

An Affair of Dis-Honor.

A Times' special from Montgomery Station, by way of St. Louis, July 1, says in the Rheet and Cooley duel Judge Cooley was killed at the second fire. The parties arrived at this place on the same train at 10 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Rheet was accompanied by Mr. Charles Roman and Dr. Burns, and Judge Cooley was attended by Col. George W. Carter and Major M'Ray Selph. The weapons were double-barreled shot guns, one barrel loaded with a single ball, distance forty yards. The ground was promptly selected, the distance measured and the parties placed in position. At the first fire Rheet's shot ranged high, Cooley's to the right. Cooley delivered his first shot. At the second fire both fired simultaneously. Cooley fell mortally wounded by the shot entering his left side and passing apparently through his heart. He expired in six minutes without apparent suffering, only speaking the words to Dr. Holliday: "I am shot through the breast." The gentlemen engaged in the affair exchanged the usual civilities after the second fire and separated with the expression of mutual respect and consideration.

To Europe by Balloons.

The New York Daily Graphic announces that it has entered into an agreement with Professors Wise, of Philadelphia, and Washington H. Donaldson, of Reading, by which the Graphic company agrees to build the balloon for the trans-atlantic voyage to be made by Messrs. Wise and Donaldson, and assumes all the expenses for such voyage. The outlay for such it is estimated will be $10,000. The departure of the aeronauts is fixed for the 20th of August, or as near that day as practicable. The Graphic announces that the work of constructing the balloon was begun on Saturday last, and when finished it will not be placed on exhibition, but immediately start Europe, where, after landing, the aeronauts will communicate the full particulars of the voyage to the Graphic company by telegraph. The balloon contains 6,000 yards of cloth.

Under a Front Step.

The Richmond, Va., News says: A few weeks since, a citizen of Louisa county, named Nathan Johnson, died. On opening the front step of his house for some buried money, the sum of $12,500, in twenty dollar gold pieces, was found buried in four tin boxes. During the late war the county of Louisa was raided on by the Federal troops several times.

On one of these occasions, Mr. Johnson sent his servants out to watch the approaching marauders, and took occasion meanwhile to effectually conceal his funds. In due time the soldiers came and upset everything in the house in search of funds, and even ate Mr. Johnson's provisions while sitting on the step under which he had placed the money, but they did not find it, else his heirs would now be out of that much pocket change.

A Cow Killed by a Boar.

On Friday, last, as Mr. J. E. Martin, at Hillsdale Station, Londonderry township, Dauphin county, came home with his team from hauling grain, a little before dinner, he turned his hogs into the pasture field, where he had his cows. Among them was a large Chester boar, and they had scarcely been in fifteen minutes till this boar had ripped a valuable cow so badly that she died in a few hours afterwards. Mr. Martin's wife saw it when it happened, and says he ripped the cow with his tusks and then walked away. This should be a warning against having such animals running with cattle on the public road. It is also dangerous for children to be on the road when there are such animals running at large.

A Hen Swallows a Diamond.

The St. Louis Globe says: A clerk on Fourth street tried to get up a corner in the chicken market yesterday. He has been driving half the clerks on the thoroughfare wild with envy by a magnificent cluster diamond ring. Yesterday morning, while at Lucas market, his hand reposed on a chicken-coop and a curious cackler went for his ring, plucked out and swallowed the largest gem in the cluster. It is unnecessary to say that he bought that coop of chickens at the dealer's price. He says he will have that diamond if the family is compelled to eat chicken all summer.

Two Sisters Struck with Paralysis.

On Sunday evening last Hannah Williams, residing in Phoenixville, was struck with paralysis from the effect of which she died the same night. Her sister, Miss Anna Radelliff, also residing in the same borough, upon learning of her sister's death, was so affected by the intelligence that she too was stricken with a like visitation and died a few hours afterwards. The funeral of both took place from one house on Wednesday last. The ages of the deceased were 60 and 62 years respectively. It is seldom we are called to recite a case so solemn and remarkable as the one above described.—West Chester Local News.

At Dashions on Saturday night Nelson Yard shot and instantly killed Jacob Jones, who he alleges criminally assaulted his wife. Mrs. Yard also fired at Jones with a revolver. Yard and his wife surrendered voluntarily to the authorities.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN JURUBERA BLOOD PURIFIER IS THE MOST POWERFUL CLEANSER, strengthener and remover of Glandular Obstructions known to Materia Medica. IT IS SPECIALLY ADAPTED to constitutions "worn down" and debilitated by the warm weather of Spring and Summer, when the blood is not in active circulation, consequently gathering impurities from the sluggishness and imperfect action of the secretory organs, and is manifested by Tumors, Eruptions, Blisters, Boils, Pustules, Scrofula, etc., etc. WHEN WEARY AND LANGUID from overwork, and dullness, drowsiness and inertia take the place of energy and vigor, the system needs a Tonic to build it up and help the Vital Forces to regain their recuperative power. IN THE HEAT OF SUMMER, frequently the Liver and Spleen do not properly perform their functions; the Urinary Organs are inactive, producing weakness of the stomach and intestines and a predisposition to bilious derangement.

Dr. Wells' Extract of Jurubera IS PREPARED DIRECTLY from the South American Plant, and is peculiarly suited to all these difficulties; it will cleanse the Vitiated Blood, strengthen the Life-Giving Powers, and remove all Obstructions and Impaired and Enfeebled Organs. IT SHOULD BE FREELY TAKEN, as Jurubera is pronounced by medical writers the most efficient Purifier, Tonic and Desobstruent known in the whole range of medicinal plants. JOHN Q. KELLOGG, 18 Platt St., New York. Sole Agent for the United States. Price One Dollar per Bottle. Send for Circular. 25
