CABRILLO STEPS ASHORE.

The San Diego Fetes Auspiciously Opened.

Events of 350 Years Ago Faithfully Reproduced.

The Most Imposing Pageant Ever Seen in Southern California.

Senator Del Valle Delivers an Eloquent Oration—Father Adam's Interesting Talk—Indians in Paint and Feathers.

By the Associated Press. SAN DIEGO, Sept. 28.—The opening day of the celebration of the 350th anniversary of the discovery of San Diego bay found at least 20,000 strangers in the city. The Indians were up at daybreak, and, after a hearty breakfast, stripped to paint their bodies in preparation for the parts they were to assume in the opening exercises. At the appointed hour the caravel sailed into the bay shore, where it was met by the aborigines, who were kalsomined in the most approved fashion of the Louisianians and Digneños.

CABRILLO STEPS ASHORE. Cabrillo, impersonated by a Portuguese sailor, Joe Williams, came ashore with his crew of ten men, all dressed in rich costumes of the fifteenth century, Cabrillo wearing a fine black velvet doublet and knee breeches, a plumed hat and bearing himself with all the dignity suitable to the ancient navigator. The Indians fell in line, 130 strong, behind Cabrillo and his men, and a procession was at once formed as follows:

- ORDER OF MARCH. Mounted police. Mexican military band. Grand Marshal, Brig. Gen. T. T. Crittenden and staff. Governor Markham and staff. Admiral Gherardi, and other officers of the navy. Other distinguished guests, including Hon. R. F. Del Valle, orator of the day, ex-Minister R. M. Daggett, post of the day, and Vicar General Adam, in carriages. SECOND DIVISION. Marshal, Col. Elmer Otis, U. S. A., commanding, and staff. Band, First Cavalry, U. S. A. Company C, Tenth U. S. Infantry. Battalion of sailors and marines, U. S. squadron. A and B companies. Ninth regiment, N. G. C. N. A. G. Grand Army posts. Corps of cadets. THIRD DIVISION. Marshal, W. D. Woolwine, commanding, and staff. City band. Knights Templar. Knights of Pythias. Concordia Indians. San Jacinto band. Floats. Native Sons of the Golden West. THIRD DIVISION. Marshal Don Francisco Pico and staff. Ontario band. Spanish-Americans. Vaqueros. Cabell o and companions. Organized Indians. Miscellaneous Indian visitors. FOURTH DIVISION. Marshal, Brig.-Gen. Datus E. Coon, and staff. Veterans. Decorated vehicles. Wagons, carriages, etc. REVIEW OF THE PARADE. The guests alighted from their carriages at the plaza, where the procession was passed in review. At least 30,000 spectators lined the streets along the line of march, and greeted with applause the various divisions. It was a notable procession, and one of the finest ever seen in California.

THE LITERARY EXERCISES. The literary exercises were held at the plaza in the afternoon. Mayor Sherman called the gathering to order and introduced Governor Markham as the presiding officer. The governor delivered a brief address, presenting Senator R. F. Del Valle, whose oration was intently listened to. It was given extemporaneously, and was, especially in his peroration, most eloquent.

A poem entitled Cabrillo was read by ex-Minister R. M. Daggett, and Vicar-General Adam delivered an address referring to the religious aspect of Cabrillo's voyage. In the course of his remarks he was vigorously applauded.

A PLEASANT INCIDENT. A pleasing incident of the afternoon was the introduction of Governor Torres, who rose to bow his acknowledgments in response to most enthusiastic applause, as the Mexican band struck up the national anthem of the sister republic.

The plaza, in which the literary exercises were held, was covered by a handsome canopy of pepper branches, the pavilion, seating 6000 people, being closely packed.

THE EVENING'S FESTIVITIES. This evening a banquet is in progress at the Hotel del Coronado, at which 300 covers are laid. All the distinguished guests are there. The people are being entertained on this side of the bay by a band concert at the plaza, a search light exhibition by the cruisers and an Indian festa, free to all.

TODAY'S PROGRAMME. Tomorrow's programme includes Indian games and dances, lasting all day, a reception on the cruisers, a yacht race and other aquatic sports, a full dress ball at the Hotel Coronado and theatrical entertainments and exhibitions of camp life.

THIS IS GOOD NEWS.

Huntington Will Push Work on the Gap in the Coast Line.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—It will be good news to the people of Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo counties to learn that C. P. Huntington has decided to push the work of filling in the gap on the coast division between Santa Margarita and Ellwood. It has been a year now since the people of those counties procured for him a free right of way for the 125 miles between the points already mentioned, on condition that he commence construction within 60 days thereafter. He did as he agreed at that time by having men arrange all the preliminary work required before beginning the construction of the tunnels between Santa Margarita and the town of San Luis Obispo. These preliminary works having been finished, as large a force of men as can be used will be immediately put to work on the tunnels. In speaking on the subject today, Mr. Huntington said: "We want to give that section of the state an outlet. They kept their promise to us in securing for the company a free right of way, and we will keep our promise by building the road. There is some very heavy work to be done in the way of constructing tunnels, immediately north of Santa Margarita, and we will commence on that first."

San Diego Telephone Burned Out. SAN DIEGO, Sept. 28.—The telephone system of this city is wholly disabled tonight on account of an accident. A wire fell this afternoon across the trolley wires of the electric road, the current being transmitted to the central station, and the switchboard was burned completely out.

DISCIPLES OF ST. PETER.

GERMAN CATHOLICS ADOPT STRONG RESOLUTIONS.

The Right of Educating their Children in the Church and the Restoration of the Temporal Power of the Pope Insisted Upon.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 28.—"We approve what St. Peter approved; we recommend what he recommends; we condemn what he condemns, and tolerate what he tolerates," were the declarations in a resolution speaking of the school question, at the close of a meeting of the German Catholic convention tonight.

Caledonia Park hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. Over 6000 persons were there. The Star Spangled Banner was sung in German by 400 parochial children. Then resolutions were read by Rev. M. Fuerber, of St. Louis. They declare in part:

"With proverbial gratitude we hear the energetic utterances of many of our right reverend bishops, who, with great emphasis, demand the establishment and maintaining of parochial schools. We protest most emphatically against any attempt on the part of the state to infringe by any law, on the right of education. Therefore, we call upon all our Catholic fellow citizens to give their votes only to such candidates who take a correct stand on the school question.

"With the fullest submission to the desires of our holy church, the supreme pontiff and bishops placed over us, we not only renounce all secret societies strictly forbidden under the penalty of excommunication, but also those concerning which our ecclesiastical superiors have declared that they endanger good morals or the Catholic religion. We wish to direct you to such societies as are fully approved by our ecclesiastical superiors."

The resolutions hail with delight the approaching fiftieth anniversary of the consecration of the pope as a bishop, and extend to him an assurance of the deepest reverence, perfect obedience and unswerving allegiance. They renege the demand of the last conclave for the full freedom and independence of the holy see, by the restoration of the temporal sovereignty of the pope.

"As free American citizens," say the declarations, "we will not tolerate any interference with the free expression of our views on this extremely important church matter. The false opposition that it is inopportune to discuss openly the Roman question in our country, can only be explained as a pitiable deception or want of courage in showing fearlessly our truly Catholic convictions. Rome, as the natural seat of the papacy, belongs to the pope, who, moreover, need the rights of sovereignty, acquired in justice and sealed by solemn contracts, for the welfare of Italy, Europe and the whole world, as benefactors of mankind. With confidence we leave it to the Divine Providence by what means the restoration of papal independence will be brought about by secular power, and in the meantime will never cease to courageously sustain the holy father."

The resolutions dwell on the approaching 400th anniversary of the American discovery, eulogizing Columbus as a Catholic, whose mission above all was to secure to the uncivilized nations the blessings of the gospel.

Sincere thanks and most cordial approval are tendered to the St. Raphael society, because of its great good work for the temporal and spiritual welfare of Catholic immigrants.

They deeply regret that attempts have been made to attribute political motives to its founders, leaders and friends, and indignantly reject in particular the insinuation and accusations in which the name of a most worthy Catholic was, and still is, abused in order to arouse prejudice against his brethren of the same faith, and excite unwholesome national accusations, and the attacks hurled at the St. Raphael society by Catholic prelates, priests and laymen at the German-American priest-convention; in fact German Catholics generally, already condemn themselves by their evident absurdity and falseness, especially when hidden under the cover of patriotism or even of devotion to the holy see.

T. PLATT UNDER THE HAT.

"Me Too" Whooping It Up for Harrison.

Opening of the Republican Campaign in Gotham.

Platt, Miller and Depew Posing as Friends and Brothers.

Each of Them Speaks a Little Piece in Behalf of the Inheritor of Grandfather's Beaver—Reid Also Heard From.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The first Republican meeting of the presidential campaign in this city was held tonight. Cooper Union hall was packed, and many could not get in. The hall was profusely decorated with American flags, and on either side of the speakers' stand were German and Irish flags. The audience went wild when Thomas C. Platt, Warner Miller and Channey M. Depew came in together. Platt was introduced as chairman, and was received with great cheering.

MR. TOO SPEAKS HIS PIECE. Mr. Platt said: "Our friends the enemy, and our enemies claiming to be friends, manifested much anxiety over the lively contest at the last national Republican convention between the friends of the different aspirants for the presidential nomination. There is nothing to worry about, Benjamin Harrison stands today as the representative of the grand old Republican party, the bearer of the flag of protection, reciprocity and honest money, and as such we pledge him a united party. . . . Cleveland and the Democratic party cannot go into this campaign under the lying banner of tariff reform. The Democratic convention at Chicago would have no such milk and water principles, so substituted a tariff for revenue only plank. On that plank the Republican party joins issue with the Democracy. Cleveland and Hill both agree that protection is a cheat, but neither of them dares endorse absolute free trade, so they are both compelled to repudiate the platform and straddle the issue."

"The Republican party believes in honest money; no juggling with or debasing of the national currency. It wants a silver dollar the equal of the gold dollar, and a paper dollar backed by the honor of the republic, a representative of value as precious as silver or gold. As we demand that this nation never saw, when gold was at a premium of 250 per cent, the Republican party, true to its principles, refused to compromise the nation's honor by paying the interest on the public debt in greenbacks. What was the result? United States bonds became the gilt edged investment of the civilized world. No greater financial crime has been attempted in the country than the Democratic endeavor to substitute the issues of irresponsible state banks for our present national currency.

"As to the so-called force bill, the Democratic newspapers have persistent ly spread through their columns for the past all sorts of incendiary appeals and bogus information regarding the alleged force bill. There never has been a force bill which was endorsed by the Republican party. The party, however, believes in a free ballot and a fair count, and that we will have. We fought for that right from Bull Run to Appomattox. We paid for that privilege $5,000,000,000 and over a million precious lives, and in God's name we will fight for it as long as a single Republican remains alive within the limits of the American union, be it in the state of Alabama or the state of New York."

Platt closed with an earnest admonition to Republicans to organize throughout the city, state and land, and to help with all their might to get every Republican voter out on election day.

"WHITELY REID HAS HIS SAY. When the cheering which followed his address had subsided, Platt introduced Whitely Reid as the next vice president of the United States, and once the audience broke out in enthusiastic applause. Mr. Reid spoke briefly, saying in part:

"Is the country to abandon its present prosperous security and recklessly venture out upon the sea of chance in the tariff, reciprocity, banking, currency and shipping, which the Chicago platform proposes? That depends upon whether the Republican party of the state of New York does its full duty and exerts its full strength for the next six weeks. For you will not forget that our opponents have carried the state for a presidential candidate but three times in 38 years. In 1856 Fremont took away the electoral vote of New York from Buchanan by a plurality of 80,000. Never, from that day to this, have the Democrats been able to regain those electoral votes, save when they had a popular leader of this state as their candidate, with a united party behind him. Such leaders were Seymour and Tilden, and such another Cleveland was thought to be when first nominated for the presidency. Yet he carried the state the first time by but 1047, and the next time was beaten by 18,000 votes by Benjamin Harrison. On that ratio and under that same leader, what sort of a majority against him, ought New York to give this time? Six weeks of individual and united effort will be enough, if we only base our campaign on what we are going to do for ourselves, not on what we fancy or hope the disensions of the enemy may do for us. Providence helps those who help themselves."

WARNER MILLER TALKS. Platt next introduced ex-Senator Warner Miller, who spoke at some length. All the differences of opinion in the Republican party, he declared, ended when the Minneapolis convention declared its choice. Whatever difficulties have existed have passed away. He traced the achievements of the Republican party at length, and refuted the Democratic arguments. Speaking of pensions, he said the Democrats were just now in favor of the veterans, and would continue to be until the 9th of November.

SPELL-BINDER DEFEW HEARD FROM. There were loud calls for Depew, and the great spell-binder came to the front. He said he did not come tonight to make a speech, but for the purpose of convincing skeptical newspapers that there is harmony in the Republican party.

"Brothers Miller, Platt and I got on opposite sides of the fence at Minneapolis," said he; "but we're as frisky as lambs in the same lot now."

"The trouble with the Democratic brother," said Depew, "is that the figure he makes, he always makes in advance, and on the wrong side. They are always trying to prove that the country is going to the eternal bowwows in hot haste, especially if the Republicans are in power. Figures will lie when a liar makes them."

Mr. Depew, eulogizing his course, paid a glowing tribute to President Harrison, and resolutions were adopted declaring the pride of the New York Republicans in their record, and confidence in the success of the party, and extolling the achievements of the national administration.

Ventura Senatorial Candidates. SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 28.—The Republican senatorial convention of the Thirty-fifth district today nominated Orestes Orr, of Ventura, for state senator. The convention instructed him to vote, if elected, for a representative of Southern California for United States senator.

The Democratic convention of the same district also met today and nominated W. E. Shepard, of Ventura, for state senator.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS.

CHOLERA ALMOST PETERED OUT AT NEW YORK.

No New Cases in the City or at Quarantine—The Normanna Sails for Europe—The Plague Subsidizing Abroad.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—News from both the quarantine and the convalescent camp at Fire Island today are encouraging. At the former place there are no new cases, and the patients are doing better. All are well at Fire Island. The ill-fated Normanna, which has been quarantined since the 3d instant, left for Southampton this morning.

The White Star steamer Teutonic arrived this morning from Liverpool. The only sickness on the voyage was that of the chief cook, who died of heart failure.

The old Starliner Noordland, brought 152 first cabin, and 101 second cabin passengers. All are well.

HAMBURG, Sept. 28.—Official figures give 49 new cases and 30 deaths from cholera yesterday, a decrease of 15 cases and an increase of seven deaths. Private reports, however, make the number of new cases 143 and deaths 57.

Sr. PETERSBURG, Sept. 28.—There were reported in this city yesterday, 13 new cases of cholera, a decrease of two cases compared with Monday, and three deaths against two Monday. Reports from the provinces show that the epidemic continues to decrease in virulence.

CHERBOURG, Sept. 28.—Three cases of so-called choleric are reported here. This is now the port of arrival from and departure for New York, of the Generale Transatlantique line steamers, the change having been made because of the prevalence of cholera in Havre.

PECK AGAIN IN COURT.

The Labor Commissioner Trying to Wiggle Out of a Bad Service.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Commissioner Peck and Stenographer Rodgers appeared in court again this afternoon. Attorney Meegan, for the defense, asked that the indictment be sent back to the police court, so the case can be regularly and legally tried. He said secret action in the police court and before the grand jury, on the part of the district attorney, was prejudicial to the defense. The deponent was prepared to establish his entire innocence when examined before Police Justice Guttman, but was denied that right, and an indictment found, as deponent believes, to embarrass him in his defense, and dignify him in the public eye with a view to effect results. Meegan said some of the grand jurors were incompetent and improper. District Attorney Eaton replied, arguing that the charge against Peck was a case the grand jury could competently consider. The case went over until Monday.

HOLD-OVER SENATORSHIPS.

The Question Again Argued Before the Supreme Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—Chief Justice Beatty on Monday last issued an alternative writ of mandate directing Governor Markham to call an election for state senator in the Sixth senatorial district, comprising the counties of Yolo, Yuba and Sutter. The writ was issued on a petition of J. W. Snowball, Democratic nominee for senator in that district, which is now represented by Senator Ostrom, who, it is claimed, should hold over until the expiration, two years hence, of the term for which he was originally elected. The governor failed to comply with the mandate, and argument began before the supreme court in bank this morning, the people being represented by ex-Chief Justice McKinstry and Garret McEnerney, and the governor by Attorney General Hart.

An Imperial Move in Brazil. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Herald's special from Valparaiso says a letter from Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, says a strong party has been formed in that state for the purpose of proclaiming Dom Pedro's grandson emperor. Governor Martins is said to be more or less favorable to the project, and papers had been started to advocate it.

Mine Explorers Killed. WALSBERG, O., Sept. 28.—While Superintendent D. E. Muir and a miner, William Holt, were exploring an unused chamber of the Wilson coal mine, this afternoon, accumulated gas ignited, and both men were killed by the explosion which ensued.
