A DIME A DAY.

What This Insignificant Sum Will Do When Properly Managed.

A dime is not a particularly large sum of money and not much can be accomplished with it.

But small as is the little silver piece and insignificant as are its apparent possibilities, yet when properly managed it may be made to procure one of those levers which move the world.

This is an erroneous idea, as will be demonstrated, and it will furthermore be shown that for the insignificant sum of a dime, put away daily for a short time in the savings bank furnished by THE TRIBUNE, anyone may obtain possession of an epitome of all the knowledge of the wisest men in the world.

Everybody knows what the Encyclopedia Britannica is. It is a collection of articles upon every imaginable topic under the sun, written by scholars and students of the highest rank.

But now THE TRIBUNE has stepped into the educational arena and put within the reach of its subscribers the entire magnificent set of twenty-five volumes, supplemented to date, at a price less than one-fourth heretofore asked.

AMUSEMENT NOTES. The George A. Baker Opera company will present "The Bohemian Girl" at the Academy of Music this evening.

THE ESCAPE FROM LIBBY. Performance Being Arranged for Benefit of Associated Charities.

GRIMES' CELLAR DOOR. James B. Mackie, who will be at the Academy on Monday evening, has, it would seem, scored an immediate and substantial success as "Billy Grimes," who owns the cellar door in the bright, musical comedy, "Grimes' Cellar Door."

LAND OF THE MIDNIGHT SUN. "Land of the Midnight Sun," which will be at the Academy next Tuesday, for scenic effects is probably the most important dramatic production of the season.

NORTH END'S NEW BELL

Citizens of Providence Present It to the Board of Control.

FIRST RUNG BY A LITTLE GIRL

J. U. Hopewell Presented the Bell in Behalf of the Citizens of the North End and School Controller Mitchell Accepted the Gift for the School Directors—Speeches by Well Known Citizens.

Citizens of the North End and the scholars in building No. 25 participated in a jollification yesterday afternoon when the handsome new bell, which was purchased with money subscribed by the citizens of that portion of the city, was presented to the board of control for the use of the school.

The exercises were held in the large hall on the third floor of the building. The scholars marched to their places in companies under command of their teachers. The marching was executed perfectly to music furnished by Miss Myrtle Wolf.

On the platform where the speakers sat, was the old bell which served loyally to their studies many of the prominent citizens of the Scranton of today thirty years ago. Crossed over it were two small American flags.

After the scholars had been massed on the right hand side of the hall Principal Lange announced a song by the school, after which he opened the exercises with a brief address. Mr. Lange thought that it was not often a school was given such an opportunity to celebrate such an event that they should join with Tennyson in saying:

Ring out the old, Ring in the new, Ring out the false, Ring in the true. He then introduced J. U. Hopewell, father of the scheme to place a bell in the tower. Mr. Hopewell expressed himself as being delighted that he was the person upon whom the honor fell. He was proud to be able in behalf of Providence and of the Register to present the bell to the board of control.

Mr. Mitchell announced that he had expected Mr. Worsner would be present to accept the gift. He thanked all who were interested for the magnificent bell and remarked that the people were taking more interest in school matters and demanded better and prouder buildings than ever before.

Little Alice Mann, aged 7 years, was chosen to ring the bell for the first time and she performed her duty admirably. When the first peal went forth, a mighty shout went up and all hands applauded vigorously.

Supervisor Phillips thought that the school should be proud of the bell and that the people of Providence believed in the old maxim, "Everything comes to him who waits," if he only worked hard while waiting. He took more than an ordinary interest in the exercises because No. 25 was the first public school he had charge of in this city.

OTHER SPEAKERS FOLLOW. County Superintendent Taylor complimented the scholars, teachers and citizens on the handsome building and the clear-toned bell. He thought, however, that he could have appreciated both better had they come about three or four years ago, when he was principal of the building.

School Controller Jennings, of the Fourteenth ward, was present and made a few congratulatory remarks, in which he touched upon the aggressive work done by Controller Mitchell. Rev. Mr. Jones also made a few remarks.

THE AUDIENCE THEN INSPECTED THE HANDSOME BUILDING.

A theatrical benefit will be given at the Academy of Music the latter part of January for the benefit of the board of associated charities.

E. F. Kingsbury, of this city, has the matter in charge and will organize a strong cast of amateurs for the production. "The Escape from Libby," a historical comedy drama by Roscoe L. Whitman, has been selected for the entertainment, and Mr. Whitman has been organized to play the leading role and personally superintend the rehearsal. Mr. Kingsbury will impersonate the principal comedy part, in which he recently made a decided hit in Amsterdam, N. Y. The play is considered by competent critics to be one of the best war dramas ever written.

The plot is a pretty story, being based on the famous escape of 109 Union soldiers from Libby prison in February, 1864.

It has been presented in Detroit, Springfield, Albany, Syracuse, Providence, Cleveland and other cities with great success.

BAR ROOM LOYALTIES ILLEGAL. Mayor Nichols Gives Warning Against All Such Schemes.

Mayor Nichols, of Wilkes-Barre, has done real war upon all schemesavoring of the lottery, as the following from the yesterday's Wilkes-Barre Record will show:

brought before the mayor was lodged by Policeman Schuyler, but the mayor said at the hearing that he had received frequent complaints from persons in the neighborhood that the business was becoming a nuisance because of the crowd attracted.

The mayor required Mr. Price to give bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance at the next term of quarter sessions court, and said that hereafter all proprietors of hotels and restaurants would have the law enforced against them for conducting such schemes.

FIRST CHURCH CONGREGATION. At a Meeting Held Tuesday Night Flattering Reports Were Read.

The annual meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church was held Tuesday evening. E. P. Kingsbury presided and F. E. Platt was secretary.

After offering prayer Dr. McLeod withdrew from the meeting. There was a goodly attendance and the old trustees, consisting of C. F. Mattee, George H. Catlin and F. E. Platt were re-elected to serve another term of two years.

Mr. Kingsbury, chairman of the auditing committee, reported that the committee had examined carefully the books of the treasurer, T. D. Watts, and his report characterized the books as models of accuracy and neatness.

Death of an Aged Lady. Mrs. Mary Hagen, an aged lady, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Bonner, of Prospect avenue, on Wednesday evening.

Lively Interest Taken in the Various Ward Elections.

GOOD RECORD OF A. T. CONNELL

He is Independent in Council, but is Respected by All—His Opponent Seeks a Vindication at a Very Late Day—Democrats in the Nineteenth Harmonize—Death of Mrs. Hagen.

More interest will probably center in the various elections that transpire in the old South ward at the approaching municipal election than has been aroused before in many years.

The battle for select council in the Twentieth ward will be watched closely all over the city. Ex-Councilman Thomas McGrail has received the Democratic nomination, and the consensus of opinion is that he will only have his labor as his reward.

Mr. Connell's Work. Mr. Connell makes a model councilman. He is present at all meetings and is a close observer of all legislation that is in process of enactment.

Only the Nineteenth ward remains yet to be heard from. The Democratic caucus will be held Saturday evening at Prospect avenue and Willow street, but so far as the result is concerned, the caucus might be dispensed with.
