticura Remedies, and Says They Cured Our Child.

Father Went 25 Miles to Get Cuticura, and Feels Thankful, and Wants Others to Do as He Did.

My child broke out with scrofula when two months old, and we tried everything that the doctor could do. It took out his hair and broke out on his limbs and nose. It was then CUTICURA REMEDIES were recommended by our doctor who attended him, and is now sitting here. The doctor said CUTICURA REMEDIES cured my child, and recommends them for all diseases of the skin and blood. It did not take but one set of CUTICURA REMEDIES. I went twenty-five miles to get them. My child is well and has a fine head of hair as can be seen, for which I feel thankful to you for my wife is in bad health. I have recommended CUTICURA REMEDIES to others.
