Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Adams left last evening for New York city, where Mrs. Adams will undergo a surgical operation at St. Marks hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fox and Miss Helen Clark, of Carbondale, and Mrs. Sears, of Buffalo, mother of Mrs. Fox, are visiting Mr. Fox's father at Niagara Falls.

N. W. Bryan, Wilkes-Barre, passenger agent of the Lehigh Valley, inspected the new Delaware and Hudson depot yesterday and pronounced it a "dandy."

Mr. and Mrs. James Findings, of Mapleton, Iowa, and Mrs. George Brown, of Scranton, are visiting Prof. H. L. Burdick, of Capous avenue.

Mrs. A. T. Heiser and daughter, Lizzie, of Scranton, are at the fellow's cottage at Wyoming camp ground. Rev. J. C. Edman, the presiding elder, will begin his summer's residence there today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Watkins, and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Law were among the guests at a birthday celebration held at the Bear Creek residence of Albert Lewis.

Says the Philadelphia Bulletin: "Bishop O'Hara, of the Scranton diocese, paid a visit to Archbishop Ryan during the past week on his way to Cape May, where he expects to spend a week or so for the benefit of his health. He will stop with his brother, Dr. Michael O'Hara, who has a cottage at Cape May. The venerable prelate has not been well for some time past."

Scranton's Business Interests. The TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose NAMES are desired in this edition and explain its nature more fully. Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Unique Entertainment at the Summer Avenue Church Tonight.

REV. THOMAS BELL ACCEPTS

Will Be Pastor of the Plymouth Congregational Church—Old Mose Carriage of Columbia Company Goes to Great Bend—Property Owners Object to Telephone Poles—Movements of Persons and News Notes.

A dime entertainment and social will be held this evening under the auspices of the Sabbath school classes of Mrs. Gregory and Rev. R. G. Jones in the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church. Some of the best local talent in the city will take part in the entertainment, among whom will be Mrs. Powell's Ladies' choir.

The fan social will be a novel feature, as each adult will be presented with a beautiful fan, cake, cream and coffee will be served.

ACCEPTED THE CALL

Rev. Thomas Bell Will Be Pastor of Plymouth Church.

Rev. Thomas Bell, of South Dartmouth, has written to the Plymouth Congregational church accepting the call tendered him to become its pastor. Mr. Bell is a fine preacher as was manifested during the Sundays he officiated in the church.

He is eloquent, but addresses his audience in clear and plain language that the humblest can understand. He will arrive here on Saturday, Sept. 8, and assume his pastoral duties the following day. Some members of the church have expressed their approbation of the acceptance, and his career as its pastor will, no doubt, be a happy one.

HOSE CARRIAGE PURCHASED.

The Old Fire Apparatus of the Columbia's Carried Away.

C. C. Simons, burgess of Great Bend, has purchased the old carriage of the Columbia company. It was taken to a shop to be repaired yesterday and will be conveyed to Great Bend for use in that borough.

The carriage has been service in this city for several years, but it is in a good condition. Mr. Simons is at the head of the new fire department, the equipment of which was urged forward by a recent conflagration in that place, which did much damage.

AGAINST THE POLES.

Business Men Object to Having Them in Front of Their Property.

Joseph A. Mears and W. A. Phillips are making strenuous objection to the new poles of the new poles of the Central Telephone and Supply company which are being placed in front of their properties.

Mr. Phillips has served a notice on the company that no poles should be placed in front of his property on South Main avenue. The poles are more substantial and better in appearance than the old ones.

The Misses Habblitt, of Plymouth, and the guests of Misses Anna May Jones and Gertrude Hinckley, of this side.

Miss Gertrude Henckley, of North Main avenue will leave on Saturday for a two weeks' sojourn at Harvey's Lake.

The ladies' choir, under the leadership of Mrs. G. Powell met last evening in the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church.

Rev. Reese Lloyd, of Oakland, Cal., gave an interesting lecture on the "Trophies" last evening in the Plymouth Congregational church.

David Parry, of Glenrichy, Clearfield county, authorized collector under the United Miss Workers, is here and will have committees at the different shafts at the beginning of the month.

BILL POSTER REESE ARRESTED.

He is Fined for Tackling Advertising Posters to Telegraph Poles.

As announced in THE TRIBUNE recently Bill Poster Reese is in trouble with the police department on account of his having tacked advertising banners to the telegraph poles against the express order of the chief of fire in violation of the city ordinance.

Yesterday Reese was arrested and fined $3 by Alderman Fuller. He claimed that inasmuch as out of town advertising agents were permitted to use the telegraph poles for advertising purposes that he is being unfairly dealt with.

A CRUEL SEPARATION.

Police Officers Catch Between a Gang of Thirteen Travelers and a Car of Beer.

For some past thieves have been tapping the freight cars standing in the Jersey Central yard and yesterday the watchman detected a gang of them armed with tomato cans in possession of a car loaded with beer and ale which was being returned to out of town brewers. The gang of thirteen was notified and a gang of officers soon had eight of the gang in custody.

They were given a hearing by Alderman Fitzsimmons yesterday afternoon. Six of them proved themselves to be building builders and convinced the alderman that they had arrived in town only a short time before they were captured. When they landed in the yard from a freight train they were invited to have a drink by the other two prisoners and as it was only natural for a tramp bridge builder to accept a

AGAINST SUNDAY FUNERALS.

Congregations of Providence Churches Take Decided Action in Matter.

The Welsh Baptist, Puritan, Congregational, Welsh Congregational and Welsh Calvinistic Methodist churches each recently appointed two lay members to consider special features in the Sunday observance movement.

An united meeting was held when it was decided that each church be requested to make a rule not to recognize Sunday funerals unless they were regarded as absolutely necessary. Each of the four churches decided to adopt the recommendation so that the rule is now strictly enforced.

It might, however, be observed that the movement was entirely taken up and supported by the lay members of the various churches and was not the outcome of the personal feelings of the various pastors. The practice of holding funerals on Sundays being objected to mainly on the ground that it disarranges the work of Sunday schools and inconveniences church work generally.

SUDDEN DEATH OF J. L. THOMAS.

He Had Been Ill for Only Thirteen Hours.

The many friends of J. L. Thomas, late of 1461 Albright avenue, were shocked to hear of his death which took place yesterday morning. Mr. Thomas, who was a butcher, carried on his business on Saturday and although complaining for a few days did not complain of any serious illness until Sunday afternoon.

He was in great pain until yesterday morning when he died at 1 o'clock after an illness of about thirteen hours duration. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 2 p. m. from the residence, interment at Washburn Street cemetery.

Mr. Thomas was well known at Taylor, where he resided for many years. He has been in Providence for about three years, and leaves a widow and an adopted son.

Mr. Thomas was a native of Wales, but adopted America as his home many years ago.

OPEN AIR RELIGIOUS SERVICE.

It Was Held at the Square by Rev. D. M. Kinter.

A large number of members from the Christian church headed by their pastor, Rev. D. M. Kinter, held the first of a series of open air services on the square last evening. A large audience listened attentively to Mr. Kinter's remarks which were admirably suitable for the occasion. They were practical and to the point.

He alluded to the questions of capital and labor, government and political parties and demonstrated how the worker here could help to improve in all directions if they were but influenced by Christian motives.

The Rev. George Guid left yesterday for his vacation which he will spend principally with his parents in New York state.

Mrs. Simms of Green street, will spend a short vacation at Pittston with Mr. Vaughan who has been visiting her old friends in this section.

Charles Martin the well known host of the Bull's Head hotel is improving slowly after his fall from the cat in York on Washington Camp, No. 480, Patriotic Order Sons of America, held a business meeting last night at Frohman's hall.

Mrs. S. S. Sprink returned at 6 o'clock yesterday evening from Atlantic City, where she had been staying for three weeks.

An ice cream social will be held this evening for young ladies only, at the South Side Young Women's Christian association rooms.

The Sunday School class of the Evangelical Lutheran church of Cedar avenue, of which Rev. F. Holter is pastor, will hold a summer festival at Laurel Hill park today.

Rev. August Klein, of this side, will leave in September for Atlanta, N. Y., to which place he has been extended an invitation to become pastor of a German Baptist church.

Adam Wickel, of 484 Maple street, received a severe eye injury Sunday which is very painful but not liable to result seriously. He is employed at the Electric Light works.

The Mozart Quartette club held a rehearsal last night, all members being present. The club is fast approaching a stage of excellence that will soon place them foremost among organizations of its kind.

Mary, the 6-year-old daughter of John Roache, of 722 River street, fell down a flight of stairs at home yesterday and was seriously injured. Her body was seriously bruised internally and her face gashed. Dr. A. J. Kolb attended her and reports her injuries not fatal.

ROCKAFELLOW MAY CONFESS.

It Is Intimated That He Is Preparing a Formal Statement.

Explaining his promise to disclose just where the money went which he was convicted of embezzling, ex-Banker Rockafellow, of Wilkes-Barre, said, just before he was imprisoned in Philadelphia the other day:

"I realize I have made a mistake in keeping the disclosure back so long, but I allowed myself to be guided by the promise of three men, whose names I cannot divulge, who know quite as much about the affair as I do. They had promised to come to my cell to see me before I was sent to the penitentiary and were to draw up the statement together, but I shall act independently and shall not spare them."

BIRTHDAY OF A NEW SOUL.

Another of the Rescue Mission's Unique Anniversaries.

The first anniversary of the religious conversion of Charles Dunn, a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western brakeman, will be celebrated this evening at the Rescue mission. The exercises will include a testimonial address by Mr. Dunn and a praise service, followed by a serving of light refreshments. The event is the continuance
