EPWORTH LEAGUE ENTERTAINS

A Successful Event at the Simpson Methodist Church—Thomas Youthful Arrested for Assaulting Mrs. Thomas Machiench and Joseph Constance—Harry Murphy, Thirteen Years Old, Bitten by a Dog.

The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 128 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.

The entertainment and social of the Epworth League of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church occurred last evening in the lecture room.

The auditorium was well filled and was neatly decorated. The programme was opened with a selection by a male glee club, after which the question, "Resolved, That Nature is More Pleading to the Eye Than Art" was debated.

The first speaker on the affirmative was F. E. Gibbs, who presented a very strong argument. H. L. Morgan, the first speaker on the negative side, made a convincing talk and made many good points.

Wallace Moser, the third debater, denounced art as compared with nature. He referred to the Yosemite valley, Natural bridge of Virginia and the rocks of Gibraltar.

William Coons, Alfred Goldshall and Thomas H. Dale. The debate was decided in favor of the affirmative. The glee club again sang, after which coffee and cake were served.

A World's Fair Art gallery attracted great attention.

Charged With Assault and Battery. Thomas Youthful, a young man residing on the Providence road, was arrested by Constable John Davis yesterday charged with assault and battery.

The prosecutors were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Machiench and a boarder named Joe Constance, who claim that he came to their house and assaulted them, and threw stones against the door. A hearing was given before Alderman Blair.

Bitten by a Dog. Harry Murphy, the 13-year-old son of Thomas Murphy of North Sumner avenue, was savagely attacked by a dog owned by Edwin Davies of Roberts court yesterday morning and was severely bitten on the side of his body.

Funeral of Mrs. Burgerhoff. The funeral of Mrs. Burgerhoff, of North Lincoln avenue, will take place tomorrow morning from the family residence at 9 o'clock.

Rev. Dr. R. S. MacArthur, of New York city, will deliver an interesting lecture entitled "Cups from Many Shops" this evening at the Jackson Street Baptist church.

Miss Beth McMurtre, of Meosic, is visiting Miss Mattie Williams, of Garfield avenue.

Mrs. Coons and daughter Martha, of Carbondale, are visiting Miss Martha Smith, of North Hyde Park avenue.

Miss Stella Banning, of North Lincoln avenue, returned last evening from Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. N. S. James, of Eynon street, is ill.

The Columbia Hose company, No. 5, will entertain its many friends with a ball at Turner Hall on Washington's birthday.

Mrs. George Fellows, of Tenth street, and Mrs. Rinkes, of South Bromley avenue, are ill.

At last night's meeting of common council Mr. Nealis, ordinance for sidewalks on Sixth street passed two readings.

Ask your grocer and butcher for Carr's home made mince meat.

DUNMORE. Destruction of bossism in municipal politics is now the slogan which arouses the best elements in this borough to action.

For two years past one man has determined our municipal character and administration, by gathering around him certain elements actuated, not by a desire for the advancement of the borough of municipal affairs, but in the hope of gain, to be derived by a distribution of the loaves and fishes which control of the borough offices would afford.

The property holders, whether corporate or individual, as such, have rights here, and it is not only their right, but their duty to assert themselves in all that relates to municipal interest and well being.

Professional politicians, whose sole aim is to derive political preferment from their party on account of their "pull" in the district in which they reside, must be relegated to the rear and men with real interests who have at heart the welfare and advancement of the borough put in their place.

Politics should have no place in municipal matters. There is nothing in our home affairs that concerns us to have our affairs well and economically managed, and the welfare and improvement of our borough advanced at the lowest possible cost to the taxpayer.

For this purpose men of well established probity and business capacity should be chosen regardless of their political affiliations. One ticket presented to the suffrage of our citizens is made up along this line.

Although placed under the heading "Republican" it is really a citizen's ticket. Every candidate on it is well and favorably known as men of integrity, sobriety and business capacity and who receive the hearty support of a wide range of good government rather than machine methods and political demagoguery.

The time is ripe in political affairs to reduce the distinctively political element to a minimum and it can be done by a hearty, earnest support of the men presented on the above ticket.

John Golden and Patrick Reagan, laborers at the Pennsylvania Coal company's No. 5 shaft, were seriously injured by a blast which they had carelessly lighted in the absence of their miner, Patrick Golden. Golden was badly injured about the back and it is thought that his hip bones are either broken or dislocated.

Reagan's right leg was broken and his shoulder injured. Fears are entertained that the collar bone is also broken. The accident is attributed to the carelessness

PROGRAMME FOR ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. E. H. Ripple Will Preside—Many Prominent Persons Will Participate. Sewer Committee of Board of Trade at Work—Mr. Sweeney to Improve the Mountain Road—Two Accidents at the Steel Mill.

The following excellent programme will be rendered at the celebration of the second anniversary of the Young Women's Christian association this evening:

Music. Mrs. E. H. Ripple Presiding. Mrs. L. M. Gates Solo. Miss Huber Solo. Miss M. Dunn, state secretary Remarks. Col. H. M. Boies Address. Rev. R. Israel Solo. Miss Bunnell Solo. Mrs. H. M. Boies Solo.

The literary programme will be followed by a social time, at which Miss Long and Mr. Doersam will furnish instrumental music.

Sewer Committee Working. S. L. Spruik, Christian Storr and George Wilson, the special committee appointed by the board of trade to effect an extension of the proposed city sewer, waited on the City Engineer yesterday.

Mr. Phillips was in Beaver Falls inspecting the iron work for the Parker street bridge. He is expected to return on Monday when the committee will again wait on him.

The intention of the committee is as follows: They will ask Mr. Phillips to prepare a profile showing an extension up Beech street to Pittston avenue, and thence along that thoroughfare to River street.

This done the committee will circulate a petition, the intention being to ask only the property holders west of Prospect avenue to enter the new district. No property above Prospect avenue will be included.

Improving Mountain Road. At last night's meeting of common council Mr. Sweeney introduced an ordinance appropriating $500 for the purpose of improving the mountain road in the Twelfth ward.

Mr. Sweeney takes the money from a balance in the Fifteenth district sewer and he asked the committee to report the ordinance at the next meeting to avoid any delay.

Mr. Sweeney also presented a resolution directing the mayor to issue a proclamation for a special election in the Nineteenth ward.

Two Accidents Yesterday. Henry Wehrum, son of Chief Engineer Wehrum of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company, was painfully injured at the South works yesterday.

The young man runs the test rolls in the converting department and about noon yesterday a man named Turner bit him on the head with a shovel inflicting an ugly wound.

David E. Kelly was seriously injured at the North works yesterday. While passing between the rolls his heel was caught by the key in a live roller and it was fearfully mangled.

He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital.

DEATH OF EX-CHIEF BYRON WADE. Succumbed to Heart Failure at His Home on Sumner Avenue. Ex-Chief of Police Byron R. Wade, aged 50 years, died at his home on South Sumner avenue at 10:15 o'clock last night from heart failure.

Mr. Wade was born near Montrose, Susquehanna county in March 1844. He enlisted in the army when the first call for men was made for a nine month service, and again he re-enlisted and served until the close, and was present at the surrender of Lee.

He was chief of police of this city for four years under Mayor Rippe and one year under Mayor Fellows. Since that time he had been employed as clerk for the Maloney Oil company on West Lackawanna avenue. He had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church for many years.

Mr. Wade is survived by a widow and two children, namely, Sophie and Hatlie. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

MISS BELLE ARCHER AS A STAR. She Makes Her Initial Appearance in An Arabian Night at the Academy. Miss Belle Archer, an actress who has many warm, personal friends in Scranton, has good reason to feel proud at the success that attended her initial appearance as a star, which interesting event occurred at the Academy of Music last evening.

Miss Archer has frequently appeared as the leading lady of excellent dramatic organizations, and her work has always been of such a superior character that she correctly concluded that she has at last come to appear as a star as any one on the stage.

"An Arabian Night" was the play chosen for Miss Archer to present. It is a bright comedy from the pen of Sidney Grundy, and is brimful of humor of a refreshing kind.

A young married man, with a mother-in-law and a brother-in-law, represents himself as Haroun Al Raschid, of Arabian Nights fame, and is a young circus performer whom he introduces as his niece from America. The real niece soon turns up and the complications that follow are extremely ludicrous.

For a first performance, "An Arabian Night," moved very smoothly, and convulsed the audience. Miss Archer was splendid as Haroun, the dramatic circus performer, and was ably supported by such excellent actors as Robert Hickman, Evelyn Vernon, Charles Butler, Miss Louise Galloway, Miss Florence Marion and Mrs. Fanny Denham Rouse.

The Rags. Groves' photos, 435 Spruce street.

MUSIC BOXES EXCLUSIVELY. Best made. Play any desired number of tunes. Gutschick & Sons, manufacturers, 1030 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. Wonderful orchestral organs, only $5 and $10. Specialty. Old music boxes carefully repaired and improved with new tunes.

Anheuser Busch Beer. Louis Lehman's, 259 Spruce st.

BUSINESS NOTICES. Retzshart's Market, 88 and 85 Lackawanna avenue. Every day from 6 a. m. to 10 a. m. Round steak, 1 lb.; sirloin steak, 1 lb.; standing rib roast, 1 lb.; chuck roast, 8c.; boiling mutton, 4c.; fresh pork, 12c.; pork sausage, 12c.
