

HOLIDAY RACES.

The Gallopers That Will Run in This City.

Fourteen Horses Entered in One Race.

Many Crack Sprinters Coming to Los Angeles.

Acclaim and Nevada to Be Here—Oregon Eclipse, Fox, Jim Duffy, Ida Glenn and Other Fast Ones Coming to This City.

The holiday race meeting promoted by the Los Angeles association promises to be a success, judging by the entries received. Some of the speediest horses in the state are entered. Such celebrated sprinters as Fox, Ida Glenn, Jim Duffy and Oregon Eclipse are entered. It is not often that such first-class horses as Acclaim, Nevada and John Treat meet. L. J. Rose enters two fashionably bred 2-year-olds, one of which is the speedy Motto. The following is the complementary list:

THE CHURCHES. Features of Some of Yesterday's Sermons. Dr. Stewart preached at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. His text was Mark 10-14, the main thought being that of child-life as an important factor in the kingdom of God. He also dwelt upon Christ's estimate of child-life, and found, in His treatment of women and children, the highest type of manliness. He is the only historic character to be taken as such a model. A man who is always ready to stand up for the rights of women and children, no matter in what condition they might be, is one of the highest and noblest of men. Beware of a man who sneers at his mother's or sister's sex, and one who, posing as a gentleman, insults a woman, even though she be an outcast. The basic fact of a good government and church lies in true man and womanhood and not in "society," the worship of mammon or politics, for to enter heaven you must humble yourself. To found a dynasty a man must lay the foundation in the minds of the children. It is, and always has been, a fact that you cannot make much out of the present generation, because it is already made. The past generation made it thirty years ago. Some men are crying for the "good old days" again; would that they were gone forever and we could begin anew. The outcome of the present social problem is still obscure. What will be the result of the stream pouring in on us from abroad? How will it be in fifty years' time? What ever else may be done by the people of the country, do not neglect the boys and girls. Look after them with reference to the future of the church and the nation.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH. An excellent sermon was delivered yesterday by Dr. Manwell of Pasadena. He took Hebrews iv. 15-16 for his subject, the main thought being the high priesthood of Christ. Christ, he said, was tempted like the rest of men and in that respect was human, but temptations have no force with those possessing divine power. The divinity of Christ was separate from his body and soul. Ministers might do forth their best efforts, but Christ was the only connection between God and man and His is the only way to heaven. TRINITY METHODIST. Communion was administered at Trinity church yesterday. Two persons were admitted by letter, and a baptism took place. T. R. Curtis, presiding elder of the district of Los Angeles, preached an able, practical sermon, the main thought being faith in Christ, the foundation of the church. He spoke of the meeting of Christ with the apostles when He asked them who they thought Him to be and Peter answered "You are Jesus Christ," and He answered that upon this do I found the church. There were those who believed He said that Peter was what the Savior meant; but on the contrary, He meant by that faith in Himself—the foundation.

FIRST BAPTIST. Rev. Geo. B. Reed gave a very able talk, taking First Corinthians, vi., 20, as the text. "Ye are not your own, but ye are bought with a price." Our bodies are temples, the abode of a spirit, as was the temple of Solomon, and the new dispensation teaches that the bodies of Christians are temples, because the spirit of God dwells in them, and they should never be open to any other use than the service of God. Because He is our preserver and we are His by right of preservation, His by right of obligation, for He made us and we have voluntarily consecrated ourselves to Him. No gold or silver was paid for us, but the precious blood of the Savior was the price, rendered so by contact with His divinity. We are His by contract, and we should see that our strength is devoted to the service of the Lord, and we will reign with Him hereafter. Sixteen persons joined the church yesterday, one by baptism and fifteen by letter. An interesting service was also held last night. The sermon, Lost Sinners

Saved in Christ, was illustrated with stereopticon views. CHRIST CHURCH. Bishop Nichols yesterday confirmed fourteen new members. There were present and assisting in the services, Rev. J. D. Easter, D. D.; Rev. Henderson Judd of Chicago and Rector of the Parish Rev. T. W. Haskins, D. D. The bishop's sermon was on the Church of the Living God. It was an able, clear and powerful address, showing the relation of the church to the truth. It was the bulwark of revealed truth, not scientific or undiscovered truth, but religious and moral truth, as contained in holy scripture. The subject was elaborately brought out and honestly presented as the guide and help for all persons who wished to be guided by truth. To the confirmed he spoke on the holy scriptures. They should make them a subject not merely of formal reading but of study, and especially in the matter of the second coming of Christ, of which this season was a reminder. The bishop congratulated the rector, vestry and congregation on having gotten the church and lot, and also on the prospect of great increase in their numbers. A large number participated in the communion service, and the pretty little church was entirely filled. The following gentlemen compose the vestry: J. A. Anderson, Wm. Pridham, Cameron E. Thom, Albert M. Stephens and Thos. L. Winder. DR. CHICHESTER'S SERMON. Dr. Chichester spoke yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. hall to a crowd of young men. He spoke on the Christian's Armour, and told how the association was indirectly the means of bringing the speaker to his calling. When a boy in the city of Baltimore he was given one of the Y. M. C. A. membership cards and asked to take hold of the work. He did so, and from his interest in the work he began to get hold of what Mr. Beecher called "the handle of his being" and was thereby led into the Christian ministry. He spoke of the armor as being composed of the girdle of truth, the breastplate of righteousness, the shoes of gospel readiness, the helmet of faith, the helmet of salvation and the sword of God's work. After services in the hall, a short meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. parlors. CHRISTIAN CHURCH REVIVAL. The revival that has for the past few weeks been in progress at the Christian church closed last night. It resulted in fifty-four accessions to the church and a general enlivenment of church fervor. Evangelist Wight preached his concluding sermon yesterday morning on Christian Union, insisting upon union in church work in local congregations. The pastor, Rev. A. C. Smithers, preached a powerful sermon last night on the Salvation of the Soul. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity. Rev. Wight has gone to Santa Ana to conduct a meeting there. He made many friends in Los Angeles whose prayers follow him.

AMUSEMENTS. Pretty May Haines is again to visit Los Angeles as Ethel Lincoln in Mr. Potter of Texas, at the Grand, December 9th and 10th. When last here, as Madeline West in Charles Frohman's Shenandoah, she was one of the three beautiful girls that Teddy Marks delighted to exploit. Opinions varied as to whether the palm should be given to Miss Haines or Nannette Comstock, with perhaps a trifle in favor of the former. In Mr. Potter of Texas, Miss Haines as Ethel Lincoln is a direct rival to Jeffrey Lewis as Lady Annerly for the love of Charles Erroll. Miss Haines made one of the most pronounced hits of the entire cast in Mr. Potter of Texas in Chicago recently, one of the critics going so far as to describe her success as a "Crown of glory."

It is announced that Mrs. Modin-Wood will sing at the organ recital at Immanuel church on Wednesday evening. Ascher's German Comedy company at Turner hall last evening gave two one-act plays as a benefit for Mrs. Overueg, whose husband left her destitute some weeks ago. Mr. Ascher is a fine comedian, and has a world-wide fame among Germans. When he arrived, in September, he organized a fine company of actors and made contract with the Los Angeles theater to play a season of German comedy. The dramatic section of the Turnverein looked upon this innovation as a sort of opposition, and almost officially the new company was boycotted by the members of the Turnverein. The consequence was that though the performance in the Los Angeles theater was better than anything that had ever been offered the Turnverein contingent locally, the experiment proved a failure from lack of patronage. The series of plays which had been contemplated were therefore discontinued, and Mr. Ascher and his company dropped below the horizon. Last evening there was a reappearance, and the people who would not play on the Turner hall stage, because they desired to reach beyond so limited a field, played on the Turner hall stage a benefit for the family of a Turner hall barkeeper who ran off with a Turner-hall sobrette. The story of this elopement was told in all its details in the HERALD when it occurred. Overueg, who ran away with Jennie Halmer, left behind him a wife and two children in the most indigent circumstances. Mr. Ascher and his manager, Bernard Loewy, have decided apparently to bury the hatchet, and the Overueg benefit has given them an opportunity to ingratiate themselves once more with the Turnverein. The chances are that the boycott will be lifted.
