Bound to Return.

The housewife may be persuaded to try another brand, but if it has said, "Cleveland's Baking Powder once, is all you need," how long has your dishwasher used this product? The whole family can see that you are using the best.

Remember,

NORMAN & MOORE
FIRE INSURANCE
120 Wyoming Ave.

UNEXCELLED
LACKAWANNA
THE LAUNDRY
The Five Cents-per-Pound Laundry
120 Wyoming Avenue

IF YOU
Want Carpets,
Drapery,
Wall Paper, or
Window Shades
Come to Us. We have a Full Line of Goods, and Our Prices Are Very Low.

WILLIAMS & MCKENZIE
120 Wyoming Ave.

CITY NOTES.

Children's Playroom.

Children are being entertained at the Children's Playroom, located at the Beulah Avenue School, in the playing rooms and games provided for them.

OLD SHIRT IN ALL RIGHT.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Volkswagon are the proud owners of a new automobile, the first in the neighborhood, which has been purchased with the proceeds of an old shirt.

JEWELRY LADIES ORGANIZED.

The Jewelry Ladies, a new group organized in the city, is planning to hold a sale of jewelry and accessories at the public library next month.

BLUE FUNERAL UP.

Funeral arrangements are being made for the funeral of Mr. Blue, who passed away last week.

DISTANCE IN TOO GREAT.

The distance between Cleveland and New York is far, but the city continues to grow and new homes and businesses are being constructed along the route.

THE BETTER WAY.

E. G. COURSEY
403 Lackawanna Ave.

"The Better Way" is a new series of articles that will be published in the newspaper, offering tips and advice on various topics.

SOMA.

Temple Beth El will hold a day of prayer on the first day of the Jewish New Year, which will be marked by a special service and reading of the prayer book.

IT WAS ELECTRIC.

The electric light was turned on in the city last night, and the streets were illuminated for the first time.

CAR LEFT THE TRACK.

A car left the track on the Lackawanna line, but the passengers were unharmed.

PAINTED BALL.

The Painted Ball, a new club organized in the city, will hold its first meeting next week.

Woolworth's.

Woolworth's will offer a special sale on Thanksgiving, with discounts on all items.

WORLD'S FAIR.

The World's Fair, held in New York last year, was a great success, and the city is planning to hold a similar event in the future.

- THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE--FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 19, 1904. -