

NEWS FROM NEAR-BY CITIES.

Democrats at Pasadena to Open the Campaign.

The Men of the Ninth Leave Long Beach Camp.

Features of Saturday Evening's Meeting at Pasadena—Camp Notes From Long Beach—South Pasadena Happenings—Notes.

PASADENA, Aug. 25.—The opening guns of the coming campaign will be fired next Saturday evening, at Williams hall. The executive committee of the Pasadena Cleveland club have been fortunate enough to secure as speakers on that evening, F. R. Finlayson and Gen. John R. Mathews, of Los Angeles. Both of the gentlemen are eloquent speakers, and are so well known to the public as to need no introduction. This meeting is the first of a series that will be given, at which the best talent, both local and from abroad, will be present. One of the interesting meetings which is promised in the near future is a debate to be carried on between a prominent local Democrat and a Republican. A general invitation is extended to the public to be present.

MRS. MARTIN'S FUNERAL. The funeral services of the late Mrs. C. S. Martin, whose sudden death on Wilson's peak was such a shock to her many friends and relatives in this city, were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the residence of her mother, Mrs. E. C. Bradley, on East Colorado street. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. E. Conger, who spoke in high terms of her past life, and of the lovable and noble character she has always borne. The house was beautifully decorated by the hands of loving friends. The interment was made in the Mountain View cemetery, and a large number of sorrowing friends followed the remains to their last resting place, comforted only by loving remembrances and the hope of meeting in that land where death and sorrow are no more.

A GREEN GOODS MAN. A. W. E. Graham, of New York, has addressed a circular to many of our citizens setting forth in guarded terms that he is a dealer in green goods, and that he is able to supply all demand for $20 on the $1—stipulating that not less than $200 shall be invested. This is the same old threadbare scheme for fleecing the verdant, and has been exposed so often by the press that it would seem impossible for him to secure victims. But the fools are not all dead yet.

NOTES. J. K. Vilier returned today from a week's stay at Catalina.

The Rev. and Mrs. Fife came up this morning from Long Beach, where they have been for several weeks.

The town is beginning to fill up again, the beach denizens are gradually drifting home, and in a few weeks the season will be over.

Mr. Turbetta and family are spending a few days at Catalina.

The Balmoral was opened this morning. The hotel is in excellent hands, and will be conducted in a first-class manner.

A party composed of Wallace Johnson, H. L. Johnson, Ray Johnson and V. P. Lewis returned today from the island, after a most enjoyable week of hunting and fishing.

Mr. S. Palmater, who was injured some weeks ago in Los Angeles while alighting from a train, is able to be around again.

Work continues to progress rapidly on Polytechnic hall, and the contractors are confident the building will be ready for occupancy before school opens.

SOUTH PASADENA.

A Boy's Bath and its Result—Local Happenings.

SOUTH PASADENA, Aug. 25.—While one of our youths of 16 summers was engaged in taking a bath in Wilson's lake, contrary to parental rule, a few days ago, his father appeared upon the scene with a horsewhip, which he administered at once in allopahitic doses. A general stampede ensued, in which the boy escaped to the tules. Gathering up the clothing lying on the bank, the irate father made his way home, leaving his son in a strictly primitive attire. The latter returned home in the "wee sma' hours."

The little son of A. Mitchell, of Lincoln Park, who wandered off Wednesday afternoon, was found, after an all-night's search, at one of the neighbor's.

Telephone communication was suspended for a couple of days recently, caused by a broken pole. A horse had been hitched to the pole, and, becoming frightened, broke the pole, thereby breaking the wire in several places.

We are informed that a special man is employed to watch for fruit thieves on the Raymond improvement tract. This has become necessary, as, in the past, tons of fruit has been carried away.

Arthur Keith, in the Santa Fe's employ at Albuquerque, N. M., is here on a visit to his parents.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Wood are spending a few weeks at Catalina.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Wilson are at Long Beach.

Miss Leah Hart, who has been quite ill, is improving.

LONG BEACH.

The Men of the Ninth Break Camp With Regret.

LONG BEACH, Aug. 25.—Two flag poles, several piles of hay and a number of loose boards piled up, were all that remained this afternoon of the encampment of the Ninth regiment at Long Beach.

About 10 o'clock this morning the tents were struck, all being done within a quarter of a minute. They were with the other camp accessories, packed in four freight cars.

The companies gave a number of farewell evolutions on the grounds, and interspersed the exercises with cheers for the Long Beach people and the members of the camp. They then formed in a solid column, four abreast, and marched down to the depot at 11 o'clock, to the tune of The Girl I Left Behind Me.

Colonel Spileman, on foot, headed the column, and behind him marched Captain Berry and Adjutant Mack, then came the band and companies in the order of the march of their captain's commission. Company C, Capt. James H. Keith; company D, Capt. W. D. Welch; company F, Capt. Harry T. Mathews; company B, Capt. E. V.

Dodge; company E, Capt. E. M. Ducoe; company A, Capt. E. F. Spileman. At the depot the men stacked their guns and took a farewell view of Long Beach. Shortly after 1 o'clock a special of five passenger cars, and one baggage car arrived, and the men got aboard. Last night a number of the citizens were banqueted in the camp by the officers. Many speeches were made by the various people present, and a good time was had, a noticeable fact being that the captains of each of the companies expressed themselves and for their men, as delighted with the Long Beach people, and the kind manner in which the town had treated them.

Colonel Spileman and all of his officers announced themselves as delighted with their treatment here; and it may also be added that this has been the most successful encampment ever held in Southern California.

Governor Meitzer, when the boys were at the train this morning, said: "We received them with pleasure, and we lose them with regret," and this seems to be the general feeling here towards the departed guard.

In the individual shooting, for the Redlands trophy, the following were the best scores made out of seventy-five competitors:

ANOTHER COMPLAINT.

Mrs. Barbara Mall's Statement About the Poor House.

It would seem that it was about time that the management of the county farm was looked into a little. The taxpayers of the county have their good money paid out to conduct the almshouse, and something seems to be wrong.

A representative of the HERALD, yesterday, heard a pitiful story from Mrs. Barbara Mall, of her experience at the county farm, covering a period of over two years. She is an old German lady, 67 years of age, who was born in Wurtemberg, Germany. Mrs. Mall has a crippled hand, and her 67 years have borne heavily upon her. She is decrepit, and broken down in health.

She yesterday made a statement of her experience at the county almshouse, which can certainly create nothing but sympathy for her. She claims that despite her years, she has been compelled to wash clothes at the institution. She says that she never was properly clothed, and that she has been forced to perform all manner of menial service and do the work of attendants at the poor farm who are paid by the county to render certain service.

She says that she was compelled for a long time to wash clothes with her feet covered only by slippers; that her feet got wet; she took cold, and sickness followed; that she was not given medicine, while ill, and that it was brought to her from the outside.

Mrs. Mall said that she was perfectly willing to work when she was able, and do anything that she could; that burdens were put on her to the extent that from sheer physical inability she was forced to give out; that she was compelled to care for and nurse the babies of paid county attendants at the farm; that she was compelled to iron clothes of attendants when her crippled arm caused her great pain. Certainly, for a poor old woman of 67 years these tasks are numerous and scarcely of the right character.

The old lady also makes a serious charge against one of the members of the board of supervisors, which should be investigated.

She makes the statement, also, that Frank Davis, son of Supervisor A. E. Davis, is steward at the county farm. Over the farm the supervisors have exclusive charge. This is a flagrant case of nepotism.

Dr. Burdick receives $200 per month to superintend the poor farm. Complaints are being in, and, strange to say, they all come from old people, over 60 years of age. Poor Mrs. Mall is now at the county hospital.

Marriage Licenses Granted. Marriage licenses were issued from the county clerk's office yesterday, as follows:

August Fromme, aged 67, a native of Germany, and Mrs. R. H. Scholl, aged 56, a native of Germany, both residents of Los Angeles.

F. E. Davis, aged 24, a native of Indiana, and Miss Hedwig Gross, aged 20, a native of Illinois, both residents of Los Angeles.

Madison Peery, aged 36, a native of Missouri, and Belle McFarlane, aged 23, a native of Canada, and both residents of Tehachapi.

Charles Holdorf, aged 25, a native of Germany, and Frances Stetzer, aged 29, a native of Germany, both residents of Pasadena.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The State Exhibit Made at San Francisco.

Features of the Cabrillo Celebration at San Diego.

A Southern California Exhibit Wanted. Additions to the Local Exhibit. Progress of the World's Fair. Preparation.

E. W. Maslin, secretary of the state board of trade, writes Secretary Willard of the chamber of commerce, that the free exhibit of California products at San Francisco is now in progress of removal to the Crocker building, opposite the Palace hotel.

The room heretofore occupied by the exhibit is too small to accommodate the products offered, and many Angelenos visiting San Francisco have complained that our county was but meagrely represented. The new building affords abundance of room, and the officers of the chamber propose to make an exhibit of which any Southern Californian may be proud. The county board of supervisors pay the rent, and the chamber of commerce will provide the materials of the exhibit.

THE LOCAL EXHIBIT. The chamber of commerce wagon was sent out on a collecting tour yesterday in the neighborhood of Vernon, and returned with Siberian crab apples, Bartlett pears, lemons, and fall pippin apples from the ranch of H. R. Smith; La Conte pears, contributed by I. Gibbs, and Sieckel and Beurre hardy pears, orange quinces, and Smyrna figs sent in by E. H. Morgan.

Other exhibits were sent in as follows: Mrs. John W. Mitchell, Cahuenga, Ponderosa tomatoes, one specimen weighing 30 ounces; John Cook, Tropic, Indian food peaches; J. W. Parker, Eagle Rock, a handsome display of Hungarian prunes; C. W. Phillips, Pasadena, plums and Hungarian prunes.

THE SAN DIEGO CENTENNIAL. All the California world's fair associations have united with the San Diego association, and have taken in hand the matter of properly celebrating the centennial anniversary of the arrival of Cabrillo's fleet into the harbor of San Diego, which will occur on the 27th instant. A strong effort is being made for a demonstration which will surpass any event of the kind which has yet occurred on the Pacific coast.

Admiral Gherardi, of the United States navy, is to come to San Francisco about the middle of September to take the five line-of-battle ships of the Pacific squadron to Hampton roads, for a naval demonstration at that point next year. The California world's fair associations are working together in the hope the admiral's departure for this coast may be hastened sufficiently to bring him to San Diego with the Pacific squadron on the occasion of the centennial celebration. In any event, it is now understood that the band attached to Admiral Brown's flagship, the San Francisco, will furnish music for the celebration. Among the relics to be exhibited is the first cannon ever fired in California, that antique being now in possession of Señora Coronel.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES. Dr. Gilbert and a party of experts from Stanford university left Palo Alto today for the south, expecting to stop at Santa Barbara, Santa Monica and San Diego for the purpose of collecting and preserving specimens of the food fishes of the Pacific coast to be exhibited at the world's fair.

Thomas H. Thompson, secretary of the California world's fair commission, is also working his way south, taking in the county and district fairs, with the purpose of gathering up the finest exhibits for world's fair purposes. Mr. Thompson is expected at Santa Barbara tomorrow.

The Pasadena ladies in charge of the matter report that the jars furnished them, to be filled with jellies, jams and preserves for the world's fair, are nearly all filled, ready for the great exhibition.

The lot for the storage of trees, at Pasadena, has been doubled in size, and will soon be filled.

Governor Markham has donated ten large and handsome ornamental trees at the disposal of the world's fair committee.

Santa Barbara county proposes to

A VILE SCOUNDREL.

George Taylor's Disgusting Offense Lands Him in Jail.

An unspeakable wretch was unearthed yesterday by Officer Twobig and landed in the city jail. The name he gave at the station is George Taylor, and he is an ugly looking fellow, about 45 years of age.

Early in the afternoon four boys were playing in and along the river bank, east of the Santa Fe depot, when the fellow came along. As he came up to the boys he exposed his person to them, offering them five cents. The boys ranged from 12 to 14 years and the actions of the brute frightened them.

One of them ran all the way up town and found Officer Twobig, who went down to the viaduct. As he approached the viaduct, Taylor was sitting down at the west end of it. When he saw the officer coming he jumped up and ran as fast as he could over the viaduct. Officer Twobig pursued him, and captured him when he was about two-thirds of the way across. He had very little to say. The case will come up today, and the boys who were present will be on hand as witnesses. There were two men also who witnessed the affair, and they also have been secured as witnesses. The boys are respectable boys.
