Scranton's Business Interests.

This Tribune will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographic views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot be overpriced, results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose names are desired in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please have notices at the office.

PRESS CLUB REGATTA NOTES.

In order that the people on shore and in the grove may know when a race is started, a signal gun will be fired from the judges' barge. This will give every one warning that the race is on, and all can be on hand for the grand finishes.

There will be a large number of white satin badges to present to the ladies who accompany the Press club excursion to Lake Ariel next Tuesday for the regatta. The number is limited to several hundred, and they will be pretty souvenirs of the day.

The double-culls and the four-cored shells are showing up big in the entries for the regatta. Races in all the several classes will be among the greatest of the day, and as it is necessary to start some of these at 11 o'clock, it is essential that people get over to the lake early.

The members of the Scranton Press club will hold a social session at their rooms on Monday evening and entertain the friends who accompany the visiting oarsmen. They especially invite all their friends and honorary members to be present, if only for a few minutes call. Those who have been there before will not miss this reception.

William Goodkind, of the Lone Star Boat club, of New York city, will arrive in this city today and go immediately to Lake Ariel, and spend the time intervening between now and Tuesday practicing for the races of the Press club regatta. Mr. Goodkind is very prominent among New York scullers, having been successful in many of the regattas held in that part of the country.

Among the regatta entries that received yesterday were those of a senior four from the Delaware Boat club, of Chicago, and a senior single from the Western Rowing club of St. Louis. The oarsmen are at the National regatta at Saratoga today and come here on Monday over the Delaware and Hudson railroad, and will be transferred via Johnson's switch to the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad and thence to the lake.

The following honorary members of the Scranton Press club have been delegated to a special honorary reception committee for the day of the regatta. Lake Ariel, next Tuesday: Hon. R. W. Archbald, Hon. P. W. Gunster, Hon. H. M. Edwards, Hon. W. L. Connel, mayor; Hon. J. A. Scranton, Hon. J. H. Feltus, ex-mayor; Hon. John P. Kelly, Charles Robinson, Clarence E. Pryor, James G. Bailey, D. W. Powell, H. J. Fahey, George L. Horn, Henry J. Koehler and Bernard Loggans.

TRIBES OF RED MEN. Witness an Adoption and Hunter's Degree Work.

A large number of Red Men followed the trails from the South Side, Providence and Hill streets last night to the camp of the Peconic and Le-Ha-Hanna tribes at 419 Lackawanna avenue, where an adoption was made by teams from the two tribes.

After the adoption the hunter's degree was conferred upon three members and the pow-wow lasted until a late hour.

WEST SIDE. Miss Elizabeth Joseph Married to William P. South.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Joseph, of Avenue D. The contracting parties were their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Jane Joseph, to William P. South, of Olyphant.

The ceremony was performed in the parlor, by Rev. W. D. Thomas, of Pittston, in the presence of a large number of friends. The bride's maid was Miss Elizabeth Joseph and the groom's man Joseph Honer.

The bride was attired in a costume of dotted cream and carried white roses. The bride's maid wore a handsome dress. After the ceremony the guests sat down to an excellent wedding repast and a sociable evening was spent. The Cambro-American Glee party sang several selections. The newly married couple will reside at Breaker street in Olyphant. Among those present were Olyphant were T. F. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. A. Staniel, George Hoyle and James Williams.

AN EVENING PARTY. Mr and Mrs. Ludwig Entertain Distinguished Visitors.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lot Ludwig, of North Hyde Park avenue, last evening a social was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Danister, of Philadelphia, and Miss Maa, of Montrose.

A large number were present and an enjoyable time had in dancing, games and other social diversions. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

LITTLE WEST SIDE NEWS NOTES. John Thomas, of Lafayette street, is recovering from an illness.

Mrs. Morgan Thomas and Mrs. W. C. Jones have returned from Lansford.

Mrs. M. Muir of Montrose, is visiting her parents on North B-beeva avenue.

George Kerl, the Conway House bartender, was held in the sum of $1000 bail by Alderman Fuller for assaulting Dr. William Haggerty. J. D. Clark brought the case against Kerl, St. John, John Niland, William Patchen, Simon Coffey and P. P. Jordan were also charged with assault but were discharged. The defendants were represented by Attorney John B. Collins, and Dr. Haggerty by Attorney E. C. Newcomb.

The plaintiff and M. J. Keeley agreed in their testimony that on the night of the fracas Kerl followed Dr. Haggerty from the Pacific hotel and precipitated the trouble by hurling a barrel at the plaintiff and afterward jumping upon him, kicking him in the face and body as he lay in the street.

John O'Boyle, of Lackawanna avenue, testified that he saw St. John, Coffey and Niland walking down the street, the former reciting some trouble he had with Dr. Haggerty at the race track. To Coffey and Niland, St. John said: "Boys, let's go down and take a drink and see the fun; if George 'does' the doctor I'll go his bail."

At this point in the proceedings Patchen, Coffey, Niland and St. John were discharged on motion of their attorney. E. J. Jordan was given a further hearing because in the evidence of Keeley, Jordan appeared as having participated in the fight. The evidence of St. John, Frank Gadswoods and Jordan convinced the alderman that the latter figured only in the capacity of a peacemaker and he was discharged.

THIRD ANNUAL TOURNAMENT. Will Be Held by the Scranton Lawn Club at Platt Place.

The third annual tennis tournament of the Scranton Lawn club will be held Friday and Saturday, Sept. 7 and 8 on the Platt Place grounds. The events will include singles and doubles for men only, and will be open to all comers.

Handsome prizes will be awarded winners of each event, for which the entrance fee is $1 for singles and $1.50 for doubles. Play will be called at 10 o'clock a. m., Sept. 7. Entries will be received until 6 p. m. Sept. 6 by Alfred G. Hunt, treasurer, or H. S. Kirkpatrick, secretary.

Announcement of the tourney has been made to various clubs and players in all the nearby localities, and it is probable that the tournament will include a larger number of players than did the contests of the two preceding years.

The date seems to have been better chosen than that of the Carbondale club tourney at Parvieu, Aug. 16, which may be too early to attract the hundreds who are at the summer resorts. The Scranton club will probably signal the return of the social season and will be the forerunner of a succession of informal gatherings until the men and young ladies leave for college and school.

SCRANTON DELEGATES HOME. Report National Temperance Convention at Chicago Very Successful.

C. G. Boland and James F. Judge, of this city, delegates who attended the annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America at St. Paul, Minn., returned yesterday.

They report that the convention was a most earnest and profitable one and that by the hands of the Father M. Thew workers throughout the country will be greatly strengthened.

Rev. P. J. McManus, of this city, was nominated for second vice president by M. Burke, of Carbondale. His name evoked much enthusiasm and he was unanimously elected.

The next convention of the union, one year hence, will be held in New York city.

INSTRUCTED FOR WARREN. Delegates of the Thirteenth Ward Club Elected Last Night.

At a meeting of the Thirteenth Ward Republican club last evening in the office of Alderman Bailey three delegates and as many alternates were elected to represent the club at the convention of Republican clubs at Harrisburg Sept. 5. E. H. Sautell, C. S. Fowler, jr., and M. W. Finn were elected delegates, and C. B. Gardner, A. C. Bailey and C. S. Jacobs alternates.

The delegation will support Major Everett Warren for president of the State League of R-publican clubs and will leave Scranton the day preceding the convention.

ACTIONS TO RECOVER DAMAGES. Brought by Blewitts Against Central Railroad of New Jersey.

On Oct. 10 last, Miss Frances L. Blewitt, daughter of Miss Inspector Central Blewitt, was injured by jumping from a passenger train on the Central Railroad of New Jersey. Two trains collided at the Fifth avenue station and Miss Blewitt, leaning she would be injured, jumped.

Her leg was fractured and she has been unable to use the member since. Yesterday two suits for damages were brought against the company; one by Miss Blewitt to recover $50,000 damages, and another by her father for $5,000. Attorneys Jessup & Hand represent the plaintiffs in both cases.

SOUTH SIDE JOTTINGS. The funeral of the late Edward Fassold took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended.

Mrs. Bridget Quinn, an old resident of the city, died Wednesday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Tighe, of Pittston avenue. She was 73 years of age.

The picnic of the Scranton club at Central park last night was a delightful affair and was attended by a large number of singing societies of this city and its vicinity.

On Saturday afternoon the funeral of the late Mrs. Kate Hartman will take place. She was a highly respected lady and is survived by a husband and three children. Services will be held at the Rectory street Presbyterian church and interment made in Pittston avenue cemetery.

An interesting social event was the birthday party tendered to Richard Roadmiller at his home Wednesday evening. Among those who attended it were: Misses Kate Trev, Kate Burns, Maggie Kopy, Caroline Kraft, Maggie Luby, Annie Bernwood, Emma and Nannie Barr, Katie Kloss, Mame Edger, Lizzie Ganz, Annie Burick and Jessie. Joseph Folt, Joseph and Jacob Brier, James Johnson, William E. Albert Kraft, Henry Weis, John Kraemer, Henry and John Steinling, George and John Hotter, Frank Kloss, Frank and Joseph Roadmiller.

Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. First grand excursion of Moses Taylor took place last night on the Lackawanna park Aug. 14. Trains leave Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot at 6 a. m., stopping at Taylor, Pittston, Kingston and Plymouth.

GEORGE KERL HELD.

THOSE ELECTRIC SIGNALS.

The Entire Peckville Line May Be Supplied with Them.

The recent test of hand-operated electric signals by the Scranton Traction company on four switches of the Peckville line proved successful.

The signal company submitted a proposition to the Traction company to equip the entire system, but a further test is desired and negotiations are pending to first try the signals on the entire Peckville line.

If the signal company consent to do this and the result is satisfactory the entire system will eventually be supplied with the lights.

Special extension to Atlantic City via Lehigh Valley railroad on Aug. 15. Extremely low rates from all stations. Tickets good for ten days. Apply to agents for tickets, time of train, Pullman reservations, etc.

Water Filters. Pure water secures good health. T. E. Leonard, at 505 Lackawanna avenue, has for sale four styles of stone water filters that are sold at prices within reach of all, and are as easily cleaned and taken care of as a water pail, and will last for years.

The filter is all stone, nothing to rust, corrode or become foul and will filter from four to twelve gallons per day. Drop in and see them.
