

Worth a Guinea a Box. A trifling dose from a 25-cent box of Beecham's Pills will frequently prove as effective as a doctor's prescription.

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT

A Woman Without Gloves

IS SCARCELY more than half dressed. No matter how fine a bonnet, how elegant a dress she may have, a neat pair of Gloves is necessary for the completion of the cut-door toilette, and, in fact, makes up for a great deal that may be lacking in other articles of dress.

Glance Real Kid Glove

With Large Pearl Buttons, in all the New Shades, Tans, Browns and Blacks,

Price, $1

ABLOOM WITH PRETTY HATS

AND BUSINESS How quick women are to recognize superior 'quality' when they discover that our hats are both beautiful and—beautifying! Often it takes but a look in the glass, a query as to price—and, presto! a sale is made.

MIRRORED AT MOSCOW.

Bright Little Locals from the Sources of the Roaring Brook.

MOSCOW, Pa., April 9.—Miss Myrtle Compton, of Wimmers, spent Sunday with Miss Addie Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Watkins, of Scranton, spent Sunday at Hotel Allen.

Miss Florence Fowler, of Scranton, was entertained over Sunday by the Misses Ford.

The Hyphen and Athenian societies of the Moscow Graded school, gave an entertainment at the school on Friday afternoon.

Rev. S. C. Simpkins will attend the Wyoming conference in Scranton this week. It is not probable that he will be returned to this place.

The Adonis Social club will give one of their old-time social this evening.

The Adagda Literary society gave a pleasing programme Saturday evening in their rooms over Kennedy's confectionery store.

A large number of the children here are suffering with the measles.

Miss Sadie Benedict is able to be around again after her recent illness.

Guaranteed Cure. We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition.

What's that? asked Charley. George—Her face is always covered with purple and red blotches.

Charley—Oh, that's easily enough disposed of. Used to be the same way myself, but I caught on to the trouble one day, and got rid of it in no time.

George—What was it? Charley—Simply blood eruptions. Took a short course of P. P. P. I tell you, it's the best blood corrector. The governor had rheumatism so bad that you could hear him rattle across the country every time he moved.

THE NEWS OF NEARBY TOWNS

(Out of town correspondents of this Tribune should sign their names in full to each news item, not for publication but to guard against deception.)

JOTTED AT JERMYN.

Tales of a Day Related in Crisp Paragraphs.

JERMYN, Pa., April 9.—One week from today the fair of the St. Aloysius society will begin.

The Knights of the Mystic Chain held a social in Gilmore hall last evening. A large number attended and a substantial sum was netted for the society.

Hal Jadin and Allie Van Demark, of Carbondale, were the guest of Jermy friends Sunday.

William Hunter Post, Grand Army of the Republic, will attend services in St. Mary's Catholic church Sunday, May 27.

Rev. F. Gendell will leave tomorrow for conference. He will, by the unanimous request of the church, be returned.

Saturday evening Stella Baker returned from a short visit with Providence friends.

S. W. Cook, who has been in the Hahnemann hospital in Philadelphia for a number of weeks, returned Saturday night. His eye is still seriously affected.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the surprise party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Solomon, corner of Main and A streets.

These present were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Swick, Mrs. Edwin Woodworth, Misses Beniah Tiffany, Lillie Pizer, Bertha Coon, Ella Coon, Emma Roberts, Polly Solomon, Carrie Murray, Walter Coon, H. Hemmebright, Frank Hemmebright, Sam Rhoads, John Williams, W. J. Baker, William Simon, Charles Solomon, of Jermyrn; Mr. and Mrs. M. Dall, Peckville; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sly, Edith Moon, Annie Moon, Mary Morris, Edwin Moon, Master Ralph Sly, Carbondale, Thomas Sly, Dunmore, and J. De Graw, Mayfield.

John Vail, Joseph Jay, and Frank Maynard are doing jury duty this week.

Editor Bonny, of the Press, has labored long and earnestly for sewerage in this borough and, now that the object is about to be obtained, should be congratulated on the stand he has taken in the matter.

His success since taking hold of the Press has been very gratifying to his friends, and Jermyrn feels proud that men of his calibre can be found in this vicinity.

Miss Ella Cook, of Hamilton, Pa., is visiting Jermyrn friends.

C. L. Bell is in Tennessee looking over a large tract of pine timber land which he has an option on and contemplates buying.

EXCELLENT ENTERTAINMENT.

Fine Programs Rendered at the Concert in St. Patrick's Church.

OLY PHANT, Pa., April 9.—The sacred concert in St. Patrick's church, Olyphant, on Sunday evening was a grand success, both from an artistic and a financial point of view.

The church was thronged with an audience that numbered many prominent in musical circles in this city and vicinity.

The choir consisted of twenty-six voices, and was directed by Professor T. W. Ford. The leading soloists were Miss Anna Brown and Robert McCormack and W. W. Watkins.

The instrumental music, which was an admirable feature of the concert, was rendered by an orchestra of six pieces under the direction of Professor John Walkenshaw. Mrs. T. W. Watkins gracefully presided as accompanist on the piano.

The programme consisted of an overture from "Euch Arden," Millard's Vespers, a saxophone solo by Harry Bonn, the Grand Magnificat of Engelberg, the Regina Coeli of Werner, Wislinda's O. Salutaris, Gash's Tantum Ergo and a grand march of Mendelssohn. The church was admirable and the soloist sustained their respective parts with remarkable power and sweetness. The instrumental parts of the programme were also worthy of particular praise. The concert, on the whole, was a treat of unusual excellence and far superior to anything of that character ever held in Olyphant.

The church was thronged with an audience that numbered many prominent in musical circles in this city and vicinity.

The choir consisted of twenty-six voices, and was directed by Professor T. W. Ford.

The instrumental music, which was an admirable feature of the concert, was rendered by an orchestra of six pieces under the direction of Professor John Walkenshaw.

Mrs. T. W. Watkins gracefully presided as accompanist on the piano.

The programme consisted of an overture from "Euch Arden," Millard's Vespers, a saxophone solo by Harry Bonn, the Grand Magnificat of Engelberg, the Regina Coeli of Werner, Wislinda's O. Salutaris, Gash's Tantum Ergo and a grand march of Mendelssohn.

The church was admirable and the soloist sustained their respective parts with remarkable power and sweetness.

The instrumental parts of the programme were also worthy of particular praise.

The concert, on the whole, was a treat of unusual excellence and far superior to anything of that character ever held in Olyphant.

The church was thronged with an audience that numbered many prominent in musical circles in this city and vicinity.

The choir consisted of twenty-six voices, and was directed by Professor T. W. Ford.

The instrumental music, which was an admirable feature of the concert, was rendered by an orchestra of six pieces under the direction of Professor John Walkenshaw.

Mrs. T. W. Watkins gracefully presided as accompanist on the piano.

The programme consisted of an overture from "Euch Arden," Millard's Vespers, a saxophone solo by Harry Bonn, the Grand Magnificat of Engelberg, the Regina Coeli of Werner, Wislinda's O. Salutaris, Gash's Tantum Ergo and a grand march of Mendelssohn.

The church was admirable and the soloist sustained their respective parts with remarkable power and sweetness.

The instrumental parts of the programme were also worthy of particular praise.

The concert, on the whole, was a treat of unusual excellence and far superior to anything of that character ever held in Olyphant.

The church was thronged with an audience that numbered many prominent in musical circles in this city and vicinity.

The choir consisted of twenty-six voices, and was directed by Professor T. W. Ford.

The instrumental music, which was an admirable feature of the concert, was rendered by an orchestra of six pieces under the direction of Professor John Walkenshaw.

Mrs. T. W. Watkins gracefully presided as accompanist on the piano.

The programme consisted of an overture from "Euch Arden," Millard's Vespers, a saxophone solo by Harry Bonn, the Grand Magnificat of Engelberg, the Regina Coeli of Werner, Wislinda's O. Salutaris, Gash's Tantum Ergo and a grand march of Mendelssohn.

The church was admirable and the soloist sustained their respective parts with remarkable power and sweetness.

The instrumental parts of the programme were also worthy of particular praise.

The concert, on the whole, was a treat of unusual excellence and far superior to anything of that character ever held in Olyphant.

The church was thronged with an audience that numbered many prominent in musical circles in this city and vicinity.

The choir consisted of twenty-six voices, and was directed by Professor T. W. Ford.

The instrumental music, which was an admirable feature of the concert, was rendered by an orchestra of six pieces under the direction of Professor John Walkenshaw.

Mrs. T. W. Watkins gracefully presided as accompanist on the piano.

The programme consisted of an overture from "Euch Arden," Millard's Vespers, a saxophone solo by Harry Bonn, the Grand Magnificat of Engelberg, the Regina Coeli of Werner, Wislinda's O. Salutaris, Gash's Tantum Ergo and a grand march of Mendelssohn.

The church was admirable and the soloist sustained their respective parts with remarkable power and sweetness.

The instrumental parts of the programme were also worthy of particular praise.

The concert, on the whole, was a treat of unusual excellence and far superior to anything of that character ever held in Olyphant.

The church was thronged with an audience that numbered many prominent in musical circles in this city and vicinity.

The choir consisted of twenty-six voices, and was directed by Professor T. W. Ford.

The instrumental music, which was an admirable feature of the concert, was rendered by an orchestra of six pieces under the direction of Professor John Walkenshaw.

FROM FOREST CITY.

An Enterprising Town Described in Readable News Notes.

Forest City, Pa., April 9.—Professor D. L. Hower, of Honesdale, visited this place Saturday and enjoyed his first visit to a coal mine with B. F. Maxey.

Miss Nettie Chamberlin, one of our best teachers, is sick today. Her place is most acceptably filled by Miss Jessie Smith.

Two cases of scarlet fever are reported in our midst.

E. D. Bradley, the jeweler, spent the Sabbath pleasantly with Susquehanna friends.

Justice of the Peace-elect D. R. Brahm was in Scranton today.

R. M. Shepherd, the popular Erie station agent in this place, has purchased a handsome new Victor bicycle. We will look for some records broken.

Thomas Davies and wife were in Scranton today attending the funeral of Mr. Davies' aunt.

Joseph C. Lappans, a student at Key-stone Academy, Factoryville, is spending his short vacation with his parents on Delaware street.

Charles Burdick, of Honesdale, spent yesterday with his parents on Hudson street.

Miss Jennie Purple, of Susquehanna, is the guest of her brother, H. A. Purple.

Rev. J. Campbell was a visitor in Carbondale today for a few hours.

A large number of prominent Forest City residents are in Montrose—not in jail though—attending the three or four law suits from this place which are being tried there this week.

The cases are Higgins vs. Lamon, Common-wealth vs. McDermott, G. C. Westgate prosecutor for Higgins vs. Brown.

Anthony Powanie, the man who was injured in Friday night's fracas, is improving. His assailants furnished bail this morning in the sum of $500 to appear at the August term of court.

They also gave bonds of presentation, including tonight with the play, "Michael Strouff," the Wonderland Theater company of Scranton, will open a week's engagement at Davis' opera house. The company comes highly recommended with press notices from all the Scranton dailies, and the assured going people of this place are in a state of treat. Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents. "Under the Gaiety" is the attraction tomorrow evening.

HALSTED NOTES.

Brief News Paragraphs Concerning a Growing Town and Its People.

HALSTED, Pa., April 9.—Superintendent Garrett Bogart, of Scranton, was in town yesterday.

Professor Charles E. Moxley was in Susquehanna on Saturday.

Warren Van Loan has returned home from a pleasant visit with friends in Forest City.

The teacher's meeting will be held at the home of Charles E. Moxley on Friday evening.

Rev. R. N. Ives, of Dinghamton, was in town today.

The Ladies' Aid society, of the Presbyterian church will hold a corn supper in the Hook and Ladder company's hall Friday afternoon and evening.

T. H. Hays visited Scranton yesterday, where a large piece of iron fell on his leg, injuring him quite badly.

D. C. Hamlin is to operate the stone quarry on the lands of Mrs. Conley. He is now negotiating with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western to put in a switch.

The funeral of Mrs. H. H. Travis occurred at 2 o'clock at the residence of her son, L. T. Travis. The services were conducted by the Rev. L. W. Church. The pall-bearers were: N. F. Noble, W. C. Smith, B. D. Phillips, J. H. Van Loan. The deceased was buried by her husband in Rose Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Dolan, of Great Bend, died at her residence in this place yesterday morning at 3:30 o'clock of old age. The funeral will be held in the St. Lawrence Catholic church tomorrow morning at 9:30 a. m.

Charles J. Crook was in Sidney, N. Y., on Monday.

J. A. Mears, George M. Halstead and Garret Bogart have each purchased a lot near the silk mill and will build houses this spring.

James T. DuBois was in Scranton on Saturday.

J. J. Mitchell is at the county seat as a juror.

E. M. Scotter, of Pine street, is making improvements about his premises.

Mrs. J. R. Douglas is visiting friends in Hancock, N. Y.

CONTEST AT HONESDALE.

Many Voters of the City Do Not Know Where They Are At.

HONESDALE, Pa., April 9.—The contested election case for Honesdale's tax collectorship was called up in court this morning at 10 o'clock. Attorneys for Voight, the contestant, were O. L. Rowland and F. P. Kimble, and for O'Brien, the respondent, A. T. Sewell, Henry Wilson and William H. Lee.

The first witness called was T. Frank Ham, who swore that he was 22 years of age Feb. 15, 1894, and had never paid a state or county tax.

Counsel for the contestant asked that the ballot box used in Honesdale at the February election be brought into court and opened, and that the ballots be opened until that of Mr. Ham be found and it be shown how he voted for collector. Objection was made by opposing counsel and court took the matter under advisement.

Charles Yeary was sworn and stated he lived in Honesdale for three years and had not paid a tax within two years. When examined he stated he had no objection to stating for whom he voted for collector. The question was objected to and objection sustained. He said he had paid 1893 tax but could not remember the date.

William J. Ward, tax collector for 1892 was called and said Yeary paid tax on Jan. 29, 1892.

George Barbes was sworn. He had lived in Honesdale two years, and was 30 years of age, had voted at February election but could not say whether he had paid a tax within two years.

M. E. Biglow was sworn. Stated he was 32 years of age, and school teacher at White Mills until Dec. 22, 1893. He voted at February election. There was considerable doubt as to his residence prior to his coming to Honesdale to reside permanently in December.

He boarded at White Mills from Monday to Friday, and then either passed his Sunday at Honesdale or Pleasant Mount. He was on stand when court adjourned at noon. Legal battles will be to the admitting of evidence were frequent during the forenoon.

Reminded by R. C. Joiner, at Allen P. O., Honesdale Co., Mich.: "Nothing gave my rheumatism such quick relief as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—believe it infallible for rheumatism."

BE SURE AND get your choice of multichromes.

One coupon and one dime.

CARBONDALE NOTES.

Matters of Greater or Less Importance in the Pioneer City.

CARBONDALE, Pa., April 9.—On Friday evening of this week will occur the annual election of officers of the Baptist Sabbath school in the chapel.

W. J. Maxie, of Forest City, was a visitor in this place today.

W. W. Latrop, of Scranton, made a business trip to this city this morning.

Miss Iona Tyler, of Forest City, is the guest of Mrs. A. S. Lewsley, of High street.

Miss Della Williams is visiting friends in Dunmore.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Frank Ditts occurred at noon today in the Methodist church. The pastor, Rev. William Edgar, officiated. The pall bearers were: Joseph Robinson, Henry Lippert, G. B. Van Gorder, G. H. McMinn, H. Hartman and W. E. Brown. The remains were taken to Prompton for interment.

E. W. Mills and J. B. Nicholson departed today for Oswego, N. Y., to purchase poles necessary for the extension of the lines of the Electric Light company.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Starkweather, of Laurel street, are mourning the death of their infant daughter, which occurred at midnight Saturday. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon. The remains were taken to Clinton, Wayne county, for interment.

The newly elected officers of Olive Leaf lodge, independent Order of Odd Fellows, were installed at their hall on Scranton street.

Miss Clara Smith is the guest of the Misses Allee and Jennie Butler, of Canaan street.

Mrs. A. E. Burr, of Scranton, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips, of Wyoming street.

At Sunday evening's services in the Baptist tabernacle the pastor announced that the choir had kindly consented to repeat on next Sabbath evening the excellent singing which they rendered on Easter Sunday.

On April 16 is the date set when the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian association will entertain their friends with a dime concert in Association hall.

Mrs. George Williams is visiting friends in Scranton.

PECKVILLE POINTERS.

An Argus-Eyed Reporter's Resume of Current Events.

PECKVILLE, Pa., April 9.—Arthur and James Pentecost, of Scranton, visited with their sister on Sunday, Mrs. Henry Oberly.

Cos Tuthill is very sick. He is threatened with pneumonia.

Harry, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Jones, has been very sick for the past week with bronchitis.

Mrs. Joseph Webb, of Providence, was a caller on Mrs. John Mitchell last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Frar, of Carbondale, circulated among friends here on Sunday.

John Lanz, of Bell place, is very sick with liver trouble.

Myrtle, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cool is suffering with scarlet fever.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church, will meet tomorrow morning at the home of Mrs. P. G. Harding.

A contractor by the name of Ward, from Taylor, has been awarded the contract to build the new Presbyterian Church here.

The many friends of Mrs. John Mitchell will be pleased to hear of her recovery from recent illness.

OVER AT OLYPHANT.

All the News of the Age Comprehensively Dished Up.

OLYPHANT, Pa., April 9.—Miss Gertrude Morris, of Scranton, visited Miss Marie Jones, of Lackawanna street, over Sunday.

Mrs. James Feeley, of Archbald, spent yesterday with her parents on Lackawanna street.

Rev. F. J. Jannsek returned home from New York Friday evening.

William Shea, of Scranton, was a caller in town today.

Dr. J. J. Bilheimer, of Priceburg, spent to lay in town.

The Young Men's Literary and Debating society are making extensive

Mrs. A. M. C. Dilworth, Hamorton, Pa.

That Tired Feeling

All Run Down—Blood Poison Feared

Hood's Sarsaparilla Permanently Cured All Troubles.

"C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."

"I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven or more years as a spring tonic. I was so run down with hair loss and general weakness that I would go to bed thinking that I would not be able to get up in the morning. I have suffered severely with My Back and Limbs.

I have just finished taking five bottles and am feeling well. I do not have that tired feeling and feel better in every way. I have an excellent appetite and sleep well at night. I have also given it to my nineteen-year-old son with good success. Last fall he cut his limb with a corn sickle. It healed up in about two weeks, but in a short time after he was

Soiled With Chills,

and the limb swollen to twice its natural size. He was not able to move and was obliged to take his bed. The swelling and sore went up into his body and I feared that blood poison had set in. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla he improved steadily and was soon able to be out again. I have recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla to several and still always have words of praise for it." Mrs. A. M. C. Dilworth, Hamorton, Pa.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Improved steadily and was soon able to be out again. I have recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla to several and still always have words of praise for it." Mrs. A. M. C. Dilworth, Hamorton, Pa.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c.

preparations for their entertainment to be held on April 23. Some of the best talent in the county has been engaged and it is safe to predict they will be greeted by a crowded house.

HONESDALE HAPPENINGS.

Springtime News Waifs from a Beautiful City of Wayne.

HONESDALE, Pa., April 9.—St. John's Catholic Reading circle will meet in the Watts' building, Thursday evening, April 12. A delightful programme, consisting of music, recitations, readings, etc., has been prepared. A number of invited guests will participate in the evening's enjoyment.

Frank Trescott, employed at Wood-son and Blakney's paper box factory, had the fingers of his hand crushed by the cogged wheels of a machine this morning.

Miss Lavina Rose returned home Saturday evening, after an extended visit with New York friends.

The funeral of the late Edward Strong took place from the residence of his son-in-law, E. O. Hamlin, at 3 p. m. today, Rev. V. H. Bergous officiating.

Dr. E. Grever

The Philadelphia Specialist.

And his associated staff of English and German Physicians now permanently located at

Temple Court Building

311 SPRUCE ST., SCRANTON

Where they may be consulted DAILY AND SUNDAY.

The Doctor is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, formerly demonstrator of physiology and surgery at the Medical-Chirurgical College, Philadelphia. He is also an honorary member of the Medical-Chirurgical Association, and was physician and surgeon-in-chief of the most noted American and German hospitals, comes highly endorsed by the leading professors of Philadelphia and New York.

His many years of hospital experience enables him to correctly diagnose and surgically correct the most difficult cases of internal and external diseases with the most flattering success and with the least suffering to the patient.

He is also a specialist in the treatment of all cases of internal and external diseases.

Office Hours: 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. Daily, Sunday, 9 a. m. to 2 p. m.

Third National Bank of Scranton.

Statement Feb. 28, 1894, called for by the Comptroller of the Currency.

RESOURCES.

Table with 2 columns: Resource, Amount. Includes Loans, United States Bonds, Other Bonds, Real Estate, etc.