WANAMAKER'S Photographic Panorama OF THE WORLD'S FAIR

Now Ready

Something new. It is a Great Education for any Man, Woman and Child who reads The Tribune and takes advantage of its Grand Offer.

It consists of Over Three Hundred Photographic Views of the Sights and Scenes of the World's Fair and Midway Plaisance.

It is Issued in Weekly Parts, or Portfolios. Each Portfolio Contains 16 or More Different and Distinct Pictures.

Over THREE HUNDRED Views Shown, No Two Alike.

All of the pictures are of equal interest and importance to complete this beautiful and exhaustive pictorial history of the World's Columbian Exposition.

AT CHICAGO, Illinois, on the shore of Lake Michigan, from May 1 to October 30, 1893, stood the Magic City—the Dream City—that caused the whole world to halt and gaze in wonder and amazement. This was the crowning achievement in America's history of 400 years. Every nation from Greenland's icy Mountains to India's Coral Strand, from darkest Africa to the islands of the sea poured forth their riches as tribute to the World's Columbian Exposition, that it should be the most marvelous display of ancient and modern times. All that the human brain had conceived, that human skill could execute, was there. All this wealth of the earth and genius of mind was concentrated there within an area of 633 acres, of which 250 acres were covered with buildings that alone cost Twenty-three Million Dollars. Only the spirit and the pictures of this, the eighth and greatest wonder of the world, remain with us. The spirit will make our nation greater and all humanity better, while the pictures make a pictorial history that will tell the story to all the children of men.

The Photographic Panorama of the World's Fair is designed to perpetuate the glories of the Magic City, for the entertainment of the multitudes and for the enlightenment of posterity. It presents vivid and realistic views of Grand Exposition Buildings, with their towers, pinnacles and glittering domes, pictures of State and Foreign Buildings, of massive Arches, of Colonnades and Peristies, of noble Statuary and Egyptian Obelisks, of Sculpture and Mural Decorations, of jetting Fountains, of beautiful Interior Exhibits, of Venetian Gondolas, gliding over the deep Lagoons, of Pavilions, of Foreign Villages, of Cafes, of the Wooded Island, and many other attractions of the Dream City, including the famous Midway Plaisance, the bazaar of nations, or the side-shows of the World's Fair.

Every vestige of the World's Fair is fast passing away. Already fire has played havoc among the buildings, while a small army of men are at work removing everything in the form of Buildings and exhibits that was dear to the sight of the World's Fair visitors. But thanks to photography, it remains for the entertainment and edification of the multitudes and for posterity.

The "Wanamaker Panorama of the World's Fair" is a voluminously illustrated history of that great event. It is a history that is both highly entertaining to the young and old, and instructive to all. It is such a volume that should be in every patriotic home. In order to have a complete, continuous and connected history, it will be necessary to have all the parts.
