LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Wanted Light.—Some mean thief, a few days since, entered the school house, No. 3, in Tuscarora township, which is used as a place of worship by the United Brethren, and stole a large hanging lamp belonging to the congregation.

Old Persons.—There are few election districts in the State which have so large a proportion of old persons among their voters as there is in this borough. Of the whole list of voters in Bloomfield borough, more than one fifth are over sixty years of age.

The new Church Edifice erected by the Reformed Congregation in Newport, will be dedicated to the service of the Triune God, on Sunday, the 16th of January, 1870. Several eminent ministers are expected to be present on the occasion. The public are respectfully invited to be present.

Lucky Hunters.—Some of the hunters who go from this county to Black log, are more fortunate than those who went from this borough. Rufus and Henry Potter of Milford, on a recent visit to Black Log Valley, captured five deer. One large buck they brought home with them and the others they disposed of there.

Read our advertisements. They are not so dull and uninteresting as you think them, and you may often in them stumble over something to your advantage; at any rate; read the one inserted for Wanamaker & Brown, and see if it does not persuade you that Oak Hall is the place where you should buy your fall suit.

Very Unfortunate.—Our readers will remember the account of an accident which happened nearly three months since, to Mr. Emanuel Dugan, of Wheatfield township, whereby his leg was broken. By some means the bone got misplaced, and a short time since, the splints were taken off, when it was found that the bone had not knit in the least, and the fracture had to be re-set. The medical men now fear that it never will knit together, as such things rarely occur.

Singular Hog Disease.—Mr. Robert Neilson of Centre township, this county, killed several hogs a few days since, two of which had to be thrown away, owing to their having some peculiar disease. They seemed as well before being killed, and were as fat as the others, but when cleaned all the fat meat was of a deep yellow color, and the lard had the same appearance.

Nothing just like this has been seen in this vicinity, and the question now is what was the matter with them.

Seventy Dollars Out.—A bout two weeks since a man named Wells, in the employ of Mr. David I. Rice, at Perryville, was sent to bank by him to deposit the above amount. He, however, forgot to come back, and after waiting some time for his return, search was made for him, when he was found in Tuscarora twp., making tracks for the mountains.

The money was not recovered, as Wells asserted that he lost it before reaching the bank. Justice Wharton committed him to jail.

A Narrow Escape.—On the morning of the 23rd ult., two men named Jacobs and Zeigler crossed one of the fordings of the Canodoguin Creek, in Cumberland Co., to do a day's butchering. On their return the same evening they found the creek had risen considerably, but concluded to venture the crossing. They had not proceeded far before the horse and carriage began to move rapidly down the stream. The men called loudly, hoping to alarm Mr. Wolf a near resident, but the roaring of the water was such, that they failed to make him hear, but succeeded in starting up the dogs, so that they continued barking, and attracted the attention of the family. Mr. Wolf then went to their assistance and succeeded in getting both the men safely into his boat. During the excitement of getting the men out of the carriage the pole used to push the boat was lost, and the only thing left, with which to navigate the boat was a sausage stuffer. With this they however succeeded in reaching the shore, bringing the horse and vehicle with them. It was a fortunate escape and had it not been for the prompt aid of Mr. Wolf, both men and horse would have been drowned. As it was the horse was nearly exhausted.

The Revival.—The protracted meeting of the Presbyterian Church, which at the time of issuing our last number, was still in session, has been closed. The result of the meeting was very gratifying. Already twenty-nine persons have been admitted to membership in that church, and there is a prospect of still further addition. In this case, the number of men among the converts is unusually great, they being more than half of the number.

A series of meetings are now being held by the Lutheran congregation in this borough, which we hope will meet with equal success.

A spirited revival is also going on in the Lutheran Church at Mansville. Sixteen persons were forward on Saturday evening last, seeking forgiveness. God speed the good work.

Teachers' Institute.—During the past week, Superintendent Kerr and the teachers of Perry county have been holding their annual Convention. Of the one hundred and sixty-eight teachers employed in the county, about one hundred were present.

From what we heard, we think, as a general thing, the exercises gave entire satisfaction. If the gentlemen did not pass the week pleasantly, it certainly was not because they were deprived of ladies' society, for it is not often that in this borough we have the opportunity of seeing so many rosy cheeks and bright eyes. We don't blame the young men for being in favor of "Teachers' Institutes."

Suicide.—On the evening of the 24th ult., the wife of William Lidig, a carpet weaver residing a little distance from Montgomery's Ferry, on the Bucks Valley road, committed suicide by hanging herself with some carpet chain, to a cherry tree in the yard. She had just recovered from a fit of sickness, but for several weeks had shown some symptoms of insanity, and it was probably during one of these fits that the deed was committed. She was discovered about 10 o'clock at night, while the body was still warm, but instead of cutting her down, and trying to restore life, she was allowed to hang until the alarm had brought some neighbors, and the coroner was summoned. By that time she was stiff and cold. The branch to which she attached the chain was so low that her knees touched the ground, upon which they firmly rested.

A Change.—We call attention to the change which has taken place in the firm of Wright & Siddall. The firm now being Siddall and Markley. Those who have heretofore dealt with Mr. Siddall will be sure to continue their dealings, and those who have not yet given them a call should take an early opportunity of so doing. The place of business is still at No. 119 Market street, Philadelphia.

Don't be Humbaged with the foolish idea that catarrh cannot be cured! The world notes, and medical science is progressive.—The proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay $500 reward for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. Sold by druggists at fifty cents, and each package makes a full pint of the medicine ready for use.—Can get it by mail for Sixty Cents from Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want goods suitable for the season, go to Mortimer's store.

Accidents.

John Clouser residing near Duncannon, was thrown from his horse on the 24th ult., causing a dislocation of the shoulder and elbow. Dr. Sweeney of this borough attended to his injuries, and he is now doing well.

A few days since Dr. Milliken was badly injured by his horse falling on the ice.—The doctor was riding near to Landisburg, when his horse slipped and fell on him, badly injuring the ankle joint and tearing the ligaments. The horse ran into town, and the doctor was found where the accident had occurred. Dr. Hook, of Loysville, was called to his assistance, and he is now around on crutches.

Joseph Bealor, living near Markleville, while chopping wood, week before last cut his foot quite badly. The axe passing nearly through it. Dr. Sweeney of this borough furnished the required surgical aid. For a time an attack of lock jaw seemed eminent, but he is now getting along as well as could be expected.

Charles Brandt had a valuable horse so badly injured week before last, by running away, that he was obliged to kill him.

Briefs.

The State Legislature meets to day.

The Susquehanna River is very high and still rising.

Messrs. Forey & Foote, of New Buffalo, are putting into their grist mill a steam engine of fifteen horse power. No more stopping for them on account of low water.

The Odd-fellows at Liverpool, Perry Co., are putting up a fine hall. The outside work is already pretty nearly done.

Hartman's mill, in Fishing Creek is to be torn down, and a new grist mill erected by Alex Hartman and John Hipple. This will be a great convenience to the farmers in that valley.

Wm. Messinger has sold his farm in Rye township, to Josiah B. Flickinger for $6000.

A warrant for a new Masonic lodge at Marysville has been granted by the Grand Lodge of that order.

The Bloomfield Fur Company has so far captured six foxes. It is nearly time for them to declare a dividend.

Four coons in one tree, were recently caught by Henry Derr and Samuel Thompson, near Liverpool.

At a sheriff's sale at Liverpool, recently, one canal boat, one horse, and one mule only brought $27.50.

The Western fever has broken out in this county, and already William McKenzie and family, David McKenzie, William A. Grubb and a Mr. Adams; all from the vicinity of Liverpool, have taken their departure.

The young men's association of Liverpool are preparing themselves to give an exhibition some time this winter.

For The Bloomfield Times.

MILLERSTOWNS, Dec. 27th, 1869. Mr. Editor—On Christmas evening we had quite a lively time in our borough. The members of the "Normal Echo Literary Society," held their second Re-union Meeting in the School building. The room was densely crowded, the exercises entertaining and instructive, and the meeting proved very pleasant to all. Mr. G. W. Reeder delivered a fine oration—the subject being "Progress of the Arts and Sciences." He spoke of the new Astronomical discoveries, the Atlantic Cable, the Pacific Rail Road, Suez Canal, the plausibility of an Aerial conveyance by which we might visit other planets, etc.

Miss Josie DeBray read an excellent essay on "Hope," that richly merited the applause it received. The subject of Female Equality was debated with interest, and listened to with marked attention. Several selections of music were sung by the Glee Club, and the Millerstown Cornet Band played several pieces of music quite well.

The new building for the use of the Juniata Valley Normal School is being built, and is to be completed by the 15th of April.

This school, at the close of the Summer Session sent out about thirty teachers. JUNIATA.
