Many of these papers are very curious, and will be highly entertaining to the lovers of American Antiquities, and when considered as authentic memoirs of the early transac-

To be Sold,
A VALUABLE
Tract of Land, BEING that part of the city of New-Brunswick that lies in the County of Somerset and State of New Jersey. It contains upwards of 650 acres of very valuable land and is bounded on the south by the public road that leads from New York to Philadelphia for near two miles, on the east by the river Raritan for near a mile, and lays in a triangular form. Building Lots on feveral streets in this part of the town sell from five to ten dollars and two thirds a foot front, and the extension of Albany Street, which the situation admits of, for a least half a mile, will open a new source for very pleasant & commodious situations for dwelling houses. A considerable space along the river is well calculated for building store-houses and wharves, and affords a site for a Grist Mill on the bank of the river, which may be supplied with water from the Mile-Run by a subterraneous passage already dug, where vessels of 300 barrels burthen may conveniently load and unload. There are now on the premises a good Farm-House and two large barns, a commodious new Dwelling House two stories high, 42 by 32 feet square, intended and well calculated for a store, with very good cellars under the whole, and a kitchen 32 by 20 feet square, a new wharf of 80 feet front, and a well built store house of 42 by 26 feet square and three stories high, and a quarry of building stone on the premises.

New Brunswick, one of the most flourishing places in New Jersey, lying at the head of the navigation of the river Raritan, is the most eligible for the reception of the produce of a very extensive and fertile country, and is well situated for vending every kind of imported merchandise for supplying the country. The easy transportation of every kind of produce and manufacture from thence to New York by water, its situation on the post road through the states, and its vicinity to Perth Amboy, one of the best harbors in the States, render it an object worthy the attention of persons who have the means and know how to improve a situation so well calculated for commerce or manufacture.
The premises will be shown by John Parker or James Cole, at New Brunswick, and the terms and conditions of sale, made known by James Parker,
Of Perth Amboy.

BOOKS,
PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Mathew Carey,
No. 118, Market Street, 1. Charlotte, a tale of truth,
By Mrs. Rowson, of the New Theatre Philadelphia.
Second American edition—Price 75 cents.
[This rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.] Extract from the Critical Review, April 1793, p. 468.
It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity of the regularity of her former conduct, is enticed from her governess, and accompanies a young officer to America—The marriage ceremonny, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inco-nstancy of her lover, and treachery of his friend.—The situations are artless and affecting—the descriptions natural and pasthetic; we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who for one error, scarcely, perhaps deserved for severe a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed.
2. The Inquisitor—by Mrs. Rowson. Second Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents 3. Adventures of Roderic Random. 2 vols 1 dollar and 75 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.
4. Notes on the state of Virginia—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.
5. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot.
Two dollars.
EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.
"The authors have presumed to affix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every censurable action, whenever the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither Tory nor republican.—They love liberty, as English whigs, and execrate every criminal action by which so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced.
"In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of being this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages will not be acceptable to the editors of such a journal. But when the hand of time shall have effaced the cloud of partial representation, they with some confidence expect that verdict from public opinion, which candor and moderation seldom fail to receive.

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW, JANUARY, 1794—page 12.
"We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interest themselves in events which have so fully excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind."

temper and inclination.—Their several tal-them, as well as to think, and speak, and act properly; no less care being taken to form their hearts to goodness, than to enlighten their understandings with useful

"The American Museum is not only eminently calculated to diffuse minute political and other valuable information, but it has been uniformly conducted with taste, attention, & propriety. It is to these important facts, be-superadded the more immediate diffusion, of releaving public documents from oblivion, I will venture to pronounce, as my sentiment, that a more useful literary plan has never been undertaken in America, nor one more deserving of public encouragement."
