—THE—

BELL CLOTHING HOUSE

Would be convicted of selling more clothing, far cheaper and giving greater value, than any other house in the city. It is caused by the fact that we have purchased the largest bill of Men's and Boys' Clothing ever shipped to our city, from the world-famed Wearwell Suit Company, New York. The Wearwell Suit Company was for years the largest of its kind in New York. They wished to retire and rest. We made them an offer for their entire stock and received the following answer, which explains itself.

OFFICE OF THE WEARWELL SUIT COMPANY, 16 AND 18 WEST THIRD STREET, NEW YORK, Oct. 29, 1894.

The Bell Clothing House, Scranton: GENTLEMEN—Although your offer of 33 per cent. cash of the manufacturing price for our entire stock is ridiculously low, we are compelled, being anxious to close our business and affairs, to accept same. Will ship entire stock today by D. L. & W. R. R.

Yours truly, THE WEARWELL SUIT COMPANY.

The advantage of our grand purchase we will give to our friends and customers. Call and see the goods and prices to realize the great bargains you can secure.
