STEALING A RAILROAD.

An Italian Emulate Our Great Railroad Magnates.

Tony Mickuech is an Italian. Like many others of his race he came to this country with the sole purpose of gaining wealth. Tony had evidently heard of the success of Gould, the Vanderbilts, et al, and concluded to emulate them.

On Saturday night he, with a number of friends, entered the Providence Coal company's breaker and proceeded to tear up the railroad. They were making away with a rail when the watchman surprised them and captured Tony. Yesterday morning he was given a hearing and in default of $15 fine was sent to the county jail for thirty days.

Scranton's Business Interests.

The TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographic views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose names are desired in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please have notice at the office.

NEW ACADEMY OF MUSIC

It Will Be Reopened for the Coming Season on Monday Evening Next.

IT IS A PRETTY PLAYHOUSE

During the Summer Many Changes Have Been Made in the Interior, Which Makes It a More Attractive Theater Than Ever—Some of the Attractions That Have Been Booked for the Coming Season.

On Monday evening, Aug. 27, the Academy of Music will be re-opened for the season of '94-95 by George Thatcher and his minstrel and farce comedy company in a new play by H. W. Emmett, entitled "About Gotham."

The patrons of the house will find a great change in the interior when the doors are again thrown open to the public. Three years ago the Academy was refitted and modernized by Burgunder and Mishler, the managers, at a cost of $9,000, and this season it has again passed through the hands of artists and will emerge a very pretty and well appointed play house.

Stereo-relief has been employed in the auditorium and lobby with fine effect, and the coloring throughout is tasteful and harmonious. New carpet of pretty design covers the floor of the auditorium and the space between seats has been increased. Pictures have been placed under each row of seats which will make it easier for the spectators to see the stage and reduce the annoyance caused by the big hat nuisance to a minimum. A new proscenium arch is being constructed, and other changes are made that will almost entirely change the interior aspect of the theater.

In the dressing rooms and on the stage many changes have also been made. The former have been repapered, painted and carpeted and much new scenery has been added to the stage. Those who visit the Academy next Monday night will find a very pretty and very convenient play house.

ATTRACTIONS FOR THE SEASON.

Managers Burgunder & Mishler have not contented themselves with simply making their theater beautiful and attractive to the eye, but have arranged to give the theater goers of this city an opportunity of seeing some of the best attractions on the road. As announced above, George Thatcher will open the house with "About Gotham," which depicts scenes and incidents in New York, and a passing show of the many characters met with there in everyday life. In the company are Carroll Johnson, Dave Foy, Marks and Griffin, John Daly, E. C. Johnson, El Merble, Alice Beauvert, Esther Moore, Helen and Henrietta Byron, Anna Caldwell, Cecile Lorain, Florence McKinley, Francis and Birdie Smythe, Ella Hildreth, Theodor A. Meier and Messrs. Oakland, Thompson, Binkley and Bode. They should give a splendid evening's entertainment.

On the following evening "The Fencing Master," one of the most successful comic operas of recent years, will be given. In the title role of it, Harry B. Hampstead made one of her most decided hits. Reginald De Koven wrote the music and Harry B. Smith the libretto. The cast includes, as principals, Dorothy Morton, Bertha Dalis, Jennie Dickerson, Marion Bender, Marion Langdon, Clement St. Martin, A. M. Holbrook, H. B. Broekert, Walter West, Arthur Liebler, Edward Leland and Walz Vetta. The costumes are new and beautiful and the scenery is picturesque.

Wednesday, Aug. 29, will be given the very successful American drama, "The Girl I Left Behind Me," that filled the Empire theater, New York, with delighted audiences for an entire season. The scene of the play is laid on the frontier in the time of a certain Indian uprising. The characters are typical army officers, their female relatives or sweethearts, Indians, scouts and soldiers.

SHOWS FOR THE SEASON.

The bookings for the season comprise 138 nights. Among the new plays, features and ideas, James B. Mackie will have a new farce called "The Side Show." Barney Ferguson will have a new vehicle to display his humor, "Duffy's" "The Trolley System" is the title of a farce comedy that it is expected will become popular; the beautiful English drama, "The Amazons" deserves a crowded house; "In the Name of the Czar" will be an exciting and interesting production; "Princess Bonnie" will be presented by a company of eighty people. Edward Harrigan, great New York favorite in Irish characters and in very successful plays of his own writing, will appear here for the first time. James A. Herne's beautiful play of "New England Life" "Shore Acres," will receive a realistic presentation. The opera of "The Kaiterockers" will be given in elaborate form. Frohman's "Sowing the Wind," that captured New York theater patrons last season, will delight a large assemblage.

SEASIDE AND OTHERS.

Chic Besse's Bonnell with a coterie of merry makers will appear in a new comedy, "Charles Seabrook" with his mammoth company will give us "Espresso." Charles Dickson will appear "Innocent" for the first time here. Ward and Vokes, for years leading comedians in comic operas and farces, are the owners and will appear in the farcical comedy, "Percy and Harold." A rich treat to the intellectual will be Richard Mansfield as "Beau Brummel."

To the musically inclined Sousa's band will be welcome. William, the quaint little comedian, will give his new comedy "A Back Number." The farcical comedy, "Joe Oit," the only one, will present his farce, "The Star Gazer." The strongest man in the world, Sandow, and a company of great specialty performers will be an attractive entertainment.

"Rush City," "On the Bowery," "McFadden the Bold" and "Down in Dixie" all new plays with good companies, under the management of Davis & Keogh. The melodrama "Old Glory" and "The New South" will be presented by W. A. Brady's companies. This list assures an unusual number of new entertainments between the fall and spring. Of course to this is to be added fifty or more that appear each season and who are always welcome and enjoyable.

DIED BY HIS OWN HAND.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury in the Pilger Case.

The jury impaneled by Coroner Kelley to investigate the death of Karl Pilger at Dunmore, Friday night returned a verdict Saturday that the deceased died from a self-inflicted bullet wound.

An air of mystery had surrounded the case from the fact that there was no apparent motive for suicide. The wife and child, who were in the house when the deed was committed and the jury's verdict was based upon their evidence.

NORTH END.

Burglar Caught While Rejoicing an Open Air Nap.

A man giving the name of James Murphy endeavored to enter the house George Barnes, Dean street, through a window about midnight Saturday and in his effort awoke the household. Mr. Dean and others gave chase and the would be burglar threatened to shoot the lot of holes if they followed him. Yesterday morning he was captured while enjoying a sweet repose in the grove near the Providence Delaware and Hudson depot. Upon him were found a screwdriver and a chisel. Murphy denies any knowledge of being near Dean street on Saturday night. He is thought to be the man who was brought before the mayor a week ago upon the charge of being found sleeping in a house near Sandy Banks.

NOTES OF NORTH END.

Misses Bertha and Alice Simms, of Oak street, are spending a two weeks' vacation at New York.

We are clearing out the whole of our stock of fine engravings. Chicago Art Co., 127 Penn avenue.

The alarm from box 85 yesterday afternoon was caused by a slight fire at the house of John Murphy, Clover Hill. The Liberty, Cumberland and Excelsior companies responded, but the fire was extinguished before their arrival.

AT TURNER HALL.

A Varied Programme of Athletics Was Carried Out Yesterday.

Today's Exercises.

Turner hall was yesterday the arena of a scientific and competitive athletic contest among the visiting Turner Veterans of the Philadelphia district. In all there were nearly 200 athletes stired in the loose fitting gray uniforms of the Turners. It was the first day of the Ezriks-Turnfest and it was devoted solely to competition for prizes.

In the morning between the hours of 8 and 12 the societies repaired to Central park and carried out a preliminary contest in competing for the right to enter the classes in the events which were held in the afternoon and evening at Turner hall and which will be continued today at the South Side Base Ball park.

The afternoon was taken up with the prize contests in horizontal and double bar exercises, course exercises, and small weight fencing. Upwards of 150 Turners took part.

The evening programme was opened with a greeting chorus by the Scranton Saengerbund. John Lentes delivered the first speech in the German tongue, and was loudly applauded. His speech contained a statement that the primary object of the Turners is to give the young Germans along a physical standpoint and prepare them to fight in defense of the adopted country on the side of liberty. The motto of the Turners is, "Friseh, froh, fromm, and froelich," meaning that the aim is healthiness, bodily strength and love of patriotism. The Scranton Turn Verein was organized in 1867 and compares favorably with any society in the city.

After the speech of Mr. Lentes a contest of broad sword fencing was taken part in by Charles Tilton, of Camden; Joseph Lowmy, of Trenton; Fred J. Moerrens, Herman Arnold, Richard Umfried and William G. Freidgen, of the Philadelphia Turn Gemaende; club swinging by George Mays, of the Philadelphia Turn Gemaende, and Herman Ullrich, of Southwick.

This morning at 9 o'clock the swimming contest at Mountain lake will take place. At 9 o'clock there will be a parade by the visiting societies and many German local societies from Turner hall to Central park where the picnic will be held. The announcement of prize winners will be made tonight at 9 o'clock. Tomorrow the Turners will run an excursion to Farview.

SOUTH SIDE.

The Neptune Steamer Will Be Tried Tomorrow Afternoon.

City Engineer Ferber has made arrangements with the agents of the Neptune Steamship Co. to test the engine tomorrow afternoon. Chief Ferber has not yet decided just where the trial will be made.

MISS MINNIE DEUBLER VISITED.

Many of Her Young Friends Visited Her Saturday Night.

A surprise was tendered Miss Minnie Deubler at her home on Cedar avenue on Saturday evening. Miss Minnie was very much surprised, but her mother was well prepared for the visitors, and the way the young folks were entertained was very creditable. About 11 o'clock an elegant supper was served. Those in attendance were Misses Louisa, Christina, and Anna Saul, Jessie Hagan, Nellie, Lena and Katie Hillig, Kate Kirt, Louisa and Carrie Blunt, Minnie Faust, Maggie Friele, Annie Hartman, Minnie Hans, Maggie A. Friele, Lis Bentcher, Anna Osterhagen, Anna James, Anna Dippre, Lizzie Deubler, Masters Henry Lower, Aug. J. Fruhan, J. G. Fruchan, William Heister, Jr., George Maus, Joe Wagner, Chas. Henry Danemark, of Crown avenue, arrived home from a one-months' tour through Germany.

Miss Mame Ryan, of Stone avenue, returned Saturday from New York, where she spent her summer vacation.

The Young Men's Institute of this side, will elect delegates next Sunday to the convention of the Atlantic Jurisdiction at Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Edward Kelly, of Pittston avenue, died Saturday afternoon at 2:30 from an illness which attacked her a week before. She leaves a large family of young children. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning with a high mass of requiem at St. John's church at 9 o'clock. Interment in Hyde Park cemetery.

Water Filtration.

Pure water secures good health. T. F. Leonard, at 505 Lackawanna avenue, has for sale four styles of stone water filters that are sold at a low price, and are as easily cleaned and taken care of as a water pail, and will last for years. The filter is all stone, nothing to rust, corrode or become foul and will filter from four to twelve gallons per day. Drop in and see them.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Secred Concert at the Plymouth Congregational Church.

HANDSOME HYDE PARK ORDERLIES

Five Out of the Eight Good-Looking Soldiers Chosen to Do Duty at Headquarters Were Members of Company F—Notes from the Churches and News for the Musicians.

The auditorium of the Plymouth Congregational church was thronged last evening at the Sacred music concert given by the choir. The pulpit was tastefully decorated with potted plants and flowers. The programme opened with singing of hymn 6, after which Psalm xcv was well read by D. E. Hughes.

The singing was followed by a prayer offered by Richard Owen. An anthem, "Make a Joyful Noise," was rendered in a beautiful manner by the choir, under the leadership of Elias E. Evans. P. H. Warren rendered an excellent solo, entitled "Submission." The congregation rendered hymn 113 and the choir sang "Depth of Mercy." Miss Bronwyn Joseph, the sweet soprano, gave one of her delightful solos entitled "What a Friend" It was sung sweetly and with great effect. After an anthem by the choir E. Evans rendered a tenor solo entitled "The Holy City." P. H. Warren again sang, and the hymn "All Is Well" was sung by the congregation. The most interesting feature was the selection "Sweet Sabbath Eve" by a quartette consisting of Misses Bronwyn and Agnes Joseph, Elias E. Evans and P. H. Warren. The hymn "Benediction" was then sung by the choir.

MRS. PHILLIPS BURIED.

Impressive Funeral Services Held at the Family Residence.

The many friends of the late Mrs. Mary Phillips, wife of Thomas Phillips, who died at her home on Tuesday evening last, assembled at the family home on North Bromley avenue Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to assist in the last sad rites over the remains.

Rev. R. Sirovay Jones, of the Providence Congregational church, and Rev. R. G. Jones, of the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church, officiated. The floral offerings were numerous. Interment was made in the Washburn Street cemetery. The pall bearers were Frank Francis, Harry P. Williams, John M. Thomas, Ebenzer Williams, John X. Davies and Owen E. Davies.

ENLARGED THEIR STORE.

Improvements Have Been Made to Meet an Increased Trade.

Lewis, Reilly & Davis, the Wyoming avenue shoe dealers, have owing to their large and increasing trade, been compelled to enlarge their store and have built an extension to their building about seventy-five feet.

Their present quarters enable them to carry an immense stock of shoes, and it would be impossible for you to call for something that they could not give you. They have a large force of obliging clerks that will give everyone prompt attention. Another new feature in their store is a new cash system which assures customers prompt service.

ROYAL SHAKESPEARE NIGHT

Is Promised in the Presentation of Richard III. on Wednesday.

The engagement of Miss Alice Friele, brother to sustain the part of Queen Elizabeth in the forthcoming presentation of Richard III. at the Frothington hall on Wednesday evening, gives promise of a brilliant interpretation of the exacting role. Miss Friele is a superb Shakespearean actress, having in her day given support to Barrett, Ward, Rose, Conplan and other eminent players.

The play will be magnificently equipped, thus lending to the movement that spectacular attraction which is always pleasing. In short, the scenic accessories throughout will be unsurpassed in their beauty and historical accuracy. The house should and doubt will be thronged on this royal Shakespearean night.
