We are authorized to announce that the Adjourned Court which was to be held at Middleburgh, on Thursday of this week has been postponed until Thursday February 1st.

We are sorry to announce that the Adamsburg Musical Convention has been postponed indefinitely, owing to the managers being unable to secure a suitable church to hold it in.

Rev. Spangler, in his Welcome Address before the Musical Institute on Monday evening acknowledged himself among those musicians who could not distinguish thunder from a cow bell.

Some persons, for want of something better to talk about, are circulating the untruth that the Post charges to insert marriage and death notices. We hope the Lord will forgive them for their lies. We can't.

Rev. Spangler pastor of the Middleburgh Lutheran charge, received seventeen persons into full membership at the Beavertown Evangelical Lutheran Church last Sunday—the fruits of the protracted meeting held there this winter.

The Moyer Convention which was held last week in the Musical College at Freeburg, Pa., was a grand success. Over two thousand persons were in attendance. Next session of six weeks beginning May 1st, 1883.

A new counterfeit quarter dollar, of the date of 1878, has been put in circulation. They are plated with silver, and their weight is about six postage stamps less than the weight of the good coin. The edge of the counterfeit is slightly imperfect.

The editor of the Post has loaded his shot gun with a double charge of grape and canister to shoot the ground hog when he appears on his round of inspection this year. He does not propose to be put off in this by any prediction of Venor or by any special act of the legislature. He is bound to have the hog—for he is out of nest.

SHEEP SHON IN DANGER.

A novel law suit took place before Squire S. S. Schoch on Saturday last, the plaintiff being a Jew of the "cheap John" order, and the defendants two of Beavertown's most respected young men, on whom the Israelite had sworn out a warrant, making the serious charge of assault with intent to kill. The circumstances, as we learnt this week, were about as follows: The Jew is a natural-born cringing cowardly cur, and was compelled to leave Beavertown very unceremoniously the time of the assassination of President Garfield when he expressed himself as being very sorry that he had not "killed the son of a b—right off." He had done something again to merit the ill will of the good citizens of Beavertown, and in order to have some fun, the boys arranged a scare for him one evening as he came out of church, with such success that "cheap John" thought the crack of doom had come, and proceeded to put all possible real estate between himself and the believers. He was successful in this, and found a safe retreat in the Elizabeth Tannery, bark-shed for the night. The following morning he appeared before the authorities and swore out a warrant for the arrest of his assailants. The preliminary trial came off before Squire Schoch on Saturday—and the Jew's evidence was strong enough to send the boys to the penitentiary for life and then hang them when their time was up. He had seen the cold steel glister in the hands of the boys in the form of butcher knives and revolvers—the revolvers with bl ack handles and the butcher knives with red handles. But a cross examination revealed the evidently heretofore unknown fact to the Jew that the handles of the "deadly weapons" were not visible when in the hands of those seemingly so eager to spill his precious blood. This, with other weak points of his story, followed up by the strong evidence of the defence, soon placed the boys in the right light, but 'Squire Schoch thinking that they should pay something for their fun, dismissed the case by dividing the costs, amounting to $14, equally between the plaintiff and defendants.

Misses Sadie Fisher, and Tasio and Lillie Musser of Hartleton were the guests of the editor and family this week.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—Two sharp-shooters of gentry looking, the other somewhat seedy—supposed to be from Reading, are canvassing country districts and selling envelopes said to contain a moth extirminator called "Saltana." An examination of one of the sealed packets revealed the contents to be nothing but perfumed bran.

Would you believe it—if any body else told you—that we have a subscriber, a woman, who takes the Post for the express purpose of tying up apple butter crocks, because, she says, "it just fits." We have still another one who cruelly suggests its use to put under carpets, as an antidote against moth—for they hate LYE. Have you ever heard of ungrateful republicans, and of prophets who are n. g. in their own country? That's us.

Never sit down close to a warm stove when you are real cold, but start up circulation by walking back and forth through the room. A failure to observe this principle in hygiene, often causes people to remark, "why I did not know I was so cold until I got to the stove." The cause of this is, the sudden change in temperature drives the cold into the body in place of drawing it out, which is accomplished by exercising in walking.

The Musical Convention in Middleburgh this week is a brilliant success, both financially and intellectually. The singers number upwards of 80 and all the term tickets, excepting a very few, have been disposed of. Prof. Sherman is sustaining his enviable reputation as an instructor, giving first class satisfaction, while Miss Haus proves herself a most efficient pianist, and her modest, unassuming manners have made her a general favorite among our people. The concerts on Friday and Saturday nights promise a rare musical treat which none can afford to miss.

DEATH OF COL. EDWARD SMITH.—It is with feelings of regret that we are called upon to announce the death of Col. Edward Smith, the efficient postmaster and much respected citizen of New Berlin, this county. The particulars we have not, save that he was sick less than a week, taking his bed on Tuesday of last week and breathing his last on Sunday following. Col. Smith was a printer by trade and was at one time associated with Messrs. Worden & Cornelius in the publication of the CHRONICLE at Lewisburg. He was a fine man in all respects and his death will be sorely felt. Aged about 59 years.—MIFFLINBURG TELEGRAPH.

Pursuant to a notice published in the Post a majority of the bands in our county sent delegates to Middleburgh, on Saturday preparatory to permanent organization for the band convention to be held in this place on the 22nd of February. The following bands were represented. McClure, Adamsburg, Troxelville, Freemont, Freeburg, Richfield, Kratzerville, Centreville and Middleburgh. The delegates met in Middleburgh band room. Henry Brown of Freeburg was chosen Pres. George Fisher of McClure, as Sec., J. E. Stetler as Band Master. On motion it was resolved that the band master select similar music for all the bands to be used at the convention. On motion adjourned to meet on Saturday Feb. 2, at 12 o'clock, M., at which time it is expected that all the bands will be represented. GEORGE FISHER, Sec.

Centreville News.

Jan. 22, 1883. The protracted meeting at the Ev. Church is still in progress. Five souls have been brought to a saving knowledge of the Truth, and more are still seeking. Rev. H. W. Gross, of New Berlin, favored this charge with his services for a few evenings and preached with power. Rev. H. A. Benfer, junior preacher of this circuit, had charge of the meeting during the past week and preached in the demonstration of God's spirit. Sin in its various forms was attacked with great severity, and no doubt lasting impressions for good were made. Harry is an earnest worker in his Master's vineyard, and the future before him looks bright. The church was crowded on Sunday evening to its utmost extent, and the Dunky club, a sectional society organized in a city some fifty years ago and has since spread to every city, town and village throughout the state was well represented in front of the church during the hours for service.

S. W. Hartman and family of Selinsgrove, paid relatives and friends a visit at this place, their former home, last week. Miss Ella Walter, teacher of Union Co., was home during the Sabbath with her parents. Jacob K. Snyder, the thriving lumberman, who is at present in business in Centre Co., was home on a visit to his family during the Sabbath. "Muckle" is a veteran in the lumber trade.

Thomas Shipton, of Houtzdale, Pa., is here on a visit to his sister, Mrs. P. Herman. Since his arrival he has also added unto himself a life partner. The leader of the Band is happy—it's a girl. Soon time to think of candidates for township offices. Select the best and say little about their politics. OBSERVER.

Owing to a disagreement between the heirs, the Bowersox farm advertised to be sold on Saturday of last week did not find a bidder and the sale has been indefinitely postponed.

Rare Chance!

Owing to a contemplated change of my business in the very near future, I am now offering great bargains in every department. I have a large variety of Blankets, yet on hand—white and colored—which I am offering below cost, as I desire to clear them out before long. Fine assortment of Ladies' and Children's COATS, some at cost and some much below cost. Also a few ULSTERS left. You can buy a fine Coat for very little money if you call now while the assortment is full. Shawls of all kinds at bottom prices. Dress Goods, Ginghams, Flannels, &c., have all been reduced in prices. I have a line of Men's Underwear and Gloves which I am offering for much less than they can be bought elsewhere, and you are invited to call and take a look at them. Carpets, Oil Cloth, Rugs &c., will also be sold at reduced prices. The object of the great reduction is to reduce the stock as much as possible before the 1st of March. If you want bargains and also have the advantage to select from a large stock, call now. Respectfully Submitted, M. WEIS, Selinsgrove, Pa.
