

To the Merchants of the United States.
At the special request of the Secretary of State, the committee appointed by the merchants of Philadelphia, have undertaken to obtain copies of the proceedings of the courts in the British Islands, in the West Indies: Bermuda, the Bahamas, and in their colonies, in North America, upon the cases of American vessels, and property tried in the courts in any of the said Islands, or colonies.

The Committee therefore give this public notice, that all persons concerned who have not already obtained authentic copies of the proceedings, in their particular cases, may furnish the Secretary of State with the names of the vessels, and masters, the places where the trial was had the time when, and such other circumstances as the nature of the case may require.

It is deemed important that those particulars be furnished as soon as possible.
Nov. 8, 1794.

The publishers of newspapers throughout the United States are requested to insert the above.

For the information of the Merchants.

The committee, having been notified by the Secretary of State, that the Agent of claims and appeals appointed by the President of the United States is to embark immediately for London, and that he is authorized to bind the United States under the direction of Mr. Jay, for the coils and damages, attending the prosecution of the claims of American citizens; that the necessary council will be engaged on the part of the United States; and that if the parties will obtain copies of the proceedings of the Courts on their respective cases, the expense of the records will be reimbursed by the United States.

They are of opinion that measures ought to be immediately taken for obtaining authenticated copies of such records and proceedings in all cases where they have not already been procured, and will undertake to obtain them for all such of their fellow-citizens as shall within 20 days from this date furnish the names of the vessels and masters; the ports or places where tried or condemned with such other information as the circumstances of the case may require.

They recommend to those who have already obtained the copies of the proceedings of the Courts to have them examined by some person of legal knowledge—that if they should be found defective in any respect the deficiency may be supplied, at the same time that the records are applied for. In behalf of the Committee.

CONDITIONS.

1st A written application must be left at the Company's Office stating the sum desired to be insured, by whom, and a description of the kind of property, whether Building or Goods; what kind of goods, and how much upon each building, or the goods in each, where there are out houses or stores. When Household Goods are intended to be insured the application should specify as follows.

2d. The Premium must be paid when the order is given and accepted, the Insurance to commence the instant it is paid, and continue in force so long as the payment shall be annually made at the office before 5 o'clock P. M. on the day when each revolution of the term is complete; or if that day shall happen on a Sunday or 4th July, or any other Holiday kept at the Office, then on the day preceding.

3d. If any other insurance be existing on the same property notice thereof must be given with the order, otherwise the Policy will be void.

4th. Goods held in Trust or on Commission, must be declared to be so held, otherwise the Policy will not cover such Property.

5th. This Company will not be accountable for any loss or damage caused by any Foreign Invasion, or by any Military or Usurped Force, or by reason of any civil Commotion.

6th. Bills of Exchange, Bonds, Securities, Title Deeds, Ready Money, and Bank and other Promissory Notes are not included under any insurance. Paintings, Medals, Jewels, Gems, Antique Curiosities and Mirrors, above 10l, each, may be insured by special Agreement.

7th. No Insurance will be made for a less term than One Year.

8th. Persons choosing to insure for Seven years shall be allowed One year's Premium by way of discount; also one-third of a year's Premium upon a triennial Insurance.

9th. When any loss by Fire is sustained on property insured at this Office, the sufferer shall in thirty days furnish the best documents he is able of the value of the Goods damaged or destroyed; this ascertained, the loss within the sum insured shall be paid without deduction in thirty days after proof thereof.

N. B. It is expected a little experience may authorize the Company to extend assurance from Fire to other Cities; at present they confine this branch of their business to Philadelphia and its Vicinity, in Pennsylvania.

Forty dollars reward.
RAN AWAY from the Subscriber on Saturday night the 11th inst.

A Mulatto LAD,
named Bill, generally called Bill Madden, about 17 or 18 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, of a slim make, has straight black hair, which he sometimes wears tied, but generally loose; he has been accustomed to wait altogether in a house, and having been much indulged, has become too idle to work for a support. He took with him a brown fustian double breasted long coat, one drab cloth coat, with red cuffs and cape, the pocket flaps and skirts trimmed with red edge, a fullain waistcoat a pair of buckskin breeches, a pair of red striped trowsers, and several other cloaths, also a pair of boots, half worn. It is probable he has a forged pass, and will endeavour to pass as a free man. From every circumstance, I am led to believe he went off with a white woman, and that they had taken the passage in a vessel bound to Philadelphia.

The above reward will be paid to any person delivering me the said servant, and reasonable charges for bringing him home.

A SUBSCRIPTION
Is opened for Printing the Theological Writings
OF
Emanuel Swedenborg,
At Francis Bailey's Book store, No. 116, Market Street, Philadelphia,
WHEN a sufficient subscription takes place, a meeting will be advertised to consider the most eligible mode for conducting the printing of such of the Works as shall be thought to be of the greatest utility in the first instance.

The following Treatises may be now had at Mr. Bailey's:
The Doctrine of Life, or the Spiritual sense of the Ten Commandments.
The Universal Theology of the New Church; which was foretold by the Lord in Daniel, chap. 7, v. 5, 13, 14; and in the Apoc. v. 1, 2, &c.
A luminary View of the Heavenly Doctrines of the New Jerusalem Church.

As various opinions have been entertained respecting these invaluable writings, and yet no person by rational arguments has been able to refute them, but instead thereof, invidious calumnies and groundless reports have been industriously propagated to discredit the honest and enlightened Author, as well as his Works, we doubt not the candid and sincere inquirers after Truths of the highest importance, will seriously examine these Works for themselves, in which it is to be hoped, that being in the pursuit and love of the Truth for themselves, and its native excellence and use, they will regard them as they justly deserve, and in the end receive both profit and delight.
