omically, should have it.

GORMAN'S
GRAND DEPOT
CARBONDALE.

Yesterday afternoon the Young Ladies' Cooking club were entertained at tea by Miss Lillian Baker at her home on Church street.

On Sunday evening at the Baptist tabernacle, the third in the series of sermons on the conversions in the New Testament will be preached by the pastor, Rev. T. E. Johnson. The subject of this sermon will be "Conversion on a Journey." The two previous sermons preached of the series have been very interesting and large and attentive audiences have been present each evening. After the sermon the ordinance of baptism will be administered to several converts.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cookan died yesterday morning.
and the remains were interred in St.
Rose cemetery.

Miss Jennie Anger, of Terrace street, is visiting Miss Sally Johnson, of Kingston.

The funeral of Mrs. Edward McLeary, who died at her home on Dundaff street on Thursday afternoon, will occur this morning. The remains will be taken to Deposit, N. Y., her former home, where interment will be made.
They will leave on the Erie flyer, leaving at 9:30 a. m.

Branch No. 549, Catholic Knights of America, installed the following officers on Thursday evening to serve during the year 1894: Spiritual director, Rev. T. E. Coffey; president, Mark Campbell; corresponding secretary, P.
M. Campbell; financial secretary, John P. Campbell; treasurer, James E.
Maxwell; sergeant-at-arms, James Gerrity; chanters, John Harne; trustee, John Mulvaney.

Cottage prayer meeting was held last evening at the home of Benjamin Decker, on Archbald street, under the auspices of the Baptist Christian Endeavor society.

Yesterday afternoon a very interesting meeting was held in the Presbyterian church by the local branch of the Women's Christian Temperance union. Among the matters of business transacted was an arrangement made for the distribution of temperance literature.

Charles Morris is confined to his home with the grip.

A Household Treasure.
D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house, and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it if procured. G. A. Dykeman, druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested? Trial bottles free at Matthews Bros., drug store.
Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

DR. WARFIELD'S LECTURE.

The Institute Adjourns Since Die After the Election of Officers.

HONESDALE, Jan. 5.—At the court house last evening a solo was played by Edward Reed, accompanied by Mrs. Reichtmyer on the piano, and Jefferson Freeman on the violin. The hearty encore was responded to.
Dr. Warfield, president of Lafayette college, lectured on the subject, "What is a name?" He briefly told of the origin of names, which at first had a meaning particularly relating to the occupation of a person. After the middle ages names were invented that had a meaning and have gradually passed on until the present time, when they simply denote the individual. He spoke of the peculiarity of many names and gave many amusing illustrations.
Professor Albert and Professor Twit-myer gave short addresses this morning. Officers were elected, committees appointed and the institute adjourned since die. The institute this year was characterized by good attendance and attention of the teachers, by good lectures on practical subjects and by the thoroughness with which the work at hand was covered.

LAST NIGHT'S BURGLAR.

This Play of Thrilling Pathos Greeted by Crowded House.

HONESDALE, Jan. 5.—"The Burglar" at the Opera House last night was an exceptionally good show and was greeted by a crowded house. The fact that applause was neither heavy nor frequent can be accounted for by the character of the play is taken into consideration, which, with the exception of a few characters, is the intermingling of crime and sorrow.
"The Burglar" is a pathetic play, deeply stirring the emotions.

Maple City Affairs Chronicled in Crisp and Neat Notes.

HONESDALE, Jan. 5.—A work of prayer will be observed in the Methodist church, beginning Monday, Jan. 8, and ending Friday night, Jan. 12.
Hon. E. B. Hardenbergh, W. W.
Wood and Nicholas Louis returned home yesterday from the Harrisburg convention.

An important meeting of the Exchange club will be held tomorrow (Saturday) evening at 9:30 o'clock.
W. S. Lambert returned home today after a sojourn of two weeks at Thomasville, Ga., where his family is spending the winter.

W. B. Buchanan, of Philadelphia made a business call to Honesdale today.

Invitations are out for the reception and ball to be given by Division I Ancient Order Hibernians at the armory Friday evening Jan. 12. The music will be furnished by Metzger's orchestra. A fine time is anticipated.

Thomas Kallaghan died suddenly at his home here this morning.

A wheel came off from the heavy laden wagon of Mr. Ordning, of Cayle, on Main street today, causing considerable annoyance.

Miss Estelle Halleck returned to her home in Campville, N. Y., today.

JERMYN.

Mrs. Henry, of the East Side, is very ill with typhoid fever.

Yesterday, while at work on his new house on Second street, Barton Parks fell twenty feet, seriously injuring himself. The cause of his fall was a spike in the scaffolding, which was being taken down. Dr. Davis has strong hopes of his recovery.

A horse and wagon belonging to Alexander Shients, of Mayfield, while standing in front of the Jermyrn pharmacy, was struck by an electric car.
The wagon was upset and the horse dragged for some distance. No damage was done except the ruined harness.

Mrs. J. Mitchell, of Fifth street, who has been seriously ill, is slightly better at the present writing.

John Kennedy, of the East Side, is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Edward Neary, of Mayfield, while at play, suffered a fracture of his collar bone.

Michael Fick, the supposed murderer of John Page, returned yesterday. He says that he had been visiting at Plymouth and knew nothing of the murder. He is now in custody in Scranton, having voluntarily surrendered himself.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

FACTORYVILLE.

The Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church will serve a supper in the lecture room of the church Jan. 17, for the small sum of ten cents. This society was but recently organized and should receive the hearty support of the congregation.

The members of the Epworth league and Christian Endeavor societies joined in a union "watch meeting" at the Methodist church Sunday evening.
There was a large congregation present, and as the old year slowly died those present realized that 1893 with her opportunities was gone forever, and many were the resolves for a more consecrated Christian life and better service for the Master in the year that is before us. As the old year died and the new year was born the congregation knelt in silent prayer, after which they sang "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow." This ended a meeting that certainly was a blessing to those present.

Miss Lucille Small, a young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Small, while at play Wednesday evening found a small bottle of iodine and drank it.
Antidotes were immediately given and a doctor summoned, who brought the little lady through with nothing more serious than a burned throat.

The fifth quarterly meeting of the "Keweenaw union" of Christian Endeavor societies, comprising the societies of Factoryville, Nelson, Dalton and Waverly, will meet in the Baptist church of this place Jan. 19, afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Irene Seamus, widow of the late Deacon James Seamus, died at her home near here yesterday at the age of 89. She had been a victim of the grip for about three weeks. She was a faithful Christian and a strong advocate of temperance. The funeral will be held next Sunday at 11 a. m. in the Six Principal Baptist church, of which she was a member. Rev. D. L. Bennett, of Washington, R. I., will officiate.

Charles M. Walter, of this place, and Miss Nettie Scott, of Montrose, were last Sunday united in the bonds of matrimony at Binghamton, N. Y. Both young people are well known and highly respected here. Mr. Walter is the honored principal of our graded school and Mrs. Walter is a sister of Jeweler F. B. Small, of this place. We extend our congratulations and bid them a hearty welcome among us.

The work of prayer will be observed at the Baptist church next week, when special meetings will probably be continued for several weeks.

PRICEBURG.

The fair is still in progress and scarcely a night passes that the hall is not crowded to its capacity. A good entertainment is provided each evening and visitors have lots of valuable articles to select from. A barrel of flour is the door prize all this week, a different barrel each night.

The infant child of Jeff. McConnell, which died on Thursday, was interred at Priceburg cemetery on Thursday afternoon.

Matthew Donnell, of the Ridge, circulated among friends here on Thursday.

Master James Lewis is going to attend a business school.

C. H. Donovan, of the Boulevard, has moved to Shenandoah, where he will engage in the mercantile business.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Logan, Mrs.
James J. Logan and son, Patrick, and Mrs. Mary Welsh attended the funeral of Mrs. Martin Hart at Carbondale on Wednesday.

A Poland was brutally assaulted by two of his fellow countrymen two other night. He appeared before Justices of the Peace Logan and had warrants issued for them. A case was called, but the "quiere acted as peace-maker and the case was settled by the defendants paying the costs.

Some time during Thursday night or Friday morning thieves gained an entrance into William Moore's barber shop on Main street and succeeded in relieving that gentleman of thirteen watches, nine razors and a number of other valuable articles. Mr. Moore, who is a practical watchmaker as well as a first-class barber, had a number of valuable tickers on hand for repairs, all of which were stolen and he will have to stand the loss. The police have a clue. A few policemen on night duty would be a blessing to the community.

Cure for Croup—Use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil according to directions. It is the best remedy for all croup, attacks of colds, pains and inflammation, and injuries.

TAYLOR.

A number of the Daughters of America members of this town visited their sister lodge at Hyde Park last night.

Earl Decker, of Pittston, was in town yesterday.

Professor M. J. Loyd and an1. bride have returned home from their wedding trip, and will go to homekeeping at Olyphant.

The officers of Lackawanna Valley Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics were installed Thursday night.

The Loyal Knights of America had a public installation of officers last night. A large attendance was present. The entertainment was rich in culture and evoked much applause.

The repeating of the cantata by the Sunday school of the Welsh Congregational church at the risk on Jan. 16 should not be forgotten and a large audience should greet them.

The Knights of Golden Eagle held a public installation Thursday night.
R. W. Reese was chairman of the entertainment. S. J. Phillips read a paper on "Luck," which was interesting.

The citizens will no doubt soon call a caucus and nominate a ticket for the borough election in February.

M. M. Williams and Thomas Bowen were in Pittston on Thursday.

The Price library reception committee met Thursday night. Among its routine of business it decided to hold an entertainment and reception on Thursday night, Jan. 19. The affair will be unique. An admission of 10 cents will be charged and all who attend will be served with a free lunch, which the lady friends of the association will furnish and serve. The entertainment will be short and the remainder of the night will be spent in merry making.

H. Rich, of Gravity, was a recent caller in town.

Our chief of police should by all means endeavor to break up the habit of loitering on the corner of Union and Main streets.
Samuel Gordon is confined to his home with the influenza.
W. G. Fry was in Olyphant on Thursday visiting friends.
Three new members were added to the Price library membership at their last meeting. The directors have also resolved that the games are only for members and a list of those are posted upon the book case for reference.

August Fisher was in Wayne county yesterday.
Robert Burleigh, chairman of the Republican conference of Lackawanna township, has called a meeting of the conference for next Wednesday night at 7 o'clock at J. E. Davis' hotel.

PECKVILLE.

The many friends of Mabel Day will be pleased to know that the prospects of her recovery are very promising.
Thomas Swales is still confined to his home with rheumatism.

At the annual election of trustees for the First Methodist Episcopal church of Peckville A. U. Thorpe and S. F.
White were elected for the ensuing three years. Work on the New Methodist Episcopal church is to begin early in March. The church will occupy lawn in front of the present edifice and will also cover a portion of the site of the old church, which will be moved back to serve the purpose of a chapel and lecture room. When completed it will be an ornament to our town and afford a commodious auditorium for the accommodation of the people of Peckville and vicinity.

Rev. Dr. Pearce, pastor of the Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church of Scranton, will deliver the closing lecture in the People's Lecture course at the Methodist Episcopal church next Tuesday evening. Admission 25 cents.

James Heber Dorman, of Scranton, Pa.

Cured of Scrofula

The People will have Hood's

Mr. Dorman's Experience

"My boy, now 9 years old, had Scrofula in one eye from the time he was a baby; discharging all the time. Of late we have been giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it has done that medicine can cure. The Scrofula has disappeared, and his eye is healed up and well."

Hood's Cures

fully believe Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine in the market. I keep a general store, and it is not a task to sell Hood's Sarsaparilla for the people will have it. I sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than all other medicines together and this store would not be complete without it.

without it. My wife has also been entirely cured of Scrofula by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I can heartily recommend it for what it has done for us." JOHN DORMAN, Scranton, Pa.
