

HARRASSING EGAN.

Serious News Comes From Santiago.

The Chilean Junta Shows Its Resentment.

Indignities Heaped Upon the American Minister.

A Strong Determination to Freeze Him Out or Compel Him to Surrender the Refugees Under His Protection.

Associated Press Dispatches.

New York, Sept. 28.—A Herald cable from Valparaiso says:

News of serious import to the United States government and America generally reaches here today from Santiago. It is to the effect that the leaders of the junta, for what reason does not yet clearly appear, have for the last few days adopted a course which has had the result of harassing Minister Egan. It may be the expression of resentment growing out of the Itata seizure, which has never been rightly understood by the congressionals, but has aroused a strong feeling of antipathy to the United States. Or it may be a determination to make it so unpleasant for Mr. Egan on account of the stories about his sympathy with Balmaceda, as to drive the minister out of Chile.

These are only surmises. The fact is the junta has been endeavoring to induce Mr. Egan to give up all those who have sought refuge in the United States legation. The junta has gone even further than this. It has put forth the claim that it has a right to arrest any one, no matter of what nationality, who may be found on the streets or anywhere else outside the four walls of the legation. In keeping with this claim, a number of foreigners have already been placed under arrest. Among them are three Americans who were engaged in business here.

The matter went so far that every person having occasion to visit the legation was ordered to obtain a permit from the intendente before he was allowed to go into the place. To enforce this rule a force of police were put on guard outside the legation and patrolled the block day and night until Friday last, when Minister Egan entered a most vigorous protest to the whole proceedings. His manner was so earnest that the police were withdrawn. It is said he has referred the entire matter to the authorities at Washington.

ROASTED TO DEATH.

Trainmen Horribly Burned as the Result of a Peculiar Accident.

FARGO, N. D., Sept. 27.—This evening an oil car standing on a sidetrack was set in motion by a switching train, and starting down grade collided with the engine of an incoming stock train, with terrific force. In an instant the oil was ablaze, and the engine plowed through the flaming mass. Engineer J. J. Curtis, Fireman Dodge and Brakeman Benton were instantly enveloped in flames. All jumped and tried to smother the flames in the grass. Dodge was literally roasted to death, while Curtis died shortly afterwards. Benton was badly burned, losing both eyes.

Gray, who is a cripple and walks with a cane, told Russell to desist and at the same time struck Russell with his cane. The latter then drew a bar of iron and struck Gray over the head. Russell is well known in San Jose, Cal., having lived there several years with his wife. Russell was arrested and held without bonds to await the result of Gray's wound.

PROGRESS OF SCIENCE.

ORDNANCE FIRED WITHOUT GENERATING HEAT.

Louis Gathman's Valuable Invention—It Will Save the Wear and Tear of Cannon—Rain Can Also be Produced Thereby—Successful Rain-Making.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Louis Gathman's patent for preventing heat generation in ordnance was tried at Fort Sheridan yesterday, and while the experiment was entirely formal, the new method of discharging projectiles was approved by the officers who witnessed the trial. The gun used by Gathman differs but slightly from the breech-loading rifles in common use. It has a bore of four and one-half inches and is nine feet in length. The main feature of the invention is the saving in wear and tear on ordnance, the use of carbonic acid capsules immeasurably prolonging the life of the rifles in which it is used. The highest form of explosive material can be used, and though the loads yesterday gave a pressure of but 10,000 pounds to the square inch, the same gun with which the experiments were made has been tested to 50,000 pounds, showing the truly destructive force which may be attained by the use of this method.

The government has instructed Gathman to make experiments at Sandy Hook in October. If successful, the new method will be purchased from the inventor and used for those purposes for which it was mainly designed, namely, coast defense and the armament of the American navy. The experiments at Sandy Hook will be the crucial test, and prominent officers from all branches of the service will be present.

ALSO A RAIN-MAKER.

Gathman has become interested in the rain-making problem, and it is believed he has in this compressed acid gas the solution. Accordingly he intends shortly to load a shell with gas, and by means of a five-second fuse explode it in the upper atmosphere, releasing the gas, which, by reason of its intense cold, it having a temperature of 70 degrees below zero, will condense the moisture and precipitate a shower. The experiment will take place at Fort Sheridan some time in October.

SUCCESSFUL RAIN-MAKING.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 27.—A special from Corpus Christi, says: Yesterday the rain-makers made their first experiment here. It was a complete success. Several bombs were discharged, and over each volley a sharp shower fell over a limited area, which was general over the entire city, and continued half an hour. The final experiments here will be made next week, after which the party will go to points on the Mexican National railroad.

LA BELLE FRANCE.

The Mistress of Her Own Destiny.

Minister Ribot's Significant Utterances.

Europe Has at Length Rendered the Republic Justice.

The Prohibition of American Pork Soon to Be Rescinded Both in France and Italy—Old World Echoes.

Associated Press Dispatches.

PARIS, Sept. 27.—Foreign Minister Ribot, at Bapaume, today, unveiled a statue of General Faiderbe. As a general example to the army, he traced the phases of the republic from its foundation, and said: "Henceforth she is mistress of her own destiny. Her position has been consolidated through accession to the principles of prudence and moderation. Europe, whose attitude was for some time uncertain, has at length rendered France justice. A sovereign, far-sighted in pacific designs, and as firm as France, has publicly manifested the deep sympathies uniting the two countries. (Cries of 'Vive le czar!' 'Vive la Russie!') And the Russian nation has joined the czar in extending cordial friendship to France. You know how well these sentiments are reciprocated. The Cronstadt incident found an echoing in the smallest of our hamlets, as much as in our government spheres. Our hearts have been touched by the sentiments of friendship extended to the French sailors; wherever they went, they found the French respected, as was seen in the demonstration in their honor in Denmark and Sweden, and finally in Portsmouth, where Queen Victoria received them in person and accorded them an imposing and courteous welcome. These events have made an impression on the whole world that will not be effaced. France has felt that she is becoming herself in re-entering the European equilibrium as an indispensable factor." (Cheers.)

At a subsequent banquet, Ribot, in alluding to the cabinet with Russia, said the government had completed the work begun by its predecessors upon a point of the highest importance to the future destinies of France, effecting a change in the position which the nation occupied in Europe. (Shouts of "Vive Ribot!") It was a great honor to the ministry to have shared in such events and to have paved the way for them in accordance with parliament and public opinion.

THE BRAZILIAN MARKET.

France Reminded that America is Bidding for it.

PARIS, Sept. 27.—The Brazilian government has approached Ribot in regard to the projected prohibitive tariff on coffee, fixed and approved by the chamber of deputies at 156 francs per hundred kilograms. Brazil takes annually 90,000,000 francs worth of French products, and among the leading arguments used to induce the senate to modify the proposed tariff is the danger of Brazil retaliating, a result which would aid the American scheme to capture the Brazilian markets.

CHEYENNE, Sept. 27.—At 2 o'clock this morning a disguised desperado, whose voice betrayed him as Curley Troy, a sneak thief given privileges during two incarcerations, held up the guard of the Laramie county jail, here, and quietly liberated Charles Miller, a boy double murderer under death sentence, and Frank B. Parkinson, a soldier, convicted of killing a comrade, and ordered to prison for twelve years. "Guard Kelly was walking around the corridor, when 'open quick,' the signal of the sheriff's office, was nervously rattled on the iron door. Kelly opened it and looked into a six-shooter. Kelly was now seated in big chair, gagged and handcuffed. Curley took the keys and released Parkinson and Miller and left the prison. Kelly succeeded in getting free and gave the alarm.

Miller foully murdered in a box car Ross T. Fishburg and Charles Waldo Emerson, of St. Joseph, Mo. They were respectable young men traveling as tramps for a lark. Miller assassinated them to get $75. He was tried, found guilty and sentenced to death in May last. Execution was deferred on a motion for a new trial, to come before the supreme court October 5th.

THE SAN QUENTIN PLOT.

The Man Who Smuggled the Arms Into the Prison Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—S. W. Sullivan, of Watsonville, Cal., was yesterday arrested on the charge of having furnished arms and ammunition to prisoners in the state prison at San Quentin, in order to assist them in making their escape. The whole plot is now known. Sullivan's brother, C. C. Sullivan, is serving fifty years in the prison for murder. The brothers communicated through George C. Welles, who is in for three years for stealing a letter. Welles was employed as a servant in the house of the prison physician, who lives outside the walls. Sullivan, of Watsonville, gave the arms to Welles wrapped in rubber. Welles put them in a bucket of milk, which he carried daily into prison. Once there, they were given to the other Sullivan, and then to Abraham Turcott, a life convict, who was the leader in the plot. After awhile Welles became frightened and confessed to the prison officials, who watched the men, and three weeks ago, believing the crisis was at hand, arrested seven of them and placed them in solitary confinement. Friday they confessed and gave up the weapons, which were secreted under the floor of the carpenter shop.
