Our World's Columbian Fair Illustrated Edition.

The Herald will issue a world's Columbian fair edition of the ILLUSTRATED HERALD. Arrangements have been made with the most finished artists in America to insure the greatest perfection of detail to the illustrations. A quarter of a million copies of this matchless publication will be issued. It will be printed on heavy book paper, and will be distributed by uniformed boys during the progress of the exposition, and the distribution will be under the direction of an intelligent superintendent, who will see that each copy shall go where it will do the most good. It will be devoted to Southern California, every portion of which will be treated impartially. In a few days accredited agents of the HERALD will start out on the work of canvassing the people in the interest of this mammoth enterprise. Those who can contribute advertising patronage are expected to do so, while almost anybody can subscribe for copies to be either mailed east by themselves, or distributed at the request of the Herald's agency. There is no reason why the greatest boom ever known in the history of Southern California should not follow in the wake of the Columbian world's fair. It is the mission of the HERALD to see that this shall be the case. The high standard of previous editions of the HERALD is a guarantee that this supreme effort will be of exceptional merit. The aim will be to make it nonpareil. It will be noted that in this ambitious edition all the counties in Southern California are to be included. We bespeak for this enterprise the generous patronage which will undoubtedly be accorded to it, and which in reality will only be bread cast upon the waters, which will return before the lapse of many days. This is the mission of the HERALD in Southern California. We need people, and the HERALD proposes to see that they shall get here in great numbers and of the right kind.

WHERE is the justice in arresting Hugh O'Donnell and John McLuckie for murder, and allowing Robert and William Pinkerton to go at large? Whatever is sauce for the workman's goose should likewise serve as a condiment for the Pinkertonian gander.

THE railroad from Visalia to El Moro, in San Luis Obispo county, would go ahead a good deal faster if some of the directors had ever been heard of before. There are men in the Upper San Joaquin valley who could put $20,000 apiece into such a road and never feel the loss of it.

A PORTLAND, Or., minister is believed to have drowned himself in the Willamette river, near that place. We do not believe he did so intentionally, however. He probably went in swimming and forgot to go ashore until it was too late. A case of absence of presence of mind, as it were.

MEN who wreck trains should be hanged for it whether there are any lives lost by the accident or not. The recent wreck on the San Jose road, near the Ocean house crossing, shows the presence of some devils who are unfit to live. Here is where Mr. Denis Kearney's cry of "hemp" comes in very appropriately.

A MAN from Stockton fills up over a column of Saturday's Record-Union with a discourse on mules. When W. H. Mills was managing editor of that paper he would not have allowed any man to have used its columns in that way for eulogizing his blood relations. We thought nepotism was at an end when Grant vacated the presidential chair.

OUR first great boom came through the instrumentality of our citrus fruits, which were the means of calling public attention to our marvelous climate. Now there is a murmur of another boom in the air, this time through our deciduous fruits. Lands that will pay from $140 to $165 per acre, in apricots, peaches or walnuts, will never pay to plant in wheat or barley. God speed the day when all of California is one great fruit-producing state, and when the last ship sails out of the Golden Gate with grain for the United Kingdom.

MANY of the newspapers affect to believe that the proposed railroad from San Francisco to Salt Lake will never be built. We believe that it is an assured certainty, and that it will connect directly with the Union Pacific at that point. There was something very simultaneous about Alvinza Hayward's incorporation of the new road and Mr. S. H. Clark's recent visit to San Francisco. It begins to look very much like another road into the state, and we suppose that the city by the sea will be satisfied. Col. Fred Crocker says such a road cannot be built without bringing fifty thousand more people into the state, and he is right.

TAKING two young men at midnight from a prison, where they are awaiting trial for robbery and murder, is no pleasing spectacle for the law-abiding and sober-minded citizen to contemplate. But such is what happened yesterday morning at Reading, the county seat of Shasta county, which has hitherto been exempt from anything like mob law. The Ruggles brothers, one of them a cripple from an accident which happened at the time of the robbery, were hanged like dogs without the ministrations of judge, jury or priest. This is said to have been the outgrowth of a dignified disgust on the part of the citizens, at the way some ridiculous women of that place were visiting these murderers in jail and treating them as heroes rather than vile criminals. The dead are beyond pity, even if they deserved it. Our sympathy goes out to their aged parents, living near Traver, in Tulare county, to whose overflowing cup of grief this tragedy is the very last drop.

ASSETS PREFERABLE TO DEBTS. We never were a very devout believer in that dogmatic assertion of Mr. Jay Cooke, to the effect that "national debt is a national blessing." That it was of benefit to the Washington banker who uttered it, cannot be denied, but there were comparatively few others whose interests led them to regard the proposition in the same light. Generally speaking, a debt is a curse to anyone, and the greater portion of our millionaires would say—granting that it is possible for a millionaire to tell the truth—that the happiest days of their lives were when they found they had $10,000 in bank to their credit and did not owe anything to anybody.

THESE remarks are prefatory to what we have to say concerning a portion of our tributary country. We allude to that section of country immediately surrounding the town of Riverside, in the adjoining county of San Bernardino. The Phoenix, published there, says that notwithstanding the damage done to citrus fruits by last winter's unusual visitation of frost, the mortgage indebtedness of that section has been decreased in a heavier ratio this year, than in the aggregate period of any five years previously. This is a statement which pleases all the best friends of California; and presuming it to be authentic, we think our people at large should be content to accept such blessings and leave those referred to by Mr. Cooke severely alone.

IT is also stated by the same journal that there has been a large augmentation of assessed valuations all over the county. Banking reports show an increase of deposits as well as the number of depositors, while the rates of interest have not been advanced through financial stringency, as in many other portions of the state. The leading merchants who have kept comparative statements from year to year find their June business largely in advance of the corresponding month of last year. It is not exceptional, this general pecuniary advancement of our neighbor county, but the case is equally true of every county south of Tehachapi pass. There was a time when people were wont to speak deplorably of the enormous amount of waste land in the northern portion of this county, but we hear less of it since Antelope valley has begun to grow into an orchard, and Cahuenga to furnish corn, tomatoes and Lima beans to San Francisco in the very middle of winter. The truth is, that all of Southern California is undergoing a healthy growth, the most hygienic symptom of which is that she is finding ready markets for all she can produce. This portends a rapid extinction of local indebtedness and a certain increase of resources over habits.

WHAT THE HARVEST HAS BEEN. Some years ago a gentleman living in the San Gabriel valley went east to visit his brother living in Missouri and by way of showing him what sort of products we were raising here, took on specimens of corn and other cereals. The brother went over into Kansas after a while and carried with him an ear of San Gabriel corn, measuring fifteen inches in length and having twelve rows on the cob. It was of what is called the "gourdeed" variety. This corn bore fruit. It did not mature in Kansas but in the very state and county where it was grown. For every grain on that cob it has produced a Republican politician and a Republican tax-devourer. The grasshoppers that devoured the crops of that state in 1875 were nothing, in voracity, as compared with the score of hungry office-hunters that have since flocked to this coast and boosted themselves into fat offices, all the way from San Diego to Seattle. In San Diego the people are taxed to death to feed a lot of professional patriots, while here we are mulcted to the tune of $4800 per day to keep in existence a similar lot of official teredos who are honeycombing the timbers of our edifice and leaving us to guess how soon it will fall down. And as far north as you can go, you find the same deplorable condition of things.

There is but one course ahead of our taxpayers, and that is, either to get up a taxpayers' party as opposed to the taxpayers who masquerade as Republicans; or else to make a combination between the Democrats and Alliance parties so as to insure a defeat of the ring. It is not so easy a matter, either. These heirs-at-law of the horse-leach's daughter whose cry is "Give! Give!!", have got their pockets full of money and can afford to spend some of it to retain their hold of the public purse. If they can prevent a fusion of the two forces above named, they will spend money to do so. They know that, with three distinct tickets in the field, they are sure of another victory and can retain the county finances in their greedy grasp for two years longer. Fusion is the only means by which their de-thronement can be made an accomplished fact, but will our party leaders have sense enough to see it?

How completely "the grand old man" has outlasted all contemporaneous British statesmen, will be seen by the fact that it will be sixty years ago on the 17th day of May next, since he uttered his maiden speech in parliament. Richard Cobden, who had just delivered the opening address at the new Athenaeum at Manchester, when Gladstone entered public life, was but three or four years his senior, and yet Cobden died just as Lee handed over his sword to Grant at the Appomattox apple-tree. Lord John Russell, Palmerston, Brougham and Disraeli, all in turn relinquished their hold on life, but the sturdy champion of Midlothian still lives as a greater power than ever. He is the most colossal figure of the century, his ripe years full of glorious triumphs and his hands unglorified with blood. God preserve the true knight of learning, the modest hero who loves his fellow-man.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE Los Angeles theater was filled last night, standing room up stairs being at a premium for the opening night of Sam Jack's Creole Burlesque company. The company is made up of about twenty beautiful creole girls, and quite a number of serio-comic artists, who certainly rank among the best Senegambian artists who have yet appeared here. The songs and specialties are bright and original, and the costumes and scenery decidedly novel. Beautiful Miss May Davis possesses a fine voice, and the comedians, Burnett, Hawkins and May, were remarkable funny indeed. The DeWolfe sisters, Charles Johnson, Falls and Eaton and Fred Piper and others all made decided hits, as well as the twenty participants in the challenge dancing contest. The tropical revivies will be given tonight and Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

IN the famous company of minstrels which appear at the Grand opera house, commencing Tuesday, July 26th, with an entire change of programme each night, are to be found the names of such old-time western favorites as Billy Rice, Ed. Hall, Percy Denton, Chas. Sully, Bogert and O'Brien, Delmore and Wilson, E. M. Kayne and many others who have appeared in this city with Col. Haverly's Mastodon Minstrelion former visits. In conjunction with these old favorites are more than two score additional, all equal in point of merit in their several lines. There is Gillwood, the great m. of the Atlantic seaboard and the company who does not appear in black face. This is only one feature in the vast aggregation of musical specialists. A. M. Thatcher is beyond doubt the most wonderful basso profundo before the American people, his songs are new, though some old favorites are sung by request as encores, to the great delight of his old friends. Arthur Yale has made his name famous throughout the entire country by his beautiful ballads, and is greeted everywhere with enthusiasm.

IF reports are true, one of the most artistic hits of character acting witnessed in Los Angeles in many years will be that of Mr. E. J. Hanley's portraits of the Russian diplomat in Charles Frohman's Gloriana.

PERSONAL.

M. M. Edwards visited Pasadena yesterday. Mrs. J. H. Polk is at the Nadeau for a few days. Henry Levy of Huemene is registered at the Hollenbeck hotel. Edwin K. Alisp and Miss Effie J. Alisp are guests at the Hollenbeck hotel. Mr. and Mrs. S. Draw and Miss M. Swartz, of San Francisco, are registered at the Nadeau. General Fuller and family of Marysville are in the city. General Fuller is department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic. E. H. Miller, commander of Southern California department, G. A. R., was in Los Angeles last night on his way home to San Diego from the Ventura encampment.

Dr. M. M. Kannon returned yesterday from his long visit to the east. During his absence the doctor has been at New York, Philadelphia, Boston and other cities on the Atlantic seaboard and has also visited his Canadian Alma Mater. Maj. A. W. Barrett of the board of managers of the Soldiers' home yesterday visited that institution, in company with Col. J. B. Fuller, department commander of the G. A. R.; Capt. T. C. Masteller, department adjutant, and F. L. Crowell, chief of staff. The gentlemen have been visiting the G. A. R. encampment at Ventura as visited the Soldiers' home on the invitation of Major Barrett. Colonel Fuller has not been in Los Angeles for twenty-eight years, and at that time the city was located above the Pioche house.

Decorations. I stood beside each mounded grave Where slept the bravest of the brave, And sought a spot where I could place My flowers above a hero's face. Within a calm, secluded spot, Where passing steps disturbed her not, I placed the simple buds I had O'er her who wore a soldier's lot. —Clifford Fromby in Ladies' Home Journal.

A Brahmin Purification. A curious story of a cow is reported by a correspondent at Rayzabad, in Oude. It appears that a man of the Ahir, or cowherd caste, was carrying a cow calf on his shoulders, when the animal accidentally fell, breaking its neck. Thereupon the Brahmins held a solemn conclave, at which the cowherd was sentenced to the severest form of Hindoo excommunication for six months. During this term it was ordered that he was to lead a life of mendicancy, and with a rope around his neck and with a portion of the calf's tail on his shoulders was to perform pilgrimages to different Hindoo shrines. The members of his family were forbidden to supply him with either shelter or food under a penalty of undergoing similar excommunication.

The Ahir is reported to have now returned to his village, but until the purification ceremonies are over he must live in a temporary grass thatched house erected for his residence. It now remains for a man of the lowest and most degraded caste to purify him. A barber, after shaving the delinquent and paring the nails of his hands and toes, will make over the hair and nails to the Badmanns, who will burn them and also set fire to the hut. After this the Ahir will plunge into the river Sarju and come out purified, but his troubles are yet by no means at an end. Not till after he has fasted fifty Brahmins and 100 of his brethren will he be readmitted to caste fellowship.—London News.

SOME WHO WERE THERE.

Santa Monica Received Many Visitors Yesterday. The counter attractions at the various beaches yesterday did not apparently affect the usual Sunday attendance at Santa Monica. There was, however, a great disappointment to the large number of people who attended this favorite resort, on account of the promised balloon ascension proving a failure, the large air ship catching fire just before departing heavenward. The various other amusements managed to keep the crowd happy, and a general good time was had.

A merry delegation from Mary Commandery K. T. No. 36, of Philadelphia, Penn., accompanied by wives and lady friends, arrived here yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The party were delighted with Santa Monica, and passed the day in driving, bathing and strolling about the town and beach. They left Philadelphia on July 15th. Among those noticed at the beach were the following: Miss Minnie G. Sullivan attracted no little attention. Mrs. Belle Smith was one of the prettiest ladies at the seashore. Miss Stella Lorraine, of Ogden, Utah, fell in love with Santa Monica. Mrs. N. D. White was noticed by her expert swimming. Fred. Barman and wife were among the throng. Will. H. Hay and mother are located in their cottage for the summer. Mrs. Kate Johnson was noticed in the playground. G. T. Seekatz took a stroll along the bluff. W. H. Rontzohn and James Timothy were perceived together. Jimmy Wallace was on hand as usual. H. M. Ashley and C. E. Bannhoekel swam out to the raft. George Chenoweth and lady spent a most delightful day. Sheriff Moran had a most enjoyable time. J. B. Duke and E. J. McCarey are spending a week at the beach. Ed McGinnis said the water was just right. L. Harris and family are stopping at the Arcadia.

Frank Hollelander and Miss Hartman parted the sands together. Miss Sophrona Newman of San Francisco was noticeable. John Lovell, Nathan Strausberger and Hugh J. Smith watched the breakers from the end of the wharf. Dr. White and wife enjoyed a fish dinner and remained over night. R. E. McGregor and wife were among the pleasure seekers. George P. McLain and family are taking in the sad sea waves. C. H. Humphreys took a trip to the cañon. John Moriarty thought Cleveland would come in first under the wire. J. O. Caslin was along with the merry mob. J. D. Cochran and wife of San Bernardino enjoyed the fresh sea breeze. Mrs. C. N. Hasson and family are stopping at the beach for a few weeks. Miss Selma Weid was particularly noticed among the visitors. F. J. Bauer and W. A. Taylor spent the day together. Dr. McSwegan looked as happy as ever. John King regretted the destruction of his balloon. W. F. Nordholdt drove down with fast pacers. E. A. Preuss and wife took a dip in the briny deep. H. Burch and family are quartered at Santa Monica for the summer. J. Behndt and wife will remain at the seashore for several days. J. H. Flynt had a pleasant smile for everyone. Frank Schumacher was sorry the fish did not bite more rapidly. Ben E. Ward and wife enjoyed the music. Hal Stone was everywhere. Mrs. Helen Wright of Salt Lake is in love with Santa Monica, and will remain for several weeks at the beach. Miss Josie Knight wore a very pretty bathing suit.

MURDERER LEE DAN. A Fresno Chinaman Arrested for the Killing of a Countryman. At 8 o'clock last evening Officer Bill Huston arrested on Marchessault alley, Chinatown, one Lee Dan on a warrant from Fresno. Dan is charged with murder, he having shot another Chinaman about two months ago. The warrant has been here ever since, and the police have been looking for the culprit. The presence here of Lee Dan was betrayed by an enemy of the prisoner.

The Columbia Colony, in Southern California!

6520 Acres Offered by the Southern California Land Company, 1630 Shares at $100 Each in Installments of $5 per Month Without Interest.

NOT A LAND DISTRIBUTION, BUT AN INVESTMENT OF MONEY! Each Share will Earn Five Per Cent Per Month on Each $100 for Five Years From the Date of the First Subscription, and Has the Best Real Estate Security.

Books of Subscription Now Open at the Office of the Company, 230 North Main Street, Adjoining the First National Bank, Where the Prospectus in Full Can Be Obtained.

Sixteen hundred and thirty shares at $100 each will buy the Fowler Ranch of 6520 acres, with the present improvements and the prospective improvements to be made by the present owners at a cost to them of $30,000. This splendid property is situated on the border line of Tulare and Kern counties, four miles west of the Valley Road of the Southern Pacific railroad, and four miles north of the branch line to the present line to San Francisco. A survey of the Santa Fe line has been made through the western portion of this tract.

PROSPECTUS: We are soliciting subscriptions for shares in an incorporation to be organized for the purpose of buying from the present owners the Fowler ranch, containing 6520 acres, situated on the border line of Tulare and Kern counties, for $25 per acre, with its present improvements and with $30,000 of improvements to be made by the owners and included in the price of $25 per acre, as stated. This is not a land distribution, but an investment of money, with return of money and profit, by dividing the tract into 40-acre subdivisions, and after the improvements are made, selling at a future period at $100 or more per acre. There will be 1630 shares in the corporation, at $100 each, to be paid for in $5 monthly installments without interest. On the sixth payment the subscribers will incorporate, will elect their officers, and the trustee they may appoint will receive a deed for the 6520 acres, in escrow, clear of all incumbrances, with the certificates of title attached of the Abstract and Title Insurance Company of Los Angeles, to be delivered to the corporation when the purchase money is paid. The $30,000 proposed improvements guaranteed by a deposit in bank of that amount, to be paid out to the contractors on certified vouchers, as they progress with the work.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY. The land is a rich black loam, and is known as the Fowler ranch. It was purchased many years ago by the late Senator Tom Fowler of Tulare, when he had the opportunity of obtaining the cream of Tulare and Kern counties. It is in the center of the best wheat and alfalfa belt; has upon it now a sample artesian well flowing 80,000 gallons, and is in the immediate vicinity of the largest flowing wells in the state.

The Present Price, and What the Investment Will Pay. The low rate of purchase, $25 per acre, with all the present and the projected improvements heretofore recited, made an appeal for the present owners, at a cost of $30,000, enables us to guarantee at the lowest rate of sale in the future, say $100 per acre within five years, an interest of 5 per cent a month on each share of $100 from the date of subscription.

This tract has one section already fenced, a colony house, the present flowing well, large reservoir, etc. The improvements to be made by the present owners will consist of an irrigating canal of twelve miles, six more artesian wells as feeders, survey and division into 40-acre tracts, and laying out of the town of Colonsa, broad avenues through the entire property planted with trees, etc. How the 5 Per Cent Per Month on Each $100 Is to Be Earned for the 5 Years. Many well-known citizens thoroughly versed in the capabilities of lands in Southern California double the estimate that we here set forth of $100 per acre within five years, and assert that at the end of that time this splendid body of land, as proposed, with water conveyed to each tract, will command readily and quickly $200 per acre. But we place it at the low figure named, $100 per acre, and any larger amount that it may be sold for will increase the percentage which each share in it will earn at our rates. 6520 acres at $25 per acre, with the improvements included $1,630,000 00 Interest at 5 per cent per month from commencement of subscription to the end of the 5 years on 1630 shares 489,000 00 $2,119,000 00

Sales of 6300 acres at $100 per acre $630,000 00 $652,000 00 Sales of 880 town lots of 1/4 acre each 44,000 00 $774,000 00

This would leave a surplus of $22,000 after paying the interest of 5 per cent per month. This surplus would meet all expenses for the full term: salary of superintendent, taxes, expenses attending sales, and any extra improvements that the trustees might deem necessary.

Placed Before the Public for Investment. The Southern California Land Company of Los Angeles now places this tract before the public, and solicits recommendations for the investment of large or of small amounts. This company has conducted in the past seven years many large successful land deals in Los Angeles. Its record is without reproach, and its references include the leading citizens of Southern California. Any further information required will be promptly answered by mail or personally at our office. A map of the tract with present and prospective improvements, etc., is ready for inspection.

An Interest of Five Per Cent Per Month Must Arrest Attention. An investment with perfect security and earning 5 per cent per month on each $100 share for a period of five years from the date of the first payment of $5, must arrest the attention of everyone. It will also be borne in mind that should the stockholders elect to sell at $100 per acre within, say two years and a half, half of the time that we here propose, their investment will then be 10 per cent per month for that period.

Full Security. This is not a land distribution, but an investment of money with return of money and interest. Building associations and savings banks are all founded on real estate security and pay from 5 to 8 per cent per year. Here you have not only the best real estate security, but your investment earns FIVE PER CENT PER MONTH, and at the same time you own your proportion of the land, 4 acres to each share, until it is sold by your own trustees, and then you have your division of the profits. Any further information required will be promptly answered by mail or personally at our office. A map of the tract with present and prospective improvements, etc., is ready for inspection.
