Accompanist, George B. Carter.

These numbers are of the highest order, and, with two such eminent artists to interpret the programme as Marie Louise Bailey and Nina Hathbone, there can be no question of the entertainment being of the very highest order.

Seats are now on sale at Guernsey Bros., Young Men's Christian Association building. The diagram is filling quite rapidly.

CONCERT AT PROVIDENCE.

Will Be Given by Professor George B. Carter and Alfred Wooler.

Professor George B. Carter, assisted by Alfred Wooler, will give an organ recital and concert in the Providence Methodist Episcopal church next Tuesday evening. The evening's entertainment will be conducted under the auspices of class 16 of the Sunday school, and the proceeds will be devoted to paying for two chandeliers which will be lighted in the church for the first time on the night of the recital.

Professor Carter has never been heard in Providence, and Tuesday night's event will give the people of that section of the city an excellent opportunity to witness his superb mastery of an organ.

Ten and table rooms. Knives and forks, silver-plated, Davidson Bros.

Solid silver Brownie rings $5. Different and comical designs, Davidson Bros.

A Handsome Set containing cream pitcher, sugar bowl and spoon-holder can be had at Davidson Bros.

I am prepared to receive a limited number of piano pupils. For terms, etc., address Richard F. Lindsay, 207 North Second Street, or at Powell's Music Store.

DEATH OF A WELL KNOWN LADY

Presentation to William C. Bruning, the North Main Avenue Merchant—Surprise Party to Miss Fannie Kennedy—Death of Mrs. Williams.

William C. Bruning, the North Main Avenue merchant, was tendered a surprise party at his home on North Bromley avenue last evening in honor of his twenty-ninth birthday. A large number of friends congregated and the evening was a very pleasant one. Mr. Bruning was presented with a handsome combination desk and book case of cutlery, which Mrs. Bruning furnished instrumentally and Mrs. Heckel vocal music. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Death of an Aged Lady.
Mrs. Catherine Wilson, an aged and respected resident of this side, died yesterday morning at the home of her eldest daughter, Mrs. W. H. Reinhart, on North Seventh street, after a short illness. Deceased was born in Northampton county, was 78 years of age, and had for years been a member of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. Three children survive her. They are Edward Wilson, of Long Run, and William Wilson, of Stroudsburg, and Mrs. William H. Reinhart, of this side.

The funeral will occur on Friday morning and Rev. L. C. Floyd, of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, will officiate. The remains will be conveyed to the S. A. M. Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train to Stroudsburg, where interment will be made.

A Pleasant Surprise.

M. K. Smith's store on Grove street was broken into Saturday night. About $5 worth of cigars were taken. An attempt was also made to get into P. D. Manley's, on Chestnut street. There is no doubt that the work was done by the same parties that blew the safe to pieces at the grist mill.

NORTH END NEWS.

John Mantan, of Deacon Street, Killed by a Fall of Roof in the Marine Shaft.

John Mantan, of Deacon street, was instantly killed at the Marine shaft yesterday morning about 11 o'clock by a fall of rock. He had just fired a blast and the roof of the shaft fell in and he was killed. When the whole mass fell on him.

A bell of rock was hidden above the roof and it is supposed that it became loosened by the blast and was about to fall when he sounded. A prop which was in place was forced to one side by the rock and fell on Mantan.

He is survived by a wife and several children, and was a member of the Knights of the Mystic Chain.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Announcement of an Experience Social at Y. W. C. A. Rooms.

ANOTHER FIREBUG AT WORK

Mrs. Patrick Gallagher, of Minooka, Awakened Early Yesterday Morning and Found House on Fire—Funeral of Mrs. Downes.

Next Friday night at the rooms of the South Side Young Woman's Christian association the programme of entertainment will be an unusually fine one. The occasion will be an "Experience social." All women are specially invited to come, as the music will be of rare excellence.

A special feature will be the experience related by the members. Those who have earned a dollar or upward toward the benefit of the association will relate their experiences, and as there is none who has not accomplished that much the stories to be told will be many and, no doubt, well seasoned with humorous incidents.

Yesterday afternoon a children's party was held, attended by over 125 whose ages range from 8 to 12 years. A very pleasant time was had. The junior work of the association is going ahead very rapidly and in fact all branches of the association are doing well. The educational classes deserve special mention regarding the good results obtained. The attendance is large and the progress made remarkable.

Attempt to Burn a House.
After midnight yesterday morning Mrs. Patrick Gallagher, of Stafford street, Minooka, was awakened by a smothering sensation caused by smoke permeating the air of the bedroom. She arose quickly, raised the window to let out the smoke and as she did, discovered that the house was on fire. The blaze was located at the corner of the house and a pile of combustible material was stacked against the side of the building. With a few minutes more of a start the house would have been beyond saving, as there is no water in the house and no fire service. The house is not insured and it represents the saving of a lifetime. It was undoubtedly set on fire by some careless person. The cause of venting his fiendish spite, though there is no reason known why such an act should be perpetrated against these inoffensive people, is being investigated and damaged beyond the extent of a few dollars.

Funeral of Mrs. Anna Downes.
The long Christian life of Mrs. Anna Downes, of Irving avenue, which came to an end Sunday, received a tribute of respect in the large funeral discourse that attended the remains to the grave yesterday morning. At 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was sung at St. John's church by Rev. J. A. Moffit. He preached an effective sermon on prayer and prepared the funeral oration. The hall bearers were Martin McDonough, Owen Connelly, Martin Flaherty, Owen Doherty, Darby Cawley and Martin T. Lavelle.

Lavelle's Dog Disappeared.
Constable John C. Moran, of the Twelfth ward, has a search warrant for the dog of a brindle pup stolen from Thomas Lavelle, of St. George avenue. He also has a warrant for Jim Edwards, Bob McCrea and Dick Farrell, of the Thirteenth ward, charged with the theft of the dog. The three gentlemen mentioned in the warrant are dog fanciers of much note. They deny that they are guilty as charged, and propose to get back at Lavelle for the dog of character. Constable Moran was after them last night.

South Side Notings.
Miss Mary Mears, of Pittston avenue, is visiting at Vandling.

The tourists, of this side, will have a dance Friday night at Dr. Manly's hall. The Loyal Social club will hold a social Thanksgiving eve at Germania hall.

The approaching marriages of Miss Nellie Dankowitz to Ulrich Warren, and of Miss Annie Graham to Michael Norton are announced.

Tonight the revival services at the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church will be addressed by Rev. M. D. Fuller, of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church.

The fair of the St. Paul's German Baptist church at Germania hall is attracting a large crowd nightly and a large revenue is accruing for the benefit of the church treasury.

Mary, the 6-year-old daughter of William Tobin, of Pittston avenue, died of diphtheria yesterday evening. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Hyde Park cemetery.

Yesterday a telegram from Joliet, Ill., was received by Martin Touger, of Prospect avenue, apprising him of the fatal injury received by his son, Michael, in the steel mills at that place. The young man was ten years of age and in that time his parents have not heard from him.

This evening at 7:30 a reformation festival will be held at the Cedar Avenue German Evangelical Lutheran church. Tomorrow night at the same hour a mission festival will begin. Preaching will be in both English and German. Rev. Mr. Penman, of Tomonta, Rev. Mr. Bruning, of White Haven, and Rev. Mr. Scheidt, of the West Side, will be present and deliver addresses.
