NORTH END.

A very pleasant New Year's entertainment was held at the home of Dr. Ross, on Short avenue, Park Place, Monday evening.

The Jack Frost entertainment held in the Park Place Methodist Episcopal church Monday and Tuesday evenings was a success financially and otherwise. The crowds on both nights were so large that comfortable seating accommodations could not be provided.

Clark Angel, lately of this city, but now of Wayne county, visited Dr. Ross, of Short avenue, a few days ago.

Mrs. Amos Singer, of Park Place, who has been seriously ill for the past week, is convalescent.

Marshal Preston, president of the Park Place "Fire Escapes," has called a special meeting for this evening. Several new members will be enrolled and other business transacted.

St. Mary's hall is undergoing extensive repairs. The hall was pronounced unsafe some time ago, but will soon be in perfect shape.

Evans, Charles Connelly, Louis Kline, Herman Sheldon. Games and music were indulged in.

ROWAN DEMANDS DAMAGES.

He Says That the City Has Greatly Injured His Property.

John Rowan has sued the city to recover $1,500 for damages that he alleges has been done his property on Brook street during the past six years. The action was begun yesterday for Mr. Rowan by Attorney I. H. Burns. The plaintiff's lot is bounded on one side by a gutter into which the drainage from surrounding premises flowed and by which it was carried to the main gutter on Brook street.

Mr. Rowan says that the city so changed the course of the gutter and obstructed it as to cause his property to be flooded periodically.

ADDITION TO FUNDS IN TREASURY.

W. C. Boyd, Advance Agent for Barnum's Show, Takes License.

W. C. Boyd, advance agent for Barnum & Bailey's great shows, was in the city yesterday and as a result of his visit the city has an additional $100 to its credit.

This amount Mr. Boyd paid over to Deputy Treasurer Ruane and obtained in return a license for the shows he represents to exhibit here on Saturday, May 24.

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.

TOMMY O'ROURKE'S ESCAPE

He Ties the Horse of Dyer Bartlett to a Fence and Makes a Visit to Philadelphia—Writes a Letter to His Employer—Funeral of Frederick Becker—Mrs. Samuel Jennings Buried—Many Other News Items.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 138 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

A horse attacked to a light vehicle was found on Wednesday afternoon tied to a fence in Decker's court. It was observed that the animal had remained in that position for many hours and an investigation was made. No owner could be found and Sergeant Williams was notified, who sent Officer Matthews to the place. He took the horse and wagon in charge, placing them in the barn of Undertaker M. F. Wymbs. There the animal remained until yesterday afternoon, when C. L. Bartlett, the Penn avenue dyer, came to the West Side in search of a horse he had lost. He was informed that a horse and wagon were in the barn of Mr. Wymbs, and identified them as his property. In conversation with the undertaker, Mr. Bartlett stated that he was in receipt of a letter dated from Philadelphia written by his driver, who is no other than Tom O'Rourke, the well known pugilist. In the letter Mr. O'Rourke told Bartlett where his property was to be found, adding that he had collected about $13 and had been summoned by a sick relative to Philadelphia. He did not state why he had left the horse in that out of the way place, neither did he say when he would return. Mr. Bartlett recovered his property and will await further development.

Funeral of Frederick Becker. The funeral of Frederick Becker, sr., who died on Tuesday morning after a short illness, occurred yesterday afternoon from the home of his son, John Becker, on South Main avenue. An impressive service was held at the home by Rev. D. W. Skellinger, pastor of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, who spoke on the deceased as one of the pioneers in this section. During the services a trio consisting of Misses Clara Sanders, Hannah Waters and William Davies sang several beautiful selections. The flowers were very beautiful. Among them was a hand some pillow inscribed "Father," a wreath of white roses and a large sheaf of wheat. Interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were John Frank, Fred Cupp, John Gable, Jacob Kueber, Frank Fahr and John Brill.

Mrs. Jenkins Buried. The many friends of the late Mrs. Samuel Jenkins, who died on Tuesday last, gathered at the family home on South Main avenue at 2 1/2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, where they took the last view of the remains. Rev. W. S. Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member, conducted the service at the home. He spoke of the sterling qualities which the deceased possessed, both as a Christian and a wife. Among the numerous floral tributes was a handsome pillow inscribed "Mother." Interment was made in the Washburn Street cemetery. The pall bearers were Reese Hopkins, J. T. Williams, Samuel Phillips, Thomas Howells, Thomas Davies and J. J. Evans.

An Appeal for Help. An appeal is made to the public for assistance for the widow and orphans of Oswald Wagner, who met his death by a fall of coal at the Hyde Park shaft a few weeks ago. Mrs. Wagner and her eight small children reside on Everett avenue in a cottage which the deceased husband had been striving for years to pay for and on which there is still due a debt of $500. A petition was put in circulation yesterday by a few friends and it is to be trusted that the response will be such that the family will soon be in more comfortable circumstances.

Funeral of Patrick Gurrell. The funeral of Patrick Gurrell, who died on Wednesday at the home of J. J. Healy on Ninth street, will take place this morning. The remains will be taken to St. Patrick's church where a high mass of requiem will be celebrated. Mr. Gurrell was born in County Sligo, Ireland, and was 62 years of age and an old resident of this city. His sickness was of short duration and death came by heart failure. He was a brother of Mrs. James J. Healy and Police Officer Martin Gurrell, of this city, and Miss Margaret Gurrell, of New York city.

Brought Suit for Rent. Henry Williams, of Fellows street, brought suit against Benjamin Johnson and wife, of the same locality, last evening for the recovery of rent which they owed. The case was heard before Alderman T. T. Morgan, of the Fifteenth ward. Mrs. Johnson swore that Williams used vile names, while he in return said they would not pay him his rent. Williams was defended by Attorney L. M. Bunnell. After hearing the case the Alderman held Johnson under bail to keep the peace for four months.

Marquerade Last Evening. A grand masquerade ball was given in Mears' hall last evening by the Keystone Social club. The room was very prettily decorated, and presented a fine appearance as the merry dancers glided through the hall to the music of Miss Agnes Malott on the piano. The costumes were very beautiful, and many unique dresses were to be seen.

Brief Items of News. Walter S. Bevan, of North Main avenue, returned yesterday to resume his studies at Lafayette college, Easton.

Mrs. Martin Weber, an aged lady, is seriously ill with pneumonia at the home of her son William, on North Bromley avenue.

John Kinham, of New Market, Va., has returned home after a visit with Evan J. Davis, of South Main avenue.

Miss Bertha Bold, of Waverly, who has been visiting Miss Lizzie Davies, of North Main avenue, for some time past, will return home to-day.

Thomas Thomas, of Bellevue street, is ill with grip.

Miss Gwen Besser, of Kingston, is the guest of Miss Rachel Powell, of North Lincoln avenue.

One dozen of Griffin's Ivoryette photos will make a very nice Christmas present. What can you present your friends that will be more acceptable?

MRS. LEASE'S BIG VICTORY.

The Court Restrains Her Successor from Taking His Seat. TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 4.—Hostilities were begun anew in the Lowell-Lease embargo this morning, the governor having persisted in Mrs. Lease's removal regardless of the statute which states plainly they have not the power to do so. All efforts toward effecting a compromise have been discontinued, and papers, which have been ready since Monday, were filed in the supreme court this morning in the case of Mrs. Lease against J. W. Freeborn, her would-be successor. The court issued a restraining order forbidding Freeborn from acting or attempting to act as a member of the board, and from interfering in any way with Mrs. Lease acting as a member of the board or in depriving her of any of the rights of the office.

THE REPUBLICAN POSITION.

It Is One of Opposition to Wilson Bill at Stages. WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Representative Burrows, of the committee on ways and means, who is scheduled to open the debate on the Wilson bill for the opposition, said this afternoon: "The Republican position is just this: We hold and charge that this bill is intended to and will result in the destruction of American industries. That being the case we simply decline to aid the Democrats in bringing the matter before the house. We say the majority must take the responsibility of initiating proceedings and must have their own quorum on the floor for that purpose."

W. E. RUSSELL STEPS OUT.

Massachusetts Once Again Has a Republican Set of Officials. BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 4.—Frederick Thomas Greenhalge was inaugurated governor to-day before the members of the legislature in joint convention and a large number of citizens. Lieutenant Governor Wolcott also took the oath of office.

The Great Financier, Russell Sage.

Gives the following good advice to boys, which the parents might also read with profit:

"Boys, go to school as long as you can, and remember every hour spent in study in your youth will be worth many to you in after life. Read good books, make yourselves acquainted with history, study the progress of nations and the careers of men who have made nations great."

"Study religion, science, literature and history. Learn to read intelligently, so that you can turn to practical use in after-life the readings of your youth. Be sure you begin right. Do not waste time in reading trashy books."

Mr. Sage says further: "The boy who is wanted in the business world of today must be educated. If his parents cannot afford to give him a college or high school education, he must learn to study without the aid of a teacher in the early mornings before business begins, and in the evenings after business hours. It can no longer be truthfully said that an education is out of anyone's reach."

This is the advice of a man who is one of the most conspicuous business successes of our time, and who has amassed one of the largest fortunes in America. It cannot possibly be charged that he is in the pay of the Encyclopedia Britannica, and yet these words, given as the conviction of a life of unusual observation and experience, advise as strongly as words can, that you hasten to accept the offer of THE TRIBUNE and secure this greatest of books.

The edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica offered by THE TRIBUNE fills every requirement of Mr. Sage's recipe for success. Who will be without these books now when ten cents a day will secure them?

On receipt of only $1.50 the entire set will be delivered to your home—the balance to be paid on easy monthly payments. It is an actual fact that these books are more strongly bound than the original at $5 per volume, of which these are a copy.

The books can be seen any day and Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings at 437 SPRUCE STREET, near Washington avenue.
