

Centre of the battery over five splendid pieces. They are glorious boys, and should be the pride of our commonwealth.—Lynchburg Virginian.

TELEGRAPHIC

Reports of the Press Association.
Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1863, by J. S. THOMAS, in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Confederate States for the Northern District of Georgia.

LYNCHBURG, May 18.
Via Dublin May 19.

Lee whipped Grant again yesterday, near Fredericksburg. Reported to have been the biggest fight yet. We took a large number of prisoners. The troops and citizens jubilant.
Despatches from Mobile say Banks has surrendered to Dick Taylor.
Gold in New York two for one.
Lincoln has called for 200,000 men, to be put in service immediately.

Northern papers of the 13th say Grant's losses are 35,000 men and 37 General officers. The New York Herald advises Grant to withdraw before Lee annihilates his army.
The Confederate gunboat Raleigh steamed down Cape Fear River and drove off the blockading squadron. Port of Wilmington said to be open.
All the roads leading to Richmond have been repaired, and trains are making regular trips.
Gen. Johnston reports having repulsed Sherman with heavy loss on the 14th.

LYNCHBURG, May 20.

Messrs. Coale & Barr:
Capt. J. E. Berry 37th Va., and Maj. W. Farris 43th Va. wounded and arrived at Richmond. Only casualties yet reported in these Regiments. Will telegraph when ascertained.
On the 16th, Breckenridge gained a victory over Sigel at New Market, driving him back across the river, capturing six pieces of artillery and nearly one thousand small arms. Enemy's loss, in killed wounded and prisoners, heavy.

Grant, yesterday, opened his batteries on portions of Ewell's line, and attempted an assault. He was easily repulsed. Subsequently he cannonaded (?) a portion of Early's line. Casualties on our side very few.
Butler said to be leaving Chesterfield after being defeated by Beauregard; embarking on transports.
News from the west received yesterday—Alexandria, La., surrendered to Taylor with 8,000 prisoners, 20 guns, and 12,000 small arms, 5 boats.
Enemy evacuated Baton Rouge—Confederates in possession.
Yankees estimate Grant's loss from 60,000 to 70,000. Nothing from any other quarter to-day.
C. W. B.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

Partial Engagement on Wednesday and Thursday.

Enemy's Loss Quite Heavy—Ours Small.

SPOTSYLVANIA C. H., May 19.—Yesterday morning about day, the enemy, with a considerable force of pickets, assaulted our left wing. The attack, however, was quite feeble, and we readily repulsed them with slight loss on our side, but with considerable slaughter of the enemy. The fight lasted about one and a half hours.

During this engagement we captured about sixty prisoners, and the enemy left over two hundred dead on the field.
Last night the enemy retired from our left, leaving their dead unburied.
They seem to be massing on our right, either for the purpose of attacking us again, or to fall back.
After the fight of yesterday, on our left, the enemy opened a vigorous cannonading on our right wing, to which we responded, and a fierce artillery duel was kept up for two hours—our side, however, losing very slightly.
Our men to-day are busy collecting the arms left on that part of the field abandoned by the enemy. Many arms are being obtained which were buried by the enemy.
Yesterday evening there was some cavalry fighting near Guinea's Station, but it amounted to very little.
To-day matters have been quiet all day.
Yesterday Gen. Meade sent a flag of truce to Gen. Lee, thanking him for sending him Gen. Wadsworth's body, for which he applied by flag of truce during the Wilderness fight.
Gen. Meade, on the 13th, issued a congratulatory order to his troops. He claims that Lee has now abandoned his last entrenched position, so tenaciously held, after suffering a loss of 18 guns, 24 colors, 8000 prisoners. Meade further says the fight is not over; that the enemy must be pressed, and if possible, overcome, and that he (Meade) expects reinforcements, while Lee cannot possibly get any.
Up to 3 o'clock to-day there has been no fighting.
The weather is warm and the roads are fast drying.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

Partial Engagement on Wednesday and Thursday.

Enemy's Loss Quite Heavy—Ours Small.

SPOTSYLVANIA C. H., May 19.—Yesterday morning about day, the enemy, with a considerable force of pickets, assaulted our left wing. The attack, however, was quite feeble, and we readily repulsed them with slight loss on our side, but with considerable slaughter of the enemy. The fight lasted about one and a half hours.

During this engagement we captured about sixty prisoners, and the enemy left over two hundred dead on the field.
Last night the enemy retired from our left, leaving their dead unburied.
They seem to be massing on our right, either for the purpose of attacking us again, or to fall back.
After the fight of yesterday, on our left, the enemy opened a vigorous cannonading on our right wing, to which we responded, and a fierce artillery duel was kept up for two hours—our side, however, losing very slightly.
Our men to-day are busy collecting the arms left on that part of the field abandoned by the enemy. Many arms are being obtained which were buried by the enemy.
Yesterday evening there was some cavalry fighting near Guinea's Station, but it amounted to very little.
To-day matters have been quiet all day.
Yesterday Gen. Meade sent a flag of truce to Gen. Lee, thanking him for sending him Gen. Wadsworth's body, for which he applied by flag of truce during the Wilderness fight.
Gen. Meade, on the 13th, issued a congratulatory order to his troops. He claims that Lee has now abandoned his last entrenched position, so tenaciously held, after suffering a loss of 18 guns, 24 colors, 8000 prisoners. Meade further says the fight is not over; that the enemy must be pressed, and if possible, overcome, and that he (Meade) expects reinforcements, while Lee cannot possibly get any.
Up to 3 o'clock to-day there has been no fighting.
The weather is warm and the roads are fast drying.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

Partial Engagement on Wednesday and Thursday.

Enemy's Loss Quite Heavy—Ours Small.

SPOTSYLVANIA C. H., May 19.—Yesterday morning about day, the enemy, with a considerable force of pickets, assaulted our left wing. The attack, however, was quite feeble, and we readily repulsed them with slight loss on our side, but with considerable slaughter of the enemy. The fight lasted about one and a half hours.

During this engagement we captured about sixty prisoners, and the enemy left over two hundred dead on the field.
Last night the enemy retired from our left, leaving their dead unburied.
They seem to be massing on our right, either for the purpose of attacking us again, or to fall back.
After the fight of yesterday, on our left, the enemy opened a vigorous cannonading on our right wing, to which we responded, and a fierce artillery duel was kept up for two hours—our side, however, losing very slightly.
Our men to-day are busy collecting the arms left on that part of the field abandoned by the enemy. Many arms are being obtained which were buried by the enemy.
Yesterday evening there was some cavalry fighting near Guinea's Station, but it amounted to very little.
To-day matters have been quiet all day.
Yesterday Gen. Meade sent a flag of truce to Gen. Lee, thanking him for sending him Gen. Wadsworth's body, for which he applied by flag of truce during the Wilderness fight.
Gen. Meade, on the 13th, issued a congratulatory order to his troops. He claims that Lee has now abandoned his last entrenched position, so tenaciously held, after suffering a loss of 18 guns, 24 colors, 8000 prisoners. Meade further says the fight is not over; that the enemy must be pressed, and if possible, overcome, and that he (Meade) expects reinforcements, while Lee cannot possibly get any.
Up to 3 o'clock to-day there has been no fighting.
The weather is warm and the roads are fast drying.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

Partial Engagement on Wednesday and Thursday.

Enemy's Loss Quite Heavy—Ours Small.

SPOTSYLVANIA C. H., May 19.—Yesterday morning about day, the enemy, with a considerable force of pickets, assaulted our left wing. The attack, however, was quite feeble, and we readily repulsed them with slight loss on our side, but with considerable slaughter of the enemy. The fight lasted about one and a half hours.

During this engagement we captured about sixty prisoners, and the enemy left over two hundred dead on the field.
Last night the enemy retired from our left, leaving their dead unburied.
They seem to be massing on our right, either for the purpose of attacking us again, or to fall back.
After the fight of yesterday, on our left, the enemy opened a vigorous cannonading on our right wing, to which we responded, and a fierce artillery duel was kept up for two hours—our side, however, losing very slightly.
Our men to-day are busy collecting the arms left on that part of the field abandoned by the enemy. Many arms are being obtained which were buried by the enemy.
Yesterday evening there was some cavalry fighting near Guinea's Station, but it amounted to very little.
To-day matters have been quiet all day.
Yesterday Gen. Meade sent a flag of truce to Gen. Lee, thanking him for sending him Gen. Wadsworth's body, for which he applied by flag of truce during the Wilderness fight.
Gen. Meade, on the 13th, issued a congratulatory order to his troops. He claims that Lee has now abandoned his last entrenched position, so tenaciously held, after suffering a loss of 18 guns, 24 colors, 8000 prisoners. Meade further says the fight is not over; that the enemy must be pressed, and if possible, overcome, and that he (Meade) expects reinforcements, while Lee cannot possibly get any.
Up to 3 o'clock to-day there has been no fighting.
The weather is warm and the roads are fast drying.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

Partial Engagement on Wednesday and Thursday.

Enemy's Loss Quite Heavy—Ours Small.

SPOTSYLVANIA C. H., May 19.—Yesterday morning about day, the enemy, with a considerable force of pickets, assaulted our left wing. The attack, however, was quite feeble, and we readily repulsed them with slight loss on our side, but with considerable slaughter of the enemy. The fight lasted about one and a half hours.

During this engagement we captured about sixty prisoners, and the enemy left over two hundred dead on the field.
Last night the enemy retired from our left, leaving their dead unburied.
They seem to be massing on our right, either for the purpose of attacking us again, or to fall back.
After the fight of yesterday, on our left, the enemy opened a vigorous cannonading on our right wing, to which we responded, and a fierce artillery duel was kept up for two hours—our side, however, losing very slightly.
Our men to-day are busy collecting the arms left on that part of the field abandoned by the enemy. Many arms are being obtained which were buried by the enemy.
Yesterday evening there was some cavalry fighting near Guinea's Station, but it amounted to very little.
To-day matters have been quiet all day.
Yesterday Gen. Meade sent a flag of truce to Gen. Lee, thanking him for sending him Gen. Wadsworth's body, for which he applied by flag of truce during the Wilderness fight.
Gen. Meade, on the 13th, issued a congratulatory order to his troops. He claims that Lee has now abandoned his last entrenched position, so tenaciously held, after suffering a loss of 18 guns, 24 colors, 8000 prisoners. Meade further says the fight is not over; that the enemy must be pressed, and if possible, overcome, and that he (Meade) expects reinforcements, while Lee cannot possibly get any.
Up to 3 o'clock to-day there has been no fighting.
The weather is warm and the roads are fast drying.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

Partial Engagement on Wednesday and Thursday.

Marksville. A large flotilla of gunboats went up Red river yesterday morning. Heavy firing was soon after heard in the direction of our batteries at Fort De Russey. The result is not known.
Steele has retreated with the remnant of his army to Little Rock, pursued by Price and Marmaduke.
Col. Scott attacked the transport Mississippi yesterday, opposite the mouth of Red River, striking her twelve times. A gunboat was shelling our forces at the time. The damage is unknown, but there was great confusion on board.
A cavalry dash was made on Sunday, on a plantation adjoining Port Hudson, capturing a stockade Fort, garrisoned by 75 negroes. Sixty-five mules, and some horses and clothes were also captured. A mill was burnt and 20 of the garrison killed.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

HANOVER JUNCTION, May 22.
Grant commenced swinging his columns around on our right on Friday.
Yesterday morning Grant's forces occupied Millford Station and Bowling Green.
Yesterday evening about dark Gen. Wilcox was in front of Spotsylvania C. H., and threw forward a portion of his forces and entered the enemy's breastworks, and found them held by a line of skirmishers. Grant's whole army being rapidly in motion on our right flank, necessitated a counter movement on our side and the abandonment of the battle ground in front of Spotsylvania C. H.
Grant seems maneuvering for a position nearer Richmond.
The enemy is reported to have been out loose from Fredericksburg, his base, to have established a depot at Port Royal and Tappanhook.
Some little artillery firing was heard near Chesterfield to-day; cause unexplained.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

HANOVER JUNCTION, May 22.
Grant commenced swinging his columns around on our right on Friday.
Yesterday morning Grant's forces occupied Millford Station and Bowling Green.
Yesterday evening about dark Gen. Wilcox was in front of Spotsylvania C. H., and threw forward a portion of his forces and entered the enemy's breastworks, and found them held by a line of skirmishers. Grant's whole army being rapidly in motion on our right flank, necessitated a counter movement on our side and the abandonment of the battle ground in front of Spotsylvania C. H.
Grant seems maneuvering for a position nearer Richmond.
The enemy is reported to have been out loose from Fredericksburg, his base, to have established a depot at Port Royal and Tappanhook.
Some little artillery firing was heard near Chesterfield to-day; cause unexplained.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

HANOVER JUNCTION, May 22.
Grant commenced swinging his columns around on our right on Friday.
Yesterday morning Grant's forces occupied Millford Station and Bowling Green.
Yesterday evening about dark Gen. Wilcox was in front of Spotsylvania C. H., and threw forward a portion of his forces and entered the enemy's breastworks, and found them held by a line of skirmishers. Grant's whole army being rapidly in motion on our right flank, necessitated a counter movement on our side and the abandonment of the battle ground in front of Spotsylvania C. H.
Grant seems maneuvering for a position nearer Richmond.
The enemy is reported to have been out loose from Fredericksburg, his base, to have established a depot at Port Royal and Tappanhook.
Some little artillery firing was heard near Chesterfield to-day; cause unexplained.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the foot, which required amputation.
2d DISPATCH.

From Gen. Lee's Army.

RICHMOND, 22d.
Gen'l Walker accidentally rode into the enemy's lines during the fight of the 20th. They fired upon him, his horse was killed and he was severely wounded in the