

LIVE NEWS OF TWO PITTSTONS

Events of the Upper End of Luzerne County Briefly Narrated.

PROVED A TREACHEROUS GUIDE

Young Woman, Unfamiliar with the Place, Entrusts Herself to the Escort of a Man Who, Instead of Taking Her Where She Sought to Go, Endeavored to Assault Her and Was Only Prevented by the Prompt Arrival of Spectators Who Had Been Alarmed—Other Newsy Gleanings.

[THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE'S Pittston department is in charge of J. M. Paly, to whom news items and complaints may be referred.]

Miss Lorne, of Hudson, N. Y., a prepossessing young lady, had an exciting experience on her arrival here Sunday evening. She had been visiting friends in Meshoppen and started for her home Sunday evening on the Lehigh Valley train which reaches here at 8:40 o'clock. Failing to make proper connections at the Junction with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train, she concluded to remain here over night so as to be able to take an early train yesterday morning.

The conductor recommended that she go to the hotel opposite the Junction depot, known as the Valley House, and she accordingly left the train at the Junction. (Going to the hotel in question she was informed by the proprietor that all the rooms were taken for the night. She directed Miss Lorne to a hotel a considerable distance down the road.

A young man witnessing the affair offered to pilot her to the place. It appears that the fellow, instead of taking her to the hotel, directed her down Main street, and turned down the old road leading to the Lehigh Valley tracks at the Ferry bridge. They followed along the tracks until they reached the rear of Sutherland & McMillan's warehouse. At this point the fellow made improper remarks to Miss Lorne.

The latter screamed for help, and William Hepler, cabman, who was at Pierce's livery, and several others about the barn ran to her assistance.

When the fellow saw them coming, however, he ran away, taking with him the lady's grip sack. Miss Lorne, now thoroughly alarmed, ran to the water street depot, where she took a cab and was driven to the Eagle hotel. Here she related the story of her terrible experience. She remained overnight at the Eagle, and started for home in the morning.

BAD COMPUTATION, THIS.

Two Glaring Errors Revealed in the Borough Statement.

In the financial statement of the borough as published in the Gazette of last evening, appear two glaring errors. They appear in the light and water account as may be seen from the following:

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes 'LIGHT AND WATER ACCOUNT' and 'BOROUGH ACCOUNT'.

In the light and water account, the receipt from all sources is $6,184.39, yet the accountant who figures up the statement would make it appear that the total of $3,728.05 balance, is $6,184.39, when it really is $9,842.07, or a difference of $3,199.98. The borough account is equally incorrect.

H. A. Archer, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
