

Have You Seen the

BROOKLYN BRIDGE

YET?

It is well worth seeing, bringing to mind some of the artistic features of the World's Fair. The bridge is made of Castile Soap. It is a pure White Castile, and is a floating Soap; made only from pure vegetable oils. We are selling it at the unheard of price,

2 Cakes for 5c.

We are enabled to put the Soap on sale at this low price by special arrangement with the manufacturer, who is anxious to introduce it to the trade in Scranton!

It is already having a big sale, and we may have to pull the bridge down in a few days in order to supply the demands; therefore, if you wish to have a look at it make your visit as early as possible. Bring the children with you; such a sight is always welcome to the little ones.

Archbald.

Misses Bridget Lally, of Philadelphia, a former Archbald lady, and her cousin, Janet, also of Philadelphia, are visiting relatives here. The school board held an important meeting on Monday evening. President Lally presided, and all the other members were present. The regular order of business was suspended to allow Mr. Brown, representing a map firm, an opportunity to explain the merits of his goods. The board decided to purchase a set of maps for the central building, and parts of sets for the buildings in the First and Third wards. The teachers who taught last year were re-employed for the coming year, and Professor J. H. White was re-engaged for another term of three years. It was decided to reopen the schools on Aug. 27. The fixing of the teachers' salaries and the placing of them will be considered at the next meeting.

The new Traction company has not as yet made an effort to string the wire at the lower end of its line nearer to the Scranton line and passengers are still obliged to walk about 200 yards in order to travel on either line. The present arrangement is causing considerable annoyance and it is hoped the condition complained of will soon be remedied. The East Side band will hold a grand excursion to Fairview Aug. 29. The special train on the day of the great regatta of the Press club will leave Carbondale at 7:31 and will leave here at 7:45. All who desire to purchase tickets will find them on sale at Jones, Simpson & Co's. store, and Monday's drug and general store. They will also be on sale at stations along the line.

There will be a 100-yard foot race at Greenwood on the 20th of this month between Joe McDonough, of Greenwood, and young Mike Maugan, of Gilmore avenue, for $25 a side. John Nalin, tonsorial artist, of Main street, was arraigned before Squire O'Hara last evening at the instance of the Taylor Building and Loan association. The case appears Nalin had some dealings with the association for which they seized on his Davis street property, which is now in the sheriff's hands, to be sold on the 11th of this month. Threats were made to burn down the property and when the association got an inkling of the matter they sent a watchman to take care of it. Mr. Nalin visited the place on Sunday night and threatened to do up the watchman. A warrant was issued for his arrest. The squire held him in $500 bail for his appearance in court. Miss Kate Jeffries, of Davis street, is visiting friends at Miner's Mills. A lamp exploded at the temperance hall last night and a big fire was barely averted by the timely assistance of Janitor Jim Wallace, who succeeded in extinguishing the flames before any damage was done. Young Eddie Fashold, of Greenwood, died last night from the effects of cramps after about 2 hours' illness. Funeral announcement later. ADOLF LALLOZ, carriage manufacturer, 119 Carroll street, Buffalo, N. Y., states: I was troubled with nausea of the stomach, sick headache and general debility. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me.

once feel welcome. He does not do so in a position for political effect; he just goes to people who in practice, and as his wildest competitor, J. Bennett Smith, would say, "lets it go at that." He is liberal in views and in purse, but not profligate or extravagant; and the best friends he has are the neighbors, rich and poor, that know him best. He has always a kindly word for them, and they stand ready to swear by him. The news of the nomination of Mr. Leisenring, while not unexpected here, has been received with great satisfaction. He has already the reputation of being a most capable and energetic man, and his return to his pleasant home at Upper Lehigh.

THE STIRRING RESOLUTIONS.

Luzerne Republicans Strongly Advocate the Independent Democracy. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

WILKES-BARRE, Aug. 7.—Following are the resolutions unanimously adopted: The Republicans of Luzerne county, in convention assembled, renew their fealty to Republican principles as set forth in the state platform of the party. They declare themselves in favor of a policy of protection to American industry, and deplore the crime of national bankruptcy. They take possession of a Democratic platform and declare their purpose to break down the bulwark of national prosperity. They declare their stability in political purpose and for honest administration of government in the nation, state and municipality. They denounce the Democratic party above patriotism and uses office for personal ends; which banks on its federal control through the solid vote of a section and holds together by means of a common treason to the republic with all which that implies in taxation, expenditure and administration; which leads to every suffering of the citizen and to the ruin of the state as to an overwhelming November victory for himself and confederates on the ticket, our Honored Governor, the gallant Daniel H. Hastings, and we pledge him the enthusiastic support of the followers of the immortal "Plumed Knight," whose devoted friend he was and whose mantle has fallen on such worthy shoulders to be worn by a triumphant march through the state to an overwhelming November victory for himself and confederates on the ticket, our Honored Governor, the gallant Daniel H.
