ROBBING THE TILL.

Detective George Brown Caught a Thief at the Valley Station. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

PITTSION, Pa., April 2.—Peter Cawley, aged 14 years, of Port Griffith, was arrested last evening by Detective George Brown while in the act of robbing the money drawer of the Lehigh Valley station.

The robbery was committed about 7:30 o'clock. Detective Brown had not been feeling well all day and during a minute's absence the thief had time slipped out to Fleming's drug store.

He returned in a few minutes only to find to his surprise upon opening the door, which leads into the ticket office, young Cawley in the act of making his escape. The thief, in his eagerness to secure all the money he could get possession of, had filled his mouth and hands.

Mr. Brown, taking in the situation at a glance, asked the robber what he was doing, to which he made no reply. Mr. Brown thereupon gave Cawley a slap alongside the head which had the desired effect. Silver quarter dollars flew promiscuously about the floor.

He gathered up the money and marched Cawley to the lockup to await a hearing. Cawley effected an entrance through the south window which fronts on the depot platform. He is an all round hard customer, having figured in similar scrapes several times heretofore.

Mrs. HARRY TAPPAN, of Reynolds, Neb., writes: "For about two years I was a constant sufferer from disease peculiar to my sex. I had to be carried from my bed, had horrible dreams, sinking nervousness, was very nervous and had little or no appetite. In short, my whole body was racked with pain. I had frequent attacks of hysteria, and was completely discouraged for I found no medicine did me any good. At last I determined to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

I had taken but two bottles before I felt so much better. I took eleven bottles. Today, I am well. I have never felt the least trace of my old complaint in the last six years. WHY NOT YOU?

After the Grip Sick, Lifeless, Dull

Healthy, Happy, Lively

This Decided Change Brought About by Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Gentlemen—I wish to certify to the following facts: My little girl, Lilla May Gutrie, had a severe attack of the grip, and got somewhat better, but she did not seem to get right. She lingered along from day to day, poor, weak and languid. We consulted a leading physician, and he said it was the dregs of the grip still about her. We gave the medicine in ordered, but she seemed to get

More and More Delicate. She could scarcely eat anything, and what little she did take seemed to do her no good. Her flesh was soft and not healthy, and she was stupid and dull with no ambition. We were very much concerned about her. No medicine seemed to have any effect until about two months ago we commenced to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She had not taken half a bottle before she began to eat heartily, and we could see a decided change in her. Today she is in the full enjoyment of Perfect Health. Her flesh is solid, her appetite good and cheeks rosy, her sleep sound and refreshing, and her spirits high. She is full of life, and as mischievous as she can be. All this improvement was brought about by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. My wife tells me she is recommending this medicine as the best in the world for building up the system." Lilla Gutrie, Henthville, Penn. N. B. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.
