Lachawannock.
A LARGE body of LAND on this river and its waters, is now for sale to Settlers only, on moderate terms, and at a long credit. The soil is remarkably fertile, and numerous streams of water are interspersed through the whole country.

The main river flows through one tract of about thirty thousand acres, and is with the exception of one obstruction, navigable to the Susquehanna.

Spring Brook Creek, which with its branches, waters another tract of about forty thousand acres of good Land, empties itself into the Lachawannock; about twelve miles from the Susquehanna.

It affords numerous Mill seats, & in its course creates large bodies of well watered meadow ground.

The other tracts are intersected by creeks of considerable importance.

Several Mills are already erected for the accommodation of the settlers.

Roads are cut in different directions, towards the most convenient markets.

The county town is not more than 12 miles distant from many parts of the settlement.

The Susquehanna affords an easy and safe navigation to Middleton, from whence the Canal to Schuylkill extends the communication to the city.

Another means of connection with Philadelphia, is by the Delaware, from which the distance in several places is about thirty miles.

The proprietors combining their own interest with that of the inhabitants, are disposed to erect works of public utility, open roads, &c. and in every one mile square, a tract of one hundred acres is allotted for a School, and one hundred acres for the first resident clergyman of any denomination of Christians.

For further particulars apply to George Eddy.
Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne County,
Pennsylvania, July 9.
Letters directed to George Eddy, at Philadelphia, or this place, or to Thomas Eddy, at New York, relative to this business, will be duly answered.

The Grand Plan
OF THE
City and Suburbs
OF

TAKEN FROM ACTUAL SURVEY.
IT is with pleasure that the publisher has to inform his subscribers and the public in general, that the plate is now under the hands of the engraver, and in greater forwardness than was at first contemplated. At the same time he begs leave to remind them, that subscription papers are still open at most of the noted book-stores in the city; and that he hopes from the whole of them to be enabled to form such a respectable catalogue of names, as will do a credit to the work, as well as afford a reasonable encouragement to the undertaker.

French Revolution.
JUST PUBLISHED.
(Price two Dollars.)
By MATHEW CAREY,
No. 118, Market Street,
AN IMPARTIAL HISTORY
OF THE
FRENCH REVOLUTION;

From its Commencement to the execution of the QUEEN and the DEPUTIES of the Gironde Party
Extrañ from the Preface
"The author has presumed to affix to their title, the epithet impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party but to that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly presented, but every censurable action, whoever were the authors or actors, marked in its proper colours. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither nor republican—they love liberty as English whigs, and execrate every criminal act by which so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced."

"In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hope of seeing this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that the pages will not be acceptable to the zealots of either party. But when time shall have dissipated the clouds of political deception, and appeased the tumult of the passions, they will with some confidence expect that verdict from public opinion, which admod and moderation seldom fail to receive."

Extract from the Critical Review, June 1794.
12 Page.
"We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of those volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interest themselves in Events which have so justly excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind."

M. CAREY will in about three weeks Publish, Plowden's history of the British Empire, from May 1792, to December 1793.
