COMPANY B'S GOOD SHOWING

Nine Men Qualified as Marksmen on Saturday. If the example set by the members of Company B, on Saturday, should be followed there is no doubt that every member of the Thirtieth Regiment would be qualified before camp, thus relieving the company commanders from a good deal of anxiety and incidentally saving considerable money.

Scranton's Business Interests. THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Captain William Davis Killed by the Kick of a Horse.

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TOMORROW

Children's Day Was Observed in Most of the Churches Yesterday—Death of Mrs. Alice Durkin—John Cassidy Buried—Miss Fellows Tendered a Party—News Notes and Personal.

The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 118 North Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.

The funeral of William Davis, late permanent man at the Franklin Engine company, who died at 6:30 o'clock on Saturday morning from injuries received by being kicked by one of the company horses the preceding night, will take place tomorrow afternoon.

Captain Davis met his death in a most tragic manner. It was his custom to sleep in the engine house, occupying a bed on the second floor. About 10:45 o'clock Friday night he was awakened from slumber by a noise underneath him and on going down stairs found one of the heavy black horses loose.

He proceeded to tie the animal and after doing so went into the other stall to see if the other horse was secure. When coming back through the stall of the first horse, the animal gave him a vicious kick in the stomach, knocking him back on a bale of hay, from which he fell to the floor and writhed in agony.

Mr. Davis had sufficient presence of mind to crawl from the stall to the engine house, where he lay groaning. It is stated that John Lowry passed that way shortly afterward and hearing the moans of the injured man, he knocked at the door. The captain crawled to the door and opened it. When Mr. Lowry ascertained what had happened he immediately ran to the engine house and floor and placed him on his back. At an early hour Saturday morning he was removed to his home adjoining the engine house, where Dr. M. J. Williams was summoned. Medical aid proved of no avail and at 6:30 o'clock Mr. Davis died.

Captain Davis was born in Wales and came to this country when but a boy 12 years of age. He was 51 years old at the time of his death. When Abraham Lincoln issued a call for volunteers for the Civil war in 1861, Mr. Davis was among the first to respond, enlisting in Company D, Eighth regiment, New York Volunteers.

For three years he suffered the hardships of war, and retired with an honorable discharge from service. At the time of the formation of militia in this city, Mr. Davis was made captain of one of the Hyde Park companies. He was an active member of the Grand Army of the Republic and a devout member of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church. He is survived by his wife and three children. The flag on the Franklin Engine house is at half mast, and the building draped with bunting. The rooms of the West Side Central Republican club are also draped.

CHILDREN'S DAY OBSERVED

Interesting Services Held at the Washburn Presbyterian Church. Children's Day was observed in nearly all the West Side churches yesterday. There was a most interesting and profitable day for the children, as the children sang special selections, the children sang special selections, and ministers discoursed on various subjects appropriate to the day.

JOHN CASSIDY BURIED

Funeral Services Conducted Yesterday Afternoon. The many friends of the late John Cassidy, a well known young man who was employed as driver for Heiser & Warnke, gathered at the family home on South Fellows street yesterday afternoon. The funeral cortege moved to St. Patrick's church, where brief but impressive services were conducted by Rev. Father McNulty.

IT WAS CHILDREN'S DAY

Special Services and Sermon at First Presbyterian Church. The Children's Day services yesterday at the First Presbyterian church, were of a particularly beautiful and impressive nature and were witnessed by a large number of people. The entire service was confined to the theme of "Character Building" or "Like Builders."

TODAY'S LIEDERKRANZ PICNIC

Several Local Chorus and Soloists Will Probably Attend. If the weather is favorable, the singing picnic of the Scranton Liederkranz at Central park today will be one of the important musical events of the season. Next week, Friday, the Liederkranz choir of thirty-five voices will leave for New York to compete in the great Singers' contest to be held in Madison Square garden.

SOUTH SIDE JOTTINGS

Motorman Thomas J. Gallagher will serve on the jury this week. The Gravelly Yester society held an interesting session yesterday afternoon in Germania hall. John J. Schneider and family, of Cedar avenue, drove to Pittston yesterday and had a pleasant time visiting friends.

MATAMORA'S CORNER STONE LAID

Vicar General Finnen Officiated in Absence of Bishop O'Hara. The laying of the corner stone at the Catholic church in Matamoras, Pike county, was solemnized yesterday by Very Rev. John Finnen, of Pittston, vicar general of the Scranton diocese. Rev. John Fritz is pastor of the church and many visiting clergymen from the diocese were present at the ceremony.

THE BEST INVESTMENT

In real estate is to keep buildings well painted. Paint protects the house and saves repairs. You sometimes want to sell—many a good house has remained unsold for want of paint. The rule should be, though, "the best paint or none." That means

Strictly Pure White Lead

You cannot afford to use cheap paints. To be sure of getting Strictly Pure White Lead, look at the brand; any of these are safe: "Atlantic," "Beymer-Bassan," "Jewett," "Davis-Chambers," "Fahnestock," "Armstrong & McKelvey." For Colors—National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Desolate Condition of the Delampel Family on Lavelle Court.

THE MOTHER GONE TO HER REWARD

Mrs. McGee, of Cedar Avenue, Shot on Saturday—Children's Day Exercises at Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church—Forthcoming Marriages—Other Interesting Personal and Short Paragraphs.

A pitiful case of destitution at present exists in a hovel on Lavelle court in the rear of 528 Prospect avenue.

The Delampel family occupy the miserable dwelling, and the forlorn condition of the poor children, four in number, the oldest 16 and the youngest about 5 years old, their father a worthless character who has not assisted or looked after them for years, is now intensified by the death of their mother, Mrs. Christina Delampel, on Saturday morning.

For nearly a year the poor woman struggled in the face of death to keep her family from starving, and that would probably have been the result had not kind neighbors extended their charity.

Mrs. E. N. Willard has shown her generosity at various times in caring for the family, and now she has assumed all expenses in giving the woman a Christian burial. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Smith, of the Hickory Street German Baptist church will officiate, and interment will be made in Fort Hill cemetery.

COMING MARRIAGES

Three Weddings of Note on This Side Within the Next Month.

Next Thursday afternoon the marriage of Miss Emma Bauer, of Birch street, to Charles Stoebber, of the West Side, will take place. Both are estimable young men of social prominence with numerous friends whose well wishes are already being showered.

On Thursday, June 21, another couple of whom many friends speak with every possible wish for wedded happiness, will become man and wife.

On this date George Pfeiffer, of the West Side, will be united to Miss Anna Scholl, of Birch street. In the beginning of July Michael Madden, of Manistee, Michigan, will return to Scranton after an absence of several years. Mr. Madden, however, was born on the South Side and is well known as an upright young man of self respect and character.

A WOMAN SHOT

Two Boys Fire at a Dog and the Bullet Strikes Mrs. McGee. Martin Moffatt, a young boy employed in Corcoran's hotel on Cedar avenue, and a companion of his own age named Patrick Conroy, were amusing themselves in the back yard of Corcoran's place Saturday morning shooting with a Flobert rifle at passing birds.

While they were thus engaged the butcher drove up to McGee's hotel, next to Corcoran's, and Mrs. John McGee, mother of the proprietor, went to the wagon to purchase some meat.

The boys shot at a dog that stood near the wagon and instead of hitting it, Mrs. McGee received the bullet in the fleshy part of the thigh. Dr. Manley was called for, but he made no attempt to probe for the ball, but dressed the wound, which he does not consider in the least dangerous.

Eish boy charges the other with firing the shot, but as it was accidental there is no intention to bring the law to bear on the case.

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICES

Yesterday at Cedar Avenue M. E. Church the Exercises Were Delightful. The Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church was beautifully decorated yesterday in honor of children's day and the musical programme suitable to the occasion.

The services began at 10 o'clock and did not terminate until after the noon hour. The church was crowded and everybody was delighted beyond calculation. Besides the musical numbers on the programme, there were recitations and dialogues in which the children took part.

The pastor, Rev. E. L. Santee, delivered one of the best sermons ever heard in the church.
