WALNUT STREET, Opposite to the Public Square.

In that handsome and airy spot, there are just now ready TO LET, 4 or 5 New Houses.

THIS situation for pleasantness of the prospect of trees and herbage, and its extensive thoroughfare of fresh air, is deemed equal if not superior to any other, that is as convenient to the trading parts of the town. The water is excellent, perhaps the most pure and wholesome that is to be met with in the city. Persons inclined to rent will please to make early application at the Office No. 94, Arch street, or about the premises to JOHN CREAN. July 7 1800.

WHEREAS, An attachment was lately issued out of the inferior court of common pleas of the county of Essex, in the state of New Jersey, directed to the sheriff of the said county, against the rights, credits, monies and effects, goods and chattels, lands and tenements of John Cleves Symmes at the suit of William Walle, in a plea of trespass on the case to his damage three thousand dollars.

And whereas, the said sheriff did, at the term of June last past, return to the said court that he had attached the defendant by a certain bond given by Matthias Denman and Samuel Meeker to the said defendant, to the amount of near two thousand dollars, and also by sixty land warrants.

Now therefore, unless the said John Cleves Symmes shall appear, give special bail, and receive a declaration at the suit of the plaintiff, judgment will be entered against him, and his property herein attached, will be sold agreeably to the statute in such case made and provided.

Aaron Ogden, Clerk, &c. Elizabeth-town, July 8, 1799 (11) law12m

At Bush-Hill,

THE Mansion House is to be let, with about 20 acres of the adjoining lands. Also, some lots from 1 to 4 acres each to be let on improving leases for 6 years, situated on the high ground next to Francis's Lane, affording fine views of the city and of the Delaware. Likewise, a number of lots to be let on Ground rent on Vine and Callowhill streets, both eastward and westward of broad streets. Apply to WILLIAM HAMILTON. The Woodlands, June 27, 1800 July 5.

Lots at Lancaster,

OF sixty feet front by 245 feet deep in different parts of the town are to be let on ground rent forever. Also a number of pasture lots from five to ten acres each, to be let on leases for years. The healthiness and pleasantness of this borough, and its ready communication with Philadelphia by means of the Turnpike Road, render it as desirable a situation as that of any other inland town. Apply at Lancaster, to JOHN MOORE, Esq. or to WILLIAM HAMILTON. The Woodlands, June 27, 1800 July 5.

LOTS, IN THE TOWNSHIP OF BLOCKLEY, FOR SALE OR TO BE LET, ON GROUND RENT,

One mile and a half from the Centre Square, fronting on Market, Chestnut and Walnut streets continued, between the turnpike and the road leading from thence to Baltimore. The situation of these lots is more elevated than any within the same distance of the city, of which and the surrounding country, it commands beautiful and extensive views, and has at the same time the advantage of being on the side of Schuylkill generally esteemed most healthy.

The dimensions of the lots are particularly calculated to suit industrious citizens, whose occupations, although requiring them to be near the town, may be nevertheless advantageously pursued without its bounds. There are in the neighbourhood numerous stone quarries, and there is at the middle ferry (west side) a board yard, where wooden materials for building, as well as cedar posts and rails for fencing, may be had at lower rates than in the city. Apply to WILLIAM HAMILTON. The Woodlands, June 27—July 5 1800.

To the Inhabitants of the 3d Collection District,

Comprehended by the East and West Northern Liberties, and the township of Blockley in first division, Rate of Pennsylvania. YOU are hereby notified, that the tax which has been assessed upon dwelling houses, lands and slaves within this district, by virtue of an act of Congress passed the 14th of July, 1798, entitled "an act to lay and collect a direct tax," becomes due and payable on the 12th day of July next, and that I will attend at my house, No. 353, north Second street, to receive the same, from and after the 12th day of July to the first day of August next, from 10 o'clock in the morning till 6 in the afternoon, except Monday the 21st and Friday the 25th, when, for the greater convenience of the inhabitants in the township of Blockley, I will attend at the house of Mr. William Roads, at the Cross Roads, of which all persons concerned are to take notice—that on default of the delinquents will immediately be proceeded against as the law directs, and subject themselves to an additional expense of eight per centum on their respective taxes and cost of prosecution.

In conformity to the 6th section of the act aforesaid, a full and correct copy of the tax list remains at the office of John Browne, No. 368, north Front street, Northern Liberties, the surveyor of the revenue for the said assessment district, open to the inspection of all persons inclined to inspect the same. QUESTIONS To Merchants, Store keepers, and Traders, in general, &c.

1st. PRAY Gentlemen, is a perfect standard of discount, or interest, calculated on every dollar (without exception) from 1 to 2000, from one day to sixty-four days inclusive, of any value, whether used as a standard, or as a check upon the enquirers' own calculations.

2d. Is it of any importance to know the best methods of computing the exchanges, between this country and the principal maritime trading place in Russia, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Prussia, Poland, Germany, Holland, Flanders, Spain, Portugal, Italy, in several of the Windward and Leeward West India Islands, and many ports in the East Indies?

3d. Is a table of all the coins and monies of account in the places aforesaid, of any use?

4th. Are the coins and monies of account in the aforesaid places, when reduced to dollars and cents, of any service?

5th. Is a table of compound interest of any utility?

6th. Is the table by which the banks determine the value of gold, defensible?

7th. Is the amount of Interest, accurately calculated for each month from one to twelve months, and on every dollar (without exception) from 1 to 2000, of any value?

8th. Is a table of all the post towns in the United States, and rates of postage therewith, of any use?

9th. Will not all these together make a book, as generally useful and convenient as ever entered a counting house or store?

10th. Will not the whole, when comprised in a quarto volume of from 200 to 225 pages, be worth two dollars?

And lastly, Is the person, who at the expence of FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS undertakes to perform upwards of one hundred and sixty thousand calculations of Interest, and of giving all the preceding information to the public in the most complete manner, deserving of your Encouragement and Support?

If the answer is in the affirmative, you are individually and respectfully invited to subscribe in one of the specimen books, exhibited at the City Tavern, Hardy's Hotel, Francis's Hotel, the Indian Queen, Dunwoody's Tavern, the Franklin Head, and at the George.

It is proper to state, that the work will not be executed unless fifteen hundred subscribers are obtained: for four thousand dollars is too much to hazard.

NOTHING IS TO BE PAID IN ADVANCE, neither will it be expected of subscribers to take the work when published, if it is not delivered rigorously conformable to my agreements with the public, expressed in the conditions affixed to the specimen books, each of which consists of six detached pages of the work.

I am, with respect, Gentlemen, Your humble servant, JOHN ROWLETT, Accountant, Bank of North America.

POSTSCRIPT.

The work is dedicated, by permission, to the President and Directors of the Bank of North America, and has already received the patronage of JOHN ADAMS, President of the United States; of THOMAS JEFFERSON, Vice-President of the United States, and President of the Senate; of a large number of Senators and Members of the House of Representatives of the United States; and of the Presidents and Directors of the different Banks unanimously. The Specimen Book in the Bank of North America, is selling very fast with subscriptions, some for 2 copies, some for 3 copies, and some for 5 copies, and I take this opportunity of gratefully acknowledging all favours.

††† Gentlemen having business at either of the Banks may subscribe there as well as at the Taverns, &c. already mentioned. Copy-right secured according to act of Congress. March 10. dtw
