DRAWN THROUGH WALL OF FLAME. Dramatic Escape of Large Force of Workmen in a Burning Mine.

FOUR MEN LOSE THEIR LIVES. Many of the Others Are Suffocated by the Blistering Heat and Dense Smoke While Being Hauled Out of Danger—Thrilling Scenes and Incidents as the Rescued Men Emerge—Mine Set on Fire by Incendiaries.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 20. FIRE was discovered in the coal mines of the Mary Lee Coal and Railway company at Lewisburg, ten miles from Birmingham at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The fire broke out 400 feet from the opening of the mine. One hundred men were at work in the mine at the time, fifty of them being beyond the fire, their only way of escape being through the flames and smoke. Up to a late hour tonight, four dead bodies have been recovered, and many of those taken out alive are prostrated from suffocation. The dead are as follows:

JAMES WHALEN, superintendent; leaves widow and several children; 46 years of age. G. W. BASKINS, miner, aged about 40; leaves a family. WILLIAM MCKINISH, aged 16 years. AN UNKNOWN white man.

When it became known that the mine was on fire, the fifty men who were imprisoned began making efforts to escape. The greater part of them were loaded into the tram cars, which were drawn through the flames and smoke by means of wire cables as rapidly as possible. Others took their chances in making a dash through the smoke.

THE SUFFICIENT FATE. Some got out alive, while others less fortunate fell victims to the smoke and fire. Among the latter was Superintendent Whalen, who died just as he was brought out. The work of rescue went on for several hours and by dark every man who was alive had been taken out of the mines. Many of those who were taken out in the tram cars were suffocated, as the cars had to be drawn through the burning mine in an effort to rescue their loved ones. As rapidly as the suffocated miners were brought out they were taken in hand by physicians and efforts made to revive them. Four died of suffocation. The others who were prostrated will, it is thought, recover.

WAS SET ON FIRE. The owners of the mine are positive that it was set on fire. This mine had recently started up with new labor, having been closed down previous to that on account of the strike. There is no clue to the incendiaries.

SENT TO MOYAMENING. Lawyer Walter Allen, charged with embezzling thousands.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—On the charge of embezzling $44,760, Walter D. Allen, a well-known real estate lawyer, waived a hearing and was sent to Moyamensing prison in default of $12,000. Allen's victims are Rev. John Heffernan, pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, Sheepshead Bay, to the extent of $35,000; John Hamilton, a well-known carpet manufacturer of this city, to the extent of $4,500, and Thomas Earley, manufacturer of soap in this city, to the extent of $5,200.

DEMONSTRATION OF STRIKERS. Many Michigan Iron Miners Induced to Go Out.

IRONWOOD, Mich., June 20.—At 6 o'clock this morning 800 of the striking mine employees met and formed in line with the American flag at their head and marched out of the city to the mines. The Norris was the first mine visited and a few men at work there were forced to quit work. A number visited East Norris, Aurora, Fabst and Newport mines in turn forcing all men at work to quit and not a pick, shovel or drill is in use at any of the mines. The men then disbanded. An effort will also be made to operations at other mines.

NEW YORK, June 20. GREAT crowds of people gathered this morning in the corridor leading to the supreme court room where the senate police investigating committee holds its session. It was rumored that Police Justice Patrick Divver would take the stand and deny the allegation made by the bunco man Clark that his saloon was used as a rendezvous by the gang Chairman Lexow.

WIMAN TO GO TO SING SING. Judge Ingraham Imposes a Sentence of Five Years and Six Months.

NEW YORK, June 20.—After being denied a new trial, today, Erastus Wiman was sentenced by Judge Ingraham to five and one-half years in state's prison. The court, in passing sentence, said: "The only considerations by which I am allowed to be swayed are judicial considerations. In considering this, let me first say to you that the object of imposing a punishment upon you is not to hurt you nor is it done to gratify Dun and his associates. The object of the law is to deter you and others, so far as it may be possible, from repeating this particular offense. The evidence showed that in your transactions as manager of Dan's business you repeatedly forged orders for the purpose of obtaining money, and you did this regardless of the legality of your acts. The fact that in doing this you violated the spirit of your trust certainly does not palliate your offense. It is claimed that you believed you had a right to the money that you had thus obtained. You certainly did not have a right to a legal right to it. Nor can I believe that you ever really thought so. The letter which you wrote, though you did it under the advice of Mr. McFarland as you allege, is not in a way of a man who thinks he is acting in a way that is not wrong. The jury recommended you to mercy, and this recommendation has due weight with me. The jury has sincerely thanked me for giving me its aid in this matter, and for the careful and painstaking attention it gave to all of the proceedings had before it and this court. Mr. Wiman is a man who looked bewildered and then he sank heavily into his chair, while one of his sons took his hand. He seemed to recover almost instantly, though for a moment he was smiling faintly and expressed his gratification that the sentence had not been heavier. Judge Ingraham then explained to Mr. Wiman's counsel that by commutation for good behavior this term could be reduced to three years, eleven months and fifteen days, so that the prisoner could be set at liberty in the spring of 1895. For the purpose of enabling the counsel for the defense to procure a stay, Judge Ingraham said he would order the sheriff to let Wiman remain at the Tombs till Tuesday morning.

THE REVENUE TAX KNOCKED OUT. On Motion of Mr. Jones, the Mill Imposition on Each Little Cylinder is Generously Waived, and Another Great Revenue Reform Triumph is Thus Scored Up to the Credit of the Party of Hallowed Consecration—Other Changes in the Sugar Trust's Tariff Bill.

LONDON, June 20.—The anti-Lords conference, which was organized by the National Liberal Federation, was formally opened in Albert Hall, Leeds, today, in the presence of 2,000 delegates and auditors. The conference was called to order by Spence Watson, who in his opening speech declared that the attitude of the house of lords was unbearable. Mr. Watson insisted that the ultimate sovereignty of the empire must rest with the people thereof. He then moved the first resolution, which is as follows: "That the power now exercised by the house of lords to mutilate and reject measures passed by the representatives of the people in the house of commons has been systematically used to defeat reforms, inconsistent with the rights of popular government, and should cease to exist."

UNION MEETING FRIDAY EVENING. It Will Be Held in the Elm Park M. E. Church.

The great tent seats about three thousand people, and, rain or shine, it is thronged with eager listeners to the preaching of Major Whittle and the inspiring singing of young Mr. Wheeler, whose career has been unique. Until recently he was pursuing operative studies in New York, but his recent conversation has led him to devote his life and his remarkably beautiful voice to the service of Christ.

CHANDLER ATTACKS ALLEN. At this point an attack was made by Mr. Chandler, New Hampshire, on the Populist senator from Nebraska, Mr. Allen, whom he accused of "bargaining" with the Democratic majority. He wanted to know, and he asked with bitter sarcasm, whether the transaction might be considered as closed, and, if not, when the senator from Nebraska would be "entirely foreclosed." Mr. Allen denied that there was any bargain, gave it as his opinion that Mr. Chandler, who made his insinuation, knew no more of the matter than he did of the role of a baboon. Mr. Allen's amendment was adopted: Yeas, 19; nays, 21.

CHIBRETTES ATE FREED. The paragraph in section 53 for an internal revenue tax of $1 a thousand on wares, was on a motion of Mr. Jones, struck out of the bill. At this stage of the consideration of the bill, it was suggested by Mr. Hoar that on account of the intense heat and of the fatigue of the senators the income tax sections (a few pages further on) should be allowed to go over till tomorrow. The proposition was assented to, and the latter to be exempt the compensation of United States judges from the tax. Mr. Hill gave notice of his purpose of introducing the senate tomorrow in opposition to the income tax. And then at 4.15 the senate adjourned.

WORK IN THE HOUSE. Another day was devoted by the senate to the consideration of the anti-option bill after determining by unanimous consent to close the debate with adjournment tomorrow, the vote on the bill and pending amendments to be taken at the morning hour on Friday. A senate joint resolution agreed to, directing a survey to be made of the harbors of Duluth and Superior with a view to making them a uniform depth of 20 feet.
