GLADSTONE'S BAD BREAK.

His Snub of the Working-men Keenly Felt.

His Colleagues Consider It a Tactical Mistake.

The Conservative Leaders Making the Most of the Error.

The Labor Question Foremost in British Politics—Tories Say Home Rule Will Create Civil War in Ireland—Cable News.

Associated Press Dispatches.

LONDON, May 6.—(Copyright, 1892, by the New York Associated Press.) Gladstone's refusal to receive delegates from the workingmen's conference who desired to present the eight-hour question, is felt by the rank and file of the Liberal party to have been a tactical mistake. Taking advantage of the mistake, the London Conservative members have decided to influence the government to take the opposite course. At a meeting of Liberal members they hesitated to condemn the action of Gladstone, and therefore referred the matter to a committee with instructions to report Tuesday.

The Conservatives stole a march by inducing Salisbury and Balfour to receive a deputation of trades union representatives. They, however, will not be duped into supposing that the Conservatives are more anxious in the cause of labor than the Liberals. Nor will either Salisbury or Balfour commit themselves to the eight-hour movement. But it is doubted that the result of the conference will place the labor movement at the head of the progress of both political parties, to the embarrassment of the Liberal chief, who is pledged to home rule first.

Gladstone's organ, the Speaker, will say tomorrow that the enemies of home rule, despairing of success by open attack, seek to divert the attention of the Liberal masses from the Irish question and convert certain victory into a rout. Such expressions, coming from the Liberal press, are suggestive of the strong alarm prevailing lest the party be wrecked on the labor difficulty before Salisbury's trend is known.

The Times upheld Gladstone's refusal to receive the delegation, and denounced the efforts of the labor leaders to extort pledges at this stage of the movement as an outrageous attempt to overbear the judgment of parliament.

This criticism, however, does not affect the satisfaction of the Conservatives over the policy of the leaders who are now obviously harassing the Liberals and attracting toward the government a strong body of workingmen. The official Unionist paper declares that the action of Gladstone chilled the hearts of the workingmen which were once warm toward him to the core.

THE GENERAL ELECTION.
At a conference of the Liberal election agents, Schnadharst calculated that the general election will give the Liberals a majority of seventy-seven in the next house, and held that the labor complications would exert only a minor influence.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt, at the conference, stated that the elections were certain to be held at the commencement of July, following the Ulster convention at Belfast and the Irish Unionist convention at Dublin.

ORANGEMEN BUYING ARMS.
Sir William asserted that the Orange lodges were privately subscribing money for the purchase of arms to carry out the threats to rebel rather than submit to an Irish parliament.

Whether the Tories really believe an armed conflict would follow the establishment of an Irish parliament, they assume sincerity and cultivate the belief that civil war would be the outcome of home rule.

Salisbury's private secretary has written an Oxford clergyman to the end that "his lordship was glad to see you impress upon the electors the probability that home rule would produce the greatest of all curses—a religious civil war."

After this, it is no wonder to hear of men drilling in Ireland, and that rifles and munitions of war are being stored in England.

FIFTHIAN'S FREE SHIP BILL.
Fithian's free ship bill, and the report that the Inman line will build two ships in America, is causing considerable discussion in English shipping circles.

The first effect of the passage of the Fithian bill, according to English opinion, will be to advance the value of English tramp steamers, many of which will replace the wooden sidewheel steamers now engaged in the American coasting trade. The subsequent result will be that some of the large Atlantic lines will be put under the American flag. In regard to the Inman line, the Clyde builders hold that the building of vessels in America will add one-fourth to the cost, besides extra expenditures for the wages of officers, engineers, seamen and firemen.

BELLE BILTON TAKES TO HORSES.
The Countess Clancarty, nee Belle Bilton, the famous music hall singer, has adopted a novel method of getting into "society" by joining a select circle of lady horse-owners. Her horse Sunlight ran in the Galway hunt, but was beaten.

NO PETITION FOR DEEMING.
No petition in Deeming's case has yet been lodged with the judicial committee of the privy council. If a petition has been forwarded from Australia it will be promptly refused a hearing.

CAPTAIN VERNYER LIBERATED.
Captain Vernyer, formerly a member of parliament, who was imprisoned for attempting to procure a young girl for immoral purposes, and who, upon conviction, was expelled from the house of commons, has been released from Holloway jail, his term having expired. He has gone to his estate in Wales, where he will live in the strictest seclusion and privacy.

AN AFRICAN EXPLORER.
An expedition to leave England, June 1st, to explore the portion of the Dark Continent yet unknown, will be led and entirely equipped by William Astor Chandler, a young American known to all interested in African exploration, for his daring trips through Masailand some three years ago. Chandler is a son of the late John Winthrop Chandler, and a grandson of the famous Sam Ward.

FIENDISH CRUELTY.
A Little Girl Tortured to Death by Her Stepmother.

LONDON, May 6.—The second wife of James Clark, a carman, was arraigned today on the charge of having caused the death of her step-daughter, aged 9 years. She was committed for trial, and the husband severely censured for not having prevented the cruelties that led to the death of his daughter. The evidence showed that the child was treated with the greatest brutality; she was often tied to balusters, and kept there seven hours at a stretch. Mrs. Clark frequently beat her terribly with a strap or heavy cane, and often when she claimed the girl was telling falsehoods, she tied strings tightly about her tongue, and left her for hours to suffer excruciating torture. The child finally gave way and died. The physician testified that but for the ill-usage to which she was subjected, and lack of food, the child would have been perfectly healthy.

ROME AND FRANCE.
Refractory Bishops' Salaries Reduced. The Pope's Sage Advice.

PARIS, May 6.—The council of state condemned the pastoral of the archbishop of Avignon. The salaries of the bishops of Montpellier, Valence, Nîmes and Viviers have been stopped. The pope's letter to the French cardinal repeats his former advice to support the republic, but adds comments which minimize the force of the injunction. The pith of the letter is contained in the pope's declaration that it is impossible to defend religion while suspected of using it as a weapon against the government. "You must first," he says, "gain the confidence of the government by your support of the republic, when instead of being repulsed as hypocritical adversaries, you will have to be treated and listened to as allies."

THE COMING KAISER.
William's Eldest Son Installed as Youngest Lieutenant in the Army.

BERLIN, May 6.—Crown Prince Frederick William, the German emperor's eldest son, was 10 years old today, and in accordance with the long-established custom, became the youngest lieutenant in the army, being assigned to the First regiment of guards. The ceremony of installing the crown prince was witnessed by all the members of the imperial family, and a brilliant assembly of members of the royal families from all parts of the empire. After the prince had taken his place in the regiment, the emperor headed the troops in a march past the empress. A grand banquet in honor of the occasion was given at the castle this afternoon, at which the emperor toasted his son and heir.

GOT MAD AND RESIGNED.
The Resignations of the Italian Cabinet in King Humbert's Hands.

ROME, May 6.—The Marquis di Rudini, prime minister, today tendered King Humbert the resignations of all the members of the cabinet, due to the refusal yesterday of the chamber of deputies to adopt a vote of confidence in the government's financial policy of retrenchment, the finances of Italy being in a bad way.

Rudini announced the resignation of the cabinet to the deputies today, and added, however, that King Humbert reserved his decision in the matter, and in the mean time the present ministry would continue in office.

King Humbert has not yet accepted the resignations of the ministers, and is undecided what course to pursue.

Russia Preparing for War.
LONDON, May 6.—The Sebastopol correspondent of the Standard says: Preparations for war in Russia have never been more active than now. There is a continuous movement of veteran troops to the frontiers of the country, and the calling of the successive categories of reserves in the interior has commenced. The reserves will be forwarded to various points of concentration where they can in the easiest manner reinforce the regulars in the Polish frontiers on the Austrian and German frontiers. The naval transport preparations are nearly completed.

Dynamiters Again at Work.
LIEGE, Belgium, May 6.—A powerful cartridge was found this evening in the doorway of the residence of Baron Selysson, the scene of one of last Sunday's explosions. The fire attached to the cartridge failed to burn. At the police examination of the Anarchist prisoners today Beaujean confessed that he, Moineau and Wolf had stolen a quantity of Faiver powder and used it in connection with cartridges to blow up St. Martin's church and a court minister's residence.

WATER-SOAKED STATES.

The Mississippi Valley a Vast Lake.

Nearly All the Streams Out of Their Banks.

Cities in Illinois, Indiana and Iowa Badly Inundated.

Chicago's Water Supply Polluted by Sewage—Damage at Peoria and Ottawa—A Big Storm at Washington, D. C.

Associated Press Dispatches.

CHICAGO, May 6.—As the result of the tremendous rain this week, there is grave danger that the immense amount of sewage now being discharged into the lake will reach the crib and pollute the city's water supply. The officials hope that the flood may subside in time to enable them to begin pumping back into the Illinois and Michigan canal. At present the pumping works which perform this duty are idle, the water in the canal being so high that it sets into the river, and it is useless to use the pumps. The water in the river today was several inches higher than yesterday, and the current was so strong that the movement of vessels was dangerous. A collision resulted today, in which a sailor was killed. In many of the city basements floods remained, and until the river is lower to give the sewers full capacity not much change can be expected.

So far as the railroads are concerned the worst effects of the great storm have been overcome and traffic is being resumed, though it will be several days before business resumes its usual regularity. It is reported that Marian, from Union to Homewood, is one vast lake. In the vicinity of Joliet, Lockport and other points in northern Illinois, a vast amount of damage has been done, and the waters are not showing any signs of subsiding.

A DELUGE AT PEORIA.
PEORIA, May 6.—The dyke of the La Marsh drainage district, in the lower end of this city, gave way shortly after 7 o'clock this evening, flooding a district about five miles long and two and a half miles wide. This was all reclaimed land and under cultivation. About twenty families live there, and the greatest excitement prevails at Peoria, directly opposite. It is feared some of these people perished in the rush of waters. Rescuing parties are going out from Peoria. The Illinois river is higher than it has been since 1844.

THE FLOOD AT OTTAWA.
OTTAWA, May 6.—Heavy rains today brought the flood up two feet higher. On the south side boats were removing people from the water-soaked homes. The electric railway powerhouse is partially submerged and the line abandoned. The glass factory district is under water. Great furrows have been made in many streets, and culverts, sewers and drains are rendered worthless by the flood. The loss in this city alone is fully $75,000. Marseilles, La Salle and Perry are without electric light or gas tonight.

THE MISSISSIPPI BOOMING.
KEOKUK, May 6.—The Mississippi has been rapidly rising the past two days. The lowlands are submerged, crops ruined and farmers are taking their stock and families to high ground for protection. The small levees along the Des Moines and Fox rivers have broken and large tracts are under water. The main levee, however, is yet safe.

Alexander Moise was drowned, and people are traveling about in boats. Should the rise continue much longer, the disastrous flood of four years ago will be repeated.

GREENVILLE, Miss., May 6.—The Mississippi river tonight is higher than any previous record and is still rising; the levees, however, are in good condition.

A STORM AT WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, May 6.—A severe rain and wind storm passed over the city this afternoon, ruining several houses and prostrating trees. The steeple of the Hamline church, in the northern part of the city, was blown off and crushed the adjoining buildings. No lives were lost, but the damage to property throughout the city is several thousand dollars.

A CYCLONE STRIKES GETTYSBURG.
GETTYSBURG, Pa., May 6.—This afternoon a cyclone struck this place, unroofing several houses and doing much minor damage. A Mrs. Willard was severely injured.

THE FRESHET AT KANSAS CITY.
KANSAS CITY, May 6.—Owing to the recent heavy rains the Kaw river rose to an alarming extent, but is now falling. Considerable damage was done in Argentine and Armourdale. The Missouri river has risen four feet in two days. No damage has resulted, but should the rains continue the low lying portions of the city will be inundated.

INJURED INNOCENCE.
Russell Harrison Replies to the Yellowstone Park Charges.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The Mail and Express prints an interview with Russell Harrison concerning the alleged issue of stock to him by the Yellowstone Park association. Harrison, in substance, says the attempt of Gibson to make it appear that stock was issued for him (Harrison) in his association, is a malicious effort to drag him into a matter with which he has had no connection.

He added that Gibson has preferred charges against every secretary of the interior since his association drove Ruthe Hatch out of the park. They always made a determined effort to have a monopoly of everything in the park and run things as they pleased.

Hard on the Missionaries.
NEW YORK, May 6.—A Washington correspondent telegraphs his paper thus: "I am assured upon the highest authority that there is no likelihood that the Peking government will sever its commercial or diplomatic relations with the United States, but it is not improbable that the American missionaries in China may soon have their privileges abridged and have certain petty annoyances practiced upon them."

A BIG BLAZE IN GOTHAM.
Slaughter Houses and a Wharf Burned. Loss a Quarter of a Million.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Early this morning a fire started in the immense slaughter house of Schwartzchild & Sulzburger, wholesale butchers, on Forty-fifth street and East river. The building contained large quantities of inflammable matter and these were soon a mass of flames. From there the fire spread to the pier at the foot of Forty-fifth street, then along the wharf to Forty-seventh street. Vessels anchored near the docks were immediately towed out into the stream. During the fire 500 head of cattle in an adjoining shed were turned loose and went tearing through the streets in a panic. There were many narrow escapes from being trampled to death by the infuriated animals.

The loss to the buildings, contents and the wharf is estimated at a quarter of a million dollars.

ESCAPES RECAPTURED.
The Witnesses of the Champion and Ray Killing Overhauled.

CRAWFORD, Neb., May 6.—William Walker and Ben Jones were arrested last night by Marshal Morrison on a telegram from Wyoming. The two men are important witnesses in the killing of Champion and Ray in Wyoming, and escaped from the Buffalo jail a day or so ago. Cattlemen arrived in Crawford today and demanded the prisoners, who asked for protection from the cattlemen. A train was sent from Chadron, and the prisoners and the marshal taken there half an hour ahead of the regular train, on which were several rustlers and cattlemen. Considerable excitement prevails, and much feeling is shown in favor of the prisoners and against the cattlemen.

CONDENSED CABLEGRAMS.
The mikado opened the Japanese parliament Friday.

The head of the Hammerslein banking house, of Berlin, has suicided.

Prof. August Wilhelm Hoffman, the distinguished German chemist, is dead. The Berlin Tagblatt publishes the report from Arab sources that Emin Pasha is dead.

Very, who was injured in the explosion in his restaurant in Paris, April 25th, is dead.

The offices in the station of the Southeastern railway, at Dover, Eng., were consumed by fire Thursday night.

Lamperti, the famous singing master, has just died in Milan. Among his pupils were Mme. Albani, Miss Van Zandt and Campanini.

A box containing coin and bonds to the value of 1,000,000 francs was stolen from a van in Paris while the driver was delivering goods.

The police of St. Etienne, France, have discovered a secret telegraph code containing a list of adherents of the Anarchists' committee.

A mysterious explosion occurred in the kitchen of a hotel at Roubaix, France. The cook put coals on the fire, and it is supposed there was a cartridge in the coals. The cooking range was destroyed and the contents of the kitchen smashed to pieces. The cook and a waiter were badly burned.

Queen Victoria held a drawing room in Buckingham palace today. The following American gentlemen were present to her majesty: William Wayne Belvin, of San Francisco; Henry Phippe, jr., of Pittsburgh; Lars Anderson, secretary of the American legation, and Maj. William F. Tucker, of the pay department of the United States army.

In Paris some time ago a man named Godrot was fined by a magistrate for a trifling offense. The minister of justice refused a remission of the fine. Saturday Godrot appeared at the ministry of justice, and being refused admission shot and seriously wounded the sentry at the door. He said he intended to kill the minister of justice.

A dispatch from Sierra Leone says a messenger reports that King Samadaya, as a piece of strategy, allowed the French to capture three native towns, afterward recaptured two of them, the French suffering heavy loss. The messenger saw eighty-one French prisoners and the heads of four French officers in Samadaya's camp.

Charles W. Mowbray, publisher, and David J. Nichol, editor of an Anarchist paper in London, called the Commonwealth, were tried for counselling the murder of the authorities who caused the conviction of the Walsall Anarchists. Nichol was sentenced to eighteen months at hard labor. Mowbray was acquitted on the ground that he was not connected with the paper at the time the article was published.
