The University President Buried on Yesterday.

New Year's day was a sad one at University place, for Dr. M. M. Bovard, president of the University, whose death occurred last Wednesday afternoon, was buried. The funeral services were held in University M. E. church at 10 o'clock a. m. Dr. A. C. Williams, pastor, conducted the services, assisted by Revs. Knights, Green, Campbell, Maclay, Sinsabaugh and Dr. Widney and Judge R. M. Widney. Many of Mr. Bovard's old friends and associates from neighboring towns were present to do honor to the deceased, and the flag swung at half-mast on the University building. The pall-bearers were J. W. Van Cleve, E. W. Caswell, F. F. Breesee, S. A. Thomson, Dr. Widney, H. C. Huxbell.

Dr. Bovard was born in 1847 in Indiana, volunteered in the union army, but was refused on account of his youth. From 1865 to 1869 he practiced medicine. In 1869 he became a preacher. In 1873 he came to California, settling in Los Angeles county, filling pulpits in several towns in the county. He was a charter member of the Southern California conference which organized in 1875. In 1879 he became interested in educational work, and in 1880 he was elected president of the newly organized University of Southern California, which office he held up to the time of his death. He has been at the helm of that institution in its victories and its trials. He gave it his entire time up to the time of his illness a year ago. He was granted a vacation, but he continued to grow worse until he died, although everything possible was done to help him.

STEWART IS SORRY.

The Nevada Senator Does Not Like Senator Hill's Silver Policy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—Senator Stewart of Nevada has written a letter to Senator David B. Hill in reply to the speech made by the latter yesterday in Albany. Of that passage of the speech assuring Bland of the respect and admiration of support of the Democracy of New York if he will move the repeal of the present law, the letter says: "Are you aware, Mr. Hill, that this is the old story; that the people of the south and west have been assured ever since silver was rejected as money, of the respect and admiration of the New York Democracy if they would cooperate with the representatives of gold in contracting the real money of the world to gold alone? In a recent speech at Elmira you advocated free bimetallic coinage; in your Albany speech of New Year's, you advocated the repeal of the act of 1890, which gives the people more money by the difference between the silver certificates issued on the coinage of $24,000,000 worth of silver per annum, and the amount of the treasury notes issued in the purchase of 54,000,000 ounces of silver bullion each year."

Then the letter says the present silver act must inevitably lead to bimetallic coinage to prevent the depreciation of silver, and asserts that it is because of the recognition of this fact that the gold men, to prevent the passage of a free coinage act, propose to repeal the law of 1890. Senator Stewart adds: "I am sorry, if you are really in favor of free bimetallic coinage, as declared in your Elmira speech, that you have fallen into the trap set by the gold trust, and are now willing to aid them in their efforts to confine the real money of the world to gold alone."

Congressman Perkins Appointed to Succeed Senator Plumb.

TOPEKA, Jan. 1.—The appointment of ex-Congressman Perkins to succeed the late Senator Plumb had been expected all day, and no one, either citizen or politician, evinced any very remarkable surprise when the announcement of his appointment was made this evening. The appointment gives general satisfaction, and will, it is thought, have the effect of solidifying the factions in the Republican party.

Bishop W. Perkins was born in Rochester, Ohio, and was 52 years old October 15th, last. He was educated in the public schools and at Knox college at Galena, Ill. After leaving college he went to Colorado, and on his return in 1862 enlisted in company D, 83d Illinois volunteers. He served as sergeant and lieutenant and in December, 1863, was appointed adjutant of the 16th Colorado infantry. He served as judge advocate on the staff of General Gillen, and also in the same position on the staff of General Steadman. He ministered out at Nashville in May, 1866, returning to Illinois where he resumed the study of law at Ottawa. After being admitted to the bar in 1867 he located at Pierceton, Ind. He came to Oswego, Kansas, in April, 1869; the same year was appointed county attorney, and the following year was appointed probate judge. He held this office till February 1, 1873, when he was elected judge of the seventh judicial district, was re-elected in 1874 and 1875, and in November, 1882, was elected to congress. Perkins is a Republican, sincere in his convictions and aggressive in his expressions. He was re-elected three successive terms, but met defeat a year ago at the hands of the Farmers' Alliance.

FUN FOR CHICAGO BOYS.

A Tin Horn Brigade Nearly Drives a Chinaman Into the Lake.

CHICAGO, Jan. 1.—Five hundred boys armed with tin horns attempted to drive a Chinaman, Lee Wap, into the lake a little after 12 o'clock this morning. The boys had obtained the horns to assist in welcoming the new year, but seeing Lee at State and Madison street one of the merry-makers thrust a horn to his ear and blew. He retaliated by smashing the horn. The corner is the most central point in the city, and seemingly in a twinkling 500 boys with horns gathered and vociferously crowded the now frenzied Lee. A voice in the crowd shouted, "Kill the heathen!" Another, "Throw him into the lake!" All were anxious for excitement, and scarcely had the proposition been made before it was shouted over and over by hundreds. The Chinaman started to run south on State street, but was quickly flanked and driven east on Madison toward the lake. Hatless and with pigtail and robes flying in the wind, the Chinaman dashed across the lake front common, straight toward the piers. The mob almost had hands on him within fifty feet of the choppy waves, when a rapidly passing suburban train was boarded by the Celestial. He was seen to jump off on the other side, and either fell into the water or took refuge in the labyrinth of freight trains near at hand. The disappointed mob patrolled the shore for an hour, vying with the tugboat whistles in welcoming 1892.

A TERRIFIC BLIZZARD.

Kansas and Missouri Have a Stormy New Year's Day.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 1.—A terrific blizzard was raging in Kansas and North-western Missouri today. It began last night with a heavy rain and thunder-storm. About midnight the weather began to get cold, and a sleet-storm set in and crippled the telegraph and telephone service. This morning it began to snow, the snow drifting badly along the lines of all the railroads, and trains are delayed in all directions. Trains from Chicago due early this morning were all from three to five hours late and western trains were in a still worse plight.

The storm ceased here about noon, and advices from Kansas and Missouri state that it ceased storming about the same time in those states. Considerable snow fell in some localities. The storm did little or no damage; on the contrary, it benefited the winter wheat crop.

Orange Land, with Water, $13.75 Per Acre. Special Excursion to Gila Bend, Ariz., Tuesday, Jan. 5, 1892. The Gila Bend Reservoir and irrigation company of Arizona have two hundred and fifty thousand acres of government land under their canal system subject to entry under the homestead or desert land laws which can be secured at $13.75 per acre, including a perpetual water right of one inch to three acres. These lands are adapted to the raising of citrus fruits as well as all other products common to a semi-tropic climate. The special committee of the United States Senate, report No. 925, part 1, May 5, 1890, page 60, after seeing Southern California and Santa Cruz rivers in southern Arizona, says of the Gila valley land: 'WITHIN OUR BORDER THERE CAN NOT BE FOUND A SOIL SO UNIFORMLY FERTILE AND SO CAPABLE OF YIELDING PRODUCTIONS UNDER IRRIGATION AS THAT OF THE VALLEYS OF THE GILA, SALT AND SANTA CRUZ RIVERS IN SOUTHERN ARIZONA. ANALYSIS OF THIS SOIL SHOWS ITS FERTILE QUALITIES TO BE SUPERIOR TO THAT OF THE NILE EARTH.' Over four thousand acres of this Gila valley land has just been taken up by a colony of Riverside fruit growers, which is sufficient evidence of its superiority to any other soil. ARCHBISHOP KENRICK. He is Old, Ill and Opposes the Appointment of a Coadjutor. St. Louis, Jan. 1.—The continued illness of Archbishop Kenrick is creating much uneasiness among the clergy and laity of his diocese. The anxiety is doubled by the fact that he still persists in his refusal to consider the appointment of a coadjutor. The priests have taken the matter up and will, it is said, attempt to enforce the decree of the last council of Baltimore, giving the priests a right to vote for the election of a bishop or coadjutor.
