MINE, MILL AND RAILROAD.

William Heckert, a Findlay, O., mechanical engineer, proposes to re-plant the natural gas supply of Ohio by a new process of his own.

All the arrangements for making the test of the Heckert method have been made. A large pumping engine and air compressors have been purchased by the company owning the patents.

The chief of the bureau of statistics reports that the total values of the exports of merchandise from the United States during the months ended Sept. 30, 1894, as compared with the same months during the corresponding year, were as follows:

A Dover, N. J., dispatch says: "The shops of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad have been put on full time and there is work enough ahead to keep the employes busy for a year."

Some years ago the Pennsylvania railroad company purchased a large tract of 18,000 acres at West Hazleton, ostensibly for the coal that might be under it.

Hickory Swamp colliery resumed operations at Shamokin Monday morning giving employment to 500 men and boys.

MINOR INDUSTRIAL NOTES: Toronto gets coal for $5.25. Savannah car fare is 1 cent.

Francis N. Sanborn has been appointed master mechanic and assistant engineer for the Susquehanna Coal company, with headquarters at Nanticoke.

Rapid progress is being effected at Silver Brook opening up the old works which were pumped out a week ago.

The Western Passenger association has voted to allow mileage tickets signed in any office of a road belonging to that body, instead of at the office where issued. This change will be appreciated by purchasers of this class of tickets.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad company is receiving from thirty to forty new hopper coal cars weekly from the Lehigh Car works.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad company has decided to divide the beneficiary department into three classes.

A report was recently current to the effect that the Jersey Central railroad was quietly endeavoring to secure control of the Delaware and Bound Brook and the North Pennsylvania railroads.

Within the past week the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal company opened a new stripping slope at Truscow, which is known as No. 3 Wharton.

The statement of shipments of Pocahontas coal over the Norfolk and Western railroad for the week ended Oct. 12, for the first time in many years shows a slight falling off compared with the corresponding period last year.

That portion of the Lehigh Valley railroad between Falling Springs and 23rd street, which, by a recent order, was placed under control of O. G. Esser as superintendent, with headquarters at Sayre, is now known officially under the old familiar title of the "Pennsylvania and New York division."

The Pennsylvania railroad reports that the quantity of coal and coke originating on and carried over its lines east of Pitsburg and Erie for the year thus far has been 11,723,256 tons, compared with 14,276,159 tons in the corresponding period of 1893.

STOCKS AND BONDS. By the United Press. New York, Oct. 16.—The receipt of lower quotations from London and uncertainty in regard to the extent of the outflow of gold led to an irregular market for stocks at the opening.
