PERSONAL.

Mame and Agnes Callahan, of Lackawanna avenue, are spending a few days with friends in Pittston. Squire Donahue, of Willow-Barre, well known for his pointedness of his court decisions, was a Scranton visitor yesterday. Miss Anna Treseott, of Stroudsburg, who has been visiting friends in this city for several weeks, left yesterday for Philadelphia. Architect E. H. Davis has returned from Hazleton with accepted plans for a handsome large block covering 160x100, which will be used for stores and offices.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Charles Frohman's company, from the Empire theater, New York, will appear at the Academy this evening in the presentation of "The Girl I Left Behind Me." This production has been one of the most pronounced dramatic successes of the past two seasons, and will be staged here with all the scenic environments and attention to details which has characterized its New York run of 200 nights, and its World's fair engagement of five months at the Schiller theater, Chicago.

THE SKATING RINK.

A revival of Robert Griffith Morris' farcical comedy, "The Skating Rink," will hold the boards of the Academy tomorrow evening, with a cast culled from among the best artists in the theatrical profession, to wit: Blanche Chapman, late of the "Prodigal Father" company; Flora Finlayson, formerly with the "Postolians"; Belle Martin, late of "The Black Crook"; Leona Clark, who was soprano with Duff Opera company; Lea Van Dyke, Fred. Frier, James Sturgis; Nat. B. Cantor; Joseph F. Sparks, Harry Nelson and others.

THE RISING GENERATION.

Comedian Burgunder has secured comedian William Barry and his big company of players, singers and dancers for a return engagement, next Monday evening in "The Rising Generation." On no occasion this season has he had so many inquiries or calls for an attraction as he had for this one, so he decided, if possible, to get Barry back again. The comedian certainly made a great hit, and it is safe to say that he will meet with a rousing reception this time.

STREETS OF NEW YORK.

A Good Sized Audience at Wonderland Applauds Last Night's Performance. Wonderland's patrons will be entertained the remainder of the week with "The Streets of New York," a sensational comedy drama, which was given an initial performance to a good sized house last night. In the play Will D. Corbett, who is already a favorite with Wonderland theatregoers, is seen at his best as "Badger." Elwyn Stevens in his interpretation of "Bloodgood" is entitled to favorable mention. Miss Alice Kemp was most entertaining and did some clever work in the difficult portrayal of "Aida Bloodgood," while the work of Misses Ethel Fuller and Maggie Willett evoked frequent applause.

"Streets of New York" will be continued tonight and tomorrow night and at matinee both days. Judging from the way last night's presentation was received, good sized audiences will be in attendance at the remaining performances.

DETECTIVE SCANLON NAMED.

Appointed Deputy United States Marshal by Marshal Walker. Ever since last December the office of deputy United States marshal has been vacant, contrary to general belief. A number of persons prominent in Democratic circles have sought the appointment and when Marshal Walker was here this week in attendance upon the session of United States court, he gave his attention to the matter. It is reliable authority that just before leaving Scranton, Marshal Walker appointed A. Scanlon, Jr., as deputy marshal. Mr. Scanlon is a well known detective of this city and his large experience has qualified him in every way to fulfill the duties of the office.

FOR LOSS OF WIFE'S SERVICES.

Peter Luxemburger Brings Suit Against Traction Company. On Jan. 6 Mrs. Mary Luxemburger sustained injuries by reason of one of the cars of the Scranton Traction company leaving the track. On Monday she brought an action for damages against the company. Yesterday, through Attorney C. Smith, her husband, Peter Luxemburger, began suit against the Traction company for $20,000 damages for medical attendance for his wife and the loss of her services.

PETER MANG MET A TRAIN.

The Event Occurred on a Crossing and Mang Was Injured. On Dec. 18, Peter Mang, while driving across the tracks of the New York and Western railroad at White Bridge station, Carbondale, was run down by a train, his horse killed, wagon smashed and himself severely injured. Yesterday, through Attorneys Willard, Warren & Knapp, Mr. Mang began an action against the company to recover the sum of $5,000 for the injury done him, personal and otherwise.

NEWS FROM WEST SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.

OUR MASONS VISIT BINGHAMTON

Were the Guests of a Binghamton Lodge—Miss May F. Beers, of Merrifield Avenue, Entertains—Funeral of Miss Sabina Kelly—Willie Williams Buried—Personal Mention. Debate Has Been Postponed.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 128 South Main avenue, where advertisements, notices and communications will receive prompt attention.]

The following party of the Hyde Park Masonic lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, left on the 6:10 Delaware Lackawanna and Western train for Binghamton last evening. The purpose of the trip was to be present at the working of the third degree of the order by the Masonic lodge of the Parlor City. The party consisted of George Eynon, John H. Reynolds, W. A. Phillips, M. G. Dimmitt, W. H. Roe, William Madden, W. Haydn Evans, Charles Hill and Addison Aldridge. The delegation returned home at an early hour this morning well pleased with the delightful manner in which they were entertained by their brother members.

A Young Lady Buried.

The funeral of Miss Sabina Kelly, an esteemed young lady residing on Hampton street who passed away on Monday, took place at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelly. Rev. Father Dunne celebrated a solemn high mass of requiem in St. Patrick's church. Interment was made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

There were many beautiful floral offerings, among the designs being a cross, anchor, pillow and basket, which were carried by Misses Joie Fox, Lizzie Lely, Winifred Flannery and Lizzie Gorty. The pall bearers were Frank McLean, James Hanley, James Crowley, Edward Rush, Patrick Devens and James Freeman.

A Sale of Property.

At Beers' hall on North Main avenue last evening a select party was given in honor of the daughter of the proprietor, Miss May F. Beers, of Merrifield avenue. The room was tastefully decorated. The walls were draped in bunting and Japanese lanterns hung in profusion. Miss Beers received the guests from 5 till 9 o'clock. Soon after the place was a scene of gaiety and merry enjoyment. Games, music and dancing were indulged in until midnight, when an excellent supper was served.

Philosophical Society.

At the meeting of the Welsh Philosophical society tomorrow night the discussion on the income tax, which has been continued from the two last meetings, will be concluded. The principal debaters will be Henry B. Davies and Daniel J. Evans. Obel Jenkins will talk on "Magnetism" and the characteristics of Prof. W. W. Evans will conduct the singing and the meeting will no doubt be an interesting one.

Willie Williams Buried.

The funeral of Willie, the 4-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Williams, of North Rebecca avenue, took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence. Rev. Hugh Davies, pastor of the Welsh Calvinistic church, conducted the services at the home. Interment was made at the Washburn Street cemetery.

Many Brief Items.

Camber Evans, of Pittston, has returned from a visit with friends here. Mrs. Ames Nichols and Mrs. Frank Nichols, of Montrose, have returned after a visit with West Side friends. Miss Mabel Derahimer, of Eynon street, has returned from a visit with relatives at Pittston. Miss Brown, Joseph, of South Hyde Park avenue, is ill with pneumonia. Ross Sands, of Hancock, N. Y., is visiting at the home of A. C. Cole, of South Main avenue. Fred Kuhlman, of Lafayette street, is suffering from quincy.

SPECIAL SALE.

On Saturday we will open a line of figured China silks at 27 cents per yard. MEARS & HAGEN, 415 Lackawanna avenue.

The debate between the Vesper society, of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, and the Young People's Literary and Debating society, of the First Welsh Baptist church, has been postponed on this evening until March 21. The resolution for debate is, "Resolved, That Trade Are Detrimental to Commercial Prosperity," the prize being the Browning cup.

Miss Lizzie Heiser is ill at the home of her parents on South Main avenue. John Woolcott, of Carbondale, is visiting friends on Tenth street. Eugene Kinsbold, of Overton, Bradford county, is a guest at the home of Bartley Crown of Seventh street.

The Epworth League of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church held its regular monthly meeting last evening and decided to hold a "Hard Times Social" Tuesday evening, April 5. It will be a very unique affair.

Rev. L. C. Floyd, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church is enjoying a short vacation in the south. His pulpit will be filled next Sunday morning by Dr. Peck, and in the evening by Rev. Mr. Parsons.

The debate which was to take place tonight between the Welsh Baptist Literary society and Vesper Literary society of the Penn Avenue Baptist church has been postponed for two weeks.

Lovett's Boston Stars will appear in the new Plymouth Congregational church next Monday evening, under the auspices of Class No. 15, taught by Miss Gwladys Josephs. The price of tickets is 50 cents.

Mrs. A. Pow has returned from a visit with friends in Overton. Miss Cora G. Storms, of South Main avenue, entertained friends at her home last evening. An enjoyable time was had by those who attended.

UNEMPLOYED OF CITY

Conference Held to Devise Means of Providing Them with Work.

THE PLAN OF COL. E. H. RIPPLE

He Suggests That the Board of Associated Charities Provide Employment for the Destitute Able Bodied Men of the City, and That the Poor Board Take Care of All Others in Need of Relief.

Col. E. H. Ripple, T. J. Moore and Luther Keller of the Board of Associated Charities and John Gibbon, Charles Tropp and P. J. Murphy of the Scranton poor board met in the mayor's office last night to consider ways and means for providing employment for the destitute unemployed of the city. Mayor W. L. Connell and Street Commissioner Philip Kirat were unable to be present.

It was suggested a week ago that a feasible way of providing for the destitute unemployed man who applied to the poor board for relief would be to have them go to work under the direction of Street Commissioner Kirat at $1 per day, which sum would be paid by the poor board in relief orders. It was hoped this method to make the destitute feel they were not subsisting on charity and enable them to keep their self respect and prevent them from becoming permanent members of the army of paupers. In pursuance of this plan, which those present at last evening's meeting declare to be a good one, Poor Director Gibbons had set six or six men at work under Mr. Kirat.

DIRECTOR TROPP'S POINT.

Poor Director Charles Tropp said that he considered the plan a very good one, but he feared the poor board had not the power to carry it into execution without running counter to the law. He said that the law provides that when a person brings to a director a statement signed by two aldermen to the effect that he is in destitute circumstances the director is bound to investigate, and if he finds the case deserving one, give immediate relief.

"If you put the applicant at work for the city," continued Mr. Tropp, "you are really giving the relief to the city, as the man you are granting relief to gives services to the city for the amount you give him. It is a question in my mind if, after branding a man a pauper by giving him an order for relief you can make him do labor corresponding to the amount of the order. If he does not go before two magistrates and obtain an order for relief and thus put him on the level of a pauper, we can pay him no money, no matter how much labor he may perform."

This was a new phase of the case, but it was agreed that Mr. Tropp was correct and that some other plan must be devised. After considerable discussion it was suggested by Colonel E. H. Ripple that hereafter the Board of Associated Charities turn over to the poor board all applications for relief, save those from able bodied men.

A RECIPROCAL ARRANGEMENT.

The poor board, on the other hand, is to take all the cases of men who apply to it to go the Board of Associated Charities which will provide work for them. The suggestion was adopted. Those who are given employment by the board will be sent to Connell park. The Board of Associated Charities has now $150 in its employment fund.

THE RESULT OF THE CONFERENCE.

The result of the conference will be reported at today's meeting of the poor board and at the next meeting of the Board of Associated Charities for final action.

DUNMORE.

The funeral of the late Thomas Tighe took place Wednesday morning from the residence of his brother, William Tighe, of Bloom street. Interment was made at Moscow.

Barber W. L. Purcell is treating his house to a new coat of paint. Arthur Johnson has secured a position with Contractor Harvey. Miss Emma Gillet, who has been visiting here the past two weeks, left for her home in St. Paul yesterday.

James Conway is ill at his home with typhoid fever. The 6-year-old child of Patrick Lyons, of Pine street, was buried yesterday afternoon.

END OF THE SESSION OF COURT.

Judge Buffington Feels Need of Rest and Goes to Willow-Barre. The session of United States court came to an end yesterday morning and during the day nearly all of the officials and jurors left for their homes.

Yesterday morning the argument for a new trial in the Kelly insurance case was resumed. When the attorneys had finished Judge Buffington took the papers and said he would hand down his opinion in the matter later.

Judge Buffington went from this city to Willow-Barre where he spent last night. Today he will go to Atlantic City for a week's rest. From there the judge will go direct to Pittsburg to resume his judicial labors.

PAYMASTER AT THE ACADEMY.

A Small Audience Witnessed Duncan B. Harrison's Play. "The Paymaster" was presented at the Academy of Music before a small house last evening. The play pleased a few.

Duncan B. Harrison was supposed to be the star of the company, but he was not by any means. The reason for the organization was C. A. Sampson, a man who is so strong that he is afraid to work. He performed various feats of strength.

BOARDING PLAN ADDED.

Students at Wood's College Will Have Dining Room Facilities. The management of Wood's College is arranging for a more aggressive line of work than it has yet undertaken. Professor Wood will put into execution the boarding hall plan, which will furnish to students coming to the city a good living at a very moderate price. The success of the school warrants the organization of academic, college, preparatory and normal departments.

You are invited to visit the Scranton Cash Furniture Store; is now open: 134 and 136 Washington avenue.

McBride's new Turkish bath. Everything new: 206 Spruce street, opposite Court House.

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Many Tribune Readers.

DRIVER OF AN ALE WAGON SKIPS

Patrick Flaherty, of the Flats, Leaves Unpaid Bills Behind—A Broken Rail Discovered in Time—James Stone No Better—Bitten by a Bull Dog, Fig Street Impassable—Personals and News Notes.

Patrick Flaherty, about 25 years old, of Bech street, on the Flats, until lately a pilot on an ale wagon for the Kelly and Casey Brewing company, left home a few days ago without the formality of letting his friends know of his going. When foot ball was the craze last year he organized a team and the season was a fairly successful one for him. He played on numerous occasions with the Young Men's Christian association eleven of this city, and had a pretty good record in the game. While at his work as distributor of ale, he ran up bills wherever saloon keepers trusted him, till at length the size of his debts reached its limit. His departure is regretted by many of his friends.

Rail Was Displaced.

A rail on the north bound track of the Delaware and Hudson railroad near the Roaring Brook was observed to be loose from the ties yesterday afternoon a little before the train from Wilkes-Barre was due at the steel works depot. A wreck would surely have happened if the passenger train had struck the displaced rail. As it was, the trains were delayed for a few hours before the road was cleared for traffic.

Janitor Stone's Condition.

Janitor James Stone recovered consciousness for a little space yesterday morning. His wife was at the bedside and he spoke to her, evidently with great exertion. He then relapsed into a comatose state, without brightening any up to a late hour. Dr. A. J. Conwell fears that he will be carried off quickly. He is over 60 years old and his constitution is weak. He is commander of Colonel Monies post, Grand Army of the Republic.

Bitten By a Dog.

Thomas Brown, of Pittston avenue, was traveling along Cedar avenue yesterday, followed by his dog, a large mastiff. Near Pear street his canine and he spoke to her, evidently with great exertion. He then relapsed into a comatose state, without brightening any up to a late hour. Dr. A. J. Conwell fears that he will be carried off quickly. He is over 60 years old and his constitution is weak. He is commander of Colonel Monies post, Grand Army of the Republic.

Cave-in on Fig Street.

Fig street, near Stone avenue, boasts of a cave as round as a flour barrel in the middle of the road. A trolley car drove into it yesterday and was thrown from his wagon. One front wheel went down into the hole. The harness was broken and it took some time for the driver to proceed with his vehicle. If the street commissioner is not too busy this afternoon he might order a man to take up the spot and have the place filled up. Wagons going by at present are forced to occupy the sidewalk to escape an upset.

Automatic Sash Lock.

M. J. O'Horo, of Prospect avenue, and P. J. Runne, of the West Side, have purchased the territory embraced by Lackawanna, Luzerne and Wayne counties for the sale of a patent extension bracket and automatic sash lock. The patentee, L. R. Schmalhausen, of Charleston, Ill., has already reaped a fortune on his invention.

Traps Down Advertisements.

A brace of mischievous Polanders were arrested yesterday afternoon for tearing down advertisements from telegraph poles on this side. The advertisements were of little value and the special officer let them depart. They were very greatly scared.

Personals.

Marie Murray, of Minooka, is visiting friends in Warsaw, N. Y. Rev. E. J. Malley returned Wednesday night from Cuba. His trip resulted in much benefit to his health. David Whelan, of Grant street, and Catherine Baland, of upper Pittston avenue, will be married after Easter.

Short News Notes.

A Polander received serious injuries on the left arm at the south works yesterday afternoon, and the member was amputated at the Moses Taylor hospital where he was taken. He was unmarried and resided on South Washington avenue.

John Haggerty, of Pittston avenue, was slightly hurt on the foot while at work Wednesday afternoon.

SPECIAL SALE.

On Saturday we will open a line of figured China silks at 27 cents per yard. MEARS & HAGEN, 415 Lackawanna avenue.

The 2-year-old son of Martin Gaughan, of Minooka, died yesterday morning. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Mrs. Barbara Morgan, of Minooka, was stricken with partial paralysis yesterday morning as she was about to leave her home for early mass. She is over 90 years of age and lives with her daughter, Mrs. Barbara Davin. Her condition is very critical.

The members of the South Side board of trade are requested to meet at their hall this afternoon, to start from there to the residence of the late Stephen Gutierrez. The board will attend the funeral in a body. Funeral at 2 p. m.

THE DECISIVE STEP.

Don't Be One of the Last in a Commendable Undertaking.

You have been reading the notices containing "The TRIBE'S offer" of the Encyclopedia Britannica for weeks, and from the testimonials of leading citizens published from time to time, and possibly from an examination of the books, you have resolved that you would possess this great library while so liberal terms of payment are extended.

Take the decisive step by calling at THE TRIBUNE Encyclopedia department, 437 Spruce street, and leave your order. Do it now, during the present week, as many are doing every day. Don't put it off until the announcement of the closing day or week, which must be very soon, and then hurry in and order because you are satisfied that this will be the last opportunity.

Better late than never, of course, but don't be one of the last in so commendable an undertaking. Do you object to the monthly payment plan? Ordinarily you might, but remember that it costs you no more than if spot cash were paid. Start it on "the easy payment basis," and any time you feel warranted close the account by one payment, as many have done who otherwise would be without an encyclopedia. Of the hundreds of subscribers on our list not one to the hundred pays cash in full with order.

The people who want to pay cash are the ones likely to be without an encyclopedia. The books may be seen any time during the day or evening at 437 Spruce street between Washington and Wyoming.

On receipt of $4 by mail we will send the complete set, the balance to be paid monthly.

Address all communications to THE TRIBUNE E. B. department.
