New Tannery.

HAVING determined to erect a permanent Tannery on my farm, in the Rich Valley, 5 miles North of Abingdon, I am now ready to receive hides. I will tan on the shares, or buy at the highest cash price, or barter for them at fair rates. I have no leather to exchange for them, but I have some wheat and a good deal of wool, which are about as good trade as leather. All I ask is a fair trial by my neighbors.

I also wish to employ a first-rate Tanner and Currier to carry on the business, or I would take a partner. None need apply, except a sober, steady, industrious and upright man.

JAS. W. PRICE, M. D., PERMANENT PHYSICIAN, Atlanta, Ga.

HAVING been absent, as Surgeon in the Army, during the last six months, would respectfully inform the afflicted at a distance, as well as the citizens of Atlanta and adjacent country, that he has again engaged in the practice of medicine, in all of its various branches.

It will be unnecessary to reiterate the fact of his unlimited success in curing the various and diversified chronic diseases to which human nature is liable. Especially has his attention been directed to the treatment of FEMALE DISEASES, such as Dysmenstrua, Leucorrhoea, Painful Menstruation, and such others as females are liable to, which, in most instances, may be permanently cured.

I also treat successfully, Rheumatism, Acute or Chronic, Syphilis, in all of its forms, especially when of the Mercurial type, Skin diseases, Liver complaints, Dyspepsia, together with bowel affections, either acute or chronic. And, indeed, there are but few diseases which may not be reached by proper medication.

The great secret of my success, however, depends not only upon an experience of some twenty-seven years, but, to a very large extent upon the agency of my "BEEFRO GALVANIC BATHS," which are the admiration and wonder of the scientific world.

Persons desiring my services can obtain them by calling upon me in Atlanta, where every thing shall be done, not only to cure them, but to render their stay in our city agreeable and pleasant.

If performed, (before coming here,) I will visit them at their homes, by paying my expenses, and five dollars per day, while absent from the city.

Office in the Markham Building, second flight of stairs. Residence near the Washington Hall.
