

SEEN FLOATING BOTTOM UP.

The Schooner Volant from San Pedro Lost at Sea.

Nothing Seen or Heard of Her Crew of Nine Men.

The Bark Majestic Thought to Have Gone Down in the Same Gale with Her Crew of Eleven Men.

By the Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—The steamer Costa Rica which arrived here today from Departure bay, reports that on January 13th the schooner Volant, which sailed in ballast December 18th, from San Pedro for Eureka, was seen floating bottom up off Gorde rock. Nothing has been heard of the Volant's crew of nine men. The Volant was commanded by Captain Peterson, who owned a one-eighth interest in the vessel. Following are the names of others of the crew as far as obtainable: O. Thompson, first mate; Julius Larsen, second mate; George Nash, steward; John Nicholson and Charles Nelson. Before the Volant sailed from San Pedro, George Dixon and Joseph Walters, who belonged to the crew, were paid off and left the vessel. The Volant was valued at $25,000.

It is thought that the gale that wrecked the Volant also sent the bark Majestic to the bottom. She is now 30 days out from Seattle and was in the storm of December 23d and 24th. She was an old vessel and heavily loaded with coal. The general opinion among sailors is that her seams opened and that she went down bodily. The Majestic left here on November 8th, last, with a general cargo for Seattle. She made a fair passage up, and after discharging, loaded coal for this port. She sailed on the 13th of December. If she lived through the terrific southeaster of the following Saturday, then she was caught again in the storm that raged all day Friday and Saturday evening. The bark was 40 years old and had not been repaired for 12 years. In consequence, the general opinion is that she has gone to the bottom. The Majestic carried a crew of about 11 all told. Of these the names of only seven can be ascertained. They are O. Lorentzen, captain; H. Anderson, first mate; Thomas Leland, George Sweeney, G. C. Clark, N. J. Olson and Charles Brown, sailors. The last five were all members of the Seamen's union of the Pacific, and none of their comrades ever expect to see them again.

A JAIL DELIVERY.

Two Prisoners Assisted to Escape at Visalia.

VISALIA, Cal., Jan. 14.—Dr. R. M. Osborn and W. W. Rogers broke jail this morning, and are still absent. Osborn was awaiting trial on the charge of forgery and thus securing $1300 from the Bank of Lemoore. Rogers stole a watch from a man named Hanford. Both men were arraigned in the superior court, and their cases were set for trial. A man confined in the jail says a small man entered the jail door on the north side with a key and let out the men. The prisoners had already cut the overhead gratings of their cell, and Rogers had locked the letters from his leg. Osborn was not fettered. There is no doubt that the prisoners had outside assistance.

STANFORD'S ASSESSMENT.

The Grand Jury Thinks the Senator is Shirking Just Taxation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—The grand jury of Santa Clara county, in which Senator Stanford's celebrated Palo Alto stock farm is located, rendered a report yesterday. It says Senator Stanford's horses are assessed for the year 1892 at a valuation of $43,000, while in the estimation of the grand jury $500,000 would be a fair assessment for the trotting and thoroughbred stock at Palo Alto. The assessment for buildings and improvements amount to $100,000, while the valuation thereof is at least $1,200,000. These improvements include the buildings of Leland Stanford, jr., university.

TRACED TO THE RIVER.

An Old Man Thought to Have Been Drowned Near Stockton.

STOCKTON, Jan. 14.—Joseph Burnett, an old man who lived with his nephew by marriage, C. P. Kaluto, on Roberts island, this county, is missing, and his relatives believe he was drowned Thursday morning. His hat and coat were found on the bank of the San Joaquin river about a mile from his home. Search has been made for his body, but without success. The old man was weak-minded, and it is said he showed his mental falling on the day of his disappearance by walking up and down the main road near his home for a long time. He was last seen going toward the river.

ARIZONA EDITORS.

They Want One of their Number Appointed Governor.

PHOENIX, Jan. 14.—The Arizona Press Association was in session in this city today. Resolutions were passed with reference to the admission of the territory. The association, in the event of the failure of the admission bill, adopted a resolution endorsing for the gubernatorial appointment L. O. Hughes, editor of the Tucson Star, a delegate to the Chicago convention and the man credited with having created the stampede for Cleveland by casting the vote of Arizona for him, against the urgent solicitation of friends of Hill.

MILLIONAIRE LADD'S WILL.

Requests Made to Many Relatives and for Education and Charity.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 14.—The will of the late W. S. Ladd was filed for probate this afternoon. Caroline A. Ladd, widow of the deceased, and his three sons, William M., Charles E. and John W., were named as executors. The widow is bequeathed the family residence and the block adjoining, together with the household furniture, horses, carriages, etc., and an annuity of $14,000. To his three sons is bequeathed in trust all his interest in the banking firm of Ladd & Tilton. The sum of $460,000 is left in trust with the executors to be used for educational and charitable purposes in this city and state. The trustees are given full power and discretion to select and designate the beneficiaries of the bequest.

The deceased indicated the founding of an asylum for old and indigent ladies. To his mother, who resides in Malden, Mass., he left an annuity of $1000. A number of other relatives of the deceased, living in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, are bequeathed annuities of from $200 to $600. The remainder of his estate, which constitutes the bulk of his property, is bequeathed as follows: To his widow, two sons, William M. and Charles E., one fifth absolutely; to his daughters, Helen Ladd-Corbett of Portland, and Caroline Ladd-Pratt of Brooklyn, N. Y., each one-tenth absolutely. Wesley Ladd, the youngest son, is bequeathed one-fifth in trust until he is 40 years of age. The will was executed and signed December 20, 1892.

Gen. W. H. L. Barnes Sandbagged.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Gen. W. H. L. Barnes, one of the city's most prominent attorneys, was attacked and beaten severely by garrotes late last night as he was entering his house. He was ascending the steps of his residence when two men attacked him with sandbags. General Barnes made a desperate resistance and drove the men off. Barnes received two severe scalp wounds and was otherwise bruised. There is no clue to the garrotes.

Smallpox in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Three cases of smallpox were reported to the health officer today from a house on Howard near Twentieth street. They are Willie, Henry and George Ramensburg, aged 15, 7 and 3 years, respectively.

Edgar Mills' Will.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—The will of the late Edgar Mills was filed for probate today. His estate, valued at over $1,200,000, is bequeathed to his three children.

AT THE STATE CAPITAL.

LITTLE BUSINESS OF IMPORTANCE TRANSACTED YESTERDAY.

Several Bills Reported Favorably to the Assembly—An Adjournment Taken In Respect to the Memory of Creed Haymond.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 14.—In the absence of Speaker Gould, Matthews of Tehama called the assembly to order this morning.

The judiciary committee reported in favor of the passage of the bill amending the code of civil procedure, relative to the serving of summons.

The committee also reported against the bill providing for the payment of $2 a day to all jurors and witnesses in criminal cases.

A number of bills were introduced, and those on the general file were read for the second time, one being the railroad re-assessment bill. Anderson moved to amend by making the time since which taxes are delinquent, the year 1880 instead of 1882. He also asked that the bill go over until Monday, as members were absent who might wish to discuss it. Shanahan and Dodge opposed delay, the latter raising the point that Anderson's amendment would "knock out" the bill.

After the assembly transacted some other business, Anderson moved that when an adjournment be taken it be out of respect to the memory of the late Creed Haymond, who had drawn up the codes under which legislation proceeded. Carried. Adjourned until Monday.

The assembly committee on constitutional amendments this morning decided to report favorably Monday. Alfred's amendment exempting non-bearing fruit trees and vines from taxation, and the amendment to an educational qualification for voters, which provides that a person who may be unable to read or write because of physical disability or age shall not be debarred from voting.

A Brotherhood Broken Up.

WICHITA, Kan., Jan. 14.—An order was promulgated by the Santa Fe officials today that all employees of the road must either resign their positions or withdraw from the Brotherhood of Station Men. The men realized that the brotherhood was not powerful enough to cope with the road, hence forwarded their resignations to brotherhood headquarters.

Fertilizers for Peach Trees.

Tests recently made at the New Jersey experiment station gave interesting results from the application of various fertilizing materials to peach trees planted seven years ago. The orchard was divided into plots of one-tenth of an acre each and the tests carefully conducted under the direction of the chemist of the station. It was found that nitrate of soda at the rate of 150 pounds to the acre did not increase the yield at all; superphosphate added about 30 per cent with 350 pounds applied; muriate of potash with 150 pounds doubled the yield. When these three, namely, superphosphate, muriate of potash and nitrate of soda were applied together in the same quantity, the product was more than doubled. Each 22 horse loads of barn manure exceeded them all, yielding three times as much as the untreated plot. Such experiments, of course, are liable to vary with soils, seasons and treatment, and therefore require several repetitions. A plot which has been limed every year gave a small return, showing that lime was not needed on that soil. In another plot 50 bushels of lime with only 10 loads of barn manure gave a much smaller crop than the one with 22 horse loads of barn manure. Comparing the cost of the fertilizers with the gain secured, the best return for money expended was by the muriate of potash. This estimate does not include the increased selling price of the fruit on account of its superior quality and finer appearance.

It has been figured out that the hair-spring of your watch weighs but one-twentieth of a grain per inch. One mile of such wire would weigh much less than half a pound.

Speaking of Delilah it may be remarked that a leading Philadelphia society lady has hair 63 inches in length. She is only 61 inches (5 feet 1 inch) in height.

The pocket shooting iron promises to become more deadly than ever. A revolver has been invented that shoots seven times in a second.

It does not pay to slight the men of the road, for they are numerous as well as alert. There are 300,000 commercial travelers in the United States.

AFFAIRS IN BLEEDING KANSAS.

The Senate Recognizes the Populist House.

This Action Causes Some Fiery Speeches to Be Made.

The Compact Between the Democrats and Populists Dissolved—A Democratic Senator Is a Possibility.

By the Associated Press.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 14.—The rival houses resembled this morning and proceeded industriously to do nothing.

A debate in the senate over its recognition of the Populist house came up on the presentation of a house concurrent resolution. O'Brien, Fusion-Democrat, moved that consideration of the resolution be deferred till Monday. A hot debate followed.

Three fusion Democrats, O'Brien, Dillard and Taylor, led the fight against the resolution. Aided by Republicans they filibustered away most of the day, and it was 3 o'clock before voting began. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 22 to 18. The Republican members filed a joint protest against the action, and the three fusionists filed individual protests. The senate then adjourned until Tuesday morning.

The dual house spent the time today waiting for the decision of the senate upon the proposition to recognize the Populist house. Time dragged wearily along until 3 o'clock, when the senate's chief clerk appeared on the floor and in a message to the presiding officer of the senate informed the Populist speaker, Dinsmore, of the recognition of his house. The Populists cheered, but the Republican speaker, Douglas, rapped for order, and with an earnestness that compelled the attention of even the Populists, said, addressing the Republican house:

"Gentlemen of the house, allow your- selves no uneasiness. The Almighty has wisely reserved the powers of creation to himself alone. All powers on earth, the senators and governor included, cannot make 63 men out of 58 men, and in every free representative body in the world, the majority rules. The principles of self-government are on trial in Kansas today, but it triumphed then and it will triumph now. A constitutional house of representatives with 67 lawful members is here and ready for business, and here it will remain, untrifled and unswayed. What is the further pleasure of the house?"

The Populist speaker was on his feet in an instant. He said the struggle for the mastery of the house was finally ended. The governor and senate had now both recognized the Populist house; that body legally constituted the house of representatives, and no power on earth save the sword could dissolve it. Hisses from the galleries and the Republican house greeted this utterance, but they were soon drowned by Populist cheers.

Continuing, Dinsmore said: "When we adjourn till next week I earnestly hope some scheme may be devised to adjust our difficulties, and in settling them our interests of Dinsmore need not be considered on a minute."

By mutual agreement both houses adjourned until 4 p. m., Monday. Just before adjournment of the house, the members of the committee appointed to inform the governor that the legislature was ready for business, announced that the governor informed them he would transmit his message Monday Tuesday.

Not the least of the results of the split house is the dissolution of the compact between the Democrats and Populists. Jerry Simpson has notified that the party central committee that the party heretofore existing between the Populists and Democrats was dissolved. The two had a lively interview. It is understood the Republicans say the Democrats may have the senatorship, and the friends of A. A. Harris of Fort Scott are very active in his behalf, but Bally P. Wagoner of Atchinson continues to have the call.

STANFORD TO RESIGN.

Rumor Says So, but the Senator Denies the Soft Impachment.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—A Washington special says: News is received here that Senator Stanford of California fully decided to resign, though his term will not be up for two years. Unless there is some understanding between Stanford and the Populists in the California legislature by which a Republican successor will be chosen, this will give the Democrats straight control of the senate, assuming that Stephen M. White, the Democratic caucus nominee to succeed Felton, is successful. The Democrats now have 30 straight Democratic senators. They gained one in New York and one in Wisconsin, and with two in California they will have 43. Kyle of South Dakota, independent, has already let it be known that he will act with the Democrats. This, with Vice-President Stevenson's casting vote, would give them control, even though they should slip up on Wyoming.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Senator Stanford stated to the Evening Post today that the report that he was to resign from the senate is untrue. He says his health is good and he does not consider he would be doing justice to his party or his country by resigning.

Oklahoma's Deadlock.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Jan. 14.—Both branches of the legislature adjourned till Monday without effecting a permanent organization. The deadlock in the lower house is unchanged.

Cleveland Files an Answer.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 14.—President-elect Cleveland filed an answer in the chancery court today in a suit growing out of the debt settlement brought by Willis B. Smith against him and others. A summons was served on Cleveland when he was on a hunting expedition at Hog Island. Cleveland says in answer that he is wholly ignorant of the relations alleged by the complainant, Willis B. Smith, to have existed between himself and one of the defendants, James T. Mason, and Cleveland also states his only connection with the matter of the settlement of Virginia's debt was simply to engage in certain correspondence in connection with the advisory board.

Cleveland Refuses to Talk.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., Jan. 14.—President-elect Cleveland refused to be interviewed today, and sent word that he had nothing to say regarding the story that Carlisle had written him a letter accepting the treasury portfolio, on condition that the administration would support him for the presidency in 1896.

Arkansas' New Administration.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 14.—Governor Eagle retired today and Col. W. A. M. Fishback was inaugurated, together with the other officers elected in September. Governor Fishback's address was brief and devoted to discussing the material resources of the state.

A DOUBLE PARRICIDE.

AN INDOLENT SON MURDERS BOTH OF HIS PARENTS.

He Also Shot His Sister, but Not With Fatal Result—The Terrible Crime the Outcome of a Family Row.

CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 14.—A tragedy was enacted here this afternoon which will result in the loss of two lives and in all probability the conviction of Thomas Rodgers as a double parricide. Rodgers is a youth 24 years old; his victims are his father, Thomas Rodgers, 60 years old; his mother, Martha Ann Rodgers, about the same age, and his married sister, Mrs. William Kilday. Thomas' father reprimanded him today for being late, declaring he must go to work or leave the house. Thomas answered, "You can't put me out," and gave upstairs secured his brother-in-law's revolver. The wife and daughter attempted to save the father, but Thomas deliberately fired two bullets into him. The first shot entered his thigh and the second lodged in his heart. After his father had fallen to the floor young Rodgers kicked him in the face. The mother attempted to escape by the cellar door, but a bullet from the son's revolver struck her in the back and penetrated her left lung. His sister, Mrs. Kilday, fled from the house and her brother shot her while she ran in almost the same place as he wounded his mother. The bullet glanced on the shoulder blade and thus saved the young woman's life. His revolver, now empty, he would be murderer ran up the street to an alderman's office and entering locked the door against a large crowd which followed. The police were notified and Rodgers was arrested and locked up. His three victims were taken to the hospital, where physicians announced that his wounded father and mother could not live until morning.

Young Rodgers said the attack was the result of a family row, and that he intended to kill the old man. He gave no reason, however, for assaulting his mother and sister. There is much excitement in the community, and extra precautions have been taken by the police to guard against lynching. Rodgers, it is said, died shortly after 9 o'clock to-night.

IN THE LAW'S CLUTCHES.

Ah Lung Wanted a Clean Shirt—Police Notes.

Ah Lung was arrested yesterday and charged with stealing a striped shirt from the "Poor Man's Friend" store. Lung is a suspicious character, and Detective Aulseb saw him hanging around the store, and placed the store-keeper on his guard. The Chinaman shuffled in and two or three times was in the act of putting the shirt under his coat, but it seems he had a presentiment that he was watched and replaced the article. Finally he secreted the article, and was arrested by Officers Blane and Smith. J. J. Gusehshoven registered at a Santa Monica hotel several days ago, and failing to pay his board bill, he was given 60 days' imprisonment in the county jail. He was brought up by a constable last evening.

Fred Johnson and George Gray were sent in from San Fernando yesterday to serve 10 days' imprisonment each on the charge of misdemeanor, which consisted in making a bonfire of a few rotten railroad ties, which they found by the wayside.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The world's fair board of control has disposed of the matter of awards by adopting the jury system. The rules adopted provide for a general jury on awards of 400 members, which will be divided into departmental jurors, and the smaller bodies will do the work.

AN APOSTOLIC DELEGATE.

Keane and Monsignor O'Connell have been dogged by spies, their letters were stolen, and a large number of them are now in the hands of a man named Dreing of San Francisco, who publishes the Western Witness. The result is that the father notified Archbishop Riordan and advised him to recover the documents, of which a wrong use might be made. Dreing himself wrote Archbishop Riordan to say he held the papers and was willing to give them up on certain terms. The archbishop refused to negotiate with him and applied to the San Francisco police, but was informed they could not recover the letters unless he placed a money value on them, and would go into court, where the contents would be made public.

Baltimore Priests Pleased.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 14.—No ecclesiastic in Baltimore, of high or low degree, has anything whatever to say regarding the appointment of Monsignor Satolli as permanent apostolic delegate to the United States. The priests are well pleased and of the opinion that it will put an end to the "inspired" publications of late in the derogation of the nobility of character of the grandest members of the episcopacy in the United States.

General Rollins Looking for a Mine.

H. A. Howard returned this morning, says the San Diego Sun, from Ensenada, where he made a flying trip. He took down General Rollins, surveyor of Los Angeles county, who is inspecting the San Fernando and Franquesa mining properties which are located about 80 miles from Ensenada. General Rollins will remain over until the next boat comes up and then the matter will be definitely settled as to the purchase of the mines.

At the Onyx Mines.

The development of the onyx mines at Los Tules, Lower California, says the San Diego Union, has attracted many prospectors, and it is reported that gold placers have been discovered a few miles distant, at which over 80 men are now working. The miners average about $3 per day each, and thus far no bonanza strikes are reported. The most convenient route is via the port of Grande, the onyx company's landing.

A world full of intelligence and enriched by art would be worth living in.

OFFENSIVE ECZEMA.

Suffered Terribly. Doctors and Medicines Useless. Cured in Four Weeks by Cuticura.

I have a boy, fifteen years old, born in Fishkill, portrait enclosed, who had the eczema so offensive that I could not stay in the room with him. The poor boy suffered terribly. His feet were terribly sore, he could not wear any shoes, and had to lie in bed for a long time. When he put on a pair of dry stockings in the morning, they would in one hour be saturated with moisture and very offensive, even in the cold weather. The disease began to spread over his body, especially his hands and fingers. The thumbs on both hands became stiff and as useless as two withered sticks of wood. It would be useless for me to try to tell the suffering this boy endured. I took him to two different doctors, both gave him lots of medicine, but all to no use. He grew worse, and therefore despaired of ever being cured. One day I saw the great benefits promised to the one who would use CUTICURA REMEDY. I went right away to get a box and began to use it. I must confess I had but little faith in it. However, I used them according to directions, and today I say truthfully to all the world, if you wish to publish that you are entirely cured, thank God, and thank the discoverers of CUTICURA REMEDY. They cured him in four weeks as sound as a gold dollar. JOHN SAVAGE, Fishkill Village, N. Y.

WHERE OTHERS FAILED.

With the best system of treatment known to the world, the German and English Staff Physicians find little difficulty in curing the worst cases of catarrh and other chronic diseases. Their practice is made up of patients who failed to obtain relief from other physicians, who are delighted to receive a mild and painless treatment after being cruelly experimented upon by men who do not know their business. If you are skeptical, call on any of the above parties and find what their experience has been.

TREATMENT BY MAIL.

We have so perfected our system of mail treatment that we succeed quite as well in this way as we do in our office practice. All who reside at a distance and cannot conveniently call at the office, should write their symptoms fully and frankly. Questions about all chronic troubles cheerfully answered.
