MRS. ADDISON CHASE HONORED

Ladies' Aid Society of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal Church Tender Her a Surprise Party—Funeral of Michael McAndrew—Hyde Park Literary and Debating Society Holds an Interesting Meeting—Brief Items.

The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 135 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention. The Ladies' Aid society of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, tendered Mrs. Addison Chase a surprise party yesterday afternoon at the family residence on North Main avenue, in celebration of the attainment of her forty-ninth birthday. The speakers of the occasion were Rev. L. C. Floyd, D. D., and T. H. Dale, who presented Mrs. Chase with a handsome souvenir in the shape of a silver tea set of a most exquisite design, the gift of the Ladies' Aid society. The evening was most enjoyably spent, music being one of the principal features. Refreshments were served.

Michael McAndrew Burial. The funeral of Michael McAndrew, of 508 E. 10th street, was held on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of his mother, Mrs. M. J. McAndrew, 508 E. 10th street. The services were conducted by Rev. Father McNally, at St. Patrick's church, after which the cortege moved out to the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery, where interment was made. The pall bearers were: Michael Reagan, Martin Reagan, John McCreedy, Michael Clarke, Michael Reagan and John McCreedy.

Discussed a Live Topic. An interesting meeting of the Hyde Park Literary and Debating society was held last evening in their rooms on South Main avenue. Talks on the "Encouragement Bill" were given by Wallace Moser, David Owens, John R. Edwards and Charles House. A general discussion followed. A question box was then opened and the evening dispensed of in answering its questions. The programme for two weeks hence will be: Essay, entitled, "The Power of Money Vainly Facilitate Trade?" Leaders of discussion, affirmative, David Owens, negative, W. G. Moser; question box: reading of poem, George Griffiths.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

Michael Thornton was yesterday appointed constable of the Twentieth ward, and Herbert S. Norton was appointed town clerk of Scranton township. John Maloney, through Attorney E. C. Newcombe, began an action in ejectment yesterday against Nicholas Klein for a lot of land on Stafford avenue, South side. A rule was granted yesterday to show cause why the appeal should not be struck off in the matter of the appeal from the report of viewers on the grading of Fig street. In the case of E. F. N. Edwards against Peter Jones, court yesterday discharged a rule for an interpreter and directed the sheriff to proceed with his levy and sell forthwith. Andrew Clarkson, jr., yesterday obtained a writ of replevin to recover a cornet now in the possession of William Bishop, of which Mr. Clarkson says Mr. Bishop is not the owner. Thomas F. Walker was yesterday in judge's court on the grand jury of William Maggie and Margie Fitzpatrick, minor children of Bernard Fitzpatrick, deceased, late of Carbondale.

Sometime ago John Shonemaker brought suit to recover damages from the Lacksawanna and Western company. Yesterday the court directed him to file his bill of particulars within twenty-four hours. Attorney James W. Oakford yesterday applied to the court for a charter for the First Presbyterian church of Taylor. The trustees are Ira Albertson, J. W. Houser, D. J. Whiteford, Archibald Boyd and Henry Baker.

DOUGAN STILL HOLDS THE FORT.

There Were No New Developments Yesterday at Dunmore. There were no new developments yesterday in the Lacksawanna Burgess case. The court yesterday affirmed the order of Judge D. M. Dougan, who yesterday ordered the Burgess to pay a fine of $50 and costs. In default of payment he was committed. F. L. Brown yesterday obtained an attachment against Alexander G. DeLong, in which he asked that he be made guardian of the person and property of the minor children of Alexander G. DeLong, who is now in the possession of Attorney W. J. Tracey. Court directed yesterday that the receiver in the case of Morrison against the Carbondale Building association convey to Annie L. Vogie the real estate as petitioned for upon the payment of $50 and costs of proceedings.

The bond of T. E. Boland, tax collector of Dunmore, brought in the sum of $24,000, was approved by the court yesterday. The sureties are John Boland, Thomas Finnally, Michael Boland, Oscar Ludwig, Michael Kane and P. J. Mackay. Yesterday afternoon Judge Archibald and Edwards began the examination of the papers in the Collins-Hazbos Carbondale election contest. It will be more than a week, in all probability, before the opinion disposing of the case is handed down. The case of Crawford and Huff against Shaw was referred by agreement yesterday to Attorney J. Elliot Ross, under the act of 1895. The case of H. Glavin against Attorney James J. Lawler, was referred to Attorney E. H. Shurtliff under the provisions of the same case. Arbitrators B. F. Tinkham, John F. Murphy and C. Conroy, yesterday awarded in the case of G. W. Wellington against John G. McTieran. They find in favor of the plaintiff for the land in dispute, but on the payment of $500, which interest and costs within twenty days the land is to remain in McTieran's possession.

SCRANTON FOOT BALL TEAM.

Proposed Organization to Compete in the National Association. A movement is afoot, in which Attorney G. F. Soper and John Laborn are leading lights, to organize a Scranton foot ball eleven to play under the rules adopted by the collegiate association. It is proposed to begin the movement this early, in order to sift a large list of players down to a team of cracks, and, if possible, make the eleven one of the best in the state, if not in the country. Saturday, March 21, a preliminary game will be played with the Moosic eleven and the best of that team's players will be absorbed by the Scranton eleven. These players will then perfect a permanent organization and be ready to meet all comers early in the opening of the regular fall season.

BUILDING BOOM COMING.

Contractors Busy Making Plans and Expecting Plenty of Work. The opinion expressed by Building Inspector John Nelson in a recent interview published in THE TRIBUNE is being verified daily. The number of applications for building permits is increasing and the outlook for numerous early spring operations is bright. A member of one of the most extensive building firms in the city said yesterday: "Never, at the beginning of a season, have we been solicited for so great a number of jobs. Now every night we have worked until late in the morning on contracts or making plans. It is our opinion that Scranton will see a greater building boom than ever before at this season." This opinion is general among other contracting firms.

FIRE ON PROSPECT AVENUE

House Occupied by Patrick O'Hara Destroyed Early Monday Morning. Manager Archer Gives Encouragement to Those Who Are Agitating for a Single Fare to City Line—Miss Hannah Thomas Appointed Teacher.

A fire broke out yesterday morning at 3 o'clock in the frame two-story building at Prospect avenue and Pear street occupied by the family of Patrick O'Hara. The occupants were unable to save any of the household goods and were fortunate in escaping with their lives. The presumed cause of the fire is that a kerosene lamp overturned or exploded. An alarm was sounded from box 57 and the William Connells responded. In a short time the flames were under control and were fought to battle hard to do it. It was thought for a time that the entire block would be swept away. There was no insurance on the property.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Those capable and finished artists, Mr. and Mrs. Kendal, will make their first appearance in this city at the Academy of Music, Thursday, in the charming play, "The Immigrant," which is undoubtedly the best of the many English adaptations of O'Neill's drama that has been seen here. It is by Pinter, and in point of dialogue is really admirable, while the situations as a whole are cleverly arranged and effective. Mrs. Kendal has brought to the role of Clara De Bary the earnestness of purpose, with all that elaborateness and carefulness of method which seem to be characteristics of the work of this accomplished artist. Mr. Kendal is entitled to the distinction of being as good a Philippe Derbary as any that our stage has known.

WEEDMAN ADMITTED TO BAIL.

He is the Youth Who Shot John McDermott in the Leg. Alfred Weedman, who shot John McDermott in the leg at Park Place Saturday night, though the bullet was intended for Frank Jordan, was arrested at an early hour yesterday morning by Sergeant M. F. Spelman, of the Providence squad. In police court yesterday he was admitted to bail by Alderman Fuller in the sum of $500 for his appearance March 23 for a further hearing. William Mills, of North End, became Weedman's surety. This postponement was made owing to the non-appearance of McDermott, who is still at the Lackawanna hospital. McDermott is not seriously injured. Dr. McAndrew, upon examination, decided that the bullet had not entered the limb, and McDermott will be discharged probably tomorrow.

AT WONDERLAND THEATER.

Attraction for Three Days Is The Hidden Hand. The five act comedy, "The Hidden Hand," was produced at Wonderland last evening and will be the attraction on both Tuesday and Wednesday. The performance last night was a good one and greatly delighted the audience. Alice Kemp was tendered an ovation by her many admirers, and Will D. Corbett was enthusiastically applauded. The cast is a good one and the performance comes up to the expectation of the Wonderland patrons.

VOTING FOR A PRESIDENT.

The High School Committee Took Fourteen Ballots. One week ago last night Chairman Von Storch, of the board of control, appointed W. J. Welsh a member of the high school committee in place of George B. Thompson, a retiring member. Mr. Von Storch said the committee should select its own chairman. It met on Tuesday evening and E. L. Warner and W. J. Welsh were nominated for chairman. Fourteen ballots were taken, all of which resulted in a tie vote. Adjournment was then taken to a date to be subsequently determined.

MURDERER STILL AT LIBERTY.

John Murdock Manages to Elude His Pursuers. John Murdock, of Taylor, who on Thursday murdered John Ritsak at Taylor, is still at large. He was seen in the vicinity of Taylor on Friday, but since then the officers who are hunting Murdock have been unable to get any trace of him. It is supposed that relatives in the neighborhood where the crime was committed have provided a hiding place for the murderer.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

Tuesday the president wishes to meet all the members of committees and all the members of the association at 8 p. m. Friends interested in the work of this organization will be welcomed as well. On Tuesday, evening, March 27, a stereopticon lecture will be given in the rooms. Admission, 10 cents.

THIS IS A MIGHTY FINE COUNTY.

Constables Cannot Find a Single Violator of the Law. The constables of the county make their quarterly reports to court yesterday and declared that there is not a single violator of the law in this county that they can fasten an offense upon. There are several suspected persons, however. Judge Edwards said he had heard reports that the constables were neglecting their duties, to keep silent concerning their doings. These reports will be investigated, the judge declared.

REMNANT OFFERS.

The World's fair in four parts for 40 cents. These portfolios have been great sellers and thousands of parts have been taken. Persons who have had parts 1, 2 and 3 should secure part 4. Over 20,000 volumes were sold. Two hundred copies of the Columbus series are on the counter and will be closed out at the rate of four for 60 cents. Five of the Oxford series are left. Any of the popular sets may be secured by any subscriber by leaving the order at the office.

Death of William Casidy.

William Casidy, who fell down the steps from the sidewalk in front of the Lacksawanna hotel Sunday night, died at the Lackawanna hospital yesterday. He fractured skull at 6:30 p. m. yesterday. His wife was at his bedside when he expired. The remains are at his late residence, 111 E. 10th street, where they will be employed at the upper mill and is survived by a wife and married daughter, Mrs. Mary McGilgan, of Trenton, N. J.
