A social session will be held by the Elks tonight at 11 o'clock in honor of Roland Reed. A friend may be invited by each member.
"Our Irish Visitors" has proved a great success at Davis' theater. It has been drawing crowded houses at each performance. Last night the theater was crowded to the door.
Manager J. B. Laine, of the Frothingham, has issued invitations for a private exhibition to be given by Eugene Sandow at the Wyoming house on Friday afternoon at 8 o'clock.
The residents of Dalton want to have it created a borough, and with that end in view will make an application to the court on Nov. 5. Dalton at present is a portion of North Abington township.
The singers of the city are invited to attend the rehearsal to-night of the Mendelssohn Choral society, when a choir will be organized to compete at the coming Allentown and Wilkes-Barre student-fests.
The resolution of councils directing the city engineer to prepare plans and estimates for a lateral sewer on Wyoming avenue, between Green Ridge and Marion streets, was approved by Mayor Connelley yesterday.
Attorney Fred W. Feitz has moved his law office from the Flitz building to the new building, where he will occupy the handsome chambers formerly occupied by ex-Judge Seelye. Mr. Feitz now resides on Quincey avenue, near Pine.
Thursday afternoon at the base ball park the Morning Glories, of Danmore, and the James Boys, of Danmore, will play a game of base ball for the championship of Lackawanna county. Admission fifteen cents, grand stand ten cents; ladies free to ground. Game called at 3:30.
The wood carving class has been formed at the Young Women's Christian association, and is a rare opportunity for learning this art. The teacher is a native of Switzerland and shows beautiful work in inlaid, solid sets, penholders, etc., and is a competent teacher. The class meets every Monday night at 7:30. Terms, $2 for ten lessons to members; non-members can join by paying $1 additional, which gives membership privileges for one year.
Attorney E. H. House with a document the size of a roll of wall paper under his arm walked into the county commissioners' office yesterday and handed it to Clerk Wagner. It was a petition for nomination papers in the interest of William T. Jenkins, independent candidate for sheriff of Lackawanna county. It was sworn to before J. Elliot Ross, notary public, and was signed by P. A. Phillips, John B. Davis, E. J. Doyle, James Fanchon, William Fechter and M. J. Neary. In accordance with the law, the commissioners will insert Mr. Jenkins' name on the official ballot.
Gentlemen's Driving Club races Saturday, 2 p. m.
PARSONS MILWAUKEE BEER, cool and sparkling, at Lohman's, Spruce street.
V. M. C. P. NOTES.
The evening classes opened on Monday with a record attendance over four hundred students being registered in all the branches.
The new class rooms are exceedingly well fitted up, electric lights being conveniently placed and the ventilation well arranged.
Professor Tappin is in charge of the business and educational department and is happy in having two hundred pupils under his charge.
Scranton will also lead Pennsylvania in the manual training classes, being the first city or town in the state to offer such instruction to young men.
It is a credit to the city that other places are copying the methods of the Scranton Young Men's Christian association and enquiring as to its course with a view to spreading the movement.
A noteworthy feature is the wheelmen's branch who meet on Thursday evening in the gymnasium under Professor Weston, all the members are knights of the wheel and are experts in gymnastics.

CORNER STONE LAYING
Next Tuesday's Exercises at Traveler's Home, Binghamton.
SCRANTON DRUMMERS MEETING
It Was Held Last Night at the Board of Trade Rooms—All Arrangements Completed for the Excursion—Distinguished Speakers Will Be There. Committee to Escort Governor Robert E. Pattison.

An important meeting of the commercial travelers of Scranton was held at the board of trade rooms last night, the object being to complete all the details connected with their excursion to Binghamton next Tuesday, the date of the corner stone laying of the Home for Inigent commercial travelers.
The Scranton association, except those members who will be required to take charge of the arrangements of Tuesday's excursion, will leave on a special train Monday afternoon at 1:40 o'clock. The regular excursion train will leave the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, and it is expected that there will be over a thousand people from Scranton and Carbondale.
The mayor of Binghamton has issued a greeting to all visitors the opening lines of which are: "Binghamton, one of the finest cities on earth, extends to her numerous guests a cordial, hearty and sincere welcome." The invited guests, according to the official programme, are President Cleveland, ex-President Harrison, Governor Flower, Governor Pattison, Governor McKinley, Levi F. Morton, Chas. M. Depew, Senator Hill, Senator Murphy, ex-speaker Thomas B. Reed, and all the officers, members of congress and of the legislature of the state of New York.

MONDAY EVENING RECEPTION.
On Monday evening a reception will be tendered to the distinguished guests by the citizens of Binghamton at the armory, and after the reception there will be a banquet. On Tuesday the annual convention will begin at 9 o'clock a. m., and adjourn precisely at noon. The parade will start at 1:30 sharp, forming on court house square, and after traversing the main streets of the city will collect at the Home building. It promises to be one of the longest lines of march on record. The order of exercises has been thus arranged: Assembly called to order by Hon. F. W. Downe, chairman of committee on ceremonies; prayer by Rev. G. Parsons Nichols, D. D.; laying of corner stone, by Hon. John Hodge, grand master of Masons in the state of New York, assisted by the officers of the grand lodge; introduction of mayor by William Mason; oration by Chas. M. Depew, and an address by President Cleveland.
Other distinguished visitors will deliver addresses. The meeting last night was notified that the Hyde Park and North End lodges of masons and Robert Morris Lodge of Odd Fellows, of the West Side, will attend the exercises in a body and they asked that tickets be sent to them for purchase.
John Costello, of Syracuse, was present and addressed the meeting on the subject of a recent preliminary convention held at Syracuse. It was thought by many that the convention was a snap meeting to further the personal ends of a few insurance-commercial travelers in the West.

MR. CASTELLO EXPLAINS.
Mr. Costello explained satisfactorily that the Syracuse meeting was simply for the purpose of determining a plan to distribute the offices and board of managers, in a sense that the association would become national and broaden out. There were no underhanded methods concocted. Everything discussed was for the good of the association as far as the delegates could see and would only be placed before the annual convention as mere suggestions, not as preconcerted moves to feather anyone's nest.
One member reported that a committee sent out by the Wilkes-Barre association had gone to Binghamton for the purpose of securing hotel accommodations for 450 members. In this connection the question of decorating the cars of the train was adversely acted upon.
Mr. Schlager made a motion that a committee of three be appointed to meet in connection with a committee from the Wilkes-Barre association the day upon which Governor Pattison arrives and act as an escort from Northumberland to Binghamton.
It was unanimously agreed to invite Lieutenant Governor Watres and General Manager Hallett, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, as guests on the occasion, and the president and secretary were appointed a committee to wait upon them.
Against the objection of several members it was decided to wear as a uniform on parade, a case, and overcoat on the arm. In some of the city papers it was incorrectly reported that the excursion is under the auspices of the Wilkes-Barre association.

PIGEON SHOOTING.
Last Friday's Great Event to Be Continued This Week—Other Events.
The Green Ridge Gun club has arranged to finish the competition for prizes started last Friday at the base ball park, and has decided to continue the contest next Friday. The fourth, fifth, sixth and eighth prizes are to be contested for on that date.
Several other events are announced for the same day, as follows:
Second event—Ex-Sheriff Charles Roberson and Alex. Dunn, jr., will shoot their match for $50 a side.
Third event—C. C. Stackhouse and G. H. Maddox will shoot their match for $25 a side.
Fourth event—F. M. Spencer, Thomas Eley and H. D. Swartz will give an exhibition in shooting at fifteen birds each, under the American association rule, from five unknown traps, thirty yards rise. They will use both barrels. This is the way all of the champion wing shots of the world shoot, and this event alone is worth seeing.
Fifth event—Mr. Walter Jarmyn and G. H. Maddox will shoot their match. Four hundred to five hundred pigeons will be shot at.
The shoot will commence at 10 a. m. at the Scranton ball park.

BLIND EVANGELIST COMING.
Will Hold Series of Meetings at Green Ridge Evangelical Church.
J. N. Malice, the blind evangelist of Washington, D. C., at present engaged in evangelistic work in Nanticoke, will come to this city on Saturday and will begin a series of meetings on Sunday evening in the Green Ridge Evangelical church. The Williamsport Republican says of his work in that city:
The meetings conducted by the blind evangelist at Bennett street Evangelical church, continue with unabated interest; many are turned away every night for want of room. The speaker certainly has the happy faculty of drawing a large crowd and then holding them. Many during these meetings have been converted and others led to seriously think about the matter. Persons have been attending his services who have not been to church for many years.

AUTUMN ARBOR DAY.
It Will Be Observed in This State on Oct. 19.
The state department of public instruction has recommended Friday, Oct. 19, as Autumn Arbor Day, and has by circular presented numerous and cogent reasons for its observation in all the public schools. The autumn is chosen in preference to spring from the fact that many rural schools close before the two days appointed as Arbor Days in the spring.
The state department offers many interesting suggestions concerning the planting of trees, which should be of native species. For instance it is better to plant the elm in damp soil, the white oak and Liberty maple in richer, drier soil, than it is to plant the too short-lived horse-chestnut or the silver maple, which is too weak for its enormous size. Trees which have become famous in history should not be forgotten. The elm, under which Penn made his great treaty with the Indians, may be made to teach a lesson in justice to all mankind. The story which clusters around the Linden tree, under which stood a brave boy while his father, William Tell, took aim and shot the apple from his head can be used to fire young hearts with a spirit of devotion, love of liberty and hatred of oppression as lasting as life itself. The celebration of Arbor Day can thus be made helpful in preparing our pupils for the best kind of citizenship.

OLD TIME MINSTRELS.
Fine Performances Given at the Academy of Music.
The audience that greeted Primrose & West's minstrels at the Academy of Music last evening taxed the capacity of that house to its utmost. The first part was a representation of genuine negro minstrelsy, commencing with the overture "Way Down in Dixie," in which the old plantation songs, humor and dancing found natural interpreters and performers.
A grand transformation took place at the conclusion of this overture in which the entire company appeared. Then the star session of the evening followed, G. H. Primrose and George Wilson taking the ends.
W. H. Windom's singing of "The Girl I Love," captivated the audience. George Wilson was as funny as ever and scored a hit by his rendition of "Patsy Girl" and afterward in his original sayings.
George H. Primrose gave satisfaction with his new song "Standing on the Corner."
The banjo playing of Thos. E. Glynn, the musical numbers by Howe, Wall and McLeod, and the bar performing of Rice and Elmer were excellent. A very lively conclusion of the performance was the tumbling Arals.

NOT FERDINAND'S DAUGHTER.
Girl Whose Room Was Entered, a Daughter of Joseph Arigoni.
Monday's TRIBUNE contained the statement that Rosa Arigoni, the young girl whose room T. H. C. Maloney entered at the Roma hotel, was a daughter of Ferdinand Arigoni of Pine avenue.
Such was not the case. The girl in question is a niece of Ferdinand Arigoni and a daughter of Joseph Arigoni, who died at Binghamton last Friday.

SCHIVEREA MISSION NOTES.
Efforts are being made to retain Evangelist Schivera another week in the city. A sensational thrill passed through the city and the Gospel tent last night when Schivera made his definite charge against the "lady of Scranton."
The rendition of "Calvary" last night by the choir was superb and the manner in which they accompanied Mr. Weeden, who was at its best, was perfect.
The meetings today will be: Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Machine shops at noon. Bible reading "Christ Our Example" at the tent at 3:30 p. m., and service at 7:30.
Mr. Weeden whose excellent music is so eagerly listened to, will prepare some special music by the midnight meetings of today and will help considerably to draw the audience required.
A special feature of today will be a meeting for ladies at the Florence mission at 10:30 tonight and a meeting for men at midnight at the Rescue mission when refreshments will be served.
Several wish to see the evangelist privately and fear to trespass upon his leisure time as he is always working and timid seeker's need not fear his wrath by calling upon him at the Westminster.
Several will avail themselves of the privilege accorded by the campaign committee to the evangelist who will "make a collection" on Friday afternoon at the tent to swell the amount he personally collects for foreign mission work. A large sum will be subscribed if only as a token of esteem in which the evangelist is held.

Every article in the above list is warranted strictly first class in every respect.

We only mention a few figures but will state that all our prices are very low and will be kept so during the remainder of 1894.

There are a few things that we wish to speak of specially, first of these "Our Best" brand of flour of which we are selling about 1,000 barrels and sacks a month and hearing nothing but most favorable reports from all sources. Then our Tea Department is worthy of mention, we have the finest line of teas that is possible to get together. Our garden growth teas at 85c. per pound are a thing of beauty and a joy forever. We also have a package tea at 30c., a pound with a splendid solid nickel spoon in each pound, this is a decided bargain. We think we have the largest retail coffee trade of any store in the state. Nothing has built up this big trade but the excellency of our coffees and the low figures at which we sell them.

In confectionery we always have a fine stock of fresh, pure candies of all kinds and as in all other departments at very low prices. And last but not least our butcher shop is worth the price of admission in itself, always well stocked with the very best grade of meats at prices about 25 per cent. below regular rates. Remember our new delivery plan is in operation now—all orders going out as soon as received.

A SCRANTON LADY INDICTED
Strong Charges Made in the Sermon Creates Sensations in the Gospel Tent—Many Local Topics Touched Upon—Heaven Was Clearly Defined. Schivera Will Probably Stay Another Week—Other Mission Notes.

Evangelist Schivera addressed large crowds yesterday afternoon and last evening in the tent on Linden street. In the evening Mr. Schivera addressed his large audience upon the words, "Rejoice that your names are written in heaven," and said: "I have a few reasons why I speak upon heaven to-night. The Bible is full of it; almost every one of you have someone dear to you in heaven. I have a mother there who saved me from the jaws of hell, and ninety-nine out of a hundred believe there is such a place as heaven. Everyone wants to go there.
Where is Heaven. I don't know. It is near enough for God to hear the poor broken-hearted sinner.
Is Whiskey Jake here? I am told of Whiskey Jake who drinks a gallon of whiskey daily and says he likes Schivera. Well, let me tell him that Schivera loves Whiskey Jake, and God would save Whiskey Jake's soul if Jake will call upon him and instead of being Jake the whiskey keg he would be Jake the gentleman."
WHAT IS NOT IN HEAVEN.
There is no thought, Sin cannot enter Heaven, so you must be free of sin, and that must be settled in this world—let go sin and get Heaven. There is no sickness there and the doctors and undertakers will enjoy one long vacation. No disease there; no sickness. No pains of the broken-hearted mother caused by her profligate son; there will be no pain to the husband's heart by the wife's unfaithfulness.
This afternoon I looked into the face of a beautiful woman, the wife of one of the finest men in Scranton, and I know her to be unfaithful to her husband. It is bad enough for a man to be impure but my God for a woman it is a thousand times worse. The exposure is sure to come to the surface. It is bound to come. "Be sure your sin will find you out."
There will be no libertines in heaven; none of those infernal things who ruin the pure girl, but there will be a hereafter and a great retribution. Thank God there is no death in heaven. Look at this widow in front of me, and the mother there with tears trickling down their faces; there is hardly one but that the grim monster has visited them. All of you have someone in heaven. Do you love them enough to want to meet them again?
What is in heaven? Eternal rest, and all men need rest. There is eternal rest, eternal joy and eternal peace. There will be no children in hell; all the children will be in heaven. Do you love children? Do you want to go where the children are? Hell will be loneliness and heartache will be a place of joy. The loved ones and angels are anxious to know your decision. Let them know that you have determined for heaven and they will rejoice that your names are written in heaven.

THE AFTERNOON ADDRESS.
Yesterday afternoon Evangelist Schivera preached upon "Christ, the Sinner's Friend," and showed, first: How Jesus proved himself to be a friend of sinners. He was a friend to the hungry. He was a friend to publicans and sinners. He was a friend to the blind. He was a friend to the fallen and unfortunate. He was a friend to the widow and the leper, and for all these he died.
Secondly, What kind of a friend was Jesus? He is not like the friend who declares their love for us while we can entertain them tomorrow we miss them, and can never find a needle in a haystack than find them when we want their help and love. Jesus loves all, whether in joy or sorrow; sobriety or alcohol insanity. His love is not only unchangeable, but reliable and faithful. He is a friend who will give faithful counsel.
At the end of the sermon the evangelist asked those who wanted this Friend to lift up their hand. Several did so, and accepted his invitation to walk down to the platform where he prayed earnestly with them.
