PITTSTON.

The fire department was called out yesterday afternoon by a blaze in the building occupied by Patrick McHale adjoining Paul Bohan's store. The loss was slight.

Just before service hour Sunday evening fire was discovered in the Welsh Baptist church on Welsh Hill. The blaze started in the cellar and was caused by the woodwork around the furnace becoming overheated. The damage was slight.

The residence of Wesley Brown, corner of York avenue and Parke street, was entered by burglars Sunday night during the absence of the family at church. A gold watch and cuff buttons, studs, chain and revolver were taken.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Hoag, of Inkerman, died yesterday. Funeral tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

The Pittston Athletic team will engage in a match game of foot ball with the Kingston Seminary eleven on the West Side grounds Thanksgiving day.

A dispatch received here Sunday evening by Mrs. Ellen Conroy conveyed the sad announcement that her son, Thomas H., was killed near Richmond, Va., while at work on the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Petersburg railroad. He was aged 35 years. The body will be brought here for interment.

James Kane, aged 52 years, a well known resident of this place, died yesterday at his home on South Main street. The funeral will occur Thursday morning.

Patrick Carney, aged 17 years, of Brown town, employed in No. 9 shaft of the Pennsylvania Coal company, received injuries while going to work yesterday morning that, it is feared, will prove fatal. Young Carney, as has been his custom, boarded the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad "special" that is run every morning for the accommodation of the workmen. The train slacked up near No. 8 breaker for the purpose of letting some workmen alight. Carney was observed hanging to a fastening attached to one end of the cars. Either through being jostled off or losing his grip, he fell on the rail and the wheels of the car passed over the left arm and right leg almost severing them. The unfortunate lad was conveyed in the company's ambulance to the hospital. Both members were amputated. The condition of the boy is extremely critical. Carney was the only support of a widowed mother.

Monday afternoon 250 men were put to work on the Pittston, Avoca and Jenkins Suburban line. Work was commenced at Hughes town on the Smithville road and is being pushed rapidly between here and Avoca. The tracks will follow the Smithville road as far as the top of William street, down William street to Fulton, out Fulton to Broad, down Broad to Main, where they will connect with the main line.

"Kentuck," a melo-drama of much merit, will be offered to the patrons of Music Hall as a Thanksgiving attraction by Manager McDougall. There will be a matinee in the afternoon.

The marriage of George Dorbad and Miss Libbie Croner took place in St. Mary's church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock with a nuptial mass. Rev. William Brehl was the officiating clergyman. The bride was attended by her sister, Jacob Goham was the groom's best man. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties, many of whom were from Honesdale, Albany, Fort Jervis, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and Plymouth. At the close of the ceremony an elaborate wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride. At the close of the dinner festivities Mr. Dorbad and his bride left on an extended wedding tour.

The remains of Miss Mary Conway, who died in St. Vincent's hospital Sunday, were brought here yesterday and interred in the Market Street Catholic cemetery. Peter and Frank Conway, brothers of the deceased, accompanied the body from New York. There were many persons present from out of town, among whom was noticed ex-Sheriff O'Malley, of Wilkes-Barre; Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Brown, Mrs. M. P. Wynnis and Mrs. M. Brown, all of Scranton.

HONESDALE.

It was learned here yesterday that ex-Senator Rooney, of Susquehanna, had received the appointment of deputy collector of Wayne, Pike and Susquehanna counties. It is plainly evident that Wayne county will receive few, if any, of the choice political plums. Perhaps (but it is very doubtful) a few of the culms may fall to Wayne as its share.

An eagle was brought to Honesdale yesterday that measured seven feet six inches from tip to tip of its wings. It was alive, having been shot at Tanner's Falls, this county, and wounded in the wing.

The hop of the Amity Social club at the armory this evening will be one of the principal social events of the season. A large and jolly crowd will be in attendance.

AVOCA.

Miss Anna Cranston, of Wilkes-Barre, spent Sunday with her parents of this place.

Misses Jennie Whyte and Carrie Macdonald will represent Langeliffe Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at the convention in Carbondale on Friday. Fare from Avoca for the round trip, 70 cents.

Rev. G. N. Makley, of Brooklyn, N. Y., pastor of the Cumberland Avenue Presbyterian church, delivered two excellent sermons in the Presbyterian church of this place on Sunday. Rev. Makley is gaining a reputation in the city of churches as a pastor and worker. Mr. Makley will speak at the tri-county Christian Endeavor convention to be held in Carbondale on Friday. He and his wife are visiting the latter's parents at Kingston.

Miss Ida Williamson, of Pittston.

Sale of "Queer People" Nos. 2 and 3 will open on Saturday at 9 a. m. No. 1 will close on that day. If you haven't secured No. 1 be sure and send your orders before that date. Price, 10c.; by mail, 12c.

spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Cranston.

Miss Lillie John, of Richmondale, is visiting relatives in town.

Don't forget prayer meeting to be held in the Presbyterian church tonight.

James Anderson was a visitor at Pittston yesterday.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the Presbyterian church tomorrow morning at 10.30.

TUNKHANNOCK.

J. A. Dorr, of Forkston, was in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. De Witt Field, of Scranton, are guests of Miss Lizzie Bower.

The remains of Austin Moore, of Scranton, are expected to arrive on train No. 12 today (Wednesday). They will be taken in charge by Undertaker Streetet who will convey them to Sunnyside cemetery for burial. Mr. Moore was never a resident of this place, but was so charmed with the beauties of our vale on a recent visit here that he bought a lot in Sunnyside as a permanent place.

E. C. Sharpe, of Jenningsville, was calling on acquaintances here Tuesday. Dr. Schaeffer, state superintendent of public instruction; Superintendent J. M. Coughlin, of Luzerne; Professor George Bible, of East Stroudsburg State Normal school; Professor S. H. Albro, of Mansfield State Normal, and other prominent instructors, have been engaged by Superintendent Asa S. Keeler for the coming county institute. The institute will be held the week commencing Dec. 10.

Among the Tunkhannock representatives at the tri-county Christian Endeavor convention at Carbondale Friday will be Miss Rena Van Meter, Dexter Prevost, Willie Platt, Arthur Baldwin, George Kitzridge and Ed Purdon.

E. P. Avery has a magnificent display of chrysanthemums in his green house on Gravel Hill. He is very generous with his flowers and his neighbors enjoy them with him.

The funeral of Judge Palmer Jenkins occurs today (Wednesday) at his late residence on Slocum street. Rev. George Hine, pastor of the Baptist church, will officiate, assisted by Rev. S. C. Hodge, of the Presbyterian church. The remains will be interred at Sunnyside.

S. D. Streeter is expected home from Cornell university to spend Thanksgiving.

The school directors of Monroe township took formal possession of the handsome new school building at Beaumont Monday, and school was opened in it that day. The school is divided into three grades.

It is rumored that a new oil well will be bored in the vicinity of well No. 1, at Jenningsville, instead of putting the well at Forkston down deeper.

Farmers who drive into town are so careless about hitching their teams to shade trees that property owners can scarcely get a tree to grow. There is a borough ordinance levying a fine of 25¢ for such offenses. If the fine were imposed a few times it might stop the practice.

CARBONDALE.

This evening in the Baptist chapel the Junior Christian Endeavor society will hold an entertainment. Refreshments will be served. Admission to the entertainment, 10 cents; refreshments free. All are welcome.

Mrs. James Walsh, of Powderly street, died on Monday evening. Deceased came to Carbondale as a bride about one year ago.

Thanksgiving day at Alumni park a game of foot ball will be played between the Carbondale team and a team from Pittston.

A woman's prayer meeting will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Davis, of 24 Drummond avenue.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Coyne died yesterday morning and the remains were interred in St. Rose cemetery in the afternoon.

Percy Lane, a former Carbondale resident, but who has been absent from the city about two years, has returned and secured a position with Contractor G. H. Tryon.

The Alhambra Social club will hold a social on Thanksgiving evening.

Miss Maud Daley, of Salem avenue, will spend Thanksgiving with her friend, Miss Edith Softley, in Scranton.

Mrs. H. J. Hockenberry, of Salem avenue, is entertaining her sister, Mrs. M. C. Stephenson, of Pittsburg.

Miss Lena Bronson has returned to her home on Canaan street from a visit with relatives in Sidney, N. Y.

NICHOLSON.

Charlie Capwell, son of Mrs. John Niver, is very ill of typhoid fever.

G. H. Hinkley has purchased the Riskey building joining the Nicholson House.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Williams, Mrs. Sarah Lambkin and Mrs. Hattie Horton go to Weatherly, Pa., today to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. George Heminger.

Ed. Steele and Miss Huldah Brecht will be married today at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage by Rev. E. VanWert.

Will Lilius has accepted a position at Brockton, Mass.

H. D. Tiffany, who broke his ankle Saturday last, is doing nicely.

PRICEBURG.

A raffle for turkeys will be held at Thomas Logan's hotel in Priceburg tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock sharp.

The Polish church of this place will be dedicated tomorrow. All of the Polish societies of the county will be present.

The Ladies' Aid society of this place will hold a turkey supper in the Primitive Methodist church and the proceeds will go for the benefit of the church.

George Bailey is doing nicely and will be around again in a few days.

There will be a fair for the benefit of St. Thomas' church during the holidays.

Mother's! Mother's! Mother's! Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

ELMHURST.

A rare musical treat will be given on Wednesday evening in Bauman's hall by the Martin quartette and Professor Elijah Stevens, of Jermyn. An enjoyable evening is anticipated, as these gentlemen have more than a local reputation for musical ability. The Martin brothers have figured prominently in recent musical festivals and Professor Stevens as leader of Jermyn Citizen's band and winner of first prize at the contest in Laurel Hill park in September needs only to be mentioned in addition to the Martin quartette to insure a full house. Programme: Quartette, "In Silent Mead," Martin brothers; song, "Tillie Me a Man With an Honest Heart," Archie Martin; duet, "The Sinking Ship," John and Thomas Martin; cornet solo (selected), Professor Stevens; song, "Dear Friends of Old," John Martin; quartette, "Hail Smiling Morn," Martin brothers; song, "The Noble Boy of Truth," Thomas Martin; duet, "The Pilot Brave," R. H. and Archie Martin; cornet solo, Professor Stevens; quartette, "O, Who Will O'er the Downs," Martin brothers; song, "A Southern Home," R. H. Martin; trio (selected), John, R. H. and Thomas Martin; song, "Uncle Pete," Archie Stevens; quartette, "Sleep on Thy Pillow," Martin brothers.

CLARK'S GREEN.

Mrs. Benjamin Mead is just recovering from a severe sickness.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church have billed the surrounding vicinity for a sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner, to consist of turkey with all its usual accompaniments, for those who dine, and oysters in various styles for those who sup. You can save yourselves the trouble of hard work by attending this Thanksgiving entertainment and also aid a worthy cause.

Mrs. B. T. Stanton is reported as having arrived safe at her home in Bozeman, Mont.

Miss Clara Smith, who has been under the doctor's care for some time past, still remains the same.

Mrs. J. W. Rhodes has recovered from her recent illness.

Chas. Hendricks is pushing his large exclusive stable to completion with all possible dispatch.

Mrs. A. F. Rhodes, who recently removed into her old home from Avoca, has so far recovered as to be able to be about the house.

Messrs. Fraze and Parker have their store at the Summit now well under way, and all things favorable, will occupy it in the very near future.

Cured of Catarrh

Feels Like A New Woman Since Taking Hood's Indigestion and Sick Headaches Also Relieved.

"I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla since last December for indigestion, catarrh and sick headache, and it has made me feel like a new woman. When I commenced taking it I did not have any appetite and for years I had to be very careful about my diet. Now I can eat any kind of food without any distress afterwards. I had a severe case of catarrh, and this with my indigestion brought on frequent attacks of sick headache. They bothered me very much. But since taking several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla All Is Changed.

It has cured me of catarrh and my other troubles. I hope every one similarly afflicted will try Hood's Sarsaparilla and be convinced of its merit." Miss ELLA JOHNSON, 1215 Alder Street, Philadelphia, Penn.
