MIDDLEBURG, MONDAY, MAY 10, 1870.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

This is getting to be a hackneyed subject; but very little reform has been accomplished, notwithstanding all that has been said about the evils.

It is a truth no one can gainsay, that were it not for what Josh Billings calls the "hoss trot," our fairs would be great failures; and yet these horse-races at fairs are deplored by many hundreds of good people who would gladly see them abolished on account of gambling, fraud, and many other evils which have become incidental thereto.

And here, we think, is just where the management fails. It takes as much money to make an exhibition "go" as to make the fair itself a monetary success, and the premiums offered are usually hardly worth any one's trying for, even were he sure of winning instead of having every chance against the exhibitor as now.

The whole subject of farming is one of profit and loss, and it is the height of absurdity to expect any very great spirit exhibitors who have to spend perhaps twenty or thirty dollars to get the "award of two or five dollars."

The whole value of money has changed of late years. A farmer as we recently noted, who once sold his cider for seventy-five cents a barrel, and now gets seven dollars, and yet has no more home comforts, is expected to fight with the same enthusiasm for a two-dollar premium as his grandfather near a century ago.

Another fact, against the success of fairs is the want of sufficient remuneration for the active officers. At present few persons of ability can be had. It "don't pay them" to give so much time for nothing, and only those whose vanity is far beyond their agricultural ability—or men, who are willing for some good public office, can afford to be "for nothing," prominent at these times—take much interest in their management. They do nothing until the time comes; then they are very active in the seeming doing of good works.

As for horse racing, we deplore the degradation into which it has fallen as bad as any one can, yet should be sorry to see it abandoned. We belong to that sect of philosophers who would not attempt to cure a patient by killing him.

We like a fast horse, believe in encouraging the breed of fast horses; and see no more harm in awarding a premium to the fastest trotter than on the fattest ox or mammoth pumpkin. The betting on horses is bad; but should the gentleman of the betting books undertake to transfer their patronage to grains and roots instead of live stock, it would be as bad, but no more reason why we should abandon their growth in consequence, than cease to encourage fast horses because of the affliction of these persons for the noble animal.

John Wesley was once charged with ungodliness for introducing secular airs among his church tunes. But he well replied that he did not believe in letting the devil have all the good music. We feel very much like these fair managers. If people pay too much attention to horse racing don't pull that down; but rather add to the attractions of the other parts. Extra premiums and extra labor on the part of the officers will accomplish this.

MOVING HORSE SHOES.—There is no doubt about this being an age of progress. Even the way we have to talk to children has to change. It used to be asked of dirty little fellows whether they wanted to be "like a horse and get into bed with their shoes on." But this simile will soon be no more. Horses are not to get into bed with their shoes on. A company in Chicago, Mass., are engaged in making a prouder adjustable horse shoe, which is made to be taken off at night or when the horse is not being used, and put on when wanted, as readily as a pair of boots. The forks of the shoe are also adjustable, and new ones can be fitted when one set is worn out.

This is very progressive in the equine race. Refining influences will soon reach the stable. It will soon be vulgar to talk about bedding for the horse. Instead of being put "to bed," he will be invited to "retire" to his straw couch.

Well, if the world don't move it is some satisfaction to know that horse shoes will, and that "moves" in the way they are usually charged for in our blacksmith's bill will soon be a thing of the past.

FOOT ROT IN CATTLE.—A correspondent furnishes the Mirror and Farmer, Manchester, New Hampshire, the following remedy for the foot rot in cattle: Put them in a place where you can handle their feet, and then take half a pint of common tar and as much soft soap, put them in any vessel and heat them together until they get thoroughly mixed; then let it cool down some, but not too much; put it on the parts affected quite hot, and in seven cases out of ten it will effect a cure; but if it does not succeed, the

is an excellent article of granulated Virginia; wherever introduced it is universally admired. It is put up in handsome muslin bags, in which orders for Meerschaum Pipes are daily packed. classed by all who consume it as the "finest of all"; it is made of the choicest leaf grown; it is anti-nervous in its effects, as the Nicotine has been extracted; it leaves no disagreeable taste after smoking; it is very mild, light in color and weight, hence one pound will last as long as 5 of ordinary tobacco. In this brand we also pack orders every day for first quality Meerschaum Pipes. Try it and convince yourselves it is all it claims to be, "THE FINEST OF ALL!"

LOBILLARD'S CENTURY CHEWING TOBACCO.

This brand of Fine Cut chewing tobacco has no equal or inferior anywhere. It is without doubt the best chewing tobacco in the country.

LOBILLARD'S SNUFFS

have now been in general use in the United States over 110 years, and still acknowledged "the best" wherever used. If your stockkeeper does not have these

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have used it, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always; that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of its remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cases are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity. They operate by their powerful influence on the internal system to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and promoting the regularity of the system. Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills readily cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver Affections, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the disordered action or remove the obstructions which cause it. For Constipation or Diarrhoea, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Hemorrhoids, Gout, Gravel, Puffing of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Limbs, they should be judiciously taken, as required, to correct the disordered action of the system. With such changes these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken moderately to stimulate the system, and reduce the effect of a drastic purge. For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it promotes the desired effect by sympathy. As a Diarrhoeic, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence its value in all cases of indigestion where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
