BOAST NOT OF TOMORROW.

An Effective Sermon by Rev. Ralph Gillam on This Theme.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

DUNMORE, Pa., Jan. 12.—Another large audience greeted Rev. Ralph Gil lam at the Presbyterian church tonight. Services will be held tomorrow evening. On Sunday morning Mr. Gil lam will take for his subject "The Blessed Invitation," and his subject in the evening will be the "Unanswerable Question." Tomorrow afternoon's service will be devoted to the children.

Mr. Gil lam spoke tonight on the subject, "Boast not thyself of tomorrow." He said in part: I do not know of any more important message that could come to your hearts than this one: "Boast not thyself of tomorrow for you know not what a day may bring forth. There are people here tonight who are putting off their salvation until a later day when they do not know whether they will see tomorrow or not. Tomorrow you may not do what you may today. Tomorrow means eternity. In the name of Jesus I say do not boast thyself of this one thing.

The words of the text apply to the classes of people; to the ones who have a duty to perform; to those who have few sins; to the unsaved man. He ought to be a Christian now.

The discourse was an uncommonly effective one and moved the large audience perceptibly.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption tried without result everything, else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results of which these are examples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Matthews Bros. Drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.

The Inclement Weather Keeps Many

from an Interesting Lecture.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

HONESDALE, Pa., Jan. 12.—Rev. George C. Hall will officiate at the mission stations at Susquehanna, New Milford and Great Bend on Sunday.

Masked balls are not as frequent now as in former years, but the one held in the Liederkranz hall last evening by St. Joseph's society was largely attended. The fine music of Metzger's orchestra gave inspiration to the masked dancers.

Fred B. Crossley will pass Sunday with friends at Pittston.

Several of Honesdale's young people attended the donation at Cherry Ridge last night.

The cold drizzling rain and hard wind of last night were the means of keeping many people from the lecture at the Baptist church. "Behold the Man" was the topic selected by the Rev. M. J. Watkins of Factoryville. He pleaded for the freedom of man from the many bonds by which he is held and illustrated his lecture with many quotations.
