CITY NOTES.

Mr. Fred Stevens is visiting friends at Great Bend.

"War and Peace" at the Frothingham this afternoon and evening.

The excursion of Conrad's Band to Farview yesterday was well patronized.

The Scranton Rowing association yesterday closed its club house at Lake Ariel for the season.

A force of workmen is employed by the Traction Company releasing the bumps from the joints of its Capone avenue track.

Joseph Hall, of the book and ladders, will be acting chief of the Scranton Fire Department today in the absence of Chief Ferber at Binghamton.

J. W. Clark of this city, has been engaged as commercial agent in this city of the wholesale liquor firm of Rothschild Brothers, of Philadelphia.

Bauer's band will hold their annual picnic and clam bake at Wahler's grove this afternoon and evening. Music for dancing will be furnished by a full orchestra.

A merry party of children, members of the Penn Avenue Baptist Sunday school, accompanied by their teachers, held a picnic at Laurel Hill Park yesterday afternoon.

Silas Leach, formerly deputy county treasurer, who has been calling upon old friends in this vicinity for several days past, has returned to his home in New Jersey.

This afternoon a game of hand ball will be played in the alley in the rear of Ryan's hotel on Penn avenue, between the Mehan brothers, of this city, and the Donohue brothers, of Wilkes-Barre.

The Catholic female chorus that is to compete at the Laurel Hill park estabedford will meet for rehearsal at L. B. Powell's music store tonight at 8 o'clock sharp. A full attendance is requested.

Two new special officers were appointed by the mayor yesterday. They were Jacob Millock, of 429 South Main avenue, who will act as pound master, and Henry Thomas, who will watch the Moody tent.

There were twenty-eight deaths reported last week and five cases of contagious diseases reported last week. Two of these cases were diphtheria, two scarlet fever, and one typhoid fever. The last was fatal.

The hunters, scouts, warriors and chiefs will trail to the wigwam of Pocomo and Le Ha Hannas this evening to witness the haymakers degree conferred on a large number of brothers. All Red Men are welcome. Hall, 419 Lackawanna avenue.

Those hot days the favorite bathing pool of the small boys seems to be the Lackawanna river in the rear of the Providence Road Power Station of the Traction Company. They splash about in the sewerage and then mount the bank and disport themselves on the field which lies between the river and the railroad until they dry by natural process. From ten to fifteen of these living pictures can be seen on the field any afternoon apparently unconscious that they are without the protection of even the traditional big leaf.

PARTY'S MILWAUKEE BEER, good and sparkling, at Lohman's, Spruce street.

SET IN MOTION AGAIN

Legal Machinery of the West Side Viaduct Oiled by the Hustlers.

ONE COMMITTEE THAT COMMITS

Meeting Held Yesterday in Mayor Connell's Office Which Straightens Out the Legal Snare in the Viaduct Ordinance and Sets It on Its Road to Final Passage—Prospects for Its Consummation.

Each member of the West Side viaduct boom committee is entitled to the name "hustler" when writing his name for by their work during the past two days they have proved beyond a doubt their right and title to that distinction.

Two days ago the ordinance providing for a viaduct over the D. L. & W. tracks on West Lackawanna avenue was duly passed by the city council. The city clerk's office calmly awaiting the fate of its predecessor which died with the expiration of the old council. It had a legal defect and it seemed no one cared enough about the proposed improvement to seek a means of overcoming this obstacle. One effort was made to set the ordinance in motion again, but it was such a feeble heated move that it did not even cause the ordinance to leave the room in which its berth was.

A CARPET FACTORY.

An Entertaining Individual Wants to Locate One in This City—Reasons He Advances.

The conference between the manufacturers' committee of the board of trade and a gentleman connected with one of the biggest carpet manufacturing concerns in the country who desires to form a stock company and locate a plant in this city, was held yesterday afternoon at the board of trade rooms.

For the present the gentleman does not care to have his name mentioned in the press. The committee considered his reasons with respect to the carpet, but the plan which he proposes to build in this city would be erected for the manufacture solely of tapestry carpet.

A competition would ensue between the company which he is at present employed by and the prospective factory and it would cause, perhaps, some unpleasantness. So far there has been nothing tangible done and until he is assured that Scranton capital will take an interest in the scheme, he wants to remain in the back ground.

The meeting yesterday was the first step. The gentlemen outlined his scheme to the committee in this manner: It will require a capital stock of $150,000 to start the factory in proper shape. Of this amount, as a test, and of his good faith, he is ready to subscribe one-third of the stock himself, the remainder to be raised in this city.

He argued the advisability of taking up his proposition and laid before the committee facts and figures which impressed them as to the validity of his statements.

A number of the wholesale carpet merchants of the city were present and they also believed that it would be a good investment. Such conservative business men as William Connell and Luther Keller became deeply interested in the proposition and believe it will be a good thing.

The gentleman promised that the plant would yield a dividend of 10 per cent. the second year. As a basis to this statement he produced proofs of the costs of manufacturing carpet and the present market value of it.

The committee decided by unanimous vote to make a favorable recommendation at the next meeting of the board of trade.

AT THE THEATERS.

At the Frothingham this afternoon the full line band will give a concert in its matches style and the vocal artists will all appear. The descriptive feature will be the now famous "Trip to the World's Fair," which Mr. Jones has made such a success of in this city. In the evening the "War and Peace" musical spectacle will close the programs amid the marching of Company D of the thirtieth regiment and the war veterans of Griffin post, Grand Army of the Republic, and the booming of the famous artillery accompaniment. It will be a memorable musical day throughout, and a treat is promised to all who are partial to the finest vocal music, which will be rendered by Miss Martha Garrison Miner, a charming new soprano, whose fresh and fine voice, so highly cultivated, so flexible and brilliant, will create a sensation; Miss Louise Engel, the rich voiced contralto of Patti concert fame; C. C. Ferguson, the favorite New York tenor, with a high, clear and ringing voice, and Bowman Halston, one of the grandest basses ever heard in America, who has a purely basso voice, and who comes from several seasons of success as the principal of the famous Carl Rosa Opera company.

MISSION HAS GROWN.

Penn Avenue Church's Offshoot Will Be Made a Parish.

The regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting business session following was held at the Penn Avenue Baptist church last night. Luther Keller was presiding officer. After interesting prayer service was concluded Mr. Keller announced that the secretary's report of the church would be read and then he had a communication to lay before the members. It came from fifty-five communicants who belong to the Dunmore mission and are a component part of the Penn Avenue church.

It was a petition requesting the church to allow the members of the Dunmore mission the privilege of erecting themselves into a parish. It was unanimously agreed to grant the wishes of the Dunmore brethren.

This will make the fourth mission established by the Penn Avenue church that has been established into a parish. Steps will be taken in about a week to organize. Mr. Keller, in stating that the necessary papers would be signed, expressed kind words to the Dunmore members and bade them earnest wishes of success and prosperity.

WOOD'S COLLEGE

Of Business and Shorthand.

Now open in all the departments with a large attendance.

Every session well represented—217 came the first two days. The school will be open every other good day. Many prefer to wait until September to begin. All the train students will come after the first of the month.

People interested in a business or shorthand education are invited to call.

F. E. WOOD, President,
Corner Penn and Lackawanna avenues.

Resolutions Made Operative.

The mayor yesterday approved the following resolutions: Providing for securing the approaches at Platte Place to the Roaring brook bridge; providing for the removal of the railroad tracks on Cedar avenue near Birch street; permitting Daniel Seriaz to connect his property with the Irving avenue sewer; providing for the correction of the Lackawanna, Iron and Coal company's assessment.

The New Foot Ball Rules.

The much discussed foot ball rules, as recommended by the rules committee, and approved by the University Athletic club, and under which intercollegiate games will be played this year, are published in Spalding's Official Foot Ball Guide for 1894, that is out today. It will be sent to any address on receipt of 10 cents by the American Sports Publishing Co., 341 Broadway, New York city.

We are clearing out the whole of our stock of fine etchings. Chicago Art Co., 127 Penn avenue.

The $40,000 School House for Columbia avenue has been let and will be commenced immediately. There are still a few lots left at a low price.

OFFICER MOIR MARRIED.

He Takes Unto Himself a Quaker City Maid.

Police Officer John Moir was last night united in marriage to Miss Mary Bane, of Philadelphia. The ceremony took place at the home of the groom's father, Captain James Moir, and was performed by Rev. Dr. Logan. Robert Moir was best man and Miss Helen Moir bridesmaid.

The groom is one of the best known young men in the city, having been on the police force for a number of years and prominently identified in military circles. His bride is the daughter of one of the most prominent Scotch families of Philadelphia, and is a very beautiful and accomplished young lady.

REPAIRS ARE ALMOST COMPLETE.

The Side Walls and Roof of the Court House Are Made Safe.

The workmen engaged in repairing the roof and side walls of the court house will be through with their work by the end of the week.

Masons started to work yesterday on the plastering of the crevices in the roof with cement to keep out the winter rains and snow.

The repairs so far have made the roof more substantial and strengthened the walls to the satisfaction.

The county commissioners are now satisfied that the court house is safe, and the condition of the structure at no time was as troubling as impressions from certain quarters would have set the people to believe.

The visitor may now walk through the court house with perfect safety and without the precaution of getting a life insurance policy.

MARRIAGES LEGAL.

Common Consent is All That is Necessary—What Chief Simpson Has to Say.

Alderman Wright's contention that it is unlawful for aldermen to act in their official capacity in a ward other than the one in which they were elected has been substantiated by a number of prominent lawyers who were questioned on the subject yesterday.

As regards the marriages which have been solemnized in the court house by outside aldermen, Chief Simpson is of the opinion that they are as binding in the eyes of the law as if they had been performed by the highest church dignitary in the land. Common consent in the presence of witnesses is all that is required in the spirit of the law notwithstanding that certain forms are prescribed in carrying out the ceremony. Consequently those couples who were married in the court house by aldermen other than Mr. Wright will have to stay married until they get a divorce or other acknowledged legal method.

Chief Simpson said that the calling in of outside aldermen to hold police court is in strict accord with the law inasmuch as the alderman is not acting as an alderman but as police magistrate in place of the mayor. Lawyers who were interviewed on the subject differ with the chief in this regard.

AMONG THE POLITICIANS.

The Republican delegate election in the First district of the Eighth ward will be held on Saturday afternoon, between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock, at the office of A. R. Raab.

John F. Farrell is the latest to announce himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for jury commissioner. He is the thirteenth in the field. It's the only office there is a run for.

As the time for the Republican and Democratic county conventions draws close there is a noticeable increase of interest in matters political. Candidates for delegate in the various election districts are at work among their friends, candidates for office are scurrying about and everything indicates that an interesting political struggle is approaching.

On Saturday the Republican primaries will be held between the hours of 4 and 7 p. m. A large vote will be cast throughout the county, as the members of the party are thoroughly aroused and evince a lively interest in the impending campaign that augurs ill for the Democratic party. In many of the districts the contests for delegate promise to be exciting.

Attorney C. R. Pitcher has issued a call for a meeting of the Democratic senatorial committee of this district at the Central Hotel on Saturday afternoon at 7 o'clock to fix a date for a senatorial convention. M. F. Sando and M. E. McDonald have been having a determined fight for the nomination for some time, but an effort is now being made by mutual friends to effect a compromise and it is probable that the name of but one of them will go before the convention.

Although the date for the Democratic primary has been fixed, the members of the party are anxious for votes are not rushing forward to guarantee "expenses," and consequently the pure minded ward statesmen keep their heads down and are tempted to sacrifice himself on the altar of party duty. It is a sure indication of stagnation of interest in party success when candidates for office and for delegates are few in number a week prior to a convention. It indicates more than that, namely, that even rosy-hued hope has failed to point a possible pathway to victory.

AT THE MOUTH OF A GUN

Ten Hungarians Marched from Clark's Summit to Providence.

THEY INVADED STONE'S ORCHARD

The Owner Did Not Like Their Conduct and Made Them Accompany Him to, Alderman William's Office. Prisoners Committed to County Jail to Await Trial—Live at Priceburg and Olyphant.

It was an unique procession that appeared at Providence square yesterday afternoon. In a wagon sat Elmer Stone, Jr., of Clark's Summit, with ten Hungarians, while his father drove behind in a carriage with a loaded shot gun on his knees and kept close watch on the Hungarians in front, whom he claimed as his prisoners.

As the procession passed through the streets leading to the square it attracted universal attention and was followed by hundreds of persons both old and young.

Elmer Stone, sr., is a well known farmer at Clark's summit and owns broad well tilled acres and rich bearing orchards. The latter have been visited a number of times this season and the trees despoiled of their fruit and branches.

Mr. Stone resolved to put an end to this raiding, and when he saw a band of ten Hung in his orchard yesterday, he took down his shot gun, loaded it and went out and shot the intruders to throw up their hands.

Twenty hands shot up in the air instantly, and ten voices strugled to make their pleas for mercy understood.

TOOK TO THE ROAD.

Mr. Stone directed that one of his wagons be put in readiness for the road and into it the prisoners were loaded, and under cover of the shot gun the march to Providence was begun.

At Providence square the men were handed over to Constable Cole, who took them before Alderman Williams, where Mr. Stone entered a formal complaint and gave his testimony against the accused.

They declared that they had not invaded Mr. Stone's land, but had merely picked up apples they found lying by the roadside.

Alderman Williams asked them to furnish bail and being unable to do so they were committed to the county jail to await trial. The men reside at Priceburg and Olyphant.

SOME NEW HORSES.
