A Protest Made Against Belligerent Action on the Part of the United States Toward the Republic of Chile.

Associated Press Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Rev. Reese F. Aleop of Brooklyn opened the second day's proceedings of the Protestant Episcopal church congress, with an address on Socialism.

Prof. Gould of Philadelphia said a serious evil of the socialistic system was the destruction of individuality.

Rev. William Prall of Detroit spoke of the prevailing discontent among the laboring classes, based on the belief that they failed to receive their share of the world's wealth.

Rev. Mr. Huntington of New York agreed with Dr. Kirkus, but from exactly opposite reasons he was not a Socialist, but recognized that there was discontent among the people.

At the evening session, the topic was The Relations of the Clergy to Politics.

FLAMES IN SAINT PAUL.

ONE OF THE WORST FIRES IN THE CITY'S HISTORY.

A Large Five-Story Brick and Stone Structure, Occupied by Two Wholesale Firms, Reduced to Ruins—The Losses Aggregate Nearly $1,000,000.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 18.—St. Paul last night suffered one of the most disastrous fires in its history, the buildings burned being those of Griggs, Cooper & Co., wholesale grocers, and Farwell, Ozeman, Kirk & Co., wholesale hardware.

The flames first made their appearance at 11:44 o'clock in the fourth floor of Griggs, Cooper & Co. Within less than five minutes the fire department was on hand in force.

The fire in Griggs, Cooper & Co.'s building burned down to the ground floor. The fire department fought valiantly against terrible odds, and at 3:30 the walls fell.

The building belonged to D. C. Shepard. It was estimated to be worth $200,000. The losses are estimated as follows: Farwell, Ozeman & Kirk, $400,000, with insurance $350,000; Griggs, Cooper & Co., $55,000 on building and stock, loss, $55,000, fully insured; total loss, $850,000.

Queen Liliuokalani Reported in Good Health—British High-Rollers Arrested for Robbing a Bank in Sydney.

Associated Press Dispatches.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—The steamship Australia arrived this morning, seven days from Honolulu. Advices, were received at the islands October 2d, to the effect that the situation in Samoa was strained, and that at King Malietoa's request the faipule had agreed to issue a proclamation declaring Mataafa a rebel.

HAWAIIAN MATTERS.

The Hawaiian planters held a convention at Honolulu, beginning October 26th, and discussed a number of important topics, among them the foreign labor question, and the advisability of the extensive raising of coffee and tea on the islands.

Ex-Attorney-General Ashford published an article October 30th, in which he charged the press of Honolulu with being afraid to frankly discuss the situation arising out of the changed conditions of reciprocity with the United States, produced by the free sugar section of the McKinley bill.

One hundred Japanese on Ewa plantation, who celebrated their emperor's birthday by going on a strike, were arrested November 4th, and sentenced to pay $3 cents, each, for refusing to perform contract service.

The United States steamer Pensacola is at Honolulu. The United States steamer Charleston had not arrived there when the Australia left the islands.

THE QUEEN IN GOOD HEALTH.

Consul McKinley's advices from Honolulu, under date of November 11th, are to the effect that the rumors regarding the ill health of Queen Liliuokalani, which have appeared in American and English newspapers, are without any foundation whatsoever, and receive no attention in Honolulu where the facts are known.

ROBBED A BANK.

British Yacht Owners Arrested at Honolulu on a Grave Charge.

HONOLULU, Nov. 11.—The British yacht Beagle arrived here about September 1st with the owners, Messrs. Bloom and Douglas, on board, who spent money lavishly while here. On the arrival of the steamer Australia from the colonies last month it was announced that the Westminster bank of Sydney had been robbed of over 50,000 sovereigns, and photographs brought by a detective who came on the steamer tailed, it is claimed, with the appearance of the owners of the yacht.

The detective then went to San Francisco to cable to Sydney for further instructions as there is no treaty between Australia and Hawaii covering the case in point.
