THE DOCTOR TALKS STREET CAR IN TOMORROW'S EIMIRA TELEGRAM.

MR. KELLY PROTESTED

Said That the People of Pine Brook Have Endured Quite Enough.

JOYCE WAS REFUSED A PERMIT

He Cannot Erect a Slaughter House Near the Crematory—Report of Secretary Briggs for the Month of February—Health Officer Allen Says There Has Been an Epidemic of Measles—Other Reports Read.

The guardians of the health of the city met yesterday afternoon in the municipal building in regular monthly session. Those present were Dr. W. A. Farris, M. J. Kelly and Henry J. Ziegler. In the absence of Dr. James K. Bentley, the president of the Board of Health, Mr. Ziegler was called to the chair. The following officers of the board were present and presented their reports: Health Officer Dr. W. A. Farris, Sanitary Policeman William H. Burke, Food Inspector Richard Thomas, Superintendent of Crematory Henry W. Loftis and Secretary Walter E. Briggs.

Mr. Briggs' report showed that during the month of February there had been 107 deaths in the city as against 132 in January. Of the deaths those were caused by measles; three cerebral meningitis; two spinal meningitis; two grip; nine due to accidents. During the month 162 births were reported, seventy-five males and eighty-seven females. Of the 129 cases of contagious diseases reported during the month, 113 were measles, nine scarlet fever and four diphtheria.

VACCINATION OF CHILDREN. Mr. Briggs reported that he had carried out the wishes of the board with regard to No. 12 school and that Superintendent of Schools Phillips was preparing a report of the number of school children who have been vaccinated. The secretary also read a communication from the State Board of Health setting forth that small pox had disappeared from Indiana and the quarantine had been raised.

Food Inspector Thomas' report was to the fact that the tradesmen generally showed a gratifying disposition to provide pure and wholesome food for sale and in consequence he had occasion to condemn but little food. He had made 415 official visits during the month. The report of the superintendent of the crematory showing the amount of the garbage consumed during the month was received and filed.

HEALTH OFFICER'S REPORT.

Health officer Allen's report set forth that there has been a desirable improvement in cleanliness in various parts of the city since the crematory was established, particularly in the West Side, South Side and Bellevue. Continuing the report he said:

There has been quite an epidemic of measles. The type is not severe, in most cases being exceedingly mild. The condition of No. 12 school remains the same as mentioned in my last report. The gutter in the alley has been cleaned out a little, however, and the little children who are seated near the stoves have some color in their faces these warm days. These rooms are certainly badly ventilated, poorly lighted and in my opinion are generally unwholesome.

City Engineer Phillips, M. J. Kelly and myself visited the plant of the standard Oil company and found the ground in the immediate vicinity apparently pretty well saturated with oil, especially on the west side. The city engineer will report the matter to the council as it comes properly in their province.

BIDS FOR GATHERING GARBAGE.

The bids of James Stevens for collecting garbage in the Fifth district, comprising the Seventh and Thirteenth wards was accepted. His price is twenty cents per family a month. Other bidders were Almazano Porter, Peter Mulligan, Jacob Korner, P. F. Ryan, J. Y. Robinson. It was decided to advertise for the other districts as the bids for them were too high. Patrick Joyce, of Bellevue, asked the board for permission to erect a slaughter house on land owned by him near the crematory at Pine Brook, but the board refused to grant it. Attorney P. W. Stokes, who represented Mr. Joyce, made an argument in favor of granting permission to Mr. Joyce. He said that as the crematory and stowers packing houses were already located close to the site of the proposed slaughter house he thought that the proper place for such industries. He assured the board that Mr. Joyce would conduct it in such a manner that it would never become a nuisance. Mr. Joyce then addressed the board and offered to give a bond to remove the slaughter house in six months if there was anything objectionable about it.

PEOPLE WORLD OBJECT.

M. J. Kelly, who represents the Pine Brook portion of the city on the board, opposed granting the permit to Mr. Joyce. He said that the people of that neighborhood would not tolerate anything of the kind. They were forced to accept the crematory against their vigorous protests and to allow this slaughter house to be erected would be to add insult to the injury they believe they have already sustained. The board declined to reconsider its action in refusing to give Mr. Joyce the permit. A city scavenger's license was granted to Briggs' Bros.

SPECIAL SALE.

Jermynson and partner of John Jermyn, a pioneer coal operator in the Lackawanna valley, was a guest at the Lafayette hotel last night. Mr. Jermyn is identified with many industries in Scranton and vicinity.

INSPECTOR RODERICK'S REPORT.

The Document for the Year 1893 Has Been Completed. Mine Inspector Roderick's report showing the number of tons of coal mined in the First district during the year 1893 has been prepared. It also gives the number of accidents, fatal and otherwise.

Owing to the great press of matter in its columns this morning THE TRIBUNE is unable to give the report in detail.

FUNERAL OF STEPHEN GUTHEINZ

Largest Procession Seen on this Side in Many Years—Several Societies in Line—Battle and Connell to Give Us Better Streets and a Ride to the City Line for Five Cents—South Works Will Pay on Friday.

The largest funeral seen on this side in many years followed the remains of Stephen Gutheinz to their last resting place yesterday afternoon. At early 10 o'clock the hearse, with its last audience was thronged. The funeral was announced to start at 2 o'clock, but the long files of people that surged through the front parlor to take a farewell look upon the body delayed the undertaker nearly three quarters of an hour. The lid of the handsome metal casket was shut, the remains conveyed to the hearse and the funeral started for the Hickory street Presbyterian church. The remains were placed on a catafalque in the center aisle. A German hymn was sung by the church choir, then Rev. August Weber ascended the pulpit. He dwelt on the uncertainty of death, the transitory things of this world, and paid a deserved tribute to the character of the deceased. An English hymn was then rendered by the choir and Rev. D. W. Skellenger, of the Washburn street Presbyterian church offered prayer. He reviewed the life of the man whose remains lay before him, and said that in him there was no stain. The fleeting follies of the world were compared to the eternal joys of the heavenly kingdom, wherein, he said, he was sure the spirit of Mr. Gutheinz had entered to dwell forevermore.

While the pall-bearers were bearing the casket from the church, the choir sang with much feeling an inspiring German hymn. The Residence lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, headed the funeral procession followed by the Saengerbrunde, Terra Verion, Liederkreis and Board of Trade, all of which the deceased belonged to. A beautiful ark on which a dove rested, was presented by the Odd Fellows. Flowers from the other societies and friends were so profuse that the people were lost in admiration. The flower bearers were County Commissioner D. Smith, Jacob Geiger, Conrad Fiel, Jacob Hummer, Jacob Snyder and Edward Kell. Twelve pall bearers, six from the Butcher's association, six from the Residence Lodge of Odd Fellows were as follows: Jacob J. Hildebrand, Jacob Hofmeister, Gus Kramer, Frank Schauer, John Arnold and Charles Johnson. William Zang, George Engle, John H. Hiley, Jacob Shins, Conrad Thiel and Sebastian Thiel. The burial service at the cemetery was conducted according to the Odd Fellows ritual. The Saengerbrunde and Liederkreis sang several choruses, and the body was lowered in the grave.

For Better Streets and Sidewalks.

Councilmen Battle and Connell of the Twentieth have notified the city engineer to give lines and estimates for the curbing, flagging and guttering of Cedar avenue from Brock street to Brook, Pittston avenue from Brock to Brook, and Prospect avenue from Palm to Cherry. This is a move on the part of Battle and Connell that will reflect great credit on them. The people are sick of the voyages through mud that all must endure when the spring and fall seasons come. The Twentieth is represented by two as brainy councilmen as can be found in the city, and they can be trusted to have the best interests of the taxpayers at heart whenever any improvement is contemplated. They should be encouraged by every sensible minded resident.

Will Pay Earlier This Month.

The employees of the South works will be paid on Friday, March 16. The reason for the departure from the rule this month is to give the steel workers, who belong to the Ancient Order of Hibernians, a chance to attend the parade in Wilkes-Barre on St. Patrick's Day.

This does not imply, however, that the mill will be idle on March 17. It will be operated that day, unless different orders are given, and every employe who wishes to go to Wilkes-Barre, must receive permission before leaving off. Superintendent Stanton assured a TRIBUNE reporter that he would accommodate as many men as he could, and any man staying home without leave would be told to stay home for good.

A Correction for Mr. Whelan.

David Whelan called at THE TRIBUNE office yesterday afternoon and was very much "riled" over the notice of his approaching marriage in yesterday's TRIBUNE. The story of his intention to wed Catherine Boland, a pretty young lady of the Twentieth Ward, seems to us without foundation. The news was furnished to a TRIBUNE reporter by a young man, who said that he could vouch for the truth of the statement.

Short Sayings.

A committee of the street repairing people made a morning call at the hole on Fig street referred to in this column yesterday.

The place was filled up, and teamsters will, hereafter, please keep off the sidewalks.

Patrick Rogan, of Elm street, has bought a farm in Susquehanna county, whether he will move with his family April 1.

The crosswalks on Cedar avenue where it is intersected by Brock street was extorted yesterday. There is a balance of about $75 from last year's appropriation for the Twentieth ward still in the treasury, and more crosswalks might be shown daylight.

Anthony Hale, of Stone avenue, has been added to the force of the employees of the Scranton Brewing company.

Personals.

Select Councilman Connell and mother will leave the latter part of the month for a week's visit to Shamokin, Pa.

James Melvin, outside foreman of the William Connell coal company at Durys, and Margaret Crane, of Minooka, will be married in St. Joseph's church, Minooka, after the Lenten season.

Mary Jane McNally, of Pittston avenue, returned from White Haven, where she went to attend the funeral of a relative named Cox.

The friends of Fred Phillips will be pleased to hear that he is on the road to recovery. He was taken on Feb. 10 with lung and kidney trouble, but will be able to be around in a few days.

GAMMON HILL SHOOTING MATCH

Many of the Well Known Shots of This Vicinity Participated—Funeral of Mrs. Thomas Johns—Death of Miss Catherine Cawley After an Illness with Pneumonia—Singers to Compete at Wilkes-Barre.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 125 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

A large number of men congregated on Gammon's hill at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, where a shooting match took place. Six birds each were shot at by eleven participants, with the following result: Clam Marsh, 6; Williamson, 6; W. Fry, 5; W. D. Spicer, of Danville, 5; House, 3; Dave Gainers, 3; Coyne, 4; Young, 4; Sam Davis, 4; Lavenport, 4; Leonard, 1. The first prize, a breech-loading shot gun, valued at $40, was divided between Marsh and Williamson; the second prize of $20 and the third prize of $15 were divided among the shooters according to their records. A feature of the match was the use of wool powder by W. D. Spicer, of Danville, who represents the manufacturing company.

Funeral of Mrs. Johns.

The funeral of Mrs. Thomas Johns, of South Everett avenue, who died at her home on Tuesday last, occurred yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony was to have taken place an hour earlier but was postponed on account of the non-arrival of the deceased woman's son, William Johns, of St. Charles, Mo. Impressive services were held at the home by Rev. W. S. Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Baptist church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the family. Among the floral tributes was a handsome tribute inscribed "Mother." Internment was made in the Washburn Street church, close by. The pall-bearers were: John W. Bevan, Edward E. Davies, Thomas Davies, John D. Griffiths, Reynolds and Evan Anthony. Those who attended from out of town were Mrs. H. Price, daughter of the deceased, and her three sons, Elmer, Benjamin and Reese, of Keb, Iowa, and William M. Johns and son Benjamin, of St. Charles, Mo.

Catherine Cawley Dead.

About 10 o'clock yesterday morning death entered the home of Michael Cawley at 119 Van Buren avenue, and took her from her oldest daughter, Catherine, aged about 28 years. Miss Cawley was taken ill some time ago with pneumonia from which disease she partly recovered. The dreadful malady again seized her a few days ago, this time with fatal effect. She was a woman of estimable qualities and greatly respected by all who knew her. The funeral will take place on Monday morning, at 9:30 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. Patrick's church. Internment will be made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

Arrested for Drunkenness.

An aged man attired in a long coat whose general appearance was that of a Rip Van Winkle, was seen staggering along Jackson street about 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning. When in front of the store of H. D. Jones, he fell against a large bulletin board, which accompanied him to the gutter. He was in a beastly state of intoxication and had fallen in this manner several times before. Officer Moir was notified and carried him to the station house. When placed behind the bars, he moaned pitifully over his situation, and begged to be let out, entering the plea that he was only a little "under the weather." The old man gave his name as J. Talson of Binghamton.

To Compete at Wilkes-Barre.

A Scranton female party, under the leadership of Mrs. E. W. Powell, (Morford) has been organized on this side and will compete in the Wilkes-Barre contest held on St. Patrick's Day. The choir consists of twenty-five voices. At a meeting recently held, Mrs. D. B. Thomas was elected president, and Mrs. Lyndall Jones, secretary. The pieces that the choir compete in are "Robin Alir" and "Merry Songsters."

Evicted at Twilight.

Mrs. Margaret Smeardon, of 208 Edwards court, a widow with four small children, was evicted last evening and her household goods piled in a mass on the street. The cause was non-payment of rent, but Mrs. Smeardon's attorney, C. S. Spher, is of the opinion that the eviction has been unjust as legal earlier in the day. As it was, his helpless client had no place in which to shelter either herself or her children.

In Belfer Form.

D. E. Thomas, president of the Wilkes-Barre choir, which will compete at the Eastern fair to be held in that city on St. Patrick's Day, wished musical friends on this side yesterday.

Edith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Linnabury, of South Main avenue, is ill.

A regular meeting of the Young People's Literary and Debating society of the First Welsh Baptist church was held last evening.

George T. Griffiths, of North Sumner avenue, has accepted a position as bookkeeper with Philip J. Leonard, of South Main avenue.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"The Skating Rink," which comes to the Academy tonight, is said to be one of the funniest of all the comedy farces on the stage. While the scenes in the "Skating Rink" are farcical, yet its comedy is of the highest and most legitimate order, and both combined form a most enjoyable entertainment. The piece is produced under immediate supervision of its author, Robert Griffin Morris, who has selected the following well known artists to portray the same: Blanche Chapman, Flora Finlayson, Belle Martin, Leona Clark, Lee Van Dyke, also Fred Frier, James Sturgis, Nathan B. Canton, Harry Nelson, Joseph F. Sparks and others. Special scenery will be used. A high order of specialties and all the latest and most popular musical features are promised.

THE RISING GENERATION.

The clever and witty comedian, Wm. Barry, and his comedy company will appear at the Academy of Music on Monday evening. This is a special return engagement and the Academy will no doubt contain a large audience to witness this great comedy. The company is playing in Philadelphia this week and come here direct from their engagement there. All who missed seeing Mr. Barry in his new play on the occasion of his visit here several weeks ago, should not fail to attend the Academy Monday evening.
