

SENATOR STEWART'S SAVINGS.

The Monetary Conference Is a Fraud and Failure.

Free Coinage Is the Foremost Issue in National Politics.

If the Republicans or the Democrats Do Not Meet It, the Populists Will Come Into Power in 1896.

New York, Dec. 28.—Senator William M. Stewart of Nevada is in town. "The monetary conference," he said, "is a fraud; it won't amount to anything. If the Republicans do not hurry up and pass a free coinage bill this winter, they will not carry a state west of the Rocky mountains in 1896. If the Democrats do not pass a free coinage bill when they come into power, the Populists will elect the president in 1896." He said free coinage will be the Populists' principal issue.

NATIONAL QUARANTINE.

A Bill to Be Introduced in Congress After Recess. WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The subcommittee having charge of the subject of establishing a national quarantine have agreed upon a bill, which will be reported to the full committee after recess. The bill agreed upon puts the national quarantine system into the hands of the hospital service of the revenue marine. Wherever state quarantine regulations exist the hospital service of the revenue marine shall have power to enforce the laws and regulations of the different states. Where there are no state quarantine regulations, or where, in the opinion of the marine hospital service, the quarantine regulations of a state are not sufficient to prevent the introduction of contagious diseases into the United States, the marine hospital service shall report the facts to the secretary of the treasury, who, if in his judgment it is necessary or proper, shall order the marine hospital service to make such additional rules and regulations as are necessary to prevent the introduction of such diseases into the United States from foreign countries, or in one state from another state. The president is also authorized to suspend immigration from foreign countries where infectious diseases exist.

JUMPED FROM A WINDOW.

A Wealthy Widow's Romantic Marriage and Subsequent Separation. CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—This morning a woman jumped from a second story window of the Atlantic hotel, and called for the protection of a passing policeman. She told the following story: Through an advertisement in a farming paper she made the acquaintance of Winfield S. Jefferson, who claims he is a ranch owner in Douglas county, Oregon. She is Mrs. Mattie Alexander, a wealthy widow of Kinderhook, New York. They corresponded, met here and were married yesterday. She had $500 cash and $700 in certified checks on her person, and claimed that her husband had borrowed $880. Last night after he went to sleep she concluded he married her for money and decided to escape from him. The hotel clerk consented to let her in an out-of-the-way room, and tried to rape her this morning, but she escaped by jumping from the window. The husband says he believes his wife is temporarily demented, but that she will be all right in a few days. The woman appears to be perfectly sane.

RECOMMENDED FOR PARDON.

A Notorious Bank Robber to Be Let Out of Prison. BOSTON, Dec. 28.—The executive council today unanimously voted to pardon James Dunlap, the notorious bank robber, who is now in the state prison. This action awaits Governor Russell's approval. Dunlap's case is the most notable in the history of the executive council. Dunlap was in 1877 sentenced with Robert Scott to imprisonment for 20 years in the state prison for robbing the Northampton national bank of $2,000,000 in cash, bonds and other securities, one-half of which were negotiable.

NOT A DEPUTY MARSHAL.

Bill Dalton Never Wore an Officer's Star. FORT SMITH, Ark., Dec. 28.—Jacob Yoes, United States marshal for the western district of Arkansas, has sent word to the news agencies that there is no truth in the report recently sent out from Kansas City that Bill Dalton, brother of the outlaws recently killed in the Coffeyville, Kan., raid, had been a commissioned United States deputy marshal. Marshal Yoes said there never was any intention of giving Bill Dalton the position in question, and there is none now.

The Johnson Court-Martial.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The record of the proceedings of the court-martial in the case of Commander M. L. Johnson, charged with responsibility for the grounding of the U. S. S. Mohican on the Pacific coast, has reached the navy department. The case will be reviewed by Judge Advocate General Ledy and then be submitted to the secretary of the navy for action. The findings of the court will not be announced officially in advance of such action, but the impression among naval officers who have followed the proceedings is that Commander Johnson was practically acquitted by the court.

A Very Old Woman.

New York, Dec. 28.—A Russian Jewess who died from old age last Sunday was certainly one of the oldest women on earth. In the statements she made to a relative, she said that she was born in Odessa, Russia, in 1768, which would make her 124 years old.

Lost.

Once lost, it is difficult to restore the hair. Therefore to be warned in time, let your hair become bald. Skookum root hair grower restores balding hair. Sold by druggists.

Deacon Sues for Divorce.

New York, Dec. 28.—Edward Parker Deacon, who shot Emile Abeille in the Hotel Splendide at Cannes, France, because of Abeille's alleged undue intimacy with Deacon's wife, has brought an action in the supreme court here for an absolute divorce.

DISCORDANT HARMONISTS.

Dissatisfaction in the Society Over the Election of John Duss. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 28.—The dissatisfaction in the Harmonist society growing out of the supreme control given John Duss, it is said, is likely to assume a legal phase. Several members will probably go into court soon and ask for the appointment of a receiver, not to wind up the affairs of the corporation, but to carry on its business, audit the accounts and make a report to its members. At the same time the receiver is asked for, application will be made for the dissolution of the document filed last week in the Beaver county court, in which Trustee Duss is vested with full power to conduct the financial and commercial affairs of the society. The grounds for the dissolution of the articles of agreement will be based on the charge of incompetency. In other words, it is claimed that Father Henric, Elizabeth Beck and several other persons whose signatures are attached to the instrument, did not know the nature of the paper they were putting their names to.

Importation of Rags Prohibited.

Boston, Dec. 28.—Collector Beard has received a sweeping order from the treasury department at Washington concerning the importation of rags. The order absolutely prohibits the importation of rags from Paris, Rouen, Havre, Marseilles, Cherbourg, Dunkirk and Lorient in France, ports and places in Russia, Netherlands, Belgium, Austria-Hungary (except Trieste), and Hamburg, Altona, and Jiewo in Germany. All other places where cholera is known to be prevailing or may hereafter prevail, will be included in the list.

PIONEERS PASSING AWAY.

JUSTICE SHARPSTEIN LYING AT THE POINT OF DEATH. Paralysis of the Left Side Makes His Recovery Extremely Doubtful. The Venerable Loring Pickering Dead. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—Justice John E. Sharpstein of the supreme court is reported to be critically ill. The venerable judge was stricken with paralysis Monday night and his whole left side is paralyzed. He is very old and most of the time is unconscious. Judge Sharpstein was elected to the supreme bench by the Workmen in 1879, and was later re-elected, so that he has been for 12 years on the supreme bench. He is the only Democrat on the supreme bench, all the other justices being Republicans. In the event of Judge Sharpstein's decease the governor would be called upon to make an appointment to fill the unexpired part of the term.

LORING PICKERING DEAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—Loring Pickering, proprietor of the Morning Call, of this city, died at 8:45 this morning, after an illness of several weeks, caused by a complication of stomach and kidney troubles. Mr. Pickering was the oldest pioneer newspaper man on the Pacific coast. He was born in Richmond, N. H., July 31, 1812, of English parentage. In 1832 he started west. During the early part of his life he lived at different times in Louisville, New Orleans and St. Louis, finally settling in Hennepin, Ill., where he accumulated considerable money in mercantile pursuits. In 1846 he purchased two influential papers in St. Louis, the Reporter and Missouriian, and soon after established the St. Louis Union. In St. Louis he became director of a bank, and was finally sent to the state legislature. In 1849 Mr. Pickering came to California, accompanied by his wife, and engaged in mercantile pursuits at Alhambra, Placer county. He went to Sacramento in 1850, and bought the Placer Times. In 1852 the Placer Times was consolidated with the Transcript, then owned by George K. Fitch. This resulted in a life partnership of Mr. Pickering and Mr. Fitch. The Placer Times-Transcript was moved to San Francisco in 1852. In 1855 Mr. Pickering became owner of the Alta-California. After selling the Alta he traveled abroad, returning in 1860. In 1861 he bought an interest in the Evening Bulletin, which was then owned by Mr. Fitch. Mr. Pickering purchased the Morning Call in 1867, which he successfully managed until his death. He leaves a widow and a son 5 years of age.

A Missing Man Heard From.

SANTA ROSA, Dec. 28.—The whereabouts of John Champion, a Cloverdale wine man, who mysteriously disappeared from home November 26th, have been ascertained. Frank Nervo, who has been in his employ many years at his Cloverdale farm, and whom Champion owes nearly $3000, received a telegram from him yesterday from London saying he had just reached there and would settle up his accounts at once. When Champion left here he owed debts amounting to nearly $25,000. Many believed he had committed suicide, while others thought he was crazy or had been murdered.

American Cholera.

"T. C. Burnett, the Democratic candidate for sheriff, was taken violently ill at Clearbrook. He had all the symptoms of Asiatic cholera, and for an hour or two it was feared he would die. They finally gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, which revived him until a physician arrived. That is precisely what the manufacturers of that medicine recommend for cholera. Send for a physician, but give him the medicine until the physician arrives. If cholera becomes prevalent in this country next summer this preparation will be in great demand, because it can always be depended upon. For sale by C. F. Heinemann, druggist, 222 North Main street.

Judge Lynch Adjoins a Rape Trial.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Dec. 28.—At noon, a mob of 1000 armed men entered court, took the negro assant of Miss Anderson from the officers, dragged him to the fair grounds, hanged him to a tree and riddled his body with bullets.

Corser's Creditors.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Dec. 28.—Corser's creditors held a meeting yesterday at which the former made a statement placing his assets at $1,000,000 and his liabilities at $800,000. No assignment papers have been filed as yet, and only an approximate list of creditors can be given. There are rumors of other failures to come because of Corser's embarrasment.

An Opium Smuggler Captured.

BOSTON, Dec. 28.—The treasury department inspectors made a most important arrest when they took in Simeon Mathieu, an opium smuggler, today. They also captured $2250 worth of stuff. Mathieu cheated the government out of thousands of dollars worth of revenue.
