ART SALE THIS EVENING.
Fine Collection of Paintings to be Sold at Auction.
The first auction sale of high-class paintings of the Scott art collection will take place this evening at 8 o'clock at the gallery in the Garney & Brown building, at corner of Adams avenue and Linden street. The gallery will be closed at 3 o'clock this afternoon in order that arrangements for the evening sale may be made, but will be opened again at 7 in the evening. Buyers are requested to bring open classes, which will enable them to obtain better views of the paintings.
B. Scott, Jr., who is well and favorably known in Scranton, will personally conduct the sale, and will offer one of the finest collections ever seen in this city.

RELIGIOUS TOPICS.

Samuel Wilson, of Rahway, N. J., delivered an excellent address on "The Higher Civilization" at the Free Christian church, Green Ridge, last night.
Special services were held by the Grace Lutheran church at the Young Men's Christian association rooms yesterday, when Rev. J. A. Hoser, of Muncie, Pa., preached to large congregations.

SABBATH SCHOOL SERVICES

Held Last Night in the Plymouth Congregational Church—Funeral of Mrs. George Smith from Her Late Home on Eighth Street.

The large auditorium of the Plymouth Congregational church was well filled last evening at the rally service, which was held under the auspices of the children of the Sabbath school. It was composed of dialogues on missionary work, singing and recitations. The church was prettily decorated with flags and bunting. The pulpit was trimmed with a neat design of flags. The young people gave their parts in a pleasing manner.

A. B. Eynon, superintendent of the Sabbath school, presided. The programme was as follows: Singing by school; reading, "The Young Soldier"; recitation, "Welcome," Haydn Oliver; recitation, "Girls of Today," Miss Nellie Morgan; reading, "Do You Care," David Owens; recitations by Lewis Thomas, Ruth Lewis and Lewis Thomas; responsive exercise, school; class exercise, six boys; recitations, Mary James, Jessie Evans; infant class exercise, sixty children; map exercise, Eddie Hughes and infant class; recitation, "Discovery of America," Howard Eynon; responsive exercise, "Our Work," school; dialogue, three boys; blackboard exercise, Jennie Lewis; recitation, "Counting the Steps," Margaret Evans; dialogue, Thomas Eynon and Arthur Davis; reading, Anna Williams; dialogue, "The Boy's Society," five boys, two girls; singing, school; reading, Edna Evans; recitations, Charles Cadogan, Mabel Thomas and David Harris; collection and benediction.

Mrs. Smith Buried.
The funeral of Mrs. George Smith, who died on Thursday, occurred yesterday afternoon from the family home on Eighth street. Services were conducted by Rev. Wm. C. Partridge, of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, and Rev. L. C. Floyd, D. D., pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. The floral offerings were of neat design. The remains were taken to the Washburn Street cemetery where interment was made.

A VICTORY FOR PASKOLA.

It Receives the Official Endorsement of Eminent Experts and a Jury of Representative Citizens.

The suit brought by Ohio's food commissioner against a Cincinnati druggist for selling Paskola on the ground that it was nothing but glucose, resulted in a great victory for Paskola and a verdict against the state.

During the course of the trial Professor Shaller, of the University of Cincinnati, testified that Paskola was not glucose, and even if it was, it would be harmless. He also bore witness to its activity as a digestive agent.

Professor William Dickore, of the Miami college, testified to the same facts. So did Professor Schmidt, the chemist of the board of health; Professor William Hoffman and others.

A practical test was made in court, showing the digestive action of Paskola on eggs and meats of various kinds, whereas glucose under precisely the same conditions produced no effect whatever.

This test but confirmed the expert's statements and proved Paskola to be of great value in indigestion and wasting diseases.

This verdict disposes of the malicious attack that has been made against Paskola by interested rivals, and suits have now been brought against the proprietors of a well known emulsion of cod liver oil for having given wide circulation to a false formula and other misrepresentations regarding it.

The anonymous of this attack will be the members of the various classes will participate. It promises to be the finest exhibition of the kind ever seen in this city.

IN LOCAL THEATERS.

Tonight a grand gymnastic exhibition will be given at the Academy of Music by the Scranton Turn Verein. In which the members of the various classes will participate. It promises to be the finest exhibition of the kind ever seen in this city.

"Kentuck," a melo-drama, which has met with success in New York, comes to the Frothingham Wednesday, Nov. 28, and promises to be one of the best attractions offered by Manager Laine this season. The cast is headed by Edwin A. Summers, a promising young actor, supported by Frederick De Vere and a large cast. Among the prominent features is a race between two Kentuck thoroughbreds in full view of the audience, the Lexington race course, the realistic stable scene, etc. New music, new songs and dances will be introduced.

Manager Laine has secured a splendid attraction for the Frothingham, Thanksgiving day. It is Joseph Jefferson, the most finished actor today on the American stage, in his old play, "Rip Van Winkle," which has become one of the classics of the American drama.

Canary & Lederer's recent New York Casino success, "The Passing Show," which will be the attraction at the Frothingham on Monday, Dec. 3, has opened a new path in the dramatic line, being a combination of vaudeville, comedy and opera, both comic and grand. The best artists of the vaudeville stage appear and the entertainment is one of the merriest and most original of the season. Over 100 people are engaged in the production, and every scene is brought from the New York Casino.

During the present season Davis' theater has presented a number of variety and specialty attractions, many of which have been deserving of a price higher than the low admission charged. The first three days of this week, matinee and evening, the Ladies' club will continue the popularity of Davis' theater. The Ladies' club will give a burlesque on "Old Kentucky Rye," a skit called "Green Room Gossip," and an old up-to-date specialty. The wonderful dancing of Master Henry Williams, the champion buck, wing and grotesque dancer of the country, heading a band of pickaninnies, will be a feature of performance.

Manager Laine of the Frothingham, announces some excellent attractions at his house to follow Joseph Jefferson and "The Passing Show." Among the principal ones are Robert Hilliard in "The Nominee"; the farcical opera, "The Nominee"; the farcical opera, "A Trip to Turkey"; "The Engineer"; the Cornell University Glee club; Maria Jansen in "Delmonico's at 6"; W. H. Powers' company in "The Ivy Leaf"; "Hoss and Hoss" (return date); the Lehigh University Glee, Banjo and Mandolin club; Wilfred Clarke and company; the great "Winter Circus" one week; "Lost Paradise," the original company, with William Morris at the head of the cast; Comstock's minstrels from St. James' hall, New York; Miss Julia Marlowe in two grand productions; Fanny Rice in her new comic opera "Three Old Shoes"; Al. G. Field's famous minstrels and others, all appearing within the next two months.

I am prepared to receive a limited number of piano pupils. For terms, etc., address

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

Retirement of Edward H. Jordan from Undertaking Firm of Jordan & Co.

PARTNERSHIP IS DISSOLVED

Mr. Jordan Will Conduct a Business of His Own—Death of Mrs. Dorothea Bresser Yesterday—Her Funeral Will Be Held Wednesday Afternoon.

Edward H. Jordan, of the undertaking firm of Jordan & Co., of Fig street, has retired and sold out his interest to Thomas F. McDonough, the other member of the firm. News of the dissolution of partnership came with surprise. There was no concern on this side engaged in the livery and undertaking business that was as secure in the matter of established trade, and it must have been a serious disagreement that resulted in the disruption of the firm.

Mr. Jordan, when approached by a Tribune reporter and asked the cause of his withdrawal, had nothing to say, except that he wanted to start a business for himself and made up his mind that either he was willing to buy his partner out or sell his part to him and retire. He said he was casting his eye about for a property to purchase, and if he got one that satisfied him he would engage right away again in the same business.

Death of Mrs. Dorothea Bresser.
Having been ill but a few days of typhoid fever Mrs. Dorothea Bresser, residing with her family at the corner of Cedar avenue and Hickory street, died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. She was well advanced in years and was one of the early settlers of the South Side. She was a true Christian woman and was regarded with esteem and respect by numerous friends and acquaintances. A grown up family survives her. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Pittston Avenue cemetery.

Rev. Anthony Durkin, S. J., at St. John's Rev. Anthony Durkin, of the Jesuit Fathers of St. Louis Monastery, and a son of John Durkin, of Brook street, sang the high mass at St. John's church yesterday and preached a beautiful sermon, replete with pathos and eloquence on the gospel of the mass. Rev. Father Durkin is visiting here and hopes to recuperate his health, which has not been well with him for a few years.

Shorter Paragraphs.
The Scranton Athletic club will hold a ball on Thanksgiving eve at Germania hall.

Joseph Began, rail inspector at the South Works, has returned from Virginia, where he was on a short visit.

Tonight the new South Scranton Building and Loan association will meet at Moeller's hall and dispose of the remainder of the stock.

Services yesterday at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association were very interesting. Special music was arranged and delighted all.

Charles Wiltz, of Pittston avenue, is resting easily from the burns he suffered while at work Saturday in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western car shops.

Patrick Hughes, an old offender, laid down on the streets in a drunken condition Saturday night and to keep him from freezing to death Officer Coleman locked him up.

Columbus council, Young Men's Institute, at a meeting held yesterday decided to purchase a piano and to append a good deal of money on furnishings for the quarters of the club.

The funeral of Mrs. Frederick Weber, of Hickory street, was held yesterday. Burial services were held at the Hickory Street Presbyterian church and interment was made in Pittston Avenue cemetery.

The funeral of Patrick J. Barrett, of Pittston avenue, will take place this morning. A high mass of requiem will be sung at 9.30 at St. John's church. Interment will be made in Minooka Catholic cemetery.

"Queer People" Going Fast.
The sale of Part One of Palmers Cox's imitable "Queer People" will cease next Wednesday, when the sale of Part Two will begin. If you haven't ordered the first part yet, you had better do so today.

Dr. Gibbons, of New York city, will be in his Scranton office, 411 Wyoming avenue, every Monday from 8 in the morning until 9 in the evening.
