MR. GASTON'S TESTIMONY

The Wilkes-Barre Rope Maker Tells What He Knows About Sugar.

HIS KNOWLEDGE IS VERY LIMITED

Before the Senatorial Sugar Trust Investigation Committee the Wilkes-Barre Displays a Deplorable Lack of Knowledge—His Information Upon the Schemes of the Syndicate Appears to Have Consisted in Vivid Opinions.

WASHINGTON, June 5.

THE testimony given today before the senatorial sugar trust investigating committee by Walter Gaston, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., general manager of the Hazard Manufacturing company and a wire rope manufacturer, was not so important as was anticipated. Senator Gray, chairman of the committee, read Mr. Gaston a Washington special in the New York Mail and Express, in which it was stated that a certain wire manufacturer had overheard a conversation in the Arlington hotel between sugar trust representatives and Democratic senators which induced him to believe the tariff bill would not pass unless the demands of the sugar men were acceded to.

STEAMER TEXAS WRECKED.

The Boat Goes Ashore on the Wildcat Headland of New Foundland Coast.

ST. JOHN, N. F., June 5.—The Dominion line steamer Texas, Captain Hunter, from Montreal for Bristol, Ear, went ashore at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, one mile inside St. Shott's, St. Mary's bay, on the wildcat and most dangerous headland of the whole New Foundland coast, the scene of many shipwrecks. She struck land during a dense fog. She was going at only ordinary speed.

When she struck the small bay and was thrown right on the rocks. Her whole bottom was torn up on the starboard side, her bow was stove and she filled with water. Her cargo in part consisted of 340 head of cattle and 1416 head of sheep. The cattle were all dead. They were heaped on the main deck and the sea washed them overboard. The crew seeing no immediate danger to their lives occupied themselves in saving the sheep, and all but twenty head were landed safely.

The crew then landed themselves with their effects. Only one man was injured. He was struck by a large wave and thrown upon a stanchion. This evening the ship went to pieces, some of her cargo was washed ashore, together with wreckage and the dead bodies of cattle. It is estimated that the loss on the steamer and her cargo will reach $100,000.

The cause of the wreck is due to the vessel being caught in the tidal currents of the bay which cannot be relied on.

THE WAR ON BRECKINRIDGE.

Encounters Between His Enemies and Supporters Fared Every Moment.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 5.—The authorities refused to allow a meeting in the court house last night on account of the feeling displayed at the Breckinridge meeting of the morning. The opera house was secured, and Breckinridge addressed all who could gain admission. His speech was on the same lines as those already published, and received a fair hearing from friends and foes.

Excitement ran high last night. Nearly the entire population of the county is here, and personal encounters are feared.

The Owens people are highly pleased at the result of the meeting yesterday. The following special from Paris was read at the Owens headquarters last night: Four thousand people came to Paris today to hear Hon. W. C. Owens open his canvass here. Two hundred ladies were present. Hon. G. C. Lockhart, who has been counted by the Breckinridge men as one of the colonel's supporters, introduced Mr. Owens in a handsome speech. He gave Colonel Breckinridge several thrusts.

Mr. Owens spoke an hour and fifteen minutes, devoting about fifteen minutes to Breckinridge. At every thrust he gave him the great audience rose to their feet and cheered like wild men. The ladies joined in the enthusiasm, and stood up with the crowd, waving their parasols and handkerchiefs. His indictment of the wordy warrior was terrific, and his description of the Breckinridge meeting here a month ago was greeted with roars of laughter.

IN OUR OWN COMMONWEALTH.

STRIKE NOW NEAR THE END

Coke Operators Arranging to Employ New Men at Their Ovens.

VIRGINIA MEN ARE DETERMINED

The Situation Practically Unchanged. Two Thousand Cars of Monongahela Coal Blocked in the Benwood Yards—Negro Miners Will Be Employed at Brockwayville—Sixty-Two Men Taken to the Ridgeway Jail.

PITTSBURG, June 5.

ONE of the highest authorities in the ranks of the western Pennsylvania coal operators has received assurances that the Illinois operators who have all along refused to participate in a joint conference of operators and miners, are now ready and willing to do so, and what at today's meeting at Columbus, O., President McBride will issue a call for another joint conference to be held at Columbus on Friday of this week.

The coke region operators are arranging to employ men in this city to go to the coke region to take the places of the strikers. An employment office has been opened for this purpose. This morning three carloads of workmen were shipped from this city to various points in the coke region.

ESTABLISHED A CAMP IN AN ADJOINING FIELD.

There are forty armed deputies engaged and Superintendent Brown expressed a determination to operate the plant at all hazards. Two of the strikers succeeded in getting twelve negroes to quit work. The two men applied for work this morning and put in their time doing missionary work among the negroes. This evening they bade the officials good-by.

MASILLON, O., June 5.—An armed peace has been maintained today on the southern end of the Cleveland, Loraine and Wheeling railroad. General Manager Woolford has made no attempt to move the loaded coal trains, and the strikers maintain guard over 200 cars. This inability of the road to continue daily supplies of coal to the Lake Shore road at Erie has reduced that road to desperate straits and local trains are being taken off. General Manager Woolford says the receipts of the road have been cut down 50 per cent by the stoppage of trains and the burning of bridges.

Officials of the road were at St. Clairsville this afternoon in consultation with county authorities in regard to protection of property when they begin moving trains tomorrow. The miners at Wheeling Creek are still in camp, and with their reinforcements will be able to make trouble. They are now considering plans for stopping empty coal flats and a collision will surely occur if the railroad attempts to move coal tomorrow. The strikers are determined to not allow West Virginia coal to be moved over the road.

NO RECONCILIATION.

CUMBERLAND, Md., June 5.—The anxiety of the citizens of this region has been tried to its utmost in regard to the mining situation in this section. Every effort apparently has been made by the various companies to effect a reconciliation with their employees but to no avail. A number of strange laborers (suspected miners) have made their appearance in the vicinity of the various mines and it is believed they are trying to stop others from going to work.

The question yesterday assumed such a state that Sheriff King felt he was unable to secure a sufficient number of deputies and appealed to Governor Brown for troops in order to preserve peace.

Communication between the sheriff and governor resulted in the latter issuing an order which required that the miners should appear at the appearance of the state militia will have upon the strikers will be fully demonstrated within the next twenty-four hours.

TRouble AT TUBE WORKS.

The McKeesport Shops Surrounded by a Mob of 5,000 Strikers. Excitement Prevails.

McKEESPORT, Pa., June 5.—The big strike at the National Tube works assumed a serious aspect today. This morning a sufficient number of the strikers went to work to get in operation. Two inspectors, James and Mitchell, were struck in the face, but before any more harm was done he had been rescued from the mob by company officials, and Superintendent Patterson retreated back to the mill. Several bricks and stones were thrown at them.

No more men attempted to leave the works, but a crowd remained to watch every entrance. At noon the boiler makers marched out in a body and said they would stay out until the strike is settled.

The company is going to make every attempt to run the works with whatever men will do it. It is expected that a big force of deputies, as more serious trouble is looked for. The wildest excitement prevails and the streets are packed with men, the entire police force trying to keep the sidewalks clear.

W. H. Sim, who was suspected of being a deputy, was run through the streets by several hundred men. He was roughly handled.

NO DUBT SURELY REPUBLICAN.

ORIGIN That the Entire State Ticket Is Republican.

PORTLAND, June 5.—Little more is to be said of the election this morning than was said last night. The extreme length of the ballot has prolonged the count, and even in Portland the result will not be definitely known until tonight. Sufficient is known, however, to show the election of the entire Republican state ticket, with the possible exception of Irwin for superintendent of instruction. Both Hermann and Ellis are undoubtedly re-elected to congress.

The legislature will be Republican, by a greatly reduced majority. The Democrats and Populists do not concede this, but the returns will undoubtedly show this to be the case.

The demoralized railroad and telegraph facilities have delayed the reports. So far only one county in eastern Oregon has been heard from. City officials will be divided, with a Republican mayor.

SPARKS FROM THE CABLE.

Socialist agitation is rapidly developing in all parts of Germany. Turpin has turned over to France the secret of his wonderful war engine. Emperor Francis Joseph was greeted by the people at Budapest with cheers for the civil marriage bill.

Trying to open a shell which they found on an artillery range at Tralee, three Irish peasants were killed and four wounded.

Buenos Ayres newspapers condemn Argentine's proposed annexation of the Diego land by the president of the republic.

Great Britain's Intercolonial conference, at Ottawa, will have as its primary object the production of a practical Pacific cable scheme.

MELTING THE SUGAR LUMPS

The Repeal of the Bounty on Sweetness Is Postponed One Year.

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY UNBROKEN

The Sugar Schedule Completed in the Senate Yesterday After an Exciting Struggle—The Democratic Majority Carries Out the Programme at Every Point—Various Amendments Voted Down—Proposition to Repeal Ten Per Cent Tax Law Uncertain in the House.

WASHINGTON, June 5.

THE sugar schedule was completed in the senate today after an intensely exciting and interesting struggle, the Democratic majority carrying out its programme at every point. The fight for the greater part of the day was, as it had been during the preceding four days, over the proposition to postpone the time when the repeal of the sugar bounty is to take effect from July 1, 1894, to Jan. 1, 1895. It was carried by a vote of 33 to 31.

Then various amendments which were offered by Senator Manderson, Nebraska, to continue the sugar bounty bill till 1905, to continue it with annual reductions of one-tenth, to confine it to the producers of beet and sorghum sugar only, and to reduce it to one cent a pound, were severally voted down with slightly varying majorities against them—the two Populist senators, Allen and Kyle, and the New York senator, Hill, voting now on one side and now on the opposite side.

An amendment for free sugar was offered by Mr. Peffer and was rejected, yeas 26, nays 37, and one was offered by Mr. Allison, Iowa, to make the sugar duty go into effect with the passage of the bill was rejected, yeas 30, nays 33. This was the closest of all the votes.

POPULISTS JOIN HILL.

Two of the Populist senators, Kyle and Peffer, joined with Mr. Hill in supporting the amendment, and if the third Populist, Mr. Allen, had cast his vote the same way, the vote would have stood 31 to 32. But Mr. Allen voted in the negative. Finally the amendment of the finance committee, or rather the Jones measure, as it was called, yeas 35, nays 35, and with a few minor amendments to the other paragraphs the sugar schedule was completed and the tobacco schedule reached.

The bill provides for a duty of 40 per cent ad valorem on all sugars, with additions where they are above No. 16 Dutch standard, and it does not go into effect on Jan. 1, 1895. The senate adjourned at 6:05.

HOUSE ON STATE BANKS.

The committee on rules at the opening of the session of the house today, through Mr. Catchings, (Dem., Miss.), reported an order shutting off debate on the pending bill and amendment to repeal the state bank tax. The bill was to be further considered during the day and the 5-minute rule, and then a vote was to be taken immediately after the committee had been called tomorrow morning.

Before the day had far gone, however, it was found desirable to amend the terms of the order by unanimous consent, by which Mr. Harter, (Dem., O.), was permitted to speak an hour and a half in favor of the repeal of the tax, and the advocates of repeal will have an hour and a quarter to present their views tomorrow before the vote shall be taken.

In presenting the order from the committee on rules, Mr. Catchings admitted, with regret, that the proposition to repeal the 10 per cent tax law would doubtless fail to pass the house.

CONFESSED TO MURDER.

A Minnesota Man May Be Hanged Upon His Own Evidence.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 1.—Otto Wonnigk, indicted under the name of Otto Milhausen, one of the slayers of William Lindholm, pleaded guilty to murder in the first degree.

Under the state law Wonnigk may be hanged on a plea of guilty, but his attorneys hope to save his life by voluntarily putting his neck in the halter. Charles Erismen, Milhausen's associate, is still in a critical condition.

KILLED FOR INFORMING.

An Inoffensive, Hardworking German Assassinated by a Rough.

PITTSFIELD, Ill., June 5.—Last Saturday night Henry Schlemmer, an inoffensive, hardworking German, was assaulted and robbed. He immediately informed the police, stating that he recognized a young man named Will Morgan as one of his assailants.

Yesterday, while Schlemmer was going to vote at the judicial election, he was met by Morgan and again assaulted, and died shortly after. Morgan fled, but was captured and is now in jail.

CURTAILING THE PEER'S POWERS

Labouchere's Plan Adopted by the National Reform Movement.

LONDON, June 5.—The conference at the National Reform Union, a movement in favor of the abolition of the house of lords, or, at least, a considerable abridgment of the power of that body, was opened here this morning, with the Hon. Philip James Stanhope, M. P., in the chair.

After the preliminary work of organizing the conference, Mr. Labouchere submitted a resolution that whenever the house of lords should reject a bill which had been passed by the house of commons, it would only be necessary for the latter body to signify its approval of the measure by a formal vote, when the bill would forthwith become a law. In proposing the resolution Mr. Labouchere said that he
