

"I wish to say that I use and recommend one and only one baking powder, and that is Cleveland's."

April 5, 1893.

Maria Harland

Norrman & Moore FIRE INSURANCE 120 Wyoming Avenue

DON'T Have your COLLARS starched in the old way, when you can have them done with soft pliable buttons for TWO CENTS EACH. Lackawanna THE LAUNDRY

New and Very Choice Line of JET Trimmings Mears & Hagen 415 Lacka. Ave.

If you want Carpets, Draperies, Wall Paper or Window Shades, come to us. We have a full line of goods, and our prices are very low.

Williams & McNulty 127 Wyoming Ave.

CITY NOTES.

The board of health will hold a regular meeting at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company paid its employees at the Stora shaft yesterday. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company paid its employees at the car shops yesterday, and today will pay the employees of the southern division. Anton Weena was received at the Lackawanna hospital yesterday. He was suffering from a sprained foot due to falling off a house on Scranton street. The advertising professor F. E. Wood received during his newspaper experience brings him large returns. His college has never been so successful as this year. The reception to Rev. P. J. McManus upon his return from his European trip will be held this evening. Father McManus arrived in New York yesterday. Mrs. Catherine Maloney, widow of the late John Maloney, of the South Side, died yesterday at the residence of her son, Martin Maloney, at Spring Lake, N. J. She was 84 years of age. Marriage licenses were granted yesterday by the clerk of the courts to Frank Van Schroder and Jean Freeman, Scranton; Alvin B. Eargood, Moscow, and Mary L. Rose, Ledgetide, Wayne county; David Youngman and Fannie Feldman, Scranton. The streets and bridges committee of common council yesterday inspected Decatur street, West Side and found stagnant water in the roadway and in several culverts. It was decided to make a report to council urging the construction of a sewer drain the court. Mr. Bliss, the evangelist, with Mr. Moody, will conduct a two hour meeting for girls and young women Friday noon at the Young Women's Christian association rooms, 208 Washington avenue. Mr. Stebbins will be present to sing. All young women are invited. Samuel Sykes, the well known contractor died yesterday at his home in Green Ridge, aged 48 years. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock; interment in Forest Hill cemetery. Mr. Sykes was born in Yorkshire, Eng., and was a valued member of the Masons, Foresters, Episcopals and Sons of St. George. He is survived by a wife and ten children. PABST'S MILWAUKEE BEER, cool and sparkling, at Lohman's, Spruce street. WOOD'S COLLEGE Of Business and Shorthand. The best business since the college was organized. Both sessions largely attended. $5,000. This year a large number of people find it inconvenient to pay for the scholarship on entering. The management has set aside a fund of $5,000 to accommodate those who wish to pay on the installment plan. Persons interested are invited to call. F. E. WOOD, Principal. T. P. Hoban Honored. At the state convention of the Catholic Mutual Beneficial association held in Philadelphia yesterday Attorney T. P. Hoban, of this city, was elected grand president for the state. Bernard Kelly, of Carbonate was named as one of the five state trustees. A Card of Thanks. The children and husband of the late Mrs. Benjamin Jakes wish to extend their thanks to those who so kindly assisted them in the great of the death of their mother and wife. Ladies. Closing out russets, oxfords and russet bluchers at reduced prices. Also ladies' dog, foxed, congress, razer toes, pretty styles. A. C. NETTLETON & Co., Commonwealth building.

MEETING OF VETERANS

Reunion of Men Who Handled Great and Small Guns in the War.

MR. TORREY BADE THEM WELCOME

He Acted for Mayor Connell Who Was in Harrisburg—Pleasant Conference at the Rooms of Griffin Post—Business Meeting at Laurel Hill Park in Afternoon and Camp Fire at Army at Night.

The ninth annual reunion of the Third Pennsylvania artillery and One Hundred and Eighty-ninth Pennsylvania infantry has brought to this city a number of heroes of the late war. The opening gun of the reunion was the reception of the headquarters of Ezra Griffin Post, Grand Army of the Republic, No. 139. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the old heroes with their wives and daughters collected at the post room and spent a half hour before the opening of the programs in fraternal greeting.

Comrade Tom Day opened the exercises with the stirring song "Marching Through Georgia," and to an encore sang a national melody. A bundle of laurels from the Florida cane-brake of Lieutenant J. B. Shoup sent to his associates in battle was opened and distributed, for which a warm vote of thanks was given to the donor.

Mayor Connell was absent from the city and City Solicitor J. H. Torrey acted in his stead. His speech of welcome was a patriotic tribute to the gallantry of the old soldiers and he bade them a warm welcome to Scranton.

CHAPLAIN SANDERSON'S RESPONSE.

Rev. Joseph W. Sanderson, of Philadelphia, chaplain of the association, responded to the welcome of Mr. Torrey, and he thanked the citizens of Scranton for their fraternal hospitality. Tom Kay sang a solo and then Chief of Police William T. Simpson was introduced. His speech was a witty and humorous one and was received with great applause.

Comrade Kay sang "Woman, Lovely Woman," and then came general remarks by many of the veterans. A colored quartette sang a glee, and for an encore rendered "Some Folks Say That a Coon Won't Steal." The effect of this chorus was most amusing. After a vote of thanks to Lieutenant Shoup for presenting the bundle of laurels to the association, a half hour was spent and indulged in by many of the veterans in story-telling. A vote of thanks was tendered to Ezra Griffin post for the privilege of the use of their rooms and the meeting adjourned. At 12:30 a dinner was served at the Conway House.

BUSINESS MEN MEETING.

The afternoon part of the reunion programme was carried out at Laurel Hill park. At 3 o'clock Chaplain Sanderson opened the business meeting with an impressive prayer. Reports of standing committees occupied a little time, and then came the roll call of the dead. The committee on resolutions presented the following:

Since the last reunion we have lost from our active list the following comrades: Hugh Maxwell, Battery E, Third artillery, Scranton; Frederick Cronlich, Battery C, Third artillery, Mechanicsburg; Alvin Sprites, Battery A, Third artillery, Waymart; Godfrey Knott, Battery F, Third artillery, Scranton, who have been ordered to rejoin the greater army beyond. We, therefore, their old time comrades, in loving tribute to their memories, offer affectionately the following resolutions: Resolved, That the secretary, so far as it may be possible, notify their families, so that the dead may not be forgotten by the wider circle than their own friends.

PHILADELPHIA NEXT TIME.

The next order of business was the selection of a place for holding the next re-reunion. Philadelphia, Chester, Williamsport, Gettysburg, Pittsburg and Altoona were nominated. The balloting brought out some very amusing complications. The first vote taken resulted, Williamsport, 23; Philadelphia, 23; Altoona, 5. One comrade raised the point of order that Williamsport did not receive a majority of the votes of the comrades present, and this was succeeded by a point of order that Williamsport had received a majority of the votes cast. Balloting was done by yeas and nays. The chairman decided that another ballot was necessary, and Altoona was dropped. This ballot resulted, Williamsport, 34; Philadelphia, 35. A dispute was raised that the tellers erred in their figures and by unanimous consent it was agreed that a change in the style of balloting would be made. The veterans were then formed in a line and as each one marched past the secretary's desk the choice for the reunion was named. This resulted in Philadelphia, 35; Williamsport, 33. The time of holding the next reunion was, by unanimous consent, left in the power of the officers of the association and the executive committee.

DENOUNCED MONEY KINGS.

Comrade Benjamin Hess, who is somewhat inclined to Populistic theories, took occasion to get in a drive at "money kings and bloated bondholders," by an amendment to the executive committee to have a proper regard for Labor Day and not fix the date so that the next reunion would bring the veterans away from home on that day. The election of officers for the ensuing term was next in order. It resulted as follows: President, C. C. Ball, of Ramey; first vice president, Arthur Martin, of Chester; second vice president, Thomas Haigh, of Richland Center; secretary, Harry T. Graves, Millertown; treasurer, Theo. E. F. Keeser, Philadelphia; corresponding secretary, Francis Winder, West Chester; surgeon, Dr. F. J. Baneroff, of Denver, Col.

After the collection of dues the meeting adjourned for supper and recommended that in the evening all the veterans assemble at headquarters at the Conway House, at 7:30 o'clock to prepare for marching to the armory, where a camp fire was held.

The continuation of the reunion began at 8 o'clock in the armory with a

HOW TO READ BIBLE

Evangelist Moody Offers Valuable Hints to the Large Audience.

WHERE CAN WE OBTAIN REST

Not in Congress or Among Millionaires—But Among the Disciples of Christ—A Sunday Evening Service at Frothingham's Theatre—Evangelist Schiverra Will Bring the Other Mission Tent to Scranton.

Evangelist Moody will address a meeting of men at the Frothingham theatre on Sunday evening at 8 p. m. It will be preceded by a service of song. Mr. Bliss and Mr. Schiverra will remain in Scranton and carry on the services until the end of September. Mr. Moody lays great stress upon the importance of tent meetings, as they are the means of reaching the people who are regarded as not being so easily within the reach of the churches. At 7:30 p. m. a special feature will be a male chorus of sixty voices and an orchestra.

Mr. Moody will probably address a meeting in the West Side Gospel tent, but no definite arrangements have as yet been made, as Mr. Moody, who is subject to weakness of the heart, has been forbidden by his physician to preach in any but a well ventilated room. Mr. Schiverra, who has conducted very successful mission services in Pittston, will bring a large tent capable of seating about 2,000 persons to Scranton, but the location has not yet been decided upon. Mr. Schiverra is most successful in his mission among the foreigners, and quickly enlists their sympathy and succeeds in insuring their presence at his meetings, when the various churches have failed in their endeavors to draw them into their communion.

STAPLES ARRESTED.

Will Be Asked to Explain His Business Methods While in the Smoky City.

Harry E. Staples was arrested yesterday in this city on a charge of fraud preferred by W. K. Heritage, of the firm of Jones & Heritage, commission merchants, of Philadelphia.

It appears from the statement of D. L. Kline, an employe of Staples, who was arrested on a similar charge several weeks ago, that Staples has been acting in a somewhat peculiar manner during the past summer. According to Kline's written statement, now in Chief Simpson's hands, Staples engaged him to go to Pittsburg and to allow the use of his name in a wholesale fruit and produce business which he established there and which he ran with the evident purpose of taking in all he could and paying as little as possible. Staples lived in splendid style in the Smoky City, and as he never used any of the revenues of the business in paying for the rent and for the fact that Kline certainly was a letter writer, he was addressed to Staples he (Kline) was led to believe that he was being made the stepson of a swindling business and looking up the store he came home. The full extent of Staples' transactions cannot be learned at present, but it is stated upon good authority that he has succeeded in selling and pocketing the returns on several carloads of country produce, tropical fruits and vegetables. The Philadelphia firm which is prosecuting him, lost a carload of bananas. A Detroit firm and another in Baltimore will also be interested in hearing of the arrest of Staples, which was accomplished yesterday morning by Chief Simpson and Officer Roche. They had been looking for him for a couple of weeks, but could not locate him, it being given up by his relations that he was "up in the country, being sly." Alderman Fuller, before whom the case was taken, held him in $1,000 bail. C. S. Woodruff, attorney for Staples, became bondsmen.

MOODY'S EVENING SERMON.

Mr. Moody said he would speak upon one of Christ's promises which was the most precious. During his remarks he said in part:

There are some promises made to us all which are conditional and some which are unconditional, but this promise is surely an unconditional one and for all, "Come unto me that are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest." Where can we find this "rest" in the world? I would not look for it among the millions where there is never rest. Neither would I look for it in the congress, where in the lower house they are always fighting to get into the senate and from there to the white house and there surely is the last place I would look for rest. Rest will never be found in honor or fame. I would go among the disciples of Jesus Christ who have found this rest thirty or forty years ago. The promise was also true or its untruth would have been found out during the last 1,800 years. The promise was also very comprehensive as it was for all, starting with that gentleman in the front seat of the gallery and including you all right to the choir behind.

OPENING OF DAVIS' THEATER.

Season of the Transformed Wonderland to Begin Monday. On Monday George E. Davis will reopen his popular place of amusement for the fifth season. The attraction will be "All Lady Vanderlille Stars." This season the house will be known as Davis theater, it being decided to abandon the old name Wonderland. The attraction with which the house will open is a splendid one and not to be compared to the so-called "Beauty Shows" that go about the country with nothing else to recommend them to amusement patrons.

A large number of first class combinations have already been engaged, whose standing is far above anything yet shown in Scranton for the money. The price of admission, notwithstanding that the expenses will be much greater, will remain the same—10, 20 or 30 cents. Ten cents will be charged all children under 12 years of age, and a free seat in the theater will be given them, on Saturday afternoons only. Mr. Davis says: "We are reluctantly compelled to drop the name 'Wonderland' in our advertising, as it had the effect in the professional world of feeding the impression that we were still conducting a museum—a notion we must dispel in order to secure higher class attractions. But all our Scranton friends will identify the old stand by the new title, 'Davis' Theater,' for obvious reasons, and probably many will drop the old conceptions and suggest a title which has been a household word for several years." Performances will be given every afternoon and evening.

MR. BUCKINGHAM INJURED.

Tried to Get on a D. L. & W. Train at Elmhurst. Joseph Buckingham, a bricklayer, whose home is in Philadelphia, was seriously injured on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad at Elmhurst yesterday while trying to jump on a moving train of cars.

He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital in this city, where it was found necessary to amputate his right hand. He also has a number of cuts about the head.

WRINGER IN THE HOUSE.

A Suspicious Character with a Clothes Wringer in the Central. There is a clothes wringer in the station house awaiting its owner's call. The article in question was found in the possession of James Brown, who was loitering about the upper mill at an early hour yesterday morning. Brown also being held on suspicion of theft.

OXFORD, Bagster, International and Family Bibles. PRATT'S BOOK STORE.

DR. C. G. LAURANCE, dentist, Gas and Water company building, Wyoming avenue. Latest improvements. Eight years in Scranton.

HOW TO READ BIBLE

Evangelist Moody Offers Valuable Hints to the Large Audience.

WHERE CAN WE OBTAIN REST

Not in Congress or Among Millionaires—But Among the Disciples of Christ—A Sunday Evening Service at Frothingham's Theatre—Evangelist Schiverra Will Bring the Other Mission Tent to Scranton.

Evangelist Moody will address a meeting of men at the Frothingham theatre on Sunday evening at 8 p. m. It will be preceded by a service of song. Mr. Bliss and Mr. Schiverra will remain in Scranton and carry on the services until the end of September. Mr. Moody lays great stress upon the importance of tent meetings, as they are the means of reaching the people who are regarded as not being so easily within the reach of the churches. At 7:30 p. m. a special feature will be a male chorus of sixty voices and an orchestra.

Mr. Moody will probably address a meeting in the West Side Gospel tent, but no definite arrangements have as yet been made, as Mr. Moody, who is subject to weakness of the heart, has been forbidden by his physician to preach in any but a well ventilated room. Mr. Schiverra, who has conducted very successful mission services in Pittston, will bring a large tent capable of seating about 2,000 persons to Scranton, but the location has not yet been decided upon. Mr. Schiverra is most successful in his mission among the foreigners, and quickly enlists their sympathy and succeeds in insuring their presence at his meetings, when the various churches have failed in their endeavors to draw them into their communion.

STAPLES ARRESTED.

Will Be Asked to Explain His Business Methods While in the Smoky City.

Harry E. Staples was arrested yesterday in this city on a charge of fraud preferred by W. K. Heritage, of the firm of Jones & Heritage, commission merchants, of Philadelphia.

It appears from the statement of D. L. Kline, an employe of Staples, who was arrested on a similar charge several weeks ago, that Staples has been acting in a somewhat peculiar manner during the past summer. According to Kline's written statement, now in Chief Simpson's hands, Staples engaged him to go to Pittsburg and to allow the use of his name in a wholesale fruit and produce business which he established there and which he ran with the evident purpose of taking in all he could and paying as little as possible. Staples lived in splendid style in the Smoky City, and as he never used any of the revenues of the business in paying for the rent and for the fact that Kline certainly was a letter writer, he was addressed to Staples he (Kline) was led to believe that he was being made the stepson of a swindling business and looking up the store he came home. The full extent of Staples' transactions cannot be learned at present, but it is stated upon good authority that he has succeeded in selling and pocketing the returns on several carloads of country produce, tropical fruits and vegetables. The Philadelphia firm which is prosecuting him, lost a carload of bananas. A Detroit firm and another in Baltimore will also be interested in hearing of the arrest of Staples, which was accomplished yesterday morning by Chief Simpson and Officer Roche. They had been looking for him for a couple of weeks, but could not locate him, it being given up by his relations that he was "up in the country, being sly." Alderman Fuller, before whom the case was taken, held him in $1,000 bail. C. S. Woodruff, attorney for Staples, became bondsmen.

MOODY'S EVENING SERMON.

Mr. Moody said he would speak upon one of Christ's promises which was the most precious. During his remarks he said in part:

There are some promises made to us all which are conditional and some which are unconditional, but this promise is surely an unconditional one and for all, "Come unto me that are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest." Where can we find this "rest" in the world? I would not look for it among the millions where there is never rest. Neither would I look for it in the congress, where in the lower house they are always fighting to get into the senate and from there to the white house and there surely is the last place I would look for rest. Rest will never be found in honor or fame. I would go among the disciples of Jesus Christ who have found this rest thirty or forty years ago. The promise was also true or its untruth would have been found out during the last 1,800 years. The promise was also very comprehensive as it was for all, starting with that gentleman in the front seat of the gallery and including you all right to the choir behind.

OPENING OF DAVIS' THEATER.

Season of the Transformed Wonderland to Begin Monday. On Monday George E. Davis will reopen his popular place of amusement for the fifth season. The attraction will be "All Lady Vanderlille Stars." This season the house will be known as Davis theater, it being decided to abandon the old name Wonderland. The attraction with which the house will open is a splendid one and not to be compared to the so-called "Beauty Shows" that go about the country with nothing else to recommend them to amusement patrons.

A large number of first class combinations have already been engaged, whose standing is far above anything yet shown in Scranton for the money. The price of admission, notwithstanding that the expenses will be much greater, will remain the same—10, 20 or 30 cents. Ten cents will be charged all children under 12 years of age, and a free seat in the theater will be given them, on Saturday afternoons only. Mr. Davis says: "We are reluctantly compelled to drop the name 'Wonderland' in our advertising, as it had the effect in the professional world of feeding the impression that we were still conducting a museum—a notion we must dispel in order to secure higher class attractions. But all our Scranton friends will identify the old stand by the new title, 'Davis' Theater,' for obvious reasons, and probably many will drop the old conceptions and suggest a title which has been a household word for several years." Performances will be given every afternoon and evening.

MR. BUCKINGHAM INJURED.

Tried to Get on a D. L. & W. Train at Elmhurst. Joseph Buckingham, a bricklayer, whose home is in Philadelphia, was seriously injured on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad at Elmhurst yesterday while trying to jump on a moving train of cars.

He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital in this city, where it was found necessary to amputate his right hand. He also has a number of cuts about the head.

WRINGER IN THE HOUSE.

A Suspicious Character with a Clothes Wringer in the Central. There is a clothes wringer in the station house awaiting its owner's call. The article in question was found in the possession of James Brown, who was loitering about the upper mill at an early hour yesterday morning. Brown also being held on suspicion of theft.

OXFORD, Bagster, International and Family Bibles. PRATT'S BOOK STORE.

DR. C. G. LAURANCE, dentist, Gas and Water company building, Wyoming avenue. Latest improvements. Eight years in Scranton.

THE MUSIC FESTIVAL.

A Feast of Song to Begin at Laurel Hill Park Today.

The music festival which will open at Laurel Hill park this afternoon will be one of the grandest events known in the history of the park.

The large number of talented musicians that will take part assures an excellent entertainment for the spectators. Extra cars will be run on the Danmore route via Laurel Hill to accommodate the visitors who will attend the sessions. The first concert will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The preliminary contest in the baritone solo will take place at 9 o'clock this morning at Liberty Hall, over Powell's music store, Wyoming avenue.

NOT AFRAID OF SPOOKS.

Jenkin Morgans Found Sleeping on a Grave in Washburn Street Cemetery. Tuesday night the sexton of the Washburn Street cemetery discovered a man lying prostrate on a grave just off the main road in the cemetery. He telephoned for the police and had him removed to the station house, where he gave his name as Jenkin Morgans. He had come via the convention and on his way home sought the cemetery as a nice, quiet place to sleep off his enthusiasm. He was released with a small fine for enthusiasm.

TWENTY-THREE SUITS

Have Been Brought by Davies & Griffin Against Insurance Companies to Recover $32,000.

T. E. Davies, P. E. Griffin and J. D. Richards, doing business as Davies & Griffin, yesterday brought actions in assumpsit against twenty-three insurance companies to recover sums that in the aggregate amount to $32,000. The firm conducted a clothing store at 225 Lackawanna avenue the contents of which were destroyed by fire on the morning of June 17 last. Since then the insurance claims have not been adjusted and through Willard, Warren & Knapp the firm now seeks to recover the sums due on the policies.

STUDY OF THE BIBLE.

Mr. Moody's subject was "How to Study the Bible," and he gave a most interesting address containing practical hints, and suggested that people should take one book at a time, giving it a telescopic and microscopic view, a telescopic view by going through it to understand the connections between one chapter and the other as well as the continuity of the book, and a microscopic view by reading it minutely and in detail and carefully pondering over each verse. Mr. Moody also gave a summary of the benefits resulting from revivals and demonstrated how testified to in the two valleys for some time past. He exhorted the young men for this evening's sermon upon "The Prophet Daniel," and stated that the body of the church would be reserved for them.

An increased congregation in Elm Park church last evening eloquently testified to the good authority and lasting influence of Mr. Moody's sermons. Mr. Stebbins again conducted the preliminary service of song, which was heartily joined in by the vast congregation. Before the sermon, Dr. Robinson stated that noble mission work had been carried on in the two valleys for some months, and from Wilkes-Barre the army of tents were moving upward and meeting the enemy with their heavenly ammunition, and had been most successful in conquering unrighteousness and asked the offerings of the congregation toward the expenses of the movement.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

Contestants on Welsh recitations will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building next to Republican office on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on English recitations (Daniel Webster) will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on soprano, contralto and tenor will have a preliminary examination at L. R. Powell's music store (on stairs) on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on baritone solo will have a preliminary examination on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at L. B. Powell's music store (on stairs).

J. J. ROBERTS, M. D., Chairman. J. C. MORRIS, Secretary.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

Contestants on Welsh recitations will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building next to Republican office on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on English recitations (Daniel Webster) will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on soprano, contralto and tenor will have a preliminary examination at L. R. Powell's music store (on stairs) on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on baritone solo will have a preliminary examination on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at L. B. Powell's music store (on stairs).

J. J. ROBERTS, M. D., Chairman. J. C. MORRIS, Secretary.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

Contestants on Welsh recitations will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building next to Republican office on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on English recitations (Daniel Webster) will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on soprano, contralto and tenor will have a preliminary examination at L. R. Powell's music store (on stairs) on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on baritone solo will have a preliminary examination on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at L. B. Powell's music store (on stairs).

J. J. ROBERTS, M. D., Chairman. J. C. MORRIS, Secretary.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

Contestants on Welsh recitations will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building next to Republican office on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on English recitations (Daniel Webster) will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on soprano, contralto and tenor will have a preliminary examination at L. R. Powell's music store (on stairs) on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on baritone solo will have a preliminary examination on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at L. B. Powell's music store (on stairs).

J. J. ROBERTS, M. D., Chairman. J. C. MORRIS, Secretary.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

Contestants on Welsh recitations will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building next to Republican office on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on English recitations (Daniel Webster) will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on soprano, contralto and tenor will have a preliminary examination at L. R. Powell's music store (on stairs) on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on baritone solo will have a preliminary examination on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at L. B. Powell's music store (on stairs).

J. J. ROBERTS, M. D., Chairman. J. C. MORRIS, Secretary.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

Contestants on Welsh recitations will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building next to Republican office on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on English recitations (Daniel Webster) will have a preliminary examination at Liberty Hall building on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on soprano, contralto and tenor will have a preliminary examination at L. R. Powell's music store (on stairs) on Friday at 9 a. m.

Contestants on baritone solo will have a preliminary examination on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at L. B. Powell's music store (on stairs).

J. J. ROBERTS, M. D., Chairman. J. C. MORRIS, Secretary.

Conway House, 132 and 134 Penn Ave., is where you will always find good service and courteous treatment, the table is always supplied with the best in the market. Transient and local trade solicited.

PILLSBURY'S Best makes best bread.

Room and picture moldings, wall and ceiling decorations, in water colors and linoleum relief. Something new. PRATT'S BOOK STORE.

Here They Come

The new line of Heating Stoves you have been waiting for have arrived, and are exposed in the Daylight

Because they will bear inspection. First-class in every respect, and good Burners.

And the Price in Plain Figures is marked on every one. We propose to induce and hold your trade. Call and see what you can do on Heaters.

H. Battin & Co. 126 PENN AVENUE.

FOR CHILDREN ONLY

We have just received a large stock of Toy Picture and Story Books for the little people. Some of them have paper covers and some of them stiff board covers. Nearly all them have beautiful colored pictures. Prices range from 5c. to 25c. The following are some of the titles:

Our Baby's A B C. Three Little Kittens. Frogs and Mice. Mother Goose Melodies. Ten Little Niggers. Beauty and the Beast. The Frog Who Would a Wooing Go. Home Primer. Under the Sea. Bow-wow Stories. Monkey Tricks. Domestic Animals. Hector, the Dog. Old Mother Hubbard. Little Foot Prints. Mamma's Kisses. Easy Words.

Palette Painting Book. Old Dame Trot. The Frog Who Would a Wooing Go. Home Primer. Under the Sea. Bow-wow Stories. Monkey Tricks. Domestic Animals. Hector, the Dog. Old Mother Hubbard. Little Foot Prints. Mamma's Kisses. Easy Words.

Precious Pictures from the Bible. Grandma's Favorite.

Also, a new Paper Doll, put up in an envelope, with 6 dresses, and 6 hats for 10 cents.

Alphabet Cards.

C. S. Woolworth

319 Lacka. Ave. Green and Gold Store Front.

We are now prepared to do business at our new building, 322 Washington Ave.

EUREKA LAUNDRY CO.

has excellent facilities to do its work, and can please the most fastidious. ANYTHING IN THE LINE OF BOOKBINDING. TRY US.

September Is Here

And pretty soon you will commence to think of FALL FOOTWEAR.