

POETRY.

The June Month.

The waning of the sweet May moon June's laughing face discloses, Her apron filled with butter-cups, Her bosom with red roses.

From the Lynchburg Virginian.

Raid.

We published an extract a few days since, from Northern sources, giving an account of the raid into Mathews and Gloucester counties.

We invite attention to the following confession of their infamous conduct, hoping that it may have the effect to induce our people to organize into military companies everywhere,

The rebel farmers were all taken by surprise.
They had not expected a demonstration of the kind. Not only were they made to surrender everything that could be of the least use to us, but they were compelled to be silent spectators of the destruction of their agricultural implements.

Our Private Soldiers.

No one can behold the achievements and the deportment of the private soldiers of the South without a feeling of admiration akin to reverence. They have performed deeds of valor which have startled the world, and which the leading journals of Europe have pronounced unsurpassed by the most heroic days of Greece and Rome.

The Atlanta "Confederacy" says that a negro about 20 years old, the body servant of Colonel Skidd Harris, who was recently killed in battle near Jackson, Miss., was with him at the time of the fight. After his master was wounded the boy dodged around among the pickets and got hold of the Colonel's horse, and after crossing the enemy's lines two or three times, finally made his escape, in company with a man who belonged to his master's regiment, came across the country, and both reached Atlanta safely, bringing the horse safely through. Sawney says he saw enough of the way the Yankees treat negroes to satisfy him that old Georgia is the best place for a darkey.

The Contrast.

The Richmond Sentinel states the fact that a great deal more money has been contributed to the families of the Fredericksburg refugees and sufferers by the soldiers in the army, than by citizens at home. This is as complimentary to the liberality and patriotism of the gallant men who are sacrificing everything in the field for their country, as it is disgraceful to those who are at their ease at home. Men who have made their thousands, and have escaped the perils of the battle, have not contributed as much as those who have made nothing, and are fighting for their homes and firesides. All honor to the noble men who have thus shown that their hearts are as good as they are brave.—Lynchburg Republican.

STOLEN from my premises, about 7 miles north of Jefferson, Ashe county, N. C., on the night of the 25th of April, 1863, a light sorrel Mare, with foxen mane and tail, 7 years old, about 15 hands 1 inch high, tolerably low carriage and heavy headed, with white hairs mixed all over her body, but more across her hips than any where else, some white hairs in the curl of her forehead, one white spot near her back-bone; mad by the saddle, heavy with foal when taken, and bent back in her knee joints. The mare was taken by a set of men saying they belonged to Jenkins' cavalry. The head one was by the name of John Duskins, who said he was a Lieutenant, one by the name of Screens, two by the name of Law, two by the name of Adkins, one by the EMOLUMENTAL.

A Useful, Easy and Lucrative Employment.
ONE hundred and fifty dollars per month can easily be made by any person of ordinary capacity, in a New, Useful and Highly Lucrative operation. This employment will not interfere with your other business. No capital is required to engage in this business, and but very little expense incurred. It requires no traveling or peddling, but gives you the comforts of a home, with a chance to make from $150 to $200 per month. This is no recipe of any kind, or agency, but it is something entirely new, and is highly recommended to all persons who desire a permanent, money-making and genteel employment. "No person will ever regret sending for this information, let his employment be what it may." I will send the whole right and knowledge of this employment to all persons for 25 cts. in specie or one dollar in paper currency.
Send the money in a letter to

EGYPTIAN CORN.

The subscriber offers to farmers throughout the country the EGYPTIAN CORN, which, upon trial, was found to ripen planted even the first of July. It is estimated, from its very prolific qualities, to yield 20 bushels per acre, and weighs, by sealed measure, sixty-five pounds to the bushel. This Corn was produced from some procured direct from Mr. Jones, our Consular Agent, directly on his return from Egypt.
It needs no different culture from that of other varieties; and, in the south, two crops can be raised in one season on the same ground. It grows in the form of a tree, and twenty-two ears have grown upon one stalk, and will average from five to fifteen. For domestic use, it is unparalleled. When ground and properly bolted, it is equal in color and fineness to wheat flour.
As a forage food, by sowing in drills or broadcast, for early feed, there is no kind of corn so well adapted to milch cows, and none that will yield half the value in stalks or corn.
It can be successfully grown in any State.
I can give the most satisfactory references that the Corn is, in every respect, what I represent it to be; and, further, I am the only person throughout the country who has this variety of Corn. Having secured a quantity, I am now able to fill all orders for those desirous of testing it.

To any person who will inclose, in a letter, One Dollar, in stamps or currency, directed to me, I will send, postage paid sufficient Corn to produce enough to plant, the following year, from twenty to thirty acres. Also, directions for planting and cultivation.
Any person who will get up a Club of five will receive a package, gratis.
Give your full name, post-office, county, and State, written plain, so that no errors may occur.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE,

VIRGINIA & TENNESSEE R. R. CO., Lynchburg, April 2d, 1863.
NOTICE.—An erroneous impression prevails that the transportation of provisions is prohibited over this railroad. Such is not the case.
All supplies intended for private consumption have always been shipped upon application, and the only prohibition is that placed by the General Commanding the Department, whose object was to preserve them for the use of the army.
This order has always relaxed when applied to by private parties for bacon, &c., for their own consumption, but has been so refused speculators, to prevent improper speculation in the necessaries of life. Notice is therefore given to parties needing provisions for their own use, that the same will be permitted transportation by the Commanding General, and will be at all times furnished by the road. Application will be made either to Mr. Dodamead, General Superintendent, or myself, and transportation will be ordered.

WOOL WANTED.

GOODS at our Factory, or cash paid for wool, on the following terms: We will give one yard of our Factory jeans, for two pounds tab-washed clean wool, if marina wool we give marina goods; if coarse wool, we give coarse cloth.
The color of our cloth is gray. We will pay the market cash price for wool, and send sacks for 200 pounds, or over that quantity to ten thousand pounds, to points on the railroad. Goods or cash may be found in readiness to pay down for wool, when delivered at our factory, (unless in large lots.) A few days notice should be given us by parties delivering to get goods for wool.

We will also card wool rolls for the eighth pound or card two pounds of wool for one pound of bacon, or 40 cents per pound in cash for carding, where persons have neither bacon nor wool to spare from their own use. We claim the right to discriminate in favor of soldiers' families, or others in needy circumstances, and shall act accordingly.

the storehouse No. 107, Main street, two doors above the old stand of M'Corkle & Co., and next door to Lee, Locke & Taylor.

We solicit consignments of Merchandise and Country Produce of every description, promising our best personal efforts to make satisfactory sales—and from the long experience we have both had in business in this city, think we are justified in saying that we can do as well for consignors as any other house in the city. Account sales with nett proceeds will be rendered as soon as sales are made, and all letters on business promptly answered.

We shall keep the best supply of Groceries that can be obtained, and as soon as fertilizers can be procured, we intend keeping a good stock of the most approved kinds—all of which will be sold as low as they can be afforded for cash.

We appreciate the patronage extended to us in other connexions, and shall spare no pains to merit it in future.
